MISSOULIAN TEAM OUTCLASSES SENTINEL

NEWSPAPER CHAMPIONSHIP IS SETTLED AT GAME ON SOUTH SIDE LOT.

SENSATIONAL CONTEST

By a Score of Nine to Eight Team From Best Morning Paper in the City Wins Honors—Last Two Innings Played Under Protest.

A team of alleged baseball players from the office of the Missoula Sentinel and the country surrounding attempted in a pitiable manner yesterday afternoon to defeat a superior contingent representing the best morning newspaper in the city. A collection of ringers and a stall which led to the addition of two innings to a scheduled seven-inning game failed to bring victory, and when the last Sentinel supporter had cashed in his checks and retired to the bench to nurse his wounds, the score showed that the supporters of the evening paper's banner had scored only eight times in comparison to the nine runs tallied by the representatives of The Missoulian.

The spectators assert that the game was the best sample of our national game ever played, but modestly prevents us from saying so. It was a good game, though, and had the visitors been pushed at any stage it would have been better. The caliber of the losers was such as to prevent an exhibition of the best sort.

The game was full of sensations. Wood's base running was worth going miles to see and Stone's throws to bases was ideally straight. It hadn't been for the grandstand it would be hard to say where he would have thrown the ball. Jones' three-bagger was another feature. He went so fast that he missed every base until he wound up at third.

McCaferly's Views. Manager McCaferly of the Missoula team kept score and was much interested in the game. He wrote of the game as follows:

The game between The Missoulian and the Sentinel newspaper boys for the championship of Bailey Crossing was finally settled with the long end of the score resting with The Missoulian. "The game was not ended, however, with a contest, for the fast Sentinel team threw a scare in a grand ninth-inning rally. Had the Sentinel third baseman not tried to run from second to third, thereby forcing the man ahead of him off the bag, the game might never have ended.

The bright features of the game were the fast and errorless fielding—not—and the pitching of Ferguson and Peat. Both gave as splendid an exhibition of bare-arm pitching as could be seen on any field. Ferguson had his fadeaway working and was unhittable except in the pinches. Peat's curve ball was simply a back-breaker, and let me say, that Three-Fingered Brown would sure have cause to be jealous had he witnessed the subway drop on it.

"All in all, the teams are pretty evenly matched, and an early spring training season next year ought to round both men into form." The game was attended by at least 20 people. This howling mob encouraged both teams and was kept in a constant uproar by the rapid succession of brilliant plays. The Sentinel was blanked in the first inning and The Missoulian scored one. In the second the Sentinel tallied once and The Missoulian twice, and again in the third the Sentinel scored. In the fifth The Missoulian scored five times and the score remained at 5 to 2 until the end of the seventh. The game was to have ended with seven innings, but the Sentinel team protested and the game went on. Neither team scored until the eighth, when the Missoulian scored one and the Sentinel two. A succession of hits and boots was responsible for four runs in the ninth, but the rally was nipped just

THIRD FLYER GOES AFTER PRIZE

C. P. RODGERS STARTS FROM NEW YORK IN CONTEST FOR THE HEARST PRIZE.

New York, Sept. 17.—C. P. Rodgers, third aviator to start on the transcontinental flight for the Hearst prize, rose from the racetrack at Sheepshead bay this afternoon, swept in a wide circle over the grounds, then headed northwest until his white-winged flyer merged into a bank of clouds over the Jersey meadows and disappeared.

He drove a Wright biplane and carried messages from Mayor Gaynor to the mayor of San Francisco and from the commanders of the eastern division of the army and navy to the commanders of the Pacific coast.

Flying over New York city, Rodgers crossed Broadway at a height of 3,000 feet and covered the mile from that point across the river in less than a minute. He soared over the city and evidently was not bothered by the "air holes" that have troubled other aviators.

At 6:07 he was reported passing over Campbell Hall junction, 66 miles from the start, headed for Middletown. The aeroplane looked almost like a joy at the starting grounds, as it measured only 32 feet from tip to tip, while the aviator stands 6 feet 4 inches and weighs 194 pounds. Rodgers is confident that it will land him in San Francisco without mishap.

Losses His Way. Middletown, N. Y., Sept. 17.—After an initial flight of about 80 miles in his proposed aerial voyage from New York to the Pacific coast, C. P. Rodgers reached this city and landed at 6:18 o'clock this evening. He had covered the distance from Sheepshead bay in one hour and 53 minutes. He made an easy landing and is in a good position to resume his flight westward tomorrow.

Rodgers might have made better time had he not mistaken the route and made a detour. Despite this, he beat into the city by two minutes a special train which had followed him from the time he began crossing Jersey city. He will spend the night here and make an early morning start.

FOOTBALL OUTLOOK IS REMARKABLY BRIGHT

NEVER BEFORE HAVE THE PROSPECTS ALL OVER THE COUNTRY BEEN SO GOOD.

BIG TEAMS ARE STRONG

Harvard, Yale, Princeton and Pennsylvania All Have Good Material—Harvard to Play Tigers After Fourteen Years.

New York, Sept. 17.—Not since the days when the radical changes were made in the football rules have the prospects for a season on the gridiron been so generally bright as those foreshadowed by the first slight tremble of activity in preparing for the approaching campaign with the pigskin.

Men whose fingers are on the pulse of this branch of athletics do not hesitate to state that the season of 1911 should prove a banner one in the annals of its history.

Such an announcement is more than a mere conjecture. It is based on something substantial. Practically all of the universities, colleges and preparatory schools throughout the country have some time since announced their schedules, and in nearly every instance these have been made harder, than they have been in some seasons.

One of the big features will be the meeting of Harvard and Princeton on November 4. These rivals met 14 years ago, when the Tigers defeated the Carlisle Indians again.

Active preparations are now under way at all of the institutions. Candidates for the Yale and Pennsylvania varsity elevens have been ordered to report for practice on September 14 at New Haven, while Harvard and Cornell have set September 18 as the date on which preliminary work is to begin.

Yale, Princeton and Syracuse have decided to adopt the graduate coaching system. The season will begin on Saturday, September 23, and by Saturday, September 30, or the following Saturday all the elevens will be seen in action.

Intersectional games will feature the season's play. Michigan will meet Pennsylvania, Cornell and Syracuse. They visit the Ithaca institution for the first time, while their final match in the west will be with Nebraska at Lincoln. For the first time since they withdrew from the western conference they will not battle against any of the big western college teams.

Syracuse is to play Michigan, Ohio state and St. Louis on the fields of the latter teams. Cornell, in addition to the game with Michigan, also lines up against Chicago.

Owing to the heavy expenses attached to sending the football squad away for early practice the Red and Blue will depart from their usual custom and the candidates will get into condition at Franklin Field.

"Andy" Smith, head coach of the University of Pennsylvania, does not expect much difficulty in developing a strong line, as Cozens and Marks were the only two linemen who graduated. Hoyt and Nelson, two guards, who were barred by the faculty last season, will be eligible, and, together with the linemen of last season's freshman eleven, should round out a good defense.

In the back field, "Dutch" Sommers, the line plunger; Hough, the clever little quarterback, and "Hutch" Scott will be missed. The coaches will spend a great deal of their time bringing out a kicker to take the place of Scott, whose hard, low spirals helped Penn greatly last season.

From the freshman squad, Barr and Chester Minds are expected to make regular places in the back field. Crawford, the sensational dropkicker of the "freshies" team, will also be eligible this season.

The announcement has been made at Cambridge that W. M. Minot and R. P. Lewis, two veteran players, will be ineligible because they have failed to reach the required standing in their examinations permitting them to remain in college.

AMERICAN COLT WINS.

Paris, Sept. 17.—Frank J. Gould's bay colt, Cambour, today won the Prix Royal Oak from a good field at the Longchamps course. It was for three-year-olds at one mile and seven furlongs, and was worth $16,000.

DOOIN PICKS TEAM OF ALL-STARS

Charley Dooin has picked an all-star team which he thinks could whale anything in the world, including the combination worked out recently by Jennings. Here it is: Pitchers, Brown, Ford, Marquard, Moore and Coombs; catchers, Gibson, Thomas and Archer; infielders, Daubert first base, Lajoie second base, Baker third base, Tinker shortstop, Doolan utility; outfielders, Schulte, Murphy, Clarke, Jackson utility.

READY FOR FLIGHT DOWN RIVER

Robinson Nominated for the Aerial Trip Down the Mississippi.

St. Louis, Sept. 17.—Hugh K. Robinson, the aviator, has been nominated by the Trans-Mississippi River Flight association for the Minneapolis to New Orleans hydro-aeroplane flight of 1,917 miles, which, if accomplished, will set a new world's record for cross-country flying.

Robinson will start from the surface of Lake Calhoun, Minneapolis, Wednesday morning, October 11. He will fly for a purse of $20,000 raised by the river cities in which he is to give hydro-aeroplane exhibitions. His course down the river will be in easy stages and the start is timed for the eve of the opening of the Deep Waterway convention in Chicago. Every effort will be made to make the flight of the maximum benefit to science, as well as to call attention to the length and possibilities of the Mississippi river and the importance of the cities located on it.

Cubs Shut Out Superbas Twice. Chicago, Sept. 17.—Chicago today shut out Brooklyn in both games. In the first game Smith allowed five scattered hits, while Cheney was effective in the second, striking out 10 men before he was compelled to leave the game with a broken finger on his pitching hand. Wheat batted the ball straight at Cheney and, in trying to protect his face, the pitcher was hurt.

Even Break. Cincinnati, Sept. 17.—Cincinnati and Philadelphia today broke even in a double header. Alexander pitched excellent ball in the first game, holding Cincinnati to five hits and no runs. Chalmers was hit opportunely in the second, while Suggs was at his best.

At Philadelphia: First game: R. H. E. Philadelphia 6 6 0 Cincinnati 6 5 4 Batteries—Alexander and Madden; Boyd and Severoid. Second game: R. H. E. Philadelphia 1 8 4 Cincinnati 7 7 1 Batteries—Chalmers, Hall and Cotter; Suggs and McLean.

Cards Lose One; Tie One. St. Louis, Sept. 17.—Boston today won the first game and tied the second of a double-header with St. Louis. Houser made his debut on first base for the visitors. The second game was called at the end of the seventh because of darkness. Tyler gave two scattered hits. McDonald was hit by a batted ball and retired. Scores:

KILLED IN COLLISION. Milwaukee, Sept. 17.—Four members of the family of Frank Klein, Rockford, Wis., were killed, one is dying and another was injured when the Klein automobile was struck by a Soo line train at Germantown, Wis., today.

A BAD BLACK. Jacksonville, Fla., Sept. 17.—Cicero Thomas, a carpenter aged 45, was killed and a woman whom he was accompanying home was attacked by a negro at Ortega, a suburb of this city, early today. A lynching is feared if the black is captured.

REMAINS SHIPPED EAST. The remains of William Stoddard, who died Wednesday in Spokane, were shipped on Puget Sound train No. 18 yesterday to Concord, Mich., for burial. The dead man was a brother of F. C. Stoddard and Dr. John Stoddard of this city. The latter accompanied the remains.

M'GRAW CONFIDENT OF WINNING THE PENNANT

NEW YORK MANAGER FIGURES VICTORY FOR THE GIANTS IN EXCITING RACE.

WILL WORK STARS HARD

In Sixteen of the Thirty-One Games Which Must Still Be Played Muggsy Will Work Mathewson and Marquard.

McGraw is confident of winning the pennant and has figured on the pitchers who will bring home the bacon. This is the way it will be done, according to the New York World:

As the Giants begin their long tour of the west there is only one thing that causes McGraw the least uneasiness. It was made plain to him on Saturday that the only two pitchers on whom he can absolutely rely are Mathewson and Marquard. Ames may come through with a winning spurt, but the Giants' manager is plainly worried about Witte and Crandall. If it comes to a pinch he will probably shove Maxwell to the front in the hope of his getting away as nicely as did Marty O'Toole. It is a dangerous time for experiments, but it may become necessary.

Beginning with this afternoon's game at Boston the Giants have 31 games to play and the Cubs have the same number. According to the present plans of the campaign McGraw expects to pitch Mathewson and Marquard in 16 of those contests. The other 15 will be left to Ames, Witte and Crandall. If the last three should come through with half their games, McGraw figures that Mathewson and Marquard will win enough to give the Giants a majority of their contests.

If the break comes that way, New York ought to win the pennant. If the Giants win a majority of their games on this trip it is hardly probable that the Cubs and the Pirates can do so, as a large number of their games will be against New York. In addition to that they will have a number of fights between themselves.

The Pirates have but 22 games to play, and to get back in the race for the pennant they must win a large majority of those. It looks like a hopeless task, as they will be playing against the toughest clubs in the league, while the Giants will be picking on the weaker brothers.
