PROTEST IS FILED BY SLAVONIANS

SLAVS OF CHICAGO WANT AP- PONY'S INVITATION TO SPEAK WITHDRAWN. Chicago, Feb. 15.—Decided opposition has been raised by Bohemian, Slovak and Polish editors and citizens of Chicago to the invitation extended Count Albert G. Apponyi, former Hungarian minister of education, to speak on "Universal Peace" at the Washington birthday-day celebration here. A memorial was presented today to Chairman Alexander A. McCormick of the Union League club's special committee in charge of the celebration, signed by editors of all papers in Chicago printed in the interest of Slavic people, asking that the invitation be withdrawn. The protest was received by Chairman McCormick and came almost simultaneously with a message from Count Apponyi regretting the Hungarian's inability to accept the club's invitation to speak. Count Apponyi said other engagements would prevent his being in Chicago to take part in the celebration. "This, of course, obviates any necessity of taking action on the protest," said Chairman McCormick. "We had invited the count to speak here. The invitation was extended after a committee meeting at which representatives of nearly all European races in Chicago were present, and no delegate from the Slovaks expressed any objection when the name was presented." The reason assigned in the memorial, copies of which also were forwarded to Theodore Roosevelt and Andrew Carnegie, are, briefly, that the count is "representative of Hungarian governmental tyranny," and, as minister of education, "led the opposition of Slovaks in that kingdom." The memorial says: "We, the editors of the Slavic dailies and weeklies published in Chicago, as the representatives of Chicago citizens of Slavic origin, while approving the plan to celebrate the memory of George Washington by a mammoth meeting, at which all citizens of foreign birth are to be invited, deem it our duty, as liberty-loving citizens, to object to the presence of Count Apponyi at that meeting. Our protest against him is based on the following fact: "Count Apponyi, as minister of education, was responsible for the fustillade at Ceranova, where many Slovak peasants died innocently. His report in the Bulgarian parliament, made after the massacre, that 'there is peace in the village' rather entitles him to be the propagator of the peace of death" than of the high ideal of "universal peace." "The 3,000,000 Slovaks are not allowed to read or write in their mother tongue in the public schools, which is the cause of a degree of illiteracy among this people. "Outrage on Freedom. "There are more than 500,000 citizens of Slavic origin resident in Chicago. In the name of all these Chicagoans, we protest the outrage on freedom and liberty which would be perpetrated if a representative of tyranny were permitted to address this meeting." Former President Roosevelt was sent a copy of the petition, on the ground that he, as a speaker and generally understood to be responsible for the Hungarian's invitation, might heed the plea and refuse to speak with Apponyi. Carnegie's copy was the result of the ironmaster's interest in the subject of the count's address, "Universal Peace." Twenty Slavic newspapers were represented in the signers. NOTHING DEVELOPS IN DANVILLE

DANVILLE, Ill., Feb. 15.—Nothing developed today to show why the grand jury yesterday decided to dispense with the advice and presence of State's Attorney John H. Lewman during the remainder of their vote-selling investigation, but it is rumored he has not lent enthusiastic support to the work of securing evidence. Judge Kimbrough said no application or suggestion had been made to him by the grand jury or Lewman for the appointment of a special prosecutor. George B. Weisiger, a young law student, member of the jury, is now conducting the examination of witnesses and it is said will continue in that capacity. Several witnesses were examined in the vote selling inquiry and others were summoned for tomorrow. AMERICAN THREAD COMPANY MUST PAY TAX IN ENGLAND Dover, Feb. 15.—Justice Hamilton, sitting in the King's bench division of the court of justice, today rendered a decision that the American Thread company, incorporated under the laws of the state of New Jersey, was liable to an income tax assessment in this country on profits amounting to $900,000. The justice held that although the mills and business of the company were in America the fact that most of the common stock was held here and the directors in England were highly concerned with the direction of its affairs, brought the concern within the provisions of the British income tax law. Sacramento, Cal., Feb. 15.—The supreme court of the state of California demanded today an investigation by the legislature into the charges which have been circulated in connection with its decision of the case of Abraham Roof, in which a rehearing was granted. This action followed the publication of a letter written by United States Senator-elect John D. Works, asking why, if "charges" made by the attorney general in his brief for an appeal were true, Justice Henshaw had not been impeached by the legislature. The petition of the court was referred to the committee on rules. It is signed by all the justices except Shaw, who, a postscript says, can not be reached. SHOOTING CAUSED BY ACCIDENT

MAN CONFESSES TO WOUNDING DINING CAR CONDUCTOR UNINTENTIONALLY. Colfax, Wash., Feb. 15.—Sheriff G. B. Carter of this county arrived here today with a man giving the name of John W. Burns, and who, the authorities claim, has confessed to the shooting of D. L. Reeder, a dining car conductor at Lewiston Junction, last Monday. The man gave his age as 25 years, and said that his parents live in Marshall county, Indiana, near Walkertown and Tysar. According to the alleged confession, Burns claims he was very hungry and seeing the dining car on a siding broke into it and while in the act of getting something to eat, the conductor entered the car. In opening the door the conductor pushed it against the man, and this, he claims, discharged his revolver. The bullet, which wounded Reeder over the heart, passed through the panel of the door.
