

DOCTOR IS FINED FOR CONTEMPT

DR. HAYWARD OF DARBY, AFTER SELLING BUSINESS, CONTINUED TO PRACTICE.

Hamilton, Jan. 11.—(Special).—Dr. Herbert Hayward of Darby was adjudged guilty of contempt of court in the district court late yesterday, his punishment being fixed by Judge Myers at a fine of $50. Before pronouncing sentence Judge Myers gave the erring doctor a fatherly talk, advising him to abide by the mandate of courts in the future. He also admonished him to govern his actions at Darby in accordance with the court's injunction, restraining him from the practice of medicine at that place, as a second offense would be followed by a more severe penalty. In other words, he was told to return to Darby and be good.

The case yesterday followed an injunction issued some time ago restraining Dr. Hayward from the practice of medicine at Darby, it being shown in the district court that he had disposed of his practice to H. E. Hamill, but still continued to "doctor the sick" in and about Darby. Following the issuance of the injunction he still kept his "shingle" displayed and answered calls. On complaint of Dr. Hamill he was brought before Judge Myers yesterday to show cause why he should not be adjudged guilty of contempt of court.

HAMILTON PLEASSED BY PRODUCTION

GOOD ACTING AND TUNEFUL SONGS MAKE "THE LITTLE TYCOON" ATTRACTIVE.

Hamilton, Jan. 11.—(Special).—A large audience witnessed the production, "The Little Tycoon," at the Lucas opera house last night. The comic opera was staged by local theatrical talent, which has been under training for some time. Ira Hamilton directed the work, his careful training showing to good advantage in the pleasing work of the entire cast. The music of the opera is delightfully tuneful, and in the hands of Mrs. G. A. Gordon, Mrs. Peter Gertz, Messrs. W. McLellan, Freitag and Anson, and a fine large chorus, the musical numbers were the hit of the evening. Mr. McLellan's deep bass voice was at its best in the solo numbers allotted to him. Mrs. G. A. Gordon's soprano voice was as much of a delight as usual, all of her numbers being received with enthusiasm.

The performance last evening was marred by a blunder on the part of the stage hands, the curtain being prematurely lowered on the last act in the midst of a solo and the closing chorus. Many in the audience left the hall wondering at the abrupt ending, while behind the scenes the guilty curtain man was busy dodging a riot.

The production was repeated this evening to an audience slightly smaller than the first one. The show was given for the benefit of the Presbyterian organ fund.

ODEA'S MESSAGE

Bluff City, Kan., a town of 300 people, has the most breathing space per capita of any place in the world. The park area is 18 acres, which gives 17 people to the acre. Ten of the 18 acres are developed. And here is the interesting part of the situation. The people, through contributions, entertainments and personal work, maintain the park system. Once a year, "park day" everybody turns out and "fixes up." Of course a regular attendant is kept throughout the year, but there is a custom that everyone must give one day's work in each year. Their park system is one of the finest in the country and affords a wonderful example of what a prairie city can do in forestry and gardening.

Here in Montana, while our cities are young and in the making we must plan against a parkless future. Every town, however small, needs a park. And as it grows with the Treasure state, it will find, if it has been wise in its youth, that its parks will be of great value.

FINE

Wallace, Jan. 11.—(Special).—The sheriff's office of Shoshone county collected $100,000 more in the past two years, under J. F. The total collections reached $135,000.

WAKELEY NOT GUILTY SAYS HAMILTON JURY

Hamilton, Jan. 11.—(Special).—William Wakeley, proprietor of the Union Bar, was hailed before Justice E. C. Whaley this afternoon and tried on the charge of running a saloon without a license. He was found not guilty by the jury. In the last term of the district court Wakeley was found guilty of running a gambling game in his place of business and was fined $1,000 and given three months in the County Jail. Upon his motion for a new trial the court issued a stay of execution, Wakeley having since continued to run his business. The state law prescribes that a saloon keeper's license is automatically revoked when he is convicted of gambling, hence Wakeley's arrest. This is the second time he has been arrested for the same offense, the jury having found him guilty of the first. That case was appealed to the district court and will come up for trial January 24.

SHIP SUBSIDY BILL MAY PASS SENATE

Washington, Jan. 11.—Senator Gallinger today addressed the senate in support of his new ship subsidy bill, which is designed to encourage the establishment of American lines between ports of the United States on both the Atlantic and Pacific coasts to the countries of South America. This business is now in the hands of European lines.

When Mr. Gallinger had finished, Senator Hale predicted that the measure would pass the senate without difficulty.

AT THE ISIS

The management of the Isis wishes to announce that the offering for tonight is a strictly comedy program, two full reels of comedy being shown. "The Joke They Played on Bumptious" is the headliner. This film tells about the new experience of Bumptious, who is drinking his first cocktails. His comrades persuade him that his actions are really disgraceful, but a kindly steward comes along and informs Bumptious that the cocktails were really harmless ginger ale, so Bumptious decides it's time for the joke to be on the other side. So taking a poker, he proceeds to act drunk and smash everything in sight. Then he walks out and leaves the astonished jokers to pay the appalling bill for damages occasioned by their scheme.

"The Animated Arm Chair" is another reel of clean fun. "A Coconut Plantation" is educational. "A Cowboy's Vindication" is a strong western drama.

Mr. Weaverling is the first manager in the city to install the thorough lighting system. The house at all times is light enough for the audience to find seats, and to distinguish friends across the house. This new feature will be welcomed by every one attending a picture show. The Isis theater orchestra still attracts large crowds by its excellent music. Ed Levasseur is heard only at the Isis in the latest songs, both illustrated and sacred.

Mr. Weaverling wants to announce to his patrons the coming feature of the year: "Il Trovatore," besides famous opera, acted by the famous Italian actors and actresses of the Royal opera house of Naples, Italy. This picture is beautifully colored and special music has been arranged to fit each scene. The coloring of this film and the acting make a masterpiece of modern moving pictures. This picture is coming at an early date.
