

Why Give Furniture

Furniture is at once the gift of common sense and a gift to build up lifelong friendship, provided the furniture is of the right kind. We don't believe we have any need to print all the good arguments there are for giving furniture and, anyhow, we would have to think long and hard before we could find any arguments so convincing as the Christmas furniture display to be seen here.

The M. M. Co. offers you the pick and choice of the best factories in America, and our prices are the lowest for which you can buy furniture with the certainty that it is picked and chosen for conspicuous merit. QUITE A PROPORTION OF THIS FURNITURE IS UNDERVALUED BECAUSE ADVANTAGEOUSLY BOUGHT.

OAK used to be so poorly treated that people became sick and tired of it.

This was before Berkey & Gay originated their now celebrated "Flanders" furniture.

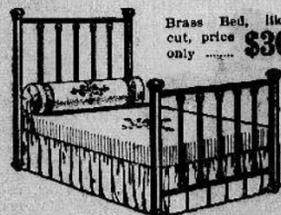

Away back in the early Seventeenth Century, Vriedmann de Vries, who was the master woodworker of Holland, created the design which forms the base for "Flanders" pieces. Berkey & Gay give their "Flanders" pieces the same treatment as Vriedmann de Vries gave it. The result is a rich, mellow surface which grows more beautiful with time. The design avoids the stiffness of "mission" styles and has the authoritativeness of true artistic thought.

"Flanders" furniture is made for dining room, bedroom, library and living room, and its harmonious effect in modern houses is splendid.

The next time you are in our store we hope you will look at it.
