Women's Tailored and Fancy Suits Special for $17.50

Quite an important bargain item. The suit question that has caused concern in many instances proves the strong position of Donohue's in large selling. The proven accuracy of the Donohue store's suit problem should strengthen your desire to use this store exclusively. In face of the unstaple position of this season's first styles, most buyers let their enthusiasm overstep their judgment and consequently they are compelled to force suits against the forward march of Donohue's staple styles. Our suit room has never been in cleaner, better form than right now, and this condition is apparent to all who carefully judge these various suit lines. Our suits have led in the season's sales. They are right, positively, and are of aggressive bargain type. This feature is of new arrivals, snappy, very desirable and they involve the pretty fancy as well as the strictly tailored type. Every pleasing model, every dependable fabric. Involved are some early Christmas sample suits worth $29.50; our price $17.50

Engineer Frank Underhill is laying off for a few days and is moving his household goods to Bonner for the winter, where Mr. Underhill is on the Bonner log run.

Peter Kling is slowly improving at the hospital in Missoula from blood poison.

Conductor Earl McConkey went to Deer Lodge Monday for an operation at the hospital.

Mrs. Peterson went to Tacoma to have her eyes treated by a specialist. Mrs. Heckerth went to St. Regis and Avery for a few days' visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson are the proud parents of a baby boy, born at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Healey are moving their household goods to Deer Lodge, where they expect to reside permanently.

MINER IS KILLED.
Wallace, Nov. 15.—(Special)—John

Carlson, aged 49, an experienced miner, fell 50 feet down a timber shaft at the Hunter mine above Mullán yesterday afternoon and received injuries from which he died about 6 o'clock. He was repairing a signal rope, and reaching too far out over the shaft, lost his balance. His skull was fractured, and he was severely cut about the head and shoulders. He was unmarried, and leaves no relatives in the district.
