

VARSIITY PROSPECTS THE BEST EVER OLD AND NEW STARS TURN OUT FOR MONTANA ELEVEN

SEVENTY-SEVEN MEN TO BIG LEAGUES ARE DRAFTED

FORTY-SEVEN ARE WON BY AMERICAN LEAGUE AND REST BY THE NATIONAL.

MOST ALL TO BROWNS

Sixteen New Faces Will Be Seen in Lineup of St. Louis Americans—Cubs Draw Seven Players—Athletics Get Five.

Cincinnati, Sept. 16.—Seventy-seven minor league players were drafted today by Major League clubs at the annual meeting of the baseball commission here.

Of the individual teams, the St. Louis Americans were by far the most fortunate, inasmuch as 16 new faces will be seen on this team in the near future.

The Washington, Detroit and Chicago Americans and Cincinnati and Boston Nationals, each drew six lucky slips from the hat. The Philadelphia Americans got five, while the Cleveland, New York Americans and St. Louis Nationals each obtained four.

The Drafted Men.

The following drafts from the Pacific Coast league were allowed: Los Angeles—Leventz, by St. Louis Americans. Oakland—Patterson, by St. Louis Americans. Portland—Klawitter, by Detroit Americans. San Francisco—Geddon, by Philadelphia Americans.

PUT'S PROCLIVITIES CAUSE TUBALKANE TO WORRY

T. B. Kane attended the daily rehearsal of the university football squad recently and since then he has not been himself. It came out yesterday that he was worried over his sister poet, "Put," who is dallying with death daily on the gridiron.

AS IT LOOKS

"Ping" Brodie has repented his hasty action and is now sprouting another mustache. Brodie says he felt half undressed.

President Jacob Smith of the Appalachian league says there are a hundred years of worry in every year as league president.

Reports from the east indicate that the Princeton team will be strong on kickers. Five good punters have been discovered. DeWitt, a star of last year's team, is back and seems to be putting in what will soon develop into his old-time form.

President Lucas was the one man, who made base ball in this section a success. What he got behind went through. As long as he was connected with the Intermountain league it went along all right.

Billy Orr has been drafted to the Philadelphia Americans. Orr is a valuable man and his sale to the Americans did not mean anything towards breaking up the Salt Lake team.

And now comes the news from Kansas City that Pitcher Dick Mears, of the Helena and Missoula clubs, has been sold to Lincoln in the Western league.

The Brainerd Dispatch states that Bush, who has had more farewells than Madame Tuller, wired that he would be through Brainerd Friday.

Tom Quigley, the Notre Dame star who played with Missoula last season under the name of Murray, is going back to Pittsburgh. The Pirates turned him over to Indianapolis last spring, but Quigley refused to report.

Quigley has been playing independent ball with the Gary, Ind., team. He is employed in the law offices of the United States Steel company and plays ball on Sunday.

Ogden, Sept. 13.—Artie Schimpff and Joe Van, two members of the Ogden ball team, were robbed of $75 and $23, respectively, the other night, when they entered their room in the Clives hotel and went through their pockets while the two slept, unaware that anyone was relieving them of part of their last summer's earnings.

After announcing that the rules and schedule for the world's championship series would not be announced until the big league pennant winners had been definitely decided, the commission adjourned.

OLD-TIMERS BACK ON VARSITY SQUAD

KLEBE, DOBSON AND DESCHAMPS REPORT FOR PRACTICE AT UNIVERSITY.

NEWCOMERS ARE CLASSY

Barclay Craighead, Shaw and Others Register at University For Work and Turn Out for Football Practice—A Hard Workout.

Half a dozen new men reported to Captain Dornblaser yesterday afternoon for the first practice of the second week of the university's football season.

George Klebe, Cecil Dobson and Elzeur Deschamps, the first two members of the 1911 eleven and the last fullback on the 1910 team, were among the newcomers.

Thirty-seven men have now taken out suits and most of them are reporting daily for practice. Those who have not shown up regularly for work will be removed from the squad so that their suits may be given to other applicants.

The men were given a long, hard workout yesterday after the first week of easy training. After a long practice on the field they were sent out on a long hike from the campus through Greenough park and back again.

LUCAS IS MOURNED BY LOCAL MEN OF BASEBALL

LEAGUE EXECUTIVE A MAN OF GREAT INTEGRITY AND WORTH.

HARD TO REPLACE HIM

Directors Feel That the Union Association Has Really Suffered Through His Death—Vice President Vanderputte Will Arrive Today.

Deep and sincere were the tributes paid President W. H. Lucas by the local baseball men, who really knew him and what he stood for.

"The squarest man I ever knew." That one note predominated and it would be gratifying to any man to hear such a testimonial expressed with so much earnestness.

President Lucas was the one man, who made base ball in this section a success. What he got behind went through. As long as he was connected with the Intermountain league it went along all right.
