

IN THE RAILWAY WORLD DEPARTURE DELAYED RAILWAY EMPLOYEES UNTIL SATURDAY TO TAKE COURSE

SHOWALTER AND CONDUCTORS MARKS AND BUTLER POST-PONE TRIP.

Chief Dispatcher W. C. Showalter and Conductors Butler and Marks were scheduled to leave the city Sunday morning on their trip to St. Paul, where they are to confer with the general board, which is now working on a list of examination questions for the new book of rules. They didn't go. Instead they remained here. And they received a telegram today which told them to be in St. Paul on the morning of November 14. Consequently, they will not leave here until train No. 4 on the evening of November 11. R. B. Dodds, who switched over from the night shift to take Mr. Showalter's place during the time he was absent, will lay off until Saturday.

Superintendent A. M. Burt of the Northern Pacific went to Wallace on Saturday for the purpose of inspecting conditions at that place. He will probably return to Missoula today.

H. H. Tavenner threw his nose into the breach yesterday and detected what he diagnosed as passenger business waiting for him at Plains. Straightway he summoned unto him William Eugene Dorian, his trusty understudy, who had condescended to return from Anaconda, where he spent a few days and several dollars. William appeared in answer to his chief's call. He had been ashore behind the safe and was blissfully dreaming of his approaching marital happiness. "I'm off," exclaimed Commodore Tavenner, "there's business for the road in Plains, unless my trained senses belie me." "I know you're off," responded William, slightly irritated on being awakened thus rudely from his slumbers, "but what's the use of rubbing it in." Not replying to his subordinate's rude remarks, Tavenner grabbed a bottle of nerva tonic and rushed for the train which was just separating itself from the depot. His college days stood him in good stead and the rear of the train was grasped by his brawny hand after he had covered 100 yards of track in .02 1/2. He has not yet returned and William stands at the wicket waiting for his chief's return that he may repair to his downy bed behind the safe.

Superintendent C. H. Marshall of the Puget Sound returned from Avery yesterday afternoon.

A RAILROADER'S CHANCES.

Washington, Nov. 6.—Statistics show that the odds are 1 to 458 that a railroad man will be killed on his job and 1 to 13 that he will be injured. The interstate commerce commission's report of American railroad accidents in the 12 months ended June 30, shows that ratio. In the period 10,398 persons were killed and 150,119 were injured. However, only 284 passengers were killed. More than one-half the total number killed were trespassing or stealing rides on trains.

AEROPLANE STUCK.

El Paso, Nov. 6.—Stuck in the heavy sand at Mastodon, N. M., 14 miles west of here, where the aviator was forced to alight yesterday afternoon, the aeroplane of Robert G. Fowler refuses to be budged. Fowler and his mechanics worked most of the day in unsuccessful attempts to get the machine in the air. They will renew their efforts tomorrow.

ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING FATAL TO LITTLE ONE

Little Ruby Hamann, the two-and-a-half-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Hamann, was fatally shot yesterday morning at the family home in Lolo. Mrs. Hamann was getting her baby to sleep in an adjoining room when she heard a shot. Rushing to the scene she found that the little girl had taken a loaded gun from the corner and the older sister—only about four years of age—had tried to take the weapon from the little one. In the struggle the shot was fired. The bullet entered the upper lip and ranged upward into the brain. The accident occurred about 10 o'clock and the little girl died an hour later. The funeral will be held today at 10 o'clock in the home at Lolo. Rev. Mr. Hardy will conduct the services and interment will be made in the Carlton cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. Hamann came to Montana from Washington last July.

Fruit Cakes

Mix four cups sifted flour, one level teaspoon soda, two level teaspoons mixed spices (except cloves), one-fourth level teaspoon salt and two cups seeded and quartered raisins. Add also one-half cup nuts chopped fine, if you like. Blend one-half cup Cottoles with one cup brown sugar and one cup white sugar, add one cup molasses, one cup milk and then the flour mixture. Beat well and bake in two pans.

You will find this fruit cake as light, moist, flavory as any you ever made with butter. You save something, too, by using Cottoles—the perfect shortening.

Date Muffins

A New Way of Using Dates
By Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, Editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine

The value of dates as a food is hardly appreciated. They are wholesome, nutritious, and when used in K C Date Muffins, make a recipe that is appreciated by the entire family.

K C Date Muffins
One-third cup butter, 1/2 cup sugar, 1 egg; 3/4 cup milk; 2 cups flour; 3 level teaspoonsful K C Baking Powder; 1/4 teaspoonful salt; scant 1/4 pound dates.

Cream the butter, add the sugar and the egg, beaten light. Sift together three times, the flour, baking powder and salt; add these to the first mixture, alternately with the milk; beat thoroughly and add the dates, stoned and cut in pieces. To bake, have a slow oven until the muffins double in bulk, then increase heat to bake and brown quickly. Muffins baked this way will be light, appetizing and more easily digested.

This is only one of the many appetizing recipes found in the K C Cook's Book. The wonderful K C Cook's Book is substantially bound and printed in nine colors, contains ninety tested and easily-made recipes by Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, of the world famous Boston Cooking School Magazine. You can secure a copy FREE by sending the colored certificate packed in 25-cent cans of K C Baking Powder to the Jacques Mfg Co., Chicago. Be sure to write name and address plainly.

Malleable Iron

You Can't Break It

MALLEABLE IRON is absolutely necessary for perfectly air-tight joints. It is non-breakable and can be cold-riveted. The Majestic range is made of Malleable Iron; all joints are riveted perfectly air-tight. No heat escapes or cold air enters range, thus heating the oven quick and right, with about half the fuel used in a range made of cast-iron, where joints must be bolted and pasted together with stove putty.

All ranges will work right at first and until the bolts and stove putty gets loose, then the trouble commences. You are compelled to use twice the fuel, not only running your fuel bill up, but burning out your range and increasing the repair bill, to say nothing of its short life. With a MAJESTIC MALLEABLE and CHARCOAL IRON RANGE, where all parts are so riveted they can't come loose, your repair and fuel bill is small, and life of range three or four times as long.

Consider this point thoroughly, and remember that the cheapest is not always the least expensive.
