

OUR PRICES

It may be truly said, "speak for themselves." This store is not of the slashing, sensational kind, that claims to cut prices down till the owner is losing all he made and the customer is getting something for nothing. That is not done in actual merchandise, and never will be. We proceed on a reasonable, natural basis, buy in the best markets, and sell to the best customers we can find. The best goods, thus sold under the best auspices, go promptly and give satisfaction, and this is the kind of trade we are willing to pay for by shading our profits to the "live and let live" basis.

Why are all the doctors gloomy and why do they seem distressed? What horrible occurrence has disturbed their peaceful rest? They are glooms of the first water and the reason for their grief, is because appendicitis no more needs the knife's relief, it was one bright day for doctors when in sixteen, forty-two, Sarcococcus did discover an appendix all askew; for it soon became the fashion to have that thing taken out, and unless you'd lost your veriform you were a social leat; so the medals carved and shipped along, the proceeds were immense; those who still had their appendix surely felt like 30 cents; now along comes Doctor Abrams, and he surely is a yegg for he's trying to destroy the goose that lays the golden egg; he proclaims that all a man must do to cure the dread disease, is to single out a vertebra and give it one good squeeze; if this method of procedure proves to be a real success; this Abrams person sure will be, an out-cast—that's my guess.

Neil Clifford Launelot Duffy, since severing his connection with the Cafe du Vienna, has taken IT PAYS, over the work of IN-SAYS DUFF, rearing the membership of the local Moose lodge. Neil Clifford, who has always been one of the most enthusiastic members of this organization, is meeting with a great deal of success, but with his usual modesty he insists on sharing the credit. "I have been getting along in fine shape with this business of getting new members for the Moose lodge," said Neil, "but I admit a great part of it is due to the value of The Missoulian as an advertiser. I placed an advertisement in The Missoulian and a great part of the success I have had I can trace to the effects of that ad. I have received letters from all over the county and all of them mention The Missoulian. The paper is certainly well read and has helped the Moose campaign immensely."

Yesterday morning dawned with the sun on the job and Contractor Nash decided that he would take a chance. As a consequence the sun followed the sun bright and early and some real progress was made on getting the blocks down and the coating in place. More than half of the first block on West Cedar street was completed yesterday and it should be finished today. "I fired myself yesterday and hired myself again today," said Inspector Brechbill, as he watched the blocks dropping into place. "The weather is not as good as it could be, but it didn't look as if we were going to get any better. The wind is the bad part about it. The tar preparation is put on hot, but the wind cools it too fast and it doesn't get a good chance to fill the crevices between the blocks. If this weather continues until Sunday evening we will have the work completed. This block will be finished, anyhow, and if the weather should turn so bad as to keep us from finishing the block in front of the courthouse, that one won't make so much difference. I believe, however, that Mr. Nash will get all of the pavement laid. He certainly has tried hard enough."

Mr. Treasurer Porter is still lamenting the fact that the taxpayers are taking their time to making their annual call at the city hall. He would like very much to see a little more ginger displayed by the taxpayers. Mr. Porter is afraid that the citizens will go on postponing their trip, until they finally all get there at once and he will not have any time to visit with them. That is one reason. The other reason is that he is afraid the office force will be swamped during the last few days. So, if you want a "stand-in" with the city treasurer, it can easily be obtained by showing up at once and paying what it costs to live in a city.

The work of improvement in Missoula is nearly finished for this season. City Engineer Buck is getting out the final estimates just as rapidly as he can and within a few days everything will be cleaned up and the force can then go ahead with the work of lining up the improvements to be made next season. The estimate for West Front street will be presented at this morning's council meeting. It was expected that there would be considerable argument when City Engineer Buck presented the final estimate for the work on Higgins avenue, as it was understood that the Dietrich company had put in a good many extras. That Mr. Buck did not feel like allowing. The city engineer, however, has dodged the issue and will put the matter up to the city council. When the final estimate is presented on Higgins avenue, it will contain only the items that Mr. Buck is sure should be allowed. Then the Dietrich company can put in a claim to the council and that body can pass upon the merits of the items cut out of the final estimate by Mr. Buck.

BULGARIANS LEAVE FOR FATHERLAND

IT IS THOUGHT THAT EXODUS OF FOREIGNERS IS ABOUT OVER NOW.

Bulgarians, Greeks and Montenegrins continue their exodus to the battlefields, although it appears that there will be no battlefields by the time they arrive at home. The greater part of the men returning home have not served their time in the army and are going home to fulfill this duty before returning to the United States. They are passing through Missoula in bunches on both railroads. Yesterday the first train shipped out 11 Bulgarians who were returning home. It is thought that the foreigners who are going to return have about all left.

DISTRICT FORESTER HOPPE IS DEFEATED BY A JAPANESE

WORLD'S CHAMPION AT 182 BALK LINE MEETS WATERLOO IN LITTLE BROWN MAN.

New York, Nov. 13.—Kodi Yamada, the Japanese expert, proved his worth as a billiard player and his right to be in the front ranks, by defeating Willie Hoppe, the world's champion, at 182 balk line, tonight in professional championship tournament by a score of 500 to 497. By running 58 and 138 in his second inning and fourth inning, Yamada showed some wonderful billiards and demonstrated he had a thorough knowledge of all the intricacies of the game. Hoppe made runs of 100 and 102 in his third and tenth innings, and played a strong game throughout, but the Tokio player outclassed him. In the other game tonight, Morningstar defeated Demarest, the young Chicago player, in 38 innings, by a score of 500 to 439. The scores: Yamada, 500; average, 23 16-22; high runs, 138, 92, 85. Hoppe, 497; average, 23 14-21; high runs, 102, 100, 47. Morningstar, 500; average, 13 6-38; high runs, 64, 63, 57. Demarest, 439; average, 11 32-37; high runs, 45, 42, 39.

The whole meeting was full of interest. It was one of the best we have had and I think it resulted in much good for all of us. Mr. Graves placed special emphasis upon the importance of hurrying the work of the classification of agricultural areas within the forests and urged the district foresters to make all possible haste in the necessary surveys and mapping to complete this classification so that the lands throughout the national forests may be listed for entry. One of the other very interesting discussions at the meeting was concerning the long-term contracts for timber sales. I think that considerable headway was made in the readjustment clause of such contract—a clause which is aimed to give the government the benefit of any increase in stumpage price during the life of the contract and which at the same time is fair to the operators. Personally I enjoyed the meeting very much and the mixing with the other men of the service and the points brought out during the various discussions will be very helpful. Among those present was W. B. Greeley, formerly district forester of this district. Mr. Greeley expects to come to Missoula to make a short visit the latter part of this month.

BODY OF PIONEER TO REST IN VALLEY

The funeral of William Edward Brearcliff, who died Tuesday night, was held yesterday afternoon at the Marsh chapel. Rev. H. S. Gately conducted the service. The burial will be today at Victor, where Mr. Brearcliff made his home for years and where he was once chosen county commissioner. Many friends attended the service yesterday, and many others who could not be present at the funeral, spoke with sincere admiration of the noble life ended. "He was the type of loyal citizen most needed in every community," said one of his neighbors yesterday. "He watched every public movement and if it seemed to be for the public welfare, he threw himself heartily into its furtherance. He was very anxious to live long enough to cast his vote for one more democratic president and it pleased him immensely that he was able to get to the polls last week. He was overjoyed at the outcome of the election and talked about the victory through all the last days and hours of his life." He had resided in Missoula since 1908. He was twice married. In 1883 he was married to Maggie Litter, who died in 1887. September 29, 1898, he was married to Anna L. C. Clements, who survives him.

PRESS AGENTS TALK OF THEIR SHOWS

Walker Whiteside, Meynert Lengyel's sensational European success, "The Tophoon," at the Harmon theater, on Saturday, November 16. The play deals with the European Japanese in the diplomatic service, and depicts in a most satisfactory manner how the Japanese, with their qualities as ferreters, burrow under nations and ultimately secure the information that the ally needs. It seems necessary to keep his country in the closest touch with every move made by any nation that may be in the slightest degree unfriendly to the rapid progress of Japan. Mr. Whiteside assumes the part of a Japanese diplomat, which gives him a chance of the widest scope, and has secured for him one of the greatest artistic triumphs of recent years. The identical production which attracted so much attention in New York early in the year by its beauty and completeness, will be brought here intact.
