

JACK WAITE STOCK IS SAFE

NO ASSESSMENTS WILL BE MADE TO MEET THE NECESSARY EXPENSES.

Wallace, July 13.—(Special.)—There will be no assessments on the stock of the Jack Waite Mining company this year, according to the announced plans of the new board of directors which organized late Thursday night.

On the new board are at least two millionaires, Robert Shoffice and E. Wimbly, said Martin, and it is their plan to work to make the property self-sustaining, if not a dividend payer.

The board decided to engage an assistant secretary on a salary, and install him at the property to take active charge of the books of the company.

The master of erecting a mill was informally discussed, but no definite action was taken, the directors agreeing that under the circumstances it would be best to await further development of the strike in the lower tunnel to ascertain more definitely the amount of tonnage in sight.

HOT WEATHER IS QUICK TO AFFECT THE BOWELS

Well-Known Fact That Extreme Heat Conduces to Chronic Constipation.

The disposition to eat cold food and induce in food drinks is one reason why constipation and diarrhea is so prevalent in summer, and there is no time when people should more care, fully avoid bowel disturbances, as much serious disease is directly traceable to these conditions.

To regulate the bowels and quickly relieve even the most aggravated case of constipation, the combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is highly recommended by all who have ever used it.

Druggists sell Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin for 50 cents a bottle—a larger family size, costs $1.00. Get a bottle and keep it in the house; it will save many times its cost in doctor bills.

NEW TUBERCULOSIS REMEDY BASED ON MEDICINE

To say that a specific exists for the cure of consumption is perhaps too strong a statement, but in Eckman's Alternative we have a medicine that has been the means of saving many a life to years of usefulness.

"Any diet that keeps a consumptive well nourished is the right one, but what is going to improve the patient? Eckman's Alternative is a medicine for the treatment of this disease which has been found beneficial in a large number of cases.

WILLIAM LORIMER STANDS EXPELLED

"If all the people knew the full story they'd drive that band of hypocrites out of the country. And they will know it. If God spares me, they'll know it from one end of the land to the other."

To his own efforts he credited the senatorial situation, saying the Chicago Tribune people took no steps to cause an investigation by the senate until he introduced a resolution asking for it.

Reports that Senator La Follette, Senator Kern or Senator Kenyon might reply to Lorimer's speech were intensely dramatic. Lorimer, holding the floor, making a last defense of his election, declared he did not appeal for the votes of any senator, but asked for justice.

The vote ousting him was concluded at 2:05 o'clock. The hall who had occupied a seat in the senate since June 18, 1909, by the vote today passed the records and never officially has held a seat in the senate of the United States.

The Lea resolution adopted by a vote of almost two to one, was as follows: "Resolved, That corrupt methods and practices were employed in the election of William Lorimer to the senate of the United States from the state of Illinois, and that his election there was invalid."

In the closing sentence of his speech, Senator Lorimer expressed gratitude for tributes which senators had paid to his private life.

"Every man who has such a life has his own reward—he has it here," he said. "I ask nothing on that account; it has no bearing in the case. I hope it will influence no senator in making up his judgment."

"I have been the happiest of men, living and blessed by God's sun," he said. "I ask nothing because of them, or because of my ideal home life."

"It has been said by senators that the worst foes of Lorimer have not impeached his integrity. They have said that his word was as good as his bond; that he never turned on a friend; that he has been consistent, right or wrong."

Lorimer went after Senator Crawford.

ford of South Dakota, who had spoken and voted against him at the first trial. He referred to charges made against Mr. Crawford, of which the South Dakota senator was fully acquitted, and invited Mr. Crawford out to the cloak room while he read an affidavit which charged Crawford with having employed a man to file a public land claim in his interest.

"That's supposed to be a sworn affidavit," said Lorimer. "But all the circumstances surrounding it deny its truth. A federal grand jury cleansed the skirts of this senator."

"Has Charles A. White made any statement to your committee stronger than that Crawford affidavit?" he continued. "I think not, and yet Senator Crawford would turn me out of this body on the statement of a man more foul than the man who made this affidavit against him."

"I don't ask for the senator's vote," continued Mr. Lorimer. "But I am asking you, Senator Crawford, if, after the lawful experience you had, don't you think you ought to weigh fully, thoughtfully, meditate long and often before you vote to destroy your fellow man on evidence like that?"

The effect of Lorimer's striking appeal to Crawford was not lost on the senate. He held his audience in silence. Senator Tillman appeared affected by Lorimer's words, voiced in a tone that bordered on the tragic, and wiped tears from his eyes as Lorimer proceeded.

Senator Lorimer took up the employment of Detective Burns, to whom he referred as the detective who has driven to his grave, a United States senator whom the people now believe not to have been guilty."

The reference was taken by the senate to apply to the late John H. Mitchell of Oregon.

Mr. Lorimer declared it had been shown that the Burns detectives had committed perjury and he made like charges against others. He said "White was bought by the Tribune to perjure his soul; that 'Glavis' was bought, but lacked the nerve to go through with it and was then indicted in Washington to close his mouth."

Answering charges that the "interests" wanted him in the senate, Mr. Lorimer cited the activity of the International Harvester company against him.

ALL IN READINESS FOR ENCAMPMENT

GATHERING OF REGULARS AND NATIONAL GUARD AT FORT HARRISON TODAY.

Helena, July 13.—(Special.)—The joint encampment of the eight companies of the Fourteenth Infantry and ten companies of the Second regiment of the national guard of Montana, will be held at Fort Harrison beginning tomorrow and ending the night of Tuesday, July 23.

The purpose of the encampment is to teach the guardsmen by theory, practice and observation of the regulars, the duties of a soldier on campaign. There will be drills of every kind, offensive and defensive formations and long hikes involving tactical exercises.

All mail for members of the national guard while in camp should be addressed to them at Fort Harrison and not to Helena, in order to reach them promptly. The regimental and company destination also should be given.
