TEAM WORKS HARD ON SNOW-DECKED FIELD

HIGH SCHOOL ELEVEN GOES THROUGH LONG PRACTICE IN THE COLD.

PLAYERS SHOW UP WELL

Coaches Are Not Saying Anything, but Feel Sure That Team Will Play Strong, Creditable Game Against Butte.

The high school team worked with a slippery ball on a snow-covered field yesterday afternoon, and perfected the working of its attack. The boys had plenty of snap and ginger, despite the excessive cold, and they kept at their work with a dash that looked good. During the afternoon a rally was held at the high school preparatory to the commencement of the season, but the players were out in their togs at work, and they played there until darkness put an end to the practice. The team is full of fight and is going to meet on Thanksgiving day resolved to win. The locals have the small end of the odds, but they have plenty of backbone.

Owsley, Day and Whistler assisted in the coaching again last night and helped put the final polish on the team's attack. Only two days remain for work, but the coaches feel confident that the team will be as strong as could possibly be expected on Thursday.

Nothing has been heard from Butte yet, but the final details regarding the game should be arranged today. The officials will be chosen as soon as possible, and after that there remains nothing but the battle itself.

It is costing the Missoula high school $250 to bring the Butte team to Missoula Thursday. The Smoky city team wanted to play at home, and refused to leave until forced into it. Then it demanded an exceptionally heavy guarantee. Missoula has accepted the terms, however, and is determined to make a flight for the title. Never since football has been played in Missoula have the locals beaten Butte at the gridiron game, and never has the Missoula team been so close a contender for the state championship. This year the eleven is one of the four teams tied for first place, and the game with Butte will, to all practical purposes, decide the championship. It behooves Missoula to give their support, and to make the game a success. Tickets will be on sale today.

QUIBBLING.

Boston, Nov. 27.—A week ago football experts here declared that under a strict interpretation of the rules, Princeton's victory over Yale was illegal. Today the critics on similar grounds are wondering if, after all, Harvard did not beat Yale last Saturday. They have their claims for a Harvard victory on rule 6, section 9, which would seem to indicate that an incomplete forward pass made by Camp from behind Yale's goal line constituted a safety and should have scored Harvard two points.

TO GET RID OF RHEUMATISM

If we suffer with Rheumatism and desire to get rid of it we must subvert our minds to subject our systems to the proper course of treatment for a while. The only way to cure oneself of Rheumatism is to remove the cause—expel the irritating uric acid from the blood; every other method of treatment has proved a failure. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism because it is the greatest of all blood purifiers. This medicine goes down into the circulation, and expels every particle of the sour, inflammatory uric acid which is the one great cause of the disease. The cure can be greatly hastened with a little care and self denial by the patient. In the first place do not let anything interfere to prevent your taking S. S. S. regularly and according to directions; be guarded in your eating, because an attack of indigestion will always aggravate the symptoms of Rheumatism. Do not expose yourself to damp and inclement weather any more than is necessary. When S. S. S. has had time to rid the blood of the uric acid; then these little restrictions may be left off. This simple course has cured many thousands of cases of Rheumatism. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice free. S. S. S. is sold at drug stores. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Atlanta, Ga.

BIG BUGS LINGERING IN SAN ANTONIO AWHILE

MANY OF DELEGATES TO NATIONAL CONVENTION LIKE TEXAS CLIMATE.

FARRELL IS A BUSY MAN

Secretary of Board of Arbitration Sticks Around to Have a Good Time but Business Keeps on Butting In.

San Antonio, Texas, Nov. 27.—Many of the delegates and visitors to the national baseball convention appear reluctant to leave San Antonio. The city seems to have cast a spell over the welcome invaders from the north and several of the noted men in baseball circles still are here.

J. H. Farrell of Auburn, N. Y., secretary of the national board of arbitration, said to be the hardest-worked man in the national sport, is one who is seeking a little relaxation. It is said here he knows more about workings of baseball at first hand than any other person identified with the sport. Before him comes all the troubles of the minor leagues and through his hands must pass all documents relative to the game in all its phases.

He also is nearest of the minor league owners to the major league owners and officials, and he is relied upon by them as one to tie to. He is not entirely off the job while here, for he manages to reply to a bale of telegrams each day. But he takes a little time off. In company with A. H. Danforth, president of the Travels club of San Antonio, and Charles Henry Gensinger, the club's secretary, he takes a daily plunge in the hot sulphur water at the hot wells. A few days before Thanksgiving day he will accompany Mr. Danforth to Ingleside, on the gulf coast, where R. L. Hedges, president of the St. Louis Browns, and his wife are spending a portion of the winter.

James H. O'Rourke of Bridgeport, Conn., secretary-treasurer of the Connecticut league, has returned to his home with his four pretty daughters, business obliging him to cut short his intended stay here. Among those who remain, however, some purposing to stay quite awhile longer, are D. E. Dugdale, president of the Seattle club, Northwest league; C. J. Eckstrom of Lethbridge, Alberta, Canada, president of the Western Canada league; Ted Sullivan of the Chicago White Sox, once a pioneer in southwestern baseball, and Dale Clear, who next season will manage the Kansas City team.

ATTORNEY LUCE FINED FOR KILLING PHEASANT

Bozeman, Nov. 27.—(Special.)—Attorney John Luce, one of the best known lawyers in Montana, today was fined $50 for killing a "defenseless pheasant" out of season, according to the complaint. Mr. Luce, with bowed head, told the court that he was without counsel, when former congressman Charles S. Hartman said as the prisoner was without friends he would speak in his behalf, pleading for light punishment by reason of the lawyer's former good name.

K. O. HAS BETTER OF BOUT.

New Haven, Nov. 27.—Krookout Brown had the better of a 15-round bout with Bert Keyes before the Crescent club tonight. In the ninth round Keyes was in bad condition from his beating, but came back strong in the 10th and in the last two rounds made Brown clinch. Keyes' jab to the face and head shook Brown up considerably.

CONFERENCE SOON.

Chicago, Nov. 27.—The western conference of "Big Eight" football teams will be held in Chicago December 2. Tentative dates for next year's games, the possibility of bringing the University of Michigan into the conference, summer baseball and the relations of Minnesota and Wisconsin will be the chief questions to be settled.

"YANKEE" WINS.

Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 27.—"Yankee" Schwartz of Philadelphia outboxed and outfought Jack White of Chicago and was awarded the decision at the end of an eight-round bout here tonight.

CUBANS DEFEAT GIANTS.

Havana, Nov. 27.—The Havana team defeated the New York Nationals, 2 to 2, today.

FOOTBALL EXPERTS AFTER CHANGES IN RULES

CLAMOR FOR PLAYS THAT WILL PERMIT MORE SCORING IS RAISED.

PUNTING IS MONOTONOUS

Kicking Part of Big Games in East This Season Makes the Public Tired and Change of Style is Now Up to Committee.

New York, Nov. 27.—Football experts at the college clubs here, their number including several of the official rule makers, are pretty well agreed that some radical changes in the rules will be necessary before next season. The chief clamor for reform is a demand for plays which will allow more scoring.

Saturday's games at Cambridge and Philadelphia show the inefficiency of the new rules. The Army-Navy game showed little football experience besides kicking. Yale and Harvard dabbled with all the wrinkles of the new game, but had to resort to kicking. This constant punting becomes very monotonous to the spectators. It has entirely changed the complexion of American football. The punt was originally put into the game not as a feature play, but as a last resort when the ball could be carried no farther by the players. Under the present rules the game becomes a kicking contest between two men, with the chance of picking up a fumble the chief reliance for touchdowns. What is wanted and what all the colleges will demand of the rule-makers this winter is a game which will not further increase the risk of injuries, but which will begot some degree of nationality in advancing the ball.

EIGHTEEN CARDINALS CONFIRMED IN OFFICE

for the pope and a wish that his holiness might have a long and happy reign. Cardinals Farley and O'Connell also expressed their gratitude. The speech of Cardinal Falconio is considered as an appendix to the papal allocution, as it is known that it expresses the sentiments of the holy see toward America. The substance of the speech had been agreed on by the Vatican, as the nature of the allocution did not allow the pope to refer in such enthusiastic terms to one particular nation while so many are represented among the new cardinals. In addition to the Americans, these cardinals will be created: Francis Bourne, Archbishop of Westminster, England; Giuseppe Maria Cos y Machio, Archbishop of Valladolid, Spain; Antonio Vico, papal nuncio to Spain, an Italian; Genarro Granito di Belmonte, Archbishop of Edessa, Italian; Francis Bauer, Archbishop of Olmutz, Austria; Leone Adolfo Mette, Archbishop of Paris; Francis Virgilio Dubillardo, Archbishop of Chambery, France; Francis Naef, Archbishop of Vienna; Francis Maria, Dorente de Calveiras, Archbishop of Montpellier, France; Gaetano Bisletti, papal major domo, Italian; Giovanni Battista Lugo, assessor of the congregation of the holy office, Italian; Basilio Pompei, secretary of the congregation of the council, Italian; Ludovic Billot, French Jesuit; Guglielmo Van Rossum, of the Fathers of the Resurrection, Dutch, and Enriquez Almaraz y Santos, Archbishop of Seville, Spain. One unnamed.

PASSING CHARACTER IS MARKET

STOCK MARKET IS STIMULATED BY WEEK-END ACCUMULATION WHICH FALLS OFF.

New York, Nov. 27.—Buying orders accumulated over the week-end stimulated the stock market for a time today. But the day's movement as a whole fell back until little was left of the advance. Some stocks, including United States Steel, Reading and Lehigh Valley, fell to below Saturday's close. The action of the market seemed to indicate that it was still of a transitory character. Union Pacific was the most conspicuous stock on the advance and gained two points. Its advance was equalled by that of St. Paul and a few of the inactive issues, including American Can preferred, which rose to 92 1/2, the highest price at which this stock ever sold. On the recession the pressure was most severe against the coalers and both Reading and Lehigh Valley lost more than a point on the day's movements.

The strength of the London market exercised sustaining influence. Buying in London was especially pronounced in the copper shares. Operations in this market for the London account also were chiefly on the buying side with transactions in United States Steel making up the bulk of this business. The strength of the American Tobacco issues brought these stocks into prominence again. The preferred stock rose 2 1/2 on the curb, the common stock increased its recent large advance by 21 points, selling at 51 1/2, the highest price reached since the final decree of dissolution was entered against the company and within nine points of the record figures for that issue.

Call money hardened today and some loans were made at 3 1/2 per cent, the highest rate since the opening of the year. Bankers said that there was a fairly steady demand for money for commercial purposes both in New York and in the interior and that the chief reason rates had been low was in the light requirements of Wall Street.

The bond market became weak after an early display of firmness. Total sales (par value), $2,975,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

Grain and Provisions.

Chicago, Nov. 27.—Big receipts northwest and fine weather in the Argentine helped force down the price of wheat today. The close was heavy, 1/2 per cent lower than Saturday night. Carlot arrivals of wheat at points northwest of Chicago were on a huge scale. Depression due to this fact received greater emphasis owing to the United States visible supply showing an increase that carried the amount available nearly to 70,000,000 bushels. Traders found themselves confronted also with fine harvesting conditions in the Argentine—a disagreeable surprise to the bulls, who had been looking for more damage from rain and black rust. World shipments, too, were greatly in excess of the estimates. Nothing encouraging for higher prices developed, but on the contrary the hardest selling pressure of the day was felt just at the close, when a determined effort was made to force the May option under a dollar. During the session as a whole May ranged from $1 to $1.00 1/2, with last sales 1/2 net lower at $1.00 1/2. A few of the larger lots unloaded oats and brought about weakness in the market for that cereal. Sympathy with the action of other grain formed the main reason. Top and bottom figures touched by May were 49 1/2 and 49 1/2, with the close 1/2 off at 49 1/2. In the provisions crowd, the principal owners appeared satisfied to hold values reasonably firm. The desire seemed to avoid a level that might provoke selling. Larger exports than a year ago were against the bear side. In the final trading the market compared with 48 hours before and had not altered either way to exceed 5c.
