

SOCIETY

Signs of the season are everywhere to be seen and the effect has been almost a total eclipse of social functions during the past week. Busy fingers at home are embroidering and painting and attaching pleasant holiday thoughts into the gifts they are making. Church basars have held high carnival this week with abundant offerings of Christmas novelties. In many homes there has been noticeable the sweet spicy fragrance of fruit cake and plum pudding in the making. An old fashioned custom of giving a loaf of fruit cake or a can of pudding for a Christmas remembrance has happily come into vogue in recent years and many a student or clerk living away from home has been rejoiced by the pleasant fashion. The modern tendency seems to be constantly towards simplicity of Christmas giving to those who have and generous largess to those who ordinarily have little or nothing. This is true in Missoula and during the next two weeks, while all are too busy for card parties and dances, there will be one who looks and listens a Christmas carol of kindly thought and generous deed.

Guests of Honor.
Major and Mrs. Cabanis have been guests of honor at a number of social functions during their visit here this week. Captain and Mrs. E. S. Mitchell gave a dinner in their honor Tuesday evening in their home at Fort Missoula. Gathered about the table which was brilliantly lighted with red shaded candles and red chrysanthemums, were Major and Mrs. Cabanis, Colonel and Mrs. Kennon, Major and Mrs. Leonard, Captain and Mrs. Sorley, Mr. and Mrs. Tylar B. Thompson and the host and hostess.

Complimentary Dinner.
Mr. and Mrs. Tylar B. Thompson gave one of their charming dinners Friday evening in compliment to Major and Mrs. Cabanis, who have been guests in Missoula during the week. Spikes of snapdragons in a symphony of pale pink, lavender and yellow shades made exquisite table decorations. The guests who had a part in the pleasant function were Major and Mrs. Cabanis, Colonel and Mrs. Ken-non, Major and Mrs. Ruffner, Captain and Mrs. Mitchell, Judge Sloane and Miss Sloane.

Bridge Whist Friday.
Mrs. Will Steinhilber entertained a number of her friends at bridge whist Friday afternoon. The rooms of Mrs. Steinhilber's home on University avenue were admirably adorned with a harmony in yellow chrysanthemums, yellow favors and ribbons. Six tables accommodated the guests who played the game.

Mrs. Fernald Hostess.
Mrs. J. A. Fernald was hostess Monday and Tuesday afternoon at two pretty functions. Monday the guests assembled in Mrs. Fernald's pretty home on South Fourth street east, and played bridge whist, while on Tuesday another group of friends played "500." Yellow chrysanthemums were used for decorations in artistic arrangement and delicious refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. George Newton and Mrs. Calkins. Mrs. Fernald's invitations included Mesdames Barnes, Lombard, Ruid, Kelly, Evans, Dunway, Roderick, J. M. Keith, Frank Keith, Charles Johnson, Cattin, McLeod, Briggs, Gattley, J. M. Price, Archie Price, Dodds, West, Perley, R. Y. Stewart, Fiew, Skinner, Carter, McCall, Wells, Pavy, Elton, Van Patten, Redlingshafer, England, Mason, Hollister, Kennon, Cabanis, Wood, Ruffner, Von dem Bussche, Michle, Learnard, Sorley, Lewis, Mitchell, Bevins, Newton, Gaines, McCormick, Calkins, Ludwig, Thompson, Miles, Koha, Fitzgerald, Schenck, Mulhoney, Kellogg, Ross, Murphy, Derge, Fernald, Wilkinson; the Misses Wood, Picket, Gagnon and Ellithorpe.

Bonner-Spottwood Reception.
In Mrs. Spottwood's home, that was made like summerland with smilax and yellow and white chrysanthemums placed in artistic profusion, Wednesday placed in artistic profusion, yesterday Mrs. E. L. Bonner and Mrs. E. W. Spottwood received a large number of their friends. Mrs. William Spottwood of Deer Lodge stood with the two hostesses to greet arriving guests. Mrs. Luak, Mrs. Rowe, Mrs. Wilkinson and Mrs. Barnes assisted the receiving ladies. Lemon punch was served in the reception hall and in the dining room dainty refreshments were served by the deft-handed maids. Music was furnished during the afternoon by the Fadette Trio. One of the pretty and novel features was the gift of a dainty crepe paper basket tied with ribbons and violets for each guest. Many favors were said to Mrs. Bonner, who expects to leave next Sunday for her winter-journ in Atlantic coast cities.

Sans Souci and Mothers' Club.
By a pleasant coincidence Mrs. A. J. Gibson had asked the Mothers' club to meet with her last Wednesday on the same afternoon that Mrs. George Wilcox had the Sans Souci club in her rooms upstairs in the same house. As the guests arrived they were sorted and sent upstairs or down. Then for an hour or two needwork and visiting occupied both groups of ladies and when it came time for serving refreshments the guests all assembled downstairs in Mrs. Gibson's rooms. There were 21 ladies and 15 babies in the company and the refreshment hour was a lively one, as well as enjoyable.

For Miss McCartney.
The Sunney Club will entertain a number of friends Monday evening at the home of Miss Hilda Marsh. The party is given in honor of Miss Opal McCartney who expects to leave Missoula in the near future to make her home with her father.

King's Daughters Meet.
On Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the King's Daughters society will meet with Mrs. E. H. Collier at her home, 301 South Second street.

Park Addition Club.
At the regular session of the Park Addition club, held Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Otto Quast, the subject "Temperance" was discussed in various phases. Twenty members and one guest responded to roll call with the name of some eminent worker for the cause of temperance. Mrs. L. L. Wright put the ladies through a vigorous parliamentary drill in presenting resolutions. Then Mrs. Prescott, as leader for the day, announced the program. Mrs. Lucas played a piano solo. Mrs. W. H. Stennett gave a reading. Mrs. Buck recited "The Vagabonds," a trio including Mesdames Gray, Stennett and Buck, with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Cobhan. Mrs. Taylor read a carefully prepared history of the temperance movement early and late, and Mrs. Bennett sang a solo. Mrs. I. Q. Roberts assisted Mrs. Quast in the pleasant duties of hostess.

Daily Addition Mothers' Club.
A regular meeting of the Daily Addition Mothers' club was held Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Patton on South Sixth street. "Christmas Giving" was the subject under consideration and the ladies made a generous donation for the state orphan home at Twin Bridges to help make Christmas merry for the little ones there. They also planned to give Christmas cheer in their own immediate neighborhood. There was a large attendance and the afternoon was thoroughly enjoyed. The hostess, assisted by Mrs. Alex Henderson, Mrs. N. D. Warner and Mrs. George Jones, served a dainty lunch.

Lina Circle.
The meeting of the Lina Sewing circle Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Stahl in Daily addition, was, as usual, lively and enjoyable. Sewing, eating and making plans for disposing of the garments made by the members during the past year filled the time pleasantly. Those present were Mesdames Hubert, Kuhn, Hoffman, Walter-skirchen, Emmerich, Jonas, Greenfield, Clausen, Bishop, Matichewsky; the Misses Posivo, Bishop, Hoffmann and Elizabeth Stahl.

Belvas-McClain.
Abbie Belvas and William McClain were united in marriage at 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. U. Gibson, 704 West Spruce street. Rev. J. W. Bennett performed the ceremony in the presence of a few friends. Miss Jennie Milton and Charles Gibson attended the bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. McClain left Monday morning for Philadelphia, where they will be at home on their ranch near the city.

A Birthday Surprise.
Isadore Munch was seven years old Sunday and some little friends gathered for a surprise party in the afternoon. Games and music made the time pleasant for all and then there was served a splendid birthday supper with the nicest kind of a cake crowned with lighted candles. The guests were Viola Kelley, Loretta Kelley, Rhoda Eynon, Martha Eynon, May Campbell, Loretta Marion, Hazel and Callie Callantine, Loretta Lisotte, Thomas Alexander, Joseph Alexander, Albine Lisotte, David Beebe, Hall Campbell.

Mrs. Herrick a Guest.
Mrs. Una E. Herrick, dean of women at the Montana state college at Bozeman, was a guest at Craig hall Tuesday and Wednesday. Several members of the university faculty dined with Mrs. Herrick Tuesday evening and later she gave a number of dramatic readings for the entertainment of the young ladies resident in the hall. Mrs. Herrick left later for Butte and Anaconda, where she will continue her college extension work. Before returning to Bozeman she will visit her daughter, Miss Dunlap, who is dean of women and instructor of public speaking in the state normal college at Dillon.

A Birthday Surprise.
A pleasant surprise was arranged in honor of the sixty-seventh birthday of Mrs. Della A. Long, Wednesday evening at the home of her son, Frank Long, on North Third street. The guests played cards and prizes were won by Mrs. Rayner, Miss Hazel Boughton, Mr. Crawshaw and Perry Kendall. Delicious refreshments were served and gifts were showered upon the guest of honor with many good wishes. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Rayner, Mr. and Mrs. Crawshaw, Mr. and Mrs. Fessio, Mr. and Mrs. Ar-buckle, Mrs. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. McLannay, Mr. Meade, Miss Ella Crawshaw and Miss Hazel Boughton.

For Mrs. Edline.
Mrs. D. T. Haggerty charmingly entertained a dozen friends at a Dutch lunch Thursday evening in honor of Mrs. E. Edline of Wallace Idaho. Mrs. Edline who has been visiting Mrs. Haggerty at her home in the Union block, left yesterday for Wallace.

Ramblers' Whist Club.
A meeting of the Ramblers' Whist club was held Friday at the home of Mrs. Ernest Ilse on Pattee street. Nearly all the members were present, and Mrs. McLeod and Mrs. Christie were guests, making four tables of ladies to play the game. Prizes were won by Mrs. Paul Gerber, Mrs. C. L. Smith and Mrs. G. C. Mapes. Refreshments were served from a table trimmed with Christmas trees while the rooms were all bright with festoons of evergreens and red berries.

House-Warming Surprises.
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bussard were pleasantly surprised last Monday evening by a group of friends who came carrying their own chairs and refreshments, as well as a gift stover of preserved fruits. The pretty new home at 534 Brooks street was inspected and sincerely admired and then the evening was spent with music and conversation. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Will Dickinson, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. McAllister, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Woods, Mrs. J. H. Inch, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Dunstan, Mrs. Paris Adams, Mrs. Hoblett, Miss Nina Gough, Miss Marguerite Bennett, Miss Ruth Berry.

At Bonner.
Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Shannon were host and hostess last Sunday in their home at Bonner. A dainty turkey dinner with all the appropriate trimmings was served to their guests: Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Akin, the Misses Lillian and Caroline Reeves and Gladys Shannon.

For Mr. and Mrs. Roy Barnum.
Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Church will entertain at dinner today for Mr. and Mrs. Roy Barnum. Mr. Barnum, who is playing an engagement at the Har-nolds theater, was a schoolmate of Mr. Church in Mt. Pleasant, Mich., and this opportunity to renew old acquaintance is welcomed by both.

Woman's Club.
Four new members were voted into the Woman's club at the business session yesterday. It was also voted to ask for donations from the club members for the boxes that are to be sent to the orphan's home at Twin Bridges and for the work of the King's Daughters in Missoula at Christmas time. The program for the afternoon was in charge of the social and domestic science department with Mrs. Knisley in the chair. Mr. L. C. Pettit sang "Grenades" by Schumann and "Love Me If I Live" by Hahn. Miss Katherine Sullivan played "Rigoletto" by Verdi and Mrs. W. E. Moore sang "The Oopsy Trail." This will be the last meeting of the club until after the holidays.

Mrs. Perkins at Home.
Mrs. R. F. Perkins will be at home from 2 until 5 o'clock next Wednesday afternoon at her home, 438 Jefferson street. She will be pleased to greet all friends who care to come to take a cup of tea with her and to look at her exhibition of hand-painted china.

Bazaar and Dinner.
The ladies of the Christian church will give their annual bazaar and chicken dinner in the parlors of the church next Saturday afternoon and evening. All kinds of articles suitable for Christmas gifts have been prepared by the skillful fingers of the ladies and the display is sure to be well worth patronage.

A Straw Hat.
Miss Mabel Hosking was hostess Monday evening for a jolly straw hat. Her guests went out to her home on the street car. There they were stowed away in a great hay rack and taken for a moonlight drive to Lolo and returned. Once again at the Hosking home the young people were served an appetizing "Dutch Lunch" and then they sang and danced until a late hour, when the wagon was brought to the door to take the revellers home. Those present were the Misses Opal McCartney, Lilabel Ward, Edna Carle, Winnifred Felgus, Stinley Shumk, Winnifred McLaughlin, Genevieve Crouch, Mrs. Crouch, Miss Hosking, Messrs. J. L. Ward, Robert Semler,

George Flaherty, Arthur Dennis, Nelson Alexander, Fred Buck, Arthur Reichman and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Dreyer.

Surprise for Miss Garrity.
The Ladies' Auxiliary to the Ancient Order of Hibernians arranged a surprise for Miss Lena Garrity last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. T. J. Conroy on North Third street. Miss Garrity is going soon to make her home in Colfax, Wash., and she was presented with a gold chain and jeweled cross as a remembrance of her pleasant sojourn in Missoula. The ladies played cards and prizes were won by Mesdames Zimmer, W. E. Kelley and J. Morris. Then a bountiful supper was served by the self-invited guests.

A. Y. I. I. Club.
The A. Y. I. I. club was delightfully entertained by Miss Helen Roy on Wednesday evening at her home on East Spruce street. Whist was enjoyed, and as the result dainty and artistic prizes were won by Misses Stella Waters and Elsie Horweg, while Miss Mary Wightman was the recipient of the consolation. The evening was concluded with an appetizing lunch.

A Successful Musical.
The musical given by Mrs. A. Larabee's 1911 class was most successful from a musician's point of view and thoroughly enjoyed by all who attended. The program included a march "Little Lages," played by James Stinson; march, "Grasshopper Frolic," Ruth Beavers; waltz, "First Waltz," Lola Kendall; march, "Drum Major," Lee Kahn; waltz, "My Papa's," Arthur Brooks; duet, "Rocky Glen Twostep," Obra and Alfred Phelps; two-step, "Golden Flyer," Myrtle Naats; gavotte, "Welcome Message," Genevieve Crawshaw; song duet, "There's Another Picture in My Mamma's Frame," Misses Ella and Genevieve Crawshaw; two-step, "Chanticleer," Alfred Phelps; waltz, "Europe Dances," Fritz Kahn; reverie, "Love's message," Obra Phelps; "Gavotte Brillante," "Congratulations," Ella Crawshaw; polka de concert, "Scenes of Splendor," Mrs. A. Larabee; duet, "Anvil Chorus," Misses Ella and Genevieve Crawshaw.

Civic Section.
The civic section of the Woman's club held a very satisfactory meeting Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Forbis on South Second street. A lively interest is shown by mothers in the subject of prevention of illness among school children and plans have been made to hold a series of meetings in the several school buildings of the city, where parents and all who are interested may be addressed by physicians and scientific men upon this subject of vital import. Cuthbert Peat, president of the school board, spoke of prevailing conditions in Missoula as compared to other cities in regard to general precautions for the health of children in school. He courteously offered every assistance possible from himself and his fellow board members in the work being undertaken by the civic section.

Mr. Dennis and The Virginian.
Arthur Dennis enjoyed a visit with his friend, George Kelly, who played the part of the Virginian in the play of that name at the Harolds theater Tuesday evening. The two were acquainted in St. Paul several years ago and Mr. Dennis gave a dinner at the Palace hotel in Mr. Kelly's honor Tuesday night. Mr. Kelly read several dramatic selections and entertained the guests with accounts of experiences, which have come to him in his professional life.

Baracca Class Musical.
The first one of a series of entertainments to be given by the Baracca class of the Methodist church set a high standard of excellence Friday evening. Every number was an artistic triumph in itself and the class, as well as the audience, is most grateful to those who donated their services for the concert.

Friday Evening Whist.
Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Marlowe entertained at cards Friday evening at their home on University avenue. Whist was the name of the evening and prizes were won by Mrs. Steinhilber, Mrs. Beeson, Mr. Henry Greenwood and Sam Beeson. Those who had a part in the delightful affair were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Greenwood, Mr. and Mrs. Ruel Cosner, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Borg, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Springer, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Beeson, Mr. and Mrs. Will Steinhilber, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer and Miss Weston.

Presbyterian Scouts.
Thirty-four scouts were entertained Friday evening at the home of Willie Hoogbrun. The boys were seated at tables and a three-course dinner was served by Mrs. Hoogbrun and Mrs. Williams. Later in the evening the boys were given a demonstration in the application of bandages by Archie Little and Aubrey Leahy. Two new members were admitted to the band, Kenneth Sablin and Reginald Elton.

Westminster Guild.
The meeting of the Westminster guild at the home of Miss Alma Hutson last Tuesday evening was one of the most successful of the season. The problem for discussion was "Home and the Social Problem." Miss Stoddard, Miss McLaughlin and Miss Terry led in the debate and nearly all of the 25 members present took part in the general discussion, which was animated and practical.

A Santa Claus Committee.
So generous has been the response to a suggestion for sending Christmas gifts to the little folks in the orphan's home at Twin Bridges, that it has been thought wise to put the matter of arranging and distributing the gifts into the hands of representative women of Missoula. A committee has been appointed with Mrs. Charles Blair as chairman. The other ladies asked to serve are: Mesdames John G. McCormick, T. A. Fitzgerald, S. Fredericks, Charles B. Thompson, Henry Greenwood, Tyler H. Hall, Edward Wardle, Charles E. Miller, Eugene Wargal, Ed Doulan, F. L. Darbee, C. A. Baraga, A. Butzerin and E. C. Mulrooney. Mrs. Blair lives at the Palace hotel and

For Visiting Ladies.
On Friday evening at their home on West Pine street Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Trudeau pleasantly entertained a congenial gathering of young folks complimentary to Miss Lulu Gable of Monrovia, Cal., and Miss Opal Hunt of Cambridge, Neb., who are visiting in this city. Fifteen hands of whist were enjoyed and for their good fortune in the game Miss Montford and Dr. Toney were awarded the prizes. The guests then assembled in the dining room to partake of a delicious supper, after which the remainder of the evening was delightfully spent in dancing and merry-making. Those comprising the jolly company were: Misses Lulu Gable, Opal Hunt, Lottie Montford, Freda Heckler, Grace Beck, Katherine Condon, Messrs. Thomas Fitzgerald, J. Long, Clarence Tubbs, Claude Elder, Dr. Toney, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Trudeau.
