

HIGH SCHOOL BOYS TO START TRAINING FOR TRACK

COACH MCGOUGH WILL COMMENCE ROAD WORK AS SOON AS VACATION IS OVER

HIGH SCHOOL SQUAD TO COMMENCE TRAINING

COACH MCGOUGH CALLS MEETING OF THE SCHOLASTICS TO CONSIDER TRACK TEAM.

FINE SPIRIT IS SHOWN

Preliminary Work Will Start as Soon as Boys Get Back From Vacation—Everything Points to One of the Best Teams in Local History.

If Coach McGough of the high school has anything to say about it, or conscientious and good training can improve the natural ability of the boys, Missoula high school should stand a fine chance of dragging down the first prize at the intercollegiate meet here next May. Coach McGough is even now perfecting plans for the track team. A rousing mass meeting was held yesterday afternoon by the students for the purpose of getting the names of all men who would come out for track work. Stirring speeches were made by Captain Jones, Frank McHaffie and other members of last year's track squad. The boys showed a commendable spirit and a large number signified that they would be out for track work. Missoula high school has good material and should make the other schools in the state step out some to head the local squad. The boys are eager to take the laurels from the Gallatin valley, particularly since their recent football defeat. Coach McGough expects to commence training the boys as soon as school convenes after the holidays. The preliminary training will be mostly road work and the coach hopes to have the boys' wind and legs in fine shape when it comes time to step out on the cinders.

AS IT LOOKS

George Synder says that his I. O. N. T. D. is to be traffic policeman at the Stevens street ward. There is a mysterious rumor that a small boy used this structure once a year or so ago, but this has never been confirmed.

That's what Archibald gets for having a butler, anyway.

The I. O. N. T. D. boating average of the B. R. V. was batted yesterday by a communication from Stevensville, signed "Red." Here it is: "My idea of nothing to do is to come to Stevensville to see a basketball game."

Referring, undoubtedly, to the late unpleasantness.

Spokesman-Review, under a North Yakima date: Jack McHenry of Lima, Ohio, who went 10 rounds to a draw last Wednesday with Harry Jewell of Tacoma at Wiley City, has accepted the challenge of Maurice Dempsey of Butte. He is willing to fight at Spokane or North Yakima, preferably North Yakima, at 142 pounds.

"This, we take it, is the battle of which P. C. Murphy wrote to us a moon or two ago. Murphy thinks that Thompson can trim this boy with great ease. Also, he says that the local boys are crazy about McHenry.

Spokane Chronicle: The town of Vernon is no more, as far as the Pacific coast league is concerned. The magnates in the class "AA" organization have passed up the bid and taken the franchise out of the town. "Happy" Hogan, the boss of the Vernon lineup, has been notified by President Baum to transfer his team to some other nearby town. Venice seems to be the logical place for the franchise next season, and it is more than probable that Hogan and his players will be wearing that name on the front of their shirts when the bell rings. Vernon has been the weak sister of the league for some time, and the directors have decided on a change.

The Spokane papers say that Chris Geseck, a local wrestler, is matched with a wrestler named Samson. We wonder if that isn't Guy Sanson?

Adolph Schacht, coast sporting man, says that Ritchie didn't know he was fouled until Billy Nolan told him. Oh, very well.

We have received the first 1913 sporting annual. Its cover bears the name of Lou Hunt, formerly a resident of Missoula and now in the cigar business in Spokane. The book is the Andrews dope.

To continue the McGraw-Margard story, here's what the New York manager has signed his name to: The kind of talk my $11,000 suitup has been shooting off in St. Louis makes me tired. If it was only a game to get some cheap advertising, I wouldn't say a word. But Margard should have gone after that kind of advertising long ago, instead of the kind he got in being notoriously associated with a woman who is another man's wife. Margard has not done himself or the New York ball club any good by his actions this winter. His declaration that he won't sign unless he gets $10,000 a year is foolish. He is signed for three years now, and he'll report on time, just like all the other players next spring.

Great Falls Leader: The Missoulian wants to know why President Van de Butte should wait for John McCloskey before calling that baseball meeting. The sports writer on The Missoulian points to the fact—and we admit it is a fact—that McCloskey has no vote in the Union association doings. To be candid, F. T. P., we admit we don't know. Of this, however, we are positive, that the date of the meeting is drawing closer every day.

PLAYERS RELEASED.

Chicago, Dec. 19.—President Johnson of the American league announced the disposition of players today, as follows: Released: By Washington to Sacramento, William Kenworthy and Moran. By Philadelphia to Los Angeles, Margaret, Fahey and Crabbe; to Seattle, H. Barry and Alva Gipe; to Spokane, J. Covaleski. By Los Angeles to Philadelphia, Daley.

KLEIN SOLD.

Butte, Dec. 19.—(Special)—Edward J. Murphy, president of the Butte baseball club of the Union association, tonight announced that he had sold Pitcher Klein to the Sioux City team. Klein is one of the most promising southpaws in the northwest. The belief exists here that Klein has been purchased for the Providence, R. I. team.

"BISCUITS" IS BACK.

New York, Dec. 19.—Zybsko, the Polish wrestler, arrived today for another tour of America. His first match will be with Charles Cutler of Chicago at Boston on Christmas day. He says he will cancel any or all of his engagements at any time Frank Gotch shows a willingness to meet him for the heavyweight championship of the world.

DUNDEE OUTPOINTS BRITON.

New York, Dec. 19.—Johnny Dundee, the local featherweight, who is matched to meet Johnny Kilbane, the champion for the title, in Los Angeles in April, outpointed Eddie Morgan of England in a 10-round bout here. Morgan surprised close followers of boxing in the first six rounds, but Dundee was more rugged than the Englishman and outlasted him.

TINKER SIGNS.

Cincinnati, Dec. 19.—Joseph Tinker signed last night a contract with the Cincinnati National league team and assumed his duties as manager.

ABSOLUTE CONTROL OF MONEY IMPOSSIBLE

differentiate justly and impartially where your own interests are concerned just as clearly as if you had no interest at stake do you?"

"Exactly, sir."

"And you are acting on that assumption all the time, are you not?"

"I always do."

"Of course there is a possibility of your judgment being mistaken, is there not?"

"Oh, I may be wrong in my judgment, but I do not think it leads in that direction."

"Does it not go somewhat on the theory that the wish may be father to the thought?"

"What is your question?"

"That is wish to bring these interests together may lead you to believe the country is not injured by that sort of concentration."

"I do not think so."

Later Mr. Untermyer touched upon the basis of money control.

"The control of credit involves the control of money does it not?" he asked.

"No," said Mr. Morgan. "What I call money is the basis of banking."

"But the basis of banking is credit, isn't it?"

"Not always," said the witness. "What is an evidence of banking, but it is not the money itself. The money is sold, not nothing else."

"In the discussion that followed, Mr. Untermyer drew the fact that comparatively little money exists in the vast superstructure of credit which it supports."

"If you had the control of all that represents the assets in the banks of New York, you would have control of money, of all that money?" he suggested.

"No, you would not," answered Mr. Morgan.

"Or control of it?" replied Mr. Morgan.

"He can make a try at it?"

"No, sir; he cannot. He may have all the money in Christendom, but he cannot do it."

"If you owned all the banks of New York with all their resources would you not come pretty near having a control of credit?" asked Mr. Untermyer.

"No, sir; not at all."

"Suppose you owned all the banks and trust companies, or controlled them, and somebody wanted to start up in the steel business against the United States Steel corporation and wanted a vast amount of capital and it was a good business, New York would be the natural market for money, would it not?"

"Yes."

"I wanted to know whether, if you controlled all those banks and a competitor came along or a potential competitor who wanted to compete, he would get the money from these banks you control," asked Mr. Untermyer.

"Yes, he would," replied the financier.

"Some other man who controlled might not take the view you have?" suggested the lawyer.

"He would not have the control," replied Mr. Morgan.

"Your idea is that when a man has got a vast power, such as you have, you admit you have, do you not?"

"I do not know it, sir."

"You admit you have, do you not?"

"I do not think I have," said Mr. Morgan.

"You do not feel it at all?" persisted Mr. Untermyer.

"No I do not feel it at all," replied the banker.

"Well, assuming that you had it, your idea is that when a man abuses it he loses it?"

"Yes, and he never gets it back again, either."

"Have you any instance in your mind of any such man who has had such power and control in order to experiment with it?"

"No, but I know from experience," said Mr. Morgan.

"Experience of your own?"

"No, I am talking about the experience of having things. What I mean to say is this: The question of control in this country at least is personal; that is in money."

"Have you not seen many instances in the history of this country of financial men getting vast control and abusing it through a long period of years before they lost it?" asked Mr. Untermyer.

"Not in one particular line and nobody that has what you call a money trust or anything of that kind," said Mr. Morgan.

"You admit, do you not, that men may get control of railroads or business enterprises and monopolize them and so abuse their privilege?"

"Yes."

"And you say that so far as the control of the credit is concerned they cannot do the same thing?"

"Or money; no, they cannot control it," replied Mr. Morgan.

"The thing goes back to the question of the control of banks and trust companies in New York," said Mr. Untermyer. "Do you think that a comparative condition in banks and trust companies in New York is more or less preferable than a concentrated control over these banks?"

"I would rather have combination," said Mr. Morgan.

Ortie E. McManigal, a prisoner of Los Angeles county, will be kept in Indianapolis until after the trials here are ended, which probably will be within 10 days, then he is to be returned to Los Angeles. Although McManigal pleaded guilty there, he was brought to Indianapolis on a writ and it is understood he never has been relinquished from custody of Los Angeles officers. Since his detailed confession on the stand, the prisoner never has been permitted to leave the federal building, getting exercise only on the roof of the structure.

CHRISTMAS NUMBER PLANS FOR REVIVAL

PLEASES ARE MADE

STEVENSVILLE PEOPLE APPRECIATE BIG EDITION OF THE MISSOULIAN.

Stevensville, Dec. 19.—(Special)—The largest mail ever received in Stevensville at one time was received last Sunday upon the arrival of the holiday edition of The Missoulian. Uncle Sam's mail is carried on the passenger bus that meets the trains and carries the public to and from the Northern Pacific station. On the day the "Big Missoulian" arrived the mail sacks occupied almost the entire room in the bus. It also required 20 minutes more than the regular time for hauling the load to town.

Stevensville is proud, indeed, of the splendid publicity given to the town and vicinity. So many remarks were heard praising both the paper and the publishers, that it is safe to say that it is the unanimous feeling of everybody here. The business men feel sure that this edition will be of more benefit to this place in advertising the city and community than any other method which could have been done.

It seemed that Stevensville received a good share of the illustrations and reading matter, although every other town in the valley was especially well represented.

Stevensville is very thankful to The Missoulian for this Christmas edition, which is the best ever received here from this state or any other place.

making its statement thereupon just at the moment when the fate of the Balkans was being decided.

The Greek proposals will be more complicated than those of the other allies because they include the question of the capitulations which Greece, alone among the Balkan states, enjoys with the great powers. The capitulations, originally imposed on Turkey by the republic of Genoa in 1552, include exemption from taxation for foreign subjects, special courts and other privileges. Greece is ready to accept a clause in the treaty with Turkey, promising to renounce the right to capitulations when the other powers do the same.

Another Greek delegate arrived today. He brought important papers to Premier Venizelos. He is Rizos Rangas, whose father, writer, poet and archaeologist, was called "the Victor Hugo of Greece."

W. C. Harlan was elected as chairman of the executive committee with the following associates on the committee: C. N. Abbey, C. E. Hartley, W. S. Wagy, J. N. Taylor, Don Anson, H. L. Robinson, A. The revivalists will arrive in this city on Saturday evening and will meet at the several churches at the morning services on the following day. In the evening all the churches will unite in the opening revival meeting at the opera house. Preparations for the meetings are moving along nicely, more than the expected interest being manifested in the coming services. W. N. Hassler is gathering together a large choir which will be heard at all the services.

DIVORCE GRANTED.

Stevensville, Dec. 19.—(Special)—Attorney George T. Bages and Mrs. Howard D. Smart have returned from Lewistown where they went to be present at the divorce proceedings of Bessie I. Brice and Dr. J. Theodor Brice. The divorce was granted and her maiden name restored to Bessie I. Anderson, who sued for divorce on the grounds of cruelty. Dr. Brice is well known here, where he practiced medicine for a number of years before moving to Lewistown. Bessie I. Anderson, who is a sister of Mrs. Howard D. Smart and Mrs. Georgia Kain, left for her old home in Dorchester, New Brunswick, immediately after the trial.
