OGDEN COMES BACK IN VALLEY CAPITAL AND SENATORS ARE LOSERS

GOOD CROWD SEES APOSTLES RETURN AND DEFEAT HELENA, 9 TO 7.

GAME IS HARD FOUGHT

Utah Town Has Gone Baseball Crazy and Victory Doesn't Help to Make Things Any Better—Byrd Is Losing Pitcher.

Ogden, July 12.—Ogden came back today and won the game from Helena. The contest was close and hard fought from the beginning. Byrd and Erickson pitched good ball and the attendance was good. The town has practically gone baseball mad. Score:

Get out the band, let's celebrate. Play now your loudest tune; Blank's in the fight, he's sure all right. The lead will be ours soon. —H. Lander Hymns.

Hamilton, July 12.—(Special.)—To make a Bitter Root holiday Butte and Missoula slaughtered each other on the Hamilton diamond this afternoon in the presence of 1,500 Eagles and their friends. The final score was 9 to 7. It was four straight defeats for Butte at the hands of the Highlanders and it was the bloodiest battle of them all. Blankenship trotted out Carl Zamloch, sold to Detroit, for the inspection of the natives here and their guests, the Eagles of Montana, but it was not Zamloch's day. True it is that the Highlander's pride was in front all the day and that he won, but he was hit hard, and only in spots did he show the form that has made him a Union association prodigy. Thirteen heroic swats did the Butte team, the visitors in this case, for the Missoula club furnished the balls, register off the boy from California. On the other hand Missoula got to Mike Maloney and Klein, who went one disastrous round after Michael had finished the eighth, for 17 husky blows. The grounds were in bad shape, having been redeemed from a public thoroughfare for the occasion, and many hops developed on balls that looked like the easiest chances. This accounts for a mess of the hits. Butte kept coming all the time and the Highlanders maintained their lead only by sticking hard and all the time. The first frame brought a count

BOTH SLUGGING MATCHES

Salt Lake Uses Two New Twirlers, Edgerton and Dillon, and Both Are Cruelly Mistreated—Just How It Happened.

Salt Lake, July 12.—Great Falls showed some of their old-time form today and defeated Salt Lake in a double-header. Both games were slugfest matches with the visitors hitting a little the hardest. Quick was out of the first game by Umpire Frary for using profane language to a spectator. Salt Lake's new pitchers, Edgerton and Dillon, were given try-outs today, but both were hit hard.
