

LONDON IS GAY MORE SEAMEN FOR COMING ABANDON SHIPS EVENT

STREETS ARE ABLAZE WITH FIVE HUNDRED MORE MEN DE-COLOR IN HONOR OF THE KING'S CORONATION. BERT VESSELS IN THE RAR-BOR OF NEW YORK.

FEW SEATS ARE UNSOLD STRIKERS ARE JOYFUL

Special Envoys From Countries of the World Will Arrive in the Capital Tomorrow and Will Be Met in State—Royalty Begins to Gather—Musical Rehearsals Are Held.

London, June 17.—On the eve of coronation week London is ablaze with color. A few days ago the aspect of the streets suggested a city in splinters, so vast was the area of bare timber. All this has been transformed with paint and hanging fabrics.

Early in the week the last of the royal delegates will arrive and London will then contain as distinguished a company as ever gathered in any capital.

Others to be involved. General Secretary Griffin of the Seamen's union said tonight that a greater measure of success than he had hoped for had crowned the strikers' first day's efforts.

Monday will witness the arrival of sador of the United States, will make special ambassadors from abroad.

Los Angeles, June 17.—An attack on the validity of the indictments will be made when Bert Conners, A. B. Maple and F. Ira Bender, the union men accused of having attempted to dynamite the county hall of records, are brought into court next Wednesday to plead.

Nome, Alaska, June 17.—A stampede has started to the Good News bay district south of the Kuskokwim, where rich placer ground has been discovered.

Amoy, China, June 17.—Eighty-three deaths from the bubonic plague and seven deaths from smallpox were reported in this vicinity during the two weeks ended yesterday.

Butte, June 17.—(Special.)—Because Edward J. Russell, a miner, had no money when he was held up tonight by two highwaymen, who poked two guns into his face, they took his dinner bucket, saying they were hungry.

Seattle, June 17.—The famous old wooden sidewheeler steamer George E. Starr, the last boat of her class on Puget Sound, has been sold to Canadians and was towed to Vancouver today.

Gloucester, Mass., June 17.—American records for submerged runs were broken by the flotilla of seven submarines which arrived here today from Newport.

Washington, June 17.—Representative Warburton of Indiana introduced in the house today a bill placing sugar on the free list and increasing the revenue on manufactured tobacco.

Washington, June 17.—(Special.)—Joseph P. Smith of Salt Lake City, head of the Mormon church, must come to Washington to testify before the house committee investigating the so-called sugar trust, regarding his connection with the Utah-Idaho Sugar company.

Washington, June 17.—(Special.)—Announcement was made here today that the Wallace National bank, which institution recently was taken over by the Harry L. Day interests, would be moved into the banking house formerly used by the defunct State Bank of Commerce which closed its doors on May 12, last.

Washington, June 17.—(Special.)—Announcement was made here today that the Wallace National bank, which institution recently was taken over by the Harry L. Day interests, would be moved into the banking house formerly used by the defunct State Bank of Commerce which closed its doors on May 12, last.

Washington, June 17.—(Special.)—Announcement was made here today that the Wallace National bank, which institution recently was taken over by the Harry L. Day interests, would be moved into the banking house formerly used by the defunct State Bank of Commerce which closed its doors on May 12, last.

JOHN BULL LIKES THE CORONATION

CANAL BOND ISSUE SMITH IS ORDERED WALLACE NATIONAL OVER-SUBSCRIBED TO BE PRESENT MAY TAKE OVER BY BIDDERS AT HEARING DEFUNCT BANK

Washington, June 17.—The government's new 2 per cent $50,000,000 Panama loan was a complete success. More than 3,000 bids opened today over-subscribed it at least three times and probably more.

Washington, June 17.—(Special.)—Announcement was made here today that the Wallace National bank, which institution recently was taken over by the Harry L. Day interests, would be moved into the banking house formerly used by the defunct State Bank of Commerce which closed its doors on May 12, last.

Washington, June 17.—(Special.)—Announcement was made here today that the Wallace National bank, which institution recently was taken over by the Harry L. Day interests, would be moved into the banking house formerly used by the defunct State Bank of Commerce which closed its doors on May 12, last.

Washington, June 17.—(Special.)—Announcement was made here today that the Wallace National bank, which institution recently was taken over by the Harry L. Day interests, would be moved into the banking house formerly used by the defunct State Bank of Commerce which closed its doors on May 12, last.

Washington, June 17.—(Special.)—Announcement was made here today that the Wallace National bank, which institution recently was taken over by the Harry L. Day interests, would be moved into the banking house formerly used by the defunct State Bank of Commerce which closed its doors on May 12, last.

Washington, June 17.—(Special.)—Announcement was made here today that the Wallace National bank, which institution recently was taken over by the Harry L. Day interests, would be moved into the banking house formerly used by the defunct State Bank of Commerce which closed its doors on May 12, last.

Washington, June 17.—(Special.)—Announcement was made here today that the Wallace National bank, which institution recently was taken over by the Harry L. Day interests, would be moved into the banking house formerly used by the defunct State Bank of Commerce which closed its doors on May 12, last.

Washington, June 17.—(Special.)—Announcement was made here today that the Wallace National bank, which institution recently was taken over by the Harry L. Day interests, would be moved into the banking house formerly used by the defunct State Bank of Commerce which closed its doors on May 12, last.

Washington, June 17.—(Special.)—Announcement was made here today that the Wallace National bank, which institution recently was taken over by the Harry L. Day interests, would be moved into the banking house formerly used by the defunct State Bank of Commerce which closed its doors on May 12, last.

Washington, June 17.—(Special.)—Announcement was made here today that the Wallace National bank, which institution recently was taken over by the Harry L. Day interests, would be moved into the banking house formerly used by the defunct State Bank of Commerce which closed its doors on May 12, last.

Washington, June 17.—(Special.)—Announcement was made here today that the Wallace National bank, which institution recently was taken over by the Harry L. Day interests, would be moved into the banking house formerly used by the defunct State Bank of Commerce which closed its doors on May 12, last.

Washington, June 17.—(Special.)—Announcement was made here today that the Wallace National bank, which institution recently was taken over by the Harry L. Day interests, would be moved into the banking house formerly used by the defunct State Bank of Commerce which closed its doors on May 12, last.

Washington, June 17.—(Special.)—Announcement was made here today that the Wallace National bank, which institution recently was taken over by the Harry L. Day interests, would be moved into the banking house formerly used by the defunct State Bank of Commerce which closed its doors on May 12, last.

Washington, June 17.—(Special.)—Announcement was made here today that the Wallace National bank, which institution recently was taken over by the Harry L. Day interests, would be moved into the banking house formerly used by the defunct State Bank of Commerce which closed its doors on May 12, last.

TWO MEN ROB BANDITS SHOOT OREGON TRAIN AND INJURE OFFICER

BANDITS ENTER MAIL CAR AND COMPEL CLERKS TO HOLD UP THEIR HANDS. SUPPOSED ROBBERS ON OREGON SHORT LINE USE GUNS AND ESCAPE FROM TRAIN.

REGISTERED MAIL TAKEN BLOODHOUNDS ON TRAIL

When Work Is Done Robbers Compel Clerks to Stop Train in Town of Yoncalla, Where They Make Their Escape—Posses in Pursuit Believed to Have the Men Surrounded.

Drain, Ore., June 17.—Officers of three counties are searching for the bandits who rifled the mail car of the Southern Pacific company's fast passenger train known as the Shasta limited, shortly before midnight last night between Drain and Yoncalla.

Three mail clerks were engaged about their work just after the train pulled out of this place, when two men entered the forward door of the car, and pointing three revolvers at the clerks, ordered, "hands up!"

One of the robbers, evidently the leader, selected the mail sacks he wanted, while the other kept the clerks under his guns. The leader gathered the sacks into a heap near the door. The robbers then asked how far it was to Yoncalla and ordered one of the mail clerks to stop the train there for them.

Butte, June 17.—A posse of about 200 cowboys was in hot pursuit of the highwaymen who shot Conductor Kidd and Deputy Sheriff S. N. Melton and it was believed that they had them surrounded near High Bridge in very rough country, according to advices tonight from Spencer, Idaho.

Although a number of posses have scoured the country for many miles in each direction around the scene of the robbery no trace of the robbers has been found. The robbers seem to have found a good hiding place in the hills near here, but it is believed they will have considerable difficulty in getting out of the country.

The store of W. W. Kent at this place was robbed last night. Several suits of clothes, some suitcases, pistols and ammunition and other articles were taken by the thieves. It is believed that the men who robbed the mail car also broke into the store.

Detroit, June 17.—President Nevin of the Detroit Americans has put in a claim for Collins and Wagner, on whom Boston has asked waivers. He has plenty of good trading material and is ready to dicker for the Boston members. He wants Collins because he thinks he is a better left-hander than Mitchell, the only Detroit "southpaw" and Wagner would make a much better utility fielder than Lathers.

Washington, June 17.—Representative Kahn of California introduced in the house today a resolution which would provide for a thorough investigation of the army and which declares that the United States should be given an efficient fighting force in return for the $100,000,000 dollars and more expended every year on the military system.

Washington, June 17.—(Special.)—Announcement was made here today that the Wallace National bank, which institution recently was taken over by the Harry L. Day interests, would be moved into the banking house formerly used by the defunct State Bank of Commerce which closed its doors on May 12, last.

Washington, June 17.—(Special.)—Announcement was made here today that the Wallace National bank, which institution recently was taken over by the Harry L. Day interests, would be moved into the banking house formerly used by the defunct State Bank of Commerce which closed its doors on May 12, last.

Washington, June 17.—(Special.)—Announcement was made here today that the Wallace National bank, which institution recently was taken over by the Harry L. Day interests, would be moved into the banking house formerly used by the defunct State Bank of Commerce which closed its doors on May 12, last.

Washington, June 17.—(Special.)—Announcement was made here today that the Wallace National bank, which institution recently was taken over by the Harry L. Day interests, would be moved into the banking house formerly used by the defunct State Bank of Commerce which closed its doors on May 12, last.

Washington, June 17.—(Special.)—Announcement was made here today that the Wallace National bank, which institution recently was taken over by the Harry L. Day interests, would be moved into the banking house formerly used by the defunct State Bank of Commerce which closed its doors on May 12, last.

Washington, June 17.—(Special.)—Announcement was made here today that the Wallace National bank, which institution recently was taken over by the Harry L. Day interests, would be moved into the banking house formerly used by the defunct State Bank of Commerce which closed its doors on May 12, last.

Class Ad History XXIII.—SELLING LOTS. The Missoulian class ad is a good salesman. It has made some remarkable records in this line and here is one of them, which shows that there is merit in the contention that the class ad does business: SEVERAL GOOD LOTS IN SOUTH MISSOULA; must sell at once; make me an offer. For particulars address box 135, Hamilton, Mont. This ad cost 80 cents. When the advertiser paid The Missoulian's Hamilton manager, he said he had obtained many inquiries from the ad and that he found a purchaser on the fourth day the ad was printed. That was a cheap commission for the sale of the lots. The Missoulian class ad is inexpensive; it costs but one cent a word. If you're out of work and want a job, The Missoulian will print your ad for nothing.

SHOWING GIVES UNITED STATES THE BEST CREDIT IN THE ENTIRE WORLD.

HEAD OF MORMON CHURCH MUST TESTIFY IN SUGAR TRUST INVESTIGATION.

HARRY L. DAY INTERESTS TO ASSUME RESPONSIBILITIES OF STATE BANK.

Washington, June 17.—The government's new 2 per cent $50,000,000 Panama loan was a complete success. More than 3,000 bids opened today over-subscribed it at least three times and probably more.

Washington, June 17.—(Special.)—Announcement was made here today that the Wallace National bank, which institution recently was taken over by the Harry L. Day interests, would be moved into the banking house formerly used by the defunct State Bank of Commerce which closed its doors on May 12, last.

Washington, June 17.—(Special.)—Announcement was made here today that the Wallace National bank, which institution recently was taken over by the Harry L. Day interests, would be moved into the banking house formerly used by the defunct State Bank of Commerce which closed its doors on May 12, last.

Washington, June 17.—(Special.)—Announcement was made here today that the Wallace National bank, which institution recently was taken over by the Harry L. Day interests, would be moved into the banking house formerly used by the defunct State Bank of Commerce which closed its doors on May 12, last.

Washington, June 17.—(Special.)—Announcement was made here today that the Wallace National bank, which institution recently was taken over by the Harry L. Day interests, would be moved into the banking house formerly used by the defunct State Bank of Commerce which closed its doors on May 12, last.

Washington, June 17.—(Special.)—Announcement was made here today that the Wallace National bank, which institution recently was taken over by the Harry L. Day interests, would be moved into the banking house formerly used by the defunct State Bank of Commerce which closed its doors on May 12, last.

Washington, June 17.—(Special.)—Announcement was made here today that the Wallace National bank, which institution recently was taken over by the Harry L. Day interests, would be moved into the banking house formerly used by the defunct State Bank of Commerce which closed its doors on May 12, last.

Washington, June 17.—(Special.)—Announcement was made here today that the Wallace National bank, which institution recently was taken over by the Harry L. Day interests, would be moved into the banking house formerly used by the defunct State Bank of Commerce which closed its doors on May 12, last.

Washington, June 17.—(Special.)—Announcement was made here today that the Wallace National bank, which institution recently was taken over by the Harry L. Day interests, would be moved into the banking house formerly used by the defunct State Bank of Commerce which closed its doors on May 12, last.

Washington, June 17.—(Special.)—Announcement was made here today that the Wallace National bank, which institution recently was taken over by the Harry L. Day interests, would be moved into the banking house formerly used by the defunct State Bank of Commerce which closed its doors on May 12, last.

Washington, June 17.—(Special.)—Announcement was made here today that the Wallace National bank, which institution recently was taken over by the Harry L. Day interests, would be moved into the banking house formerly used by the defunct State Bank of Commerce which closed its doors on May 12, last.

Washington, June 17.—(Special.)—Announcement was made here today that the Wallace National bank, which institution recently was taken over by the Harry L. Day interests, would be moved into the banking house formerly used by the defunct State Bank of Commerce which closed its doors on May 12, last.

Washington, June 17.—(Special.)—Announcement was made here today that the Wallace National bank, which institution recently was taken over by the Harry L. Day interests, would be moved into the banking house formerly used by the defunct State Bank of Commerce which closed its doors on May 12, last.

Washington, June 17.—(Special.)—Announcement was made here today that the Wallace National bank, which institution recently was taken over by the Harry L. Day interests, would be moved into the banking house formerly used by the defunct State Bank of Commerce which closed its doors on May 12, last.

Washington, June 17.—(Special.)—Announcement was made here today that the Wallace National bank, which institution recently was taken over by the Harry L. Day interests, would be moved into the banking house formerly used by the defunct State Bank of Commerce which closed its doors on May 12, last.

JURY FINDS COOKE NOT GUILTY

FORMER BIG FOUR OFFICIAL IS FREED ON CHARGE OF EM-BEZZLING THOUSANDS.

Cincinnati, June 17.—"Not guilty," was the verdict returned here today by the jury trying the case of Edgar S. Cooke, who was charged with having embezzled $24,000 from the Big Four railroad.

It required a few minutes less than two hours for the jury to reach this decision.

The trial was the last of three in connection with the $42,000 shortage of Charles L. Warriner, Cincinnati treasurer of the road, who is now serving a six-year sentence in the Ohio penitentiary. The second trial was that of Mrs. Jeannette Stewart-Ford, the woman in the case, and at this trial the jury disagreed. Mrs. Ford was charged with blackmail.

Four ballots were taken, the first resulting in nine for acquittal and three for conviction. In each of the subsequent ballots one juror deserted the ranks until the verdict was unanimous for acquittal.

WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE SCORED BY CARDINAL

Baltimore, Md., June 17.—Cardinal Gibbons scored woman's suffrage in an address last night at the commencement exercises of St. Joseph's college. He said:

"I think the place for women is in the home. Women should not want to vote, but if they took proper interest in the affairs of their husbands and brothers they could easily have them cast their ballots in the right manner. In doing this women will be the champion of what is right."

Washington, June 17.—(Special.)—Announcement was made here today that the Wallace National bank, which institution recently was taken over by the Harry L. Day interests, would be moved into the banking house formerly used by the defunct State Bank of Commerce which closed its doors on May 12, last.

Washington, June 17.—(Special.)—Announcement was made here today that the Wallace National bank, which institution recently was taken over by the Harry L. Day interests, would be moved into the banking house formerly used by the defunct State Bank of Commerce which closed its doors on May 12, last.

Washington, June 17.—(Special.)—Announcement was made here today that the Wallace National bank, which institution recently was taken over by the Harry L. Day interests, would be moved into the banking house formerly used by the defunct State Bank of Commerce which closed its doors on May 12, last.

WHITNEY HUNTS RARE GAME.

New Haven, Conn., June 17.—Harry Whitney, the hunter who was with both Cook and Peary in the Arctic regions, has started for Alaska and the Canadian Rockies with Frank Carnegie, nephew of Andrew Carnegie. He has abandoned his plans to head a south polar expedition this fall and will instead seek rare game on the western edge of the American continent.

Cleveland, June 17.—The biggest shakeup in the history of the Cleveland police department came late today when, without any previous warning, Acting Chief of Police W. R. Rowe issued orders transferring 70 patrolmen, many to more desirable precincts.

Lawrence, Kan., June 17.—While Deputy County Treasurer Eddy was at work on the books in the courthouse here last night, a stranger walked into the office and held him up at the point of a revolver, taking $3,200 in currency and coin which lay on the desk.

Washington, June 17.—(Special.)—Announcement was made here today that the Wallace National bank, which institution recently was taken over by the Harry L. Day interests, would be moved into the banking house formerly used by the defunct State Bank of Commerce which closed its doors on May 12, last.

Washington, June 17.—(Special.)—Announcement was made here today that the Wallace National bank, which institution recently was taken over by the Harry L. Day interests, would be moved into the banking house formerly used by the defunct State Bank of Commerce which closed its doors on May 12, last.

CALIFORNIA REPRESENTATIVE WANTS CONGRESS TO PROBE MILITARY BRANCH.

Washington, June 17.—Representative Kahn of California introduced in the house today a resolution which would provide for a thorough investigation of the army and which declares that the United States should be given an efficient fighting force in return for the $100,000,000 dollars and more expended every year on the military system.

The resolution would direct the appointment of a congressional committee of 10 to sit at any place deemed fit and to call on the war department for information desired.

"I understand from men who are in a position to know," said Representative Kahn in commenting on his resolution, "that the recent mobilization of the Mexican border was rather a failure. True, the troops were promptly dispatched to the place of rendezvous, but having arrived at their destination it developed that there was such a lack of organization that it required several months' time to make the one division of troops that were mobilized in Texas half-way effective."

Washington, June 17.—(Special.)—Announcement was made here today that the Wallace National bank, which institution recently was taken over by the Harry L. Day interests, would be moved into the banking house formerly used by the defunct State Bank of Commerce which closed its doors on May 12, last.