

MERCANTILE TAKES THE LAST GAME OF SEASON

MERCHANT TEAM IS RETURNED AS VICTOR BY A CLOSE SCORE.

HITTING IS THE FEATURE

Both Squads Clout the Ball Hard, but the Moneychangers Bunch Their Bingles and Win—Reach Cup is Presented to the Leaders.

Table with 3 columns: Club, Won, Lost, Pct. Rows include Mercantile, White House, Northern Pacific, Athletics.

In a close and exciting contest, the Mercantile team defeated the White House last evening by the score of 14 to 13. The leaders already had a cinch on the pennant and the outcome of the game only affected the standing of the White House team...

The Presentation.

The main feature of the evening occurred in the intermission between the sixth and seventh innings. President 'Hat Box' Jones graciously descended from the bleachers and presented the Mercantile team with the Reach cup. President Jones stated that the Mercantile team was entitled to the cup, as its team had done the most consistent work and had the two best pitchers in the league...

Loose fielding and bunching of hits by the Mercantile were responsible for the defeat of the White House. Hitting was about even, but the Mercantile sluggers could connect when hits meant runs. The teams started the ninth inning with the Presidentials one run to the good. The White House failed to score in its half of the ninth session. Pritchard, first man up for the Mercantile, was given a base on balls. Taylor hit, but Pritchard was held as second. Rommel hit to Burns and Pritchard was forced at third. Scribner and Lundstrom followed with hits, two runs chased across and the game was over. The White House started its work in the first inning. Three runs came in on three hits and a base on ball.

The teams lined up as follows: White House—Hefron, first base; Briebach, left field; Plummer, catcher; Burns, second base; Richards, left short; Kornblaser, right short; Graybill, third base; Faherty, right field; Ferguson, pitcher. Mercantile—Pritchard, right short; Taylor, catcher; Rommel, left short; Scribner, pitcher and first base; Lundstrom, pitcher and first base; Miller, right field; Henderson, left field; Hayes, third base; Harris, second base.

Score by Innings— R. H. E. White House 3 2 1 3 9 2 0 2 0—13 18 6. Mercantile 2 0 4 2 9 4 0 2 2—14 19 2. Summary: Struck out—By Ferguson, 14; by Lundstrom, 2; by Scribner, 11. Bases on balls—Off Ferguson, 2; by Scribner, 2. Innings pitched—Lundstrom, 2; Scribner, 7. Time of game, 1 hour and 36 minutes. Umpires, Stone and McCarthy.

INDOOR NOTES

Henderson in left field contributed greatly to the downfall of the Presidentials. He nipped all kinds of drives that looked to be safe.

It has not yet been ascertained how Allen liked that statement of Jones' about Scribner and Lundstrom being the best pitchers in the league. It was getting to be a red-letter day for Lundstrom when he could get through a game without being derided.

President Jones makes a nice appearance on the floor and his remarks were received with applause.

That will be all until next season. Ollie Harris made his debut on second base for the Mercantile. He presented a very neat appearance.

An unknown pinch-hitter was sent in for Hayes in the eighth. He failed to connect. Captain Taylor then sent Hayes back on third, but a roar was made by the White House players and the unknown resumed his station.

FRANKIE BURNS WINS.

New Orleans, March 14.—Frankie Burns of Jersey City gave Jim Kendrick of England a severe drubbing in a 10-round fight here today before the Orleans Athletic club.

MURPHY IS LOOKING FOR GOOD PLACE TO WORK OUT

PRESIDENT OF BUTTE CLUB IS SCOUTING FOR TRAINING QUARTERS.

PLAINS IS CONSIDERED

Barred From Hamilton by Highlanders, Mountmen's Representative is Still Searching—Hamblin and Sullivan Sign Agreement.

President Ed P. Murphy of the Butte club in the Union association is in Missoula and he intends to canvass the western-Montana banana belt carefully before he goes back to the icy hills of the big camp. Mr. Murphy is out scouting for a training camp for his Mountmen, according to the announcement he made upon his arrival. He had contemplated working out at Hamilton, but found that Blankenship had already staked out a claim on the Bitter Root's capital. So, he is still looking, with his eyes directed toward Plains, where there is reported to be a good diamond and the best weather on tap anywhere, barring, of course.

Mr. Murphy might take a look at Stevensville, for there is a fast infield in that town and the climate is all to the good. Also, there's nothing wrong with Montana field, right here.

Yesterday Ely Hamblin and Willie Sullivan signed articles for a six-round go at Fort Missoula on the night of March 21. This match will be one of the big features of a rattling good program arranged for that night. The big bills will be out in a day or so and interest is being expressed on all sides. Those who have seen Sullivan in action know that the little soldier is a streak for speed and a marvel of cleverness. Hamblin has a pretty record and the fight should be a whirlwind. The bout was arranged some time ago.

Word has been received from M. E. Lund, manager of Guy Sanson, welterweight grappler, that his charge will be in fine condition to meet Tom Sontag on March 29. The men will meet at 145 pounds, the welterweight limit, and the match will be for the welterweight championship of the northwest. Sontag held the belt for many months and will defend it well. Sanson is known to be a good man and Missoula fans are strong for Sontag. On the night of the 21st Sontag will take on four of the best amateurs he can find, agreeing to throw them all within an hour. There will be five preliminaries to the Hamblin-Sullivan maul and the Sontag exhibition.

Dan Seales, a manager, blew into town yesterday with his string, a lightweight and a middleweight boxer. Seales has been campaigning for the northwest and the southwest for a long time and has a lot of scalp on his belt. His lightweight protégé is Bud Shamrock, a fast little man who has won a lot of battles. Shamrock registers from Seattle. 'Cyclone' Mitchell is the other barrel of the Seales artillery. He is a husky lad and looks as if he had something. Seales is going to stick around here awhile, not necessarily for publication but as an evidence of good faith.

'I'll give 'em all a chance,' said Manager Blankenship of the Missoula team yesterday, repeating his invitation to the amateurs of this part of the country. 'If there's any young fellow around here who thinks he's got baseball in him,' he went on, 'let him come to me. I'll let all of them have a good chance; there's no favoritism about this; the man who's the best gets the job. Now, let 'em for me that they can all have a tryout.'

H. John Kelley, catcher, received a letter yesterday from Dick Cooley, manager of the Salt Lake club in this circuit. The letter said that Salt Lake is enjoying some very tough weather and that Kelley's transportation would not be wired until next Monday. This means that Harry will be working with the Mountmen by this time next week. If Kelley doesn't make good, we'll eat our hat.

Ole Magee went up to Hamilton yesterday on business. When he got back he was loud in commendation—pipe that word—of the weather up there. 'Honestly,' he said, 'it's plenty warm enough right now for baseball up there. The fans have the fever badly, too, and are anxious for Blankenship's team to arrive. Hamilton's a good town, all the time, but it's the best baseball town for its size in the world.'

CARNEY LOSES TITLE.

Denver, March 14.—Joe Carney of Denver tonight lost his title of world's champion three-cushion billiard player to John ('Banker') Horgan of St. Louis, although Carney made 60 points, while the easterner was accumulating the 50 necessary to win the match. The final score: Horgan, 150; Carney, 127. The winner was challenged by John Daly of Chicago, and the next contest for the title and the $1,000 Lambert trophy will be held between Daly and Horgan in St. Louis in May.

ATHLETIC WIN.

San Antonio, March 14.—Shawkey Salmon and Brown, pitching for the Philadelphia Americans today against the San Antonio team of the Texas league, held the hits down to four and won, 4 to 2.

SANBORN IN PRAISE OF BILL ORR'S ABILITY

THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE SPORTS WRITER THINKS RECRUIT HAS THE GOODS.

RECORD OF YOUNGSTER

Career of Last Year's Shortstop for Salt Lake Club is Given in Detail, With Comment on His Personality and Style.

The youngest of Frank Chance's youngsters this spring wears the name of William Joan Orr and has seen only one season of professional service. Moreover, he has attracted much attention and favorable comment in the little work the players have been able to get here in the last week. Thus writes I. E. Sanborn from New Orleans to the Chicago Tribune.

Orr was born in San Francisco in 1891 and is only a little over 20 years old. He has had more than one year's experience as an infielder, however, for he played third base and shortstop during most of his four years in college.

Nor is Orr one of those collegians who have studied baseball primarily and who owed their scholarship standings to their ability on the diamond. He was a bona fide student and played without interfering with his studies. Orr was a student for three years at Willamette college, in San Francisco, and finished his four years course in Sacred Heart college. He specialized in mathematics and probably would have developed into an expert civil engineer if his love for the diamond had not been too strong.

He finished college in June, 1909, and started to gain practical knowledge of civil engineering by entering the employ of the Spring Valley water department. He worked there for the rest of that year and all of 1910, but kept up his baseball during leisure hours.

When the spring of 1911 rolled around, bringing a call from the new Union association, it proved too strong for the budding civil engineer. Orr listened to the call and was assigned to the Salt Lake team, where he worked under Cliff Blankenship as manager. His performances at short caught immediate recognition and in one year he jumped the intervening classes to get a trial in fast company. Last season with Salt Lake Orr played in every game with his team, never missing an inning. In 143 games he piled up a total of 332 catches and accepted 739 of them cleanly. That left him 92 errors, but he did not make more misplays than anyone else in the league, although he played in many more games than any other shortstop. The record book shows that he went after everything within reach and that has been characteristic of his work here even on the unreliable diamonds on which the Cubs have worked out.

Orr has a strong wing and throws with it from any position under or over hand, just as comes easiest. His pegging has been accurate for so early in the year, and in spite of a slight lameness in his shoulder, which makes it hurt a little to cut loose that hurry throw, he is fast on his feet and pounces on hot grounders or short, dumpy bunts with agility and certainty.

Of a modest and retiring disposition when not in uniform, the kid of the party is so full of natural pepper that he made more noise in Sunday's game than anyone else except Tom Needham. Orr worked hard to win the game, displaying natural familiarity with the demands of third base in spite of the fact he has not played that bag since early in his college career.

As a batsman Orr ranked in the first division of the regular players of the Union last year, his stick average being .302. He has an unusual style at bat which, while not as graceful as that of a Lajoie or a Schulte, gives him the same freedom of swing and enables him to follow a curve with his bat even after starting his swing. Orr's father is a police lieutenant in San Francisco, and while the infielder does not exhibit the proportions of a policeman as yet, he is young and no strapping. He lacks only an inch of six feet in height and weighs 168 pounds when in shape, consequently he is stocky enough to hit and not too tall for an infielder. He went to the big fire following the Frisco earthquake, but his family escaped unharmed and lost no property because their residence was outside the danger zone.

Chief Blankenship developed the greater part of Orr's ability last year, when Orr was working with him for the Saints. Orr was a favorite here last season; all Union association fans hope he'll stick.

KNOCKOUT IS SCORED BUT FIGHT KEEPS ON

JENS PEDERSEN TO FIGHT

CHARLES MOTH, NOW IN ST. REGIS, WOULD MEET LOCAL ATHLETE IN RING.

"A RECEIPT IN FULL"

Personal Matter Between Two Men is Basis of Proposed Bout, Which Veteran Explains to Missoulian Sporting Editor.

To the sporting editor's desk comes the following letter, under a St. Regis date, leaving out the salutation as immaterial: 'Some time last summer I was giving lessons to Jens Pedersen and I see that he managed to stay two hours with a 150-pound man. The last day I was practicing with him he also wrestled with a man from the brick yard, by the name of Dell McKee. After a couple of minutes of wrestling McKee, with some kind of a farmer hold on him, threw Pedersen to the mat and sprained Pedersen's ankle. I bathed his ankle with hot water for several days and, after he got so that he could walk again, he politely told me that the only way we could settle things between us was to fight it out. But, as I was troubled with rheumatism at the time, I was not able to accommodate him. 'Now, I understand that Guy Sanson and Tom Sontag are going to wrestle at Fort Missoula. I would like very much for Mr. Pedersen to meet me in a six or ten-round boxing contest on that date, or on any other date he may want to clash with me. If Mr. Pedersen will agree to a match with me, I will kindly give him a receipt in full and winner take all. 'Yours respectfully, 'CHARLES MOTH.'

Moth is wintering in St. Regis, one of the entourage of Guy Sanson, the welterweight who will wrestle with Tom Sontag on March 29. He has been a famous grappler in his day and once held the Gracco-Roman championship. Moth is well known here.

RACING RESULTS

At Juarez, March 14.—The cold, raw wind which prevailed today kept the attendance down with the Juarez race-track. Slow time was made in nearly all the races. Favorites fared badly. TRAFFIC PARALYZED.

Denver, March 14.—Mails from the east probably will be delayed further on account of the blizzard, which continued today. Traffic on every line to the east except from the Santa Fe has been paralyzed for two days. Mails from the west are nearly normal. The Union Pacific today started a train east. At First View, near the Colorado line, it was compelled to turn back. No Rock Island trains arrived here or left here today.
