

E. B. CRAIGHEAD PRESIDENT ELECT

COMMITTEE OF STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION ANNOUNCES ITS CHOICE.

OF TULANE UNIVERSITY

Noted Educator Who is to Take Charge of the Montana University Has a Wonderful Record as Executive of New Orleans Institution—Coming Due to Charles H. Hall.

Helena, May 18.—(Special).—The new president of the University of Montana is Dr. Edwin Boone Craighead, president of Tulane university of Louisiana, situated at New Orleans. Dr. Craighead was elected this afternoon, his candidacy being ratified unanimously by the special committee named by the state board of education to select an executive for the University of Montana to succeed Dr. C. A. Dunaway.

It was stated here tonight that the arrival of Dr. Craighead in Montana had been delayed by the floods of the lower Mississippi valley.

Dr. Craighead is recognized as an educator of a reputation more than national, as a constructive executive, as an able scholar and a polished, affable gentleman.

The members of the committee that elected Dr. Craighead this afternoon are jubilant on account of their success, for they regard the securing of him as the beginning of a new and greater era for the state university and for the cause of higher education in Montana.

Also the committeemen give the credit for Dr. Craighead's coming to the University of Montana to their chairman, Charles H. Hall of Missoula. Mr. Hall has spent much time, including a special trip to the more noted educational centers of America, in his search for the ideal man to take the third presidency of the most important school within the Treasure state.

Dr. Craighead left this evening for Missoula, accompanied by Mr. Hall.

New President Here. Charles H. Hall and Dr. Craighead reached Missoula on Northern Pacific passenger train No. 5 at midnight. Dr. Craighead insisted on walking to his hotel, as he wished to secure his first ideas about Missoula. He retired immediately.

Mr. Hall is much more than satisfied with the coming of Dr. Craighead to the university. He is delighted with the man, his personality and his learning. "I believe that he is the best man in the world for our university," he said. "No, that isn't it, exactly; I know that he is, for Cyrus Northrup, president emeritus of the University of Minnesota has said almost that very thing about Dr. Craighead. Here is the message Dr. Northrup sent me concerning him:

"I recommend in the strongest terms E. B. Craighead, president of Tulane university, as a most desirable man for the presidency of the University of Montana. He is a strong and successful executive, an able scholar, a good speaker, an admirable man. He is the best man in the coun-

BIG EASTERN MEN TO EXTEND AID TO DARROW

NAMES OF PROMINENT PERSONS WHO WILL UPHOLD REPUTATION ARE GIVEN.

Los Angeles, May 18.—Names of prominent Chicagoans, including former United States senators, federal and state judges, noted lawyers and city officials, were brought into the case of Clarence Darrow today by District Attorney John D. Fredericks in the examination of a witness, who formerly had resided in Chicago. All of those mentioned are said to have sworn to depositions regarding the character and good reputation of the defendant. In the brief forenoon session the list of sworn jurors was increased to 10 and it was generally believed that the remaining two would be chosen soon after court reconvened Monday afternoon.

Among the names of prominent Chicagoans who will figure as witnesses, either in person or by affidavit, concerning the character of Darrow, are Mayor Carter Harrison, former

RECALL OF MAYOR OF SEATTLE ASKED

Seattle, May 18.—Petitions asking the recall of Mayor George F. Cotterell, who was elected last winter, were circulated tonight. The principal charge made in the petitions is that Mayor Cotterell has failed to give proper protection to citizens seeking to enforce respect for the American flag, the mayor having criticized the action of the men who destroyed the red flag carried by the socialists in their May day parade. It will require approximately 17,000 signatures to call an election, and as far as known none has been obtained yet.

IMPENDING BATTLE MAY BE FOUGHT TODAY

CRISIS IN MEXICAN REVOLUTION WILL COME WITH EXPECTED ENGAGEMENT.

At the Rebel Front, Escalon, Mexico, May 18.—6 p. m.—Carefully placed in the arroyos and on hills, the front of the insurrecto army tonight is awaiting attack of the government forces. General Salazar is in command of the troops just south of Relano, while General Campa and Fernandez and Colonel Alarce are directing the movements of the 2,000 men stationed here behind the advance guard.

Crisis Impending. El Paso, May 18.—The main army of the rebels tonight was at Relano and Escalon, 408 and 419 miles south of here, on the Mexican Central railroad. Along the same road, 14 miles away, federal columns are stretched. Hourly the two armies are creeping toward one another with the rebels apparently on the defensive and awaiting the attack. Estimates of the forces of both sides range from 10,000 to 15,000 men.

Separated from the two main bodies are forces operating in all directions. Admittedly the crisis in the campaign has been reached and a big engagement is likely to occur tomorrow.

LYNCH IN THE LEAD.

Spokane, May 18.—Returns tonight from 168 out of 700 typographical unions give James M. Lynch of Syracuse, N. Y., a lead of 425 votes over Fred Barker of Spokane in the race for international president.

MUCH IS DEPENDING ON THE OUTCOME IN OHIO

PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATION AT CHICAGO HINGES GREATLY ON TUESDAY'S PRIMARIES.

Columbus, Ohio, May 18.—Three presidential candidates ended a week of almost continuous travel and speaking tonight and rested, while the managers of each of them made claims of certain victory at the Ohio primaries next Tuesday.

The state is conceded by most politicians to be the deciding point in the battle for the presidential nomination and especially in the rights of the two native sons, President Taft and Governor Harmon.

Mr. Taft and Mr. Roosevelt, among the republicans, and a score of lesser lights, have spent the greater part of the week on trains, while Senator La Follette came yesterday, and there has been no section of the state neglected.

Competition in the democratic ranks is scarcely less keen. Colonel William J. Bryan, backed by National Committeeman Harvey C. Garber, urging voters to support Governor Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey, to defeat Governor Harmon, toured the state just ahead of the Ohio executive.

Senator La Follette's national manager, Walter L. Houser, will make no prediction, but added to the day's interest by making public a partial list of Senator La Follette's campaign contributors. Chief of these were Charles R. Crane, Chicago, $20,000, and Gifford Pinchot, Washington, $10,000.

RICHESON IS READY TO MEET HIS FATE

Boston, May 18.—Fourteen hours of sound, refreshing sleep served today to transform Clarence V. T. Richeson, awaiting death in the Massachusetts state prison at Charlestown, from a condition of delirious hysteria to calmness and apparent resignation.

Richeson this afternoon broke a fast of 30 hours. Information today that his body in all probability will be buried beside the grave of his mother in the family lot in Virginia brought consolation to the condemned man.

CIRCUS WAGON ROBBED.

Rock Springs, Wyo., April 18.—The ticket wagon of a circus was held up and robbed here today of $1,700. The robbers escaped into the mountains. A mounted posse is in pursuit.

MISS DORA KEEN BELIEVED TO BE AT IT

Cordova, Alaska, May 18.—No word has been received for several days from Miss Dora Keen, the Philadelphia woman who is leading an expedition up Mount Blackburn, one of Alaska's snowcapped peaks, but it is believed that the party is making the final dash for the summit. Until two days ago a 14-day storm raged over the coast and the interior, but the last two days have been ideal for mountain-climbing. When the storm broke Miss Keen's party was camping at the timber line and was ready to resume the climb as soon as the weather cleared.

I. W. W. ATTORNEYS MAKE SERIOUS CHARGES

SAY AUTHORITIES IN SAN DIEGO REFUSE TO GRANT THEM ANY PROTECTION.

San Diego, May 18.—Fred H. Moore and Marcus W. Robbins, attorneys for members of the Industrial Workers of the World and others now awaiting trial here, together with William S. Rawlins, their office stenographer, cannot be found in San Diego tonight. It is reported that members of a citizens' committee have been searching the city for them since dark. The two attorneys sent out a signed statement tonight in which they charge that mob violence has invaded the rights of individuals to life, person and property in San Diego, and saying that they have been threatened with death if they appear further as counsel for those now awaiting trial. They claim further that the chief of police and the sheriff have refused to afford them protection.

"We must appear in court, Monday, May 20," says the statement. "Between now and then we are threatened with mob violence, with a repetition of the Reitman affairs, and as officers of the court we are entitled to protection.

"The sheriff refuses to act until ordered to do so by either the governor or the courts, or called upon by the police. "The police have actively aided and abetted unlawful actions in the past. "Our only hope is in the sound, sober judgment of the people of the city of San Diego, the state of California and of the United States. We ask that

FACTS SHOW HOW TAFT STOOD

SENATOR DIXON ISSUES STATEMENT TELLING HOW TRUST SUIT WAS BARRED.

HILLES IS CONTRADICTED

It is Shown That the Then Secretary of War Had a Decided Opinion Against Beginning of Suit Against Harvester Company While Investigation, Was in Progress.

Washington, May 18.—A statement containing portions of a letter from former Attorney General Bonaparte, in which he says that Mr. Taft, as secretary of war, took part in the cabinet meeting at which it was decided to withdraw prosecution of the harvester company, because of the bureau of corporation's investigation, was issued by Senator Dixon of the Roosevelt national bureau today. The statement took the form of an answer to that issued from the White House last night by Charles D. Hilles, secretary to the president.

"Nothing more despicable has ever occurred in the history of American politics," said the statement, "than the attempt of Mr. Taft, through deliberate, knowing and sustained falsehood, to misrepresent the facts regarding the case of the International Harvester company and to avoid personal responsibility for non-action in the courts by the government against that company.

"The facts themselves, of which Mr. Taft is undeniably aware, and which are capable of complete demonstration, show:

The Facts. "First, that Mr. Taft was present at the cabinet meeting where the matter was discussed and the final decision reached and that he not only had knowledge of the matter, but took a deciding part in the determination.

"Second, that the senate, upon being made aware of the situation by Senator Hansbrough, distinctly refused to stop the investigation by the bureau of corporations, and permit the department of justice to go ahead with its prosecution.

"Third, Senator Hansbrough, an opponent of the harvester company was the first man to be addressed by the attorney general and he attempted to secure action by the senate which would permit the department to bring proceedings.

"Early in January, 1908, Mr. Bonaparte had received sufficient information from the special investigators of the department of justice to lead him to believe that a prosecution of the harvester company should be undertaken. In a recent letter discussing this matter, Mr. Bonaparte says:

"I then told the president that I was prepared now to recommend a prosecution. According to my recollection, he assented, certainly did not forbid one, but I soon afterward ascertained from Mr. Smith (commissioner of corporations), probably through an inquiry on my part, that his investigation, which I had supposed concluded, still was in progress. I then submitted the matter at a cabinet meeting.

"Secretary Root suggested that, as the law gave the senate the right to order such an investigation by the bureau of corporations, the bureau must be considered as a legal agency of the senate for the purpose of making the investigation, and the situation was the same as if a committee of the senate were engaged in such inquiry.

TEDDY STRIKES SOME HARD BLOWS

AGAINST TAFT BECAUSE THE LATTER PROVED FAITHLESS TO THE PEOPLE.

NEW CHARGES ARE MADE

The President Deliberately Suppressed Lawler Memorandum Letter in Regard to Glavin-Ballinger Controversy and Let the Senate Have Some "Doctored" Papers in the Case.

Cleveland, May 18.—For an hour tonight Colonel Roosevelt faced a large crowd in the Central armory here and struck blow after blow at President Taft. He asserted that the president had made untruthful statements about him. He declared the president's action in the Ballinger case was such that had he taken a similar course as president of a bank, he would "have been in imminent danger of having the matter laid before the district attorney."

"One by one he took up points upon which President Taft has assailed him and as he brought his speech to a close, he said:

"I am against Mr. Taft because Mr. Taft proved faithless to the cause of the American people." Colonel Roosevelt spent the day in traveling through central Ohio and making a dozen speeches. In Cleveland tonight he spoke first in the Central armory and then in the south end of the city.

"Mr. Taft is not content," said Colonel Roosevelt, in opening his address at the armory, "to fight this issue on broad grounds of policy. Yesterday, he, in his own person and through his private secretary, made a number of bitter and, incidentally, untruthful personal attacks upon me."

Colonel Roosevelt then discussed the charge of rebating, on which Mr. Hanna was indicted and its subsequent dismissal. He said the facts of the case showed that "there was not the slightest moral delinquency on the part of Mr. Hanna." He then said that if Mr. Taft would read the current number of a certain weekly magazine he would find name after name of men among his southern delegates and supporters who have been indicted and have served terms of imprisonment.

He said that one Taft candidate for delegate from the district of Columbia, "who is now contesting the seat of the rightfully elected delegate, with Mr. Taft's cordial approval, was not only indicted but served a sentence."

The newspapers have announced, he said, that in New Jersey next week Mr. Taft is to be the guest of a Taft candidate for delegate who is indicted in connection with the wire pool investigation last year. He said: "The boss of Atlantic City, the leader of the Taft forces in his county, was indicted and now is awaiting disposal of his appeal from a sentence of a year in prison."

Colonel Roosevelt also mentioned Patrick Calhoun, who was indicted in San Francisco.

Taft Never Repaid Loan.

Referring to President Taft's allusions to the fact that George W. Perkins of New York had contributed to Colonel Roosevelt's campaign fund, the colonel said that Mr. Perkins had given a larger amount to Mr. Taft's campaign fund four years ago and that the Taft campaign manager had borrowed $15,000 from Mr. Perkins which never had been repaid.

Colonel Roosevelt then took up the charge that he had refused to prosecute the International Harvester company, making much the same state-

Results

RESULTS are what the business man wants. He wants results from his correspondence and he wants results from his announcements. He knows that the certainty of results depends largely upon the character of his printing. The business man of experience keeps away from "cheap" job printing. He looks first to the quality of the work which he buys. "Cheap" job printing is a poor investment. It creates a bad impression and it is ineffective in bringing business. At The Missoulian Print Shop you will get the printing which is high-quality work. That is the sort you want if you want to accomplish good results. Missoulian printing is good printing. The men who make it are experts in their line and the material which is used in its manufacture is the best that can be secured. The price at which it is delivered is the lowest price consistent with good work. The men who make Missoulian printing receive good wages and it is not possible to turn out "cheap" work here because they are not cheap men. Moreover, they are Missoula men; they spend their money here and it is only fair play that you should send your printing to them.

Class Ad History CCXCV.—GETTING A BUSINESS. The man who is looking for a business location can often find just what he wants, just by looking over the classified page of The Missoulian. There are often fine opportunities listed there. The habit of looking over this page every day is a good one, whether you are looking for a business location or something else. There is usually something there which will directly interest you. Here is a case where a man profited by reading the classified page: BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES A SPLENDID LOCATION IN GOOD live town for a barber who has complete outfit; no rent; poolroom in connection. Address: J. Marcure, Dixon, Montana. This ad was published six times. On the sixth day The Missoulian received a note from Mr. Marcure: "Please stop the ad. It did the work." The advertiser was pleased and so was the man who read the ad and bought the business. It had cost the former only one cent a word. If you are out of work and want a job, The Missoulian will print your ad for nothing.
