

GAMES MUST STOP SAYS MULRONEY

COUNTY ATTORNEY PUTS BAN ON ALL DICE GAMES IN CITY AND COUNTY.

County Attorney Mulroney has issued an order that all dice games now running in Missoula and Missoula county must stop at once. The following letter to Sheriff W. L. Kelley explains itself:

"Complaint has been made to me regarding dice shaking in saloons, cigar stores and pool halls in Missoula, not only by men, but in numerous instances by boys also in cigar stores and pool halls. My information is that this practice is prevalent in most of these places.

"Dice shaking in any form for drinks, cigars, or any other representative of value, is expressly prohibited by section 8416 of the revised codes. Will you therefore notify all keepers of such places in the city and county at once that such practices are unlawful and after such notice if there are any further violations of this law arrest the offenders?"

"I have observed also that in some cigar stores slot machines are being operated. The same section also expressly prohibits this. You will please take the same action in regard to any places, cigar stores or otherwise, in the city and county, where such machines are operated.

"Very truly yours,
EDW. C. MULRONEY,
County Attorney."

ALUMNI FEAST AND MAKE MERRY

feel so, for you can look upon this campus and upon the work which the university has done during the past year as partly the result of your own toil. The alumni of the university have done nobly. We all appreciate thoroughly your work during the fall just past in behalf of the constitutional amendment, and I know that all of you have been laboring earnestly at drawing new students to your alma mater. You are making the people of the state understand the university. You are making them say 'I am going to live in Montana, mix with Montana people and get my education in Montana's university.' This excess of endeavor which is manifest in the summer campaign for students is only temporary. In two or three years we will have got our start, then all that you will need to do will be to keep interested.

"For the good of the whole." Anything which is good for a part is good for the whole. The development of one department in an institution of learning is good for the whole institution. For instance, next year we are going to start a law department. Most of our energy will be directed toward that department and I am sure that it will infuse in the whole school a spirit of industry and life.

"Get Into Politics." There is one thing in particular which I want to urge upon you alumni. Get into politics. As many as possible of you should interest yourselves actively in politics, for the future of this university is tied up in the politics of the state. It is up to you to do your part. Mr. Blake's name has already been mentioned. He is an example of what the university alumni should do. Mr. Blake was of invaluable service to the university during the last session of the legislature. He worked hard and all of the time. He went to every committee meeting, asking, demanding help for the university; and on the floor of the house and in the committee rooms he fought unflinchingly for the good of his alma mater. That is what must be done, all of the time. So please get into politics; not for personal interest but for the public good.

"I would like to tell you a few facts about the last meeting of the state board of education, just to show you what the prospects for the future are. The board has approved of a plan for a scientific survey of the state by the university—a thorough survey in every way. It has also endorsed, again in the cause of science, the erection of a building of natural history at the university, possibly within the next two years. It has set the seal of approval on a plan for the development of the department of education into a school of education and on a course in preventive medicine which will be the seed for a future medical department. This is remarkable. It shows a change in attitude which is revolutionary. A member of the board said to me last week, 'Dr. Dunway, these things which the board is doing today would have been impossible three years ago.'

"You are responsible for this new attitude. You men and women are the University of Montana. You must make it a power in the state; you must make it respected and looked up to. I feel sure of you. I know that you will do this for the good of the whole, that you will work for the university, not only for it as the university itself but for it as a contributing part of a great commonwealth, as an asset of the state of Montana."

Frank A. Day, editor of the Missoula Sentinel, was then introduced. Mr. Day spoke eloquently on his topic, "Impressions of a New Man." He was lavish in his praise of the university and of Dr. Dunway. He spoke enthusiastically of the work of the institution and of its influence upon the city of Missoula. It was a good speech and was well received.

President Wheeler arrived while the banquet was still in progress and at the solicitation of Mr. Jones spoke briefly to the alumni. "I am glad to be here tonight because I feel that this is Dr. Dunway's university. That is the reason that I came here, because it is his undertaking. And he will make a success of it. He makes a success of everything he undertakes. If the people of this state are slow about making appropriations for this university he will hurry them up. He will make them give the money or explain why they do not. This state had better make the necessary appropriations now, for if they don't they will have to make some uncomfortable explanations. President Dunway is a man with a keen sense of right, who heaves straight to the line, who plows a straight furrow. I was glad to hear him urge you to get into politics. It is the duty of every American to be interested in politics. You hear too often the excuse that 'I have dropped out of politics,' my wife has asked me to get out of politics. I have agreed with my partner to keep out of politics." That is just the reason that politics and politicians have come to be evil names in this country. You are trained here at the cost of the state with the final object that you may become citizens, and the true citizen is a politician.

Miss Florence E. Thiene responded briefly to the toast, "Roundup," and, after singing "College Chums," the meeting adjourned.

TEDDY GETS SLAM FROM RAYNER

MARYLAND SENATOR HAS A FEW CAUSTIC THINGS TO SAY TO ROOSEVELT.

Washington, June 7.—In presenting to the senate his final plea in support of the election of senators by the direct vote of the people, Senator Rayner of Maryland today once more paid his respects to former President Roosevelt. He said the former president had the "peculiar faculty" of getting on and off platforms "with alacrity."

"No other individual in the United States has the genius that he has in this connection," said Mr. Rayner. "He can make a statement one day and absolutely deny it the next, and people seem to believe him both times; he can stand on two platforms, each radically differing from the other, and then deny that he stood on either of them. He can coquette with both political parties and then start a party of his own whose doctrines and policies consist of unconstitutional impossibilities."

Referring to the railroad rate bill Rayner said Mr. Roosevelt had himself changed from his own position over night. "You must die where you stand," the former president was quoted as saying to him.

"The next day when the vote was taken," said the senator, "I stood to my colors and died where I stood. Just as I was about dying, however, I looked around for the president who had promised to die with me, but he had neither died nor retreated. On the contrary, I never saw anyone more constructively alive."

TURNED LOOSE. In the district court yesterday the case against Edward Gendrow was dismissed, but his brother Henry will be tried for burglary. It is a reservation case.

Read Mrs. Herrick's Sworn Statement

(STATE OF NEW YORK)
County of Moscow: ss.
Nancy A. Herrick, being duly sworn, deposes and says: When I was a girl, I had a head of heavy, long dark brown hair which was the envy of my schoolmates, and which attracted the attention and remarks of strangers. As I grew older, my hair commenced to come out, just a little at first, but gradually more and more, and then began to turn gray. I was induced by the many good reports I had heard of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy to try a bottle. My hair was quite thin and gray when I began using Sage and Sulphur, and you can imagine my satisfaction when I found that it was fast coming back to its natural condition, being thicker, darker, and more glossy than it had been for a long time. I continued to use Sage and Sulphur, and my hair is now as heavy, dark and smooth as when I was a girl sixteen. It is now four years since I commenced using Sage and Sulphur, and my hair is still in splendid condition.
