

CLEARING FOR RECIPROCITY WILL KEEP SENATORS BUSY

Upper House of Congress Will Be Occupied All Week—Lower Will Rest a While.

CUMMINS-SIMMONS AMENDMENTS ARE DEAD ONES

Speech in Favor of Additions to Administration Measure Will Open Session in Senate Today—Dilatory Tactics Are Expected by Friends of Bill.

Washington, July 9.—A lively clearing of the ways for the passage of the Canadian reciprocity bill by the voting down of the Cummins and Simmons amendments and continued discussion and action on other provisions in connection with the bill, will keep the senate busy all week, while the house, which will meet Wednesday and quickly adjourn until Saturday, will be active only in its committees.

Monday or Tuesday. As soon as they are printed he will take the floor and probably will speak for several days in explanation and advocacy of them. His speech is regarded as the most formidable obstacle in the way of a vote on the bill, and senators generally say that with it out of the way predictions regarding a final vote will be more reliable.

Adjournment? The prevailing opinion is that with the reciprocity bill out of the way final adjournment soon will follow. The democrats will demand votes on one or two of their tariff bills, but will not debate them at length. The insurgent republicans are divided on this item of policy, but most of them are inclined to demand further time for legislation and they may take such a course as will delay getting away. The general sentiment, however, is that the extra session will end early in August.

Named for Slaughter. These are expected to be bowled over tomorrow, which under the agreement for a vote then, might extend the day into the night or cover one recess after another for several calendar days. If necessary, after voting on these amendments, the senate will proceed with the consideration of the reciprocity bill and the amendment by Senator La Follette and others.

Dilatory Tactics. Dilatory tactics will be met with such acts of coercion at the majority might decide would expedite business. Mr. Cummins has indicated that he will ask for separate votes on all his amendments and has said that he would demand at least a dozen roll calls. Mr. Simmons, who was not as insistent.

The house probably will hold a short session Wednesday and then adjourn until Saturday, having little of consequence before it until the cotton schedule is ready. The democratic members of the ways and means committee will resume their work of revision on Tuesday. The leaders contemplate a reduction of cotton duties from 3 to 50 per cent, all duties to be ad valorem, as in the wool bill.

Marion, Ohio, July 9.—As Miss Flora Spicer, aged 20, and her guest, Miss Mary Rogers, 22 years old, of West Mansfield, were returning home from church tonight, they were accosted on the street by a man who struck both the girls over the head and picking up Miss Spicer, who was unconscious, carried her away. Miss Rogers quickly summoned several men who searched the railway yards, a block distant, where they found Miss Spicer with face bruised and clothing torn, crawling along the tracks and unable to speak. SEARCH FOR LETTERS WILL BE PROSECUTED. New York, July 9.—A thorough investigation how nine of the 18 letters written by W. E. D. James Cummings, a hotel detective, admitted on the witness stand on Friday that he took the package from the woman's room in the presence of police detectives two days after the shooting of Stokes and put it in his pocket. Later, he said, he turned the package over to Stokes' counsel. Today a deputy police commissioner examined the three detectives left in charge of Miss Graham's room after the shooting. Class Ad History XLIII.—FINDING THE LOST. There are a good many people this summer who have learned that the best way to save worry when something has been lost, is to use a Missoulian class ad. It generally locates the lost article and it doesn't involve any running about. Here's an instance: LOST—A MANDOLIN IN CASE ON July 4, between Montana block and waterworks dam; instrument valued as keepsake. Finder please return to Missoulian office and receive reward. Twice this little ad was printed; then the lost mandolin was returned by the finder. Don't forget, when you lose something, that The Missoulian's classified page furnishes the easy means for recovery. The class ad costs but one cent a word. It is helpful to many people. Give it a chance to help you.

MOB RULES IN Ocotlan

Partisans of One Candidate for Governor Attack Store Owned by Relatives of Another Aspirant and Pitched Battle Results—Authorities Powerless and Fight Lasts All Night.

Washington, July 9.—The 40,000-odd rural free delivery carriers in the United States are to receive salary increases as a result of a decision reached today by Postmaster General Hitchcock. The order will provide for the disbursement during the current fiscal year of $4,000,000, which will mean an increase of $100 over the present salary of $900 for all carriers on standard routes.

Oaxaca, Mexico, July 9.—Eight men were killed and more than 15 wounded in a political riot in Ocotlan last night. Partisans of Benito Juarez, one of the two candidates for governor, inaugurated the riot by leading an attack on mercantile establishments of the Diaz brothers, relatives of General Felix Diaz, the opposition candidate for governor. Armed resistance on the part of the occupants increased the fury of the mob who ran amuck through the principal streets, breaking windows of private residences and business houses.

Congress Kind. Congress provided last session for this extra $4,000,000, but left it to the discretion of the postmaster general as to how much of it should be expended. Mr. Hitchcock decided today to authorize the expenditure of the full amount. His desire to compensate the carriers for any additional burden which may be placed on them if the parcels post system he has recommended for rural routes is approved by congress, was the reason, Mr. Hitchcock declared today, which led him to make the authorization.

Expensive. In the current year the routes will cost the government about $40,000,000, the estimated loss being about $25,000,000. The postmaster general expressed the belief that the parcels post system under proper management would insure the maintenance and extension of the rural free delivery service as a self-supporting branch of the postal service.

Bad Fall Doesn't Kill Mrs. Baldwin. Eldorado Springs, Colo., July 9.—Hurled down 400 feet, bumping along the rocky mountainside in an automobile, Mrs. J. B. Baldwin wife of the owner of the mint at Denver, was picked up seriously injured near here today and sent to Denver in a special car. The accident happened on a steep road leading from the springs to Craig's resort on the Moffat road above here. Mrs. Baldwin and her husband were going to the resort to attend a house party at the cottage of Judge Allen of Denver. Baldwin and the chauffeur, the only other occupants of the car, jumped in time to save themselves. Mrs. Baldwin was pinned by the steering gear and carried down with the car to the bottom of the embankment. No bones were broken, and was said at the hospital tonight that she will recover.

Fire From Roofs. Merchants, owners of the stores attacked, posted themselves in many cases on top of their buildings and shot into the attacking mob. Most of the deaths are ascribed to them. The opposition afforded by the mob of Diaz's supporters served to increase the tumult in the streets, but also to reduce the fury of the attacks upon business houses. The local authorities were powerless to restore order and the fighting continued most of the night. Most of the companies of soldiers were sent from here to Ocotlan this morning to garrison the town. During the fighting the house of Seckbach, an English firm, raised the British flag, but it proved no protection, the mob attacking the structure as it did the others, but no great damage was done.
