

AUTO ON CONTINENT LOTS OF FUN

AMERICAN TOURIST WRITES FROM PARIS OF JOYS OF AUTOMOBILING.

The Atlantic ocean is no longer a barrier for the motorist who desires to tour Europe in his own car. It is possible to ship one's automobile to the continent as readily as a trunk, with the comfortable assurance that it will be skillfully handled and ready waiting on the dock in perfect condition. On the ships of the Hamburg-American line, for example, special compartments are set aside for automobiles, where the cars may be securely fastened down against the motion of the ship. Powerful derricks make it possible to lift the heaviest car and swing it aboard or ashore like a suit case. The following letter from an American motorist published in the European edition of a New York newspaper, gives a vivid picture of the delights of foreign motoring at this season.

"The experience of myself, wife and young son in traveling over Germany since July 1, may prove worth the telling. It is thus:

"After a delightful tour of Holland, we stopped at Bremen, Berlin, Dresden, Munich, Oberammergau, Vienna, Budapest, Nürnberg, Heidelberg, Wiesbaden, Frankfurt and Cologne.

"For the few days past spent in Paris, being stirred by the letters of complaining travelers, I have tried to catalogue the imposition suffered by my party, and with this finding:

"We did not in a single instance in all Germany proper nor in Austria (Vienna and Budapest), encounter extortion or unwell treatment, whether on the rail, at the hotel or in the shop.

"Hotel men at every point received us kindly and gave us the rate we felt able to pay.

"The German porters at every 'Bahnhof' and hotel were quick to serve, and never scowled at the tip.

"At the Continental hotel, Berlin, we occupied two rooms for three persons, 12 marks ($3) a day for the whole; at the Grand in Vienna, at the Grand hotel, Budapest, our lodging was $1 per day each. These are simple hotel experiences. At Wiesbaden we lived luxuriously (Hotel Imperial), $2 a day each, full board. The pensions we stopped at were fair always and gave good value.

"In Berlin a small tradesman ran two blocks to return us a few cents which he said he had overcharged. Repeatedly men, and women too, walked distances to keep us on the right path.

"Courtesies received in the gardens and galleries of Munich and at other points can never be forgotten. The Germans did not 'throw a fit' when answering a question or doing a kindness, but they respond sincerely and show you along to the best of their ability.

"The Fatherland is a region of transcendent charm. The American who can afford the very reasonable cost incurred in touring Germany, robs himself of an experience for which no substitute exists.

"France and England are quite as good to see, so is America, but the map of the world holds but one Germany.

"Paris. JOHN R. KENDRICK."

MISSOULA COPPER STRIKE CONFIRMED

Further word was received yesterday by local stockholders in the Missoula Copper Mining company, regarding the new strike in their property near Millan. The letters and telegrams which came yesterday were in confirmation of the news of the day before, except that the quality of the new ore body has been established as of higher grade than had been estimated earlier. The drift is in ore, top, sides and bottom and the experts say that the entire ore body will average 6 to 7 1/2 per cent. The ore is being saved, as it is too good to throw upon the old dump. Preparations are being made to build a winter camp for 30 men at the mine and development will go ahead rapidly.

UNIVERSITY FRESHMEN ELECT THEIR OFFICERS

The freshman class at the university held its first meeting in Convocation hall yesterday afternoon and selected officers to guide it through the first year of its existence. The following were chosen: Walter Small of Butte, president; Friday, vice president; Miss Bessie Rhoades of Missoula, secretary, and James Brown of Phillipsburg, treasurer. The rivalry between the freshman and sophomore classes is very intense this year. A gonouise rush was held Tuesday night and yesterday evening the sophomores abducted one of the freshman leaders just before the meeting.

CLOUDBURST.
Wallace, Sept. 21.—(Special).—A cloudburst on Sunset peak washed away one prospector's cabins and winter supplies, tore up the fine roads in had shape and made a stream of water eight feet deep that tore down Granite and Cedar creeks, doing damage to property along the creek banks. The cloudburst was a phenomena that has not been experienced in this district in 30 years.

CHIEF CLERK WILL SOLVE MYSTERY

H. H. TAVENNER IS SENT FOR TO WORK OUT PUGET SOUND MYSTERY.

The final step in the solving of the Puget Sound robbery was taken by the officers of the company yesterday, when they wired to Cordova, Ill., for Chief Clerk Tavenner to return to the city. Mr. Tavenner has a wide reputation for his detective ability and it is thought that he can speedily unravel the ball of mystery which now enmeshes the case. Mr. Tavenner gained his renown along sleuthing lines during the search for a roamer who tapped the safe in Moline, Ill., and got away with $2,000 in cash and an eight-carat diamond stud. Mr. Tavenner thought for several days over the case and his mind kept constantly coming back to a certain man against whom there was no proof and no real reason for suspicion. Mr. Tavenner did not reveal his suspicions to anyone, as he knew he would be ridiculed, but kept up a vigilant watch on his suspect. Several weeks later Tavenner, who was lurking under a tree opposite the man's house, saw him leave by the side door and climb over the garden fence into the neighboring yard. He crept stealthily nearer and peering through a crack in the fence saw the man dig up a cache under a geranium vine, where he had secreted the loot. Tavenner leaped over the fence and throttled him into submission. He then took him to the city jail. The man was arrested, convicted, and "Tav" received a $500 reward and a Carnegie medal.

Tavenner is expected in Missoula on Friday of this week.

MILLIONAIRE'S WILL IS ATTACKED

STEP-CHILDREN OF THE LATE
GEORGE CROCKER FIGHT
COLUMBIA BEQUEST.

New York, Sept. 21.—The right of Columbia college to property worth nearly $1,000,000, bequeathed to it for a cancer research fund by the late George Crocker, the California millionaire, who died in this city on December 4, 1909, was attacked today, when Crocker's step-children applied to the supreme court for an injunction to prevent the executors of the millionaire's will from selling the property pending the decision as to their right to the property.

In his will, George Crocker ordered the sale of a house on East Sixty-fourth street and the money thus realized to be turned over to Columbia college for a cancer research fund, Alexander H. Rutherford, Alice Erving and Ella Rutherford Kearney, Crocker's step-children, now sue Nelson Thell, John Hayes Hammond and Edgar C. A POPULAR LAMENT.

Where Would Society Be If One Was Judged for the Sins of Others? "Oh, I tried one of those hair tonics sometime ago and it never did me a bit of good." Newbro's Herpicide is specially made to destroy the germ that is living on the roots of your hair. That is why it is so exceedingly efficacious—it is there for the sole purpose of ridding the hair of this parasitic growth, after which the hair grows as nature intended. Sold by leading druggists.
