

WILSON READY TO TAKE OATH

AMID CHEERS AND HEARTY GREETINGS HE ENTERS NATIONAL CAPITAL.

IS WELCOMED BY TAFT

President-to-be and His Wife Receive Cordial Words at White House From Retiring Executive—Princeton Students Active in Day's Proceedings on the Arrival.

Washington, March 3.—Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey has come to Washington to be inaugurated tomorrow the twenty-eighth president of the United States.

Through a lane of Princeton university students and surrounded by cheering thousands, the president-elect and members of his family were hastened from the station escorted by an official reception committee to their hotel.

The dome of the capitol glistened under a brilliant sun as they passed and the city presented a panorama of patriotic color as viewed from the hill. Smiling in the glow of a kindly day and bowing to the plaudits of the people, the former president of Princeton university, who rose through the governorship of New Jersey to the highest office in the land, looked happy.

Within less than two hours after his arrival Mr. Wilson, for the first time in his life, crossed the threshold of the White House and grasped the hand of William Howard Taft, retiring president of the United States.

Before visiting the White House the Wilsons received the vice president-elect and Mrs. Marshall, Governor Sulzer of New York, Governor Potter of Rhode Island and staff, and a few personal friends.

Tonight as an alumnus of the Princeton university, Mr. Wilson was the honor guest of the alumni of his alma mater at a smoker.

Nothing has been left undone to make the inauguration ceremonies the most extensive in the history of the country. The city was filled tonight with enthusiasm and thousands paraded the illuminated streets.

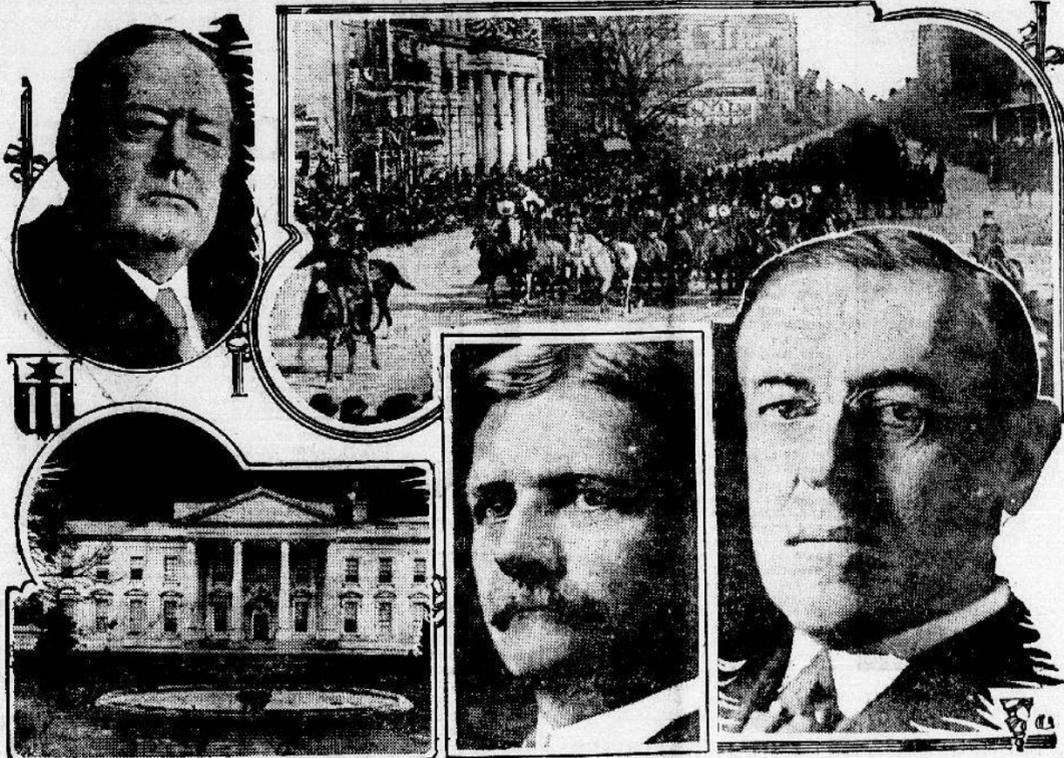

President-elect Wilson has reserved a few minutes tomorrow to greet newspaper men of the country.

At 9 o'clock he will receive them at his hotel. At 9:30 he will receive the inaugural committee of congress.

Senators Crane, Overman and Bacon and Representatives McKinney, Bark-

(Continued on Page Six)

Persons and Scenes in Today's Ceremonies

Top left, Chief Justice White of the United States Supreme Court, who will administer the oath of office to President Wilson; top right, parade at Roosevelt inaugural; bottom, left to right, White House, Thomas R. Marshall and Woodrow Wilson.

SERVILE HOUSE DEMOCRATS THROW DOWN GOVERNOR

CABINET OF WILSON NOW COMPLETE SAY FRIENDS

FRANKLIN K. LANE OF CALIFORNIA WILL BE SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR.

Washington, March 3.—Through President-elect Wilson will not send the names of his cabinet to the senate until tomorrow afternoon, authoritative information as to its personnel came from members of his official family when he arrived today.

Secretary of state—William Jennings Bryan of Nebraska. Secretary of the treasury—William G. McAdoo of New York.

Secretary of war—Lindley M. Garrison of New Jersey. Attorney general—James McInerney of Tennessee.

Postmaster general—Representative Albert S. Burleson of Texas. Secretary of the navy—Josephus Daniels of North Carolina.

Secretary of the interior—Franklin K. Lane of California. Secretary of agriculture—David F. Houston of Missouri.

Secretary of commerce—Representative William C. Redfield of New York. Secretary of labor—Representative William B. Wilson of Pennsylvania.

Many of these names have been known for several days, and chief in-

(Continued on Page Eight)

Three Times in One Afternoon the Meek Legislators Submit to Wishes of the Senate Bi-Partisan Combine and Pass the Much-Desired New-County and Judicial Bills -- Democratic Administration Is Repudiated.

(Staff Correspondence.)

Helena, March 3.—Three times in one afternoon is a record for tame submission by a democratic house to a hostile bi-partisan combine of the senate, but this was precisely what was done this afternoon.

Two weeks ago the house adopted a motion by Day postponing consideration of all new county bills until the democratic platform bills had been passed through the house.

The first surrender was on the notorious Muffy judicial district bill, to combine Meagher and Broadwater counties into the Fourteenth judicial district.

The second surrender was on the Wibaux county bill, which was recommended for passage by a vote of 42 to 36.

The bill for clay county immediately followed, and the senate combine again demonstrated that its power was greater than that of Governor Stewart and his administration.

The republicans voted solidly with the combine democratic subservients on these bills, with the exception of Higgins of Missoula and Blair of Powell.

Why? And why all this meek submission? Why this humbling of itself by a democratic house?

Because the bi-partisan combine wanted two more senators to assist in perpetuating two years hence the same iron-clad control of the senate it has enjoyed for so many years, and which it is at this very hour using to defeat the reforms promised to the people of Montana by every single party that had a ticket in the field last fall.

How It's Done. And how is this being done? By holding in combine, in controlled senate committees the tax commission law passed by the house, and the "blue sky" law bill, and the water-power bill, also passed by the house.

These democratic platform measures have been held there these many days.

IN ITS DYING HOURS DEADLOCK BLOCKS CONGRESS

MEMBERS SAY FAREWELL TO EACH OTHER, BUT OTHERWISE FAIL TO AGREE.

STILL BUSY.

Washington, March 4.—Three big supply bills were agreed to between the senate and house conferees early today. They were the omnibus public buildings bill, with a $2,999,000 item for a postoffice site in New York city eliminated by the house, the naval appropriation bill providing for one battleship, to which the senate agreed, and the sundry civil appropriation bill.

There was then outstanding only the legislative, Indian and general deficiency bill.

Washington, March 3.—Overshadowed by the enthusiasm attending the arrival of a democratic president-elect and the holding of the suffrage carnival, the Sixty-second congress began to say its farewells today and to prepare for the termination of its business at noon tomorrow.

Retiring members who have been in congress for a score or more years, bade goodbye to their colleagues tonight and cleaned out their desks for the exodus from the capital.

Farewells to Veterans. Former Speaker Cannon and Senator Shelby M. Cullom, veterans of many congresses; Representatives Nicholas Langworth, John Datsell, John Lamb, Samuel W. McCall; Senators Crane, Dixon, Bourne and others who have been prominently identified with legislation in recent years, were the recipients of farewell greetings from their associates.

Both houses recessed at 6 o'clock tonight, the senate for two hours and the house for three.

Six appropriation bills remained in dispute when the evening sessions began and serious fights were threatened over the two-battleship program in the naval bill and over the Indian, pub-

NO RAIN OR SNOW IN WASHINGTON THIS DAY

Washington, March 3.—No rain or snow or freezing temperature will mar the inauguration of Woodrow Wilson as president of the United States, according to the prediction of the experts of the weather bureau.

A special inauguration bulletin issued tonight by the bureau said: "The indications are that the weather at Washington on Tuesday will be fair in the morning, cloudy in the afternoon and become unsettled and somewhat colder at night. There is little probability of either rain or snow."

Temperature during the day will be moderate, probably in the forties.

(Continued on Page Eight)

ROWDIES MAR VARSITY FUND IS PARED DOWN SUFFRAGE MARCH

WOMEN IN WASHINGTON COMPELLED TO FIGHT WAY AMID INSULTING REMARKS.

MAJORITY OF COMMITTEE CUTS OFF ITEMS IN EDUCATIONAL APPROPRIATIONS.

CAVALRY TO THE RESCUE

REPORT IS GIVEN OUT

Trudging Marchers Able to Proceed Only When Troops Ride Down Unruly Crowds—Indignation Meeting Follows and Investigation is Demanded—Parade Itself is a Success.

University Is Cut From $340,000 to $315,000—Many Deficiency Bills Allowed—Total Funds Appropriated Amount to Close to Limit Allowed Under the State Constitution.

Washington, March 2.—Five thousand women, marching in the woman suffrage pageant today, virtually fought their way foot by foot up Pennsylvania avenue, through a surging mob that completely defied the Washington police, swamped the marchers and broke their procession into little companies.

Later, in Continental hall, the women turned what was to have been a suffrage demonstration into an indignation meeting in which the Washington police were roundly denounced for their inactivity and resolutions were adopted calling upon President-elect Wilson and the incoming congress to make an investigation and fix the responsibility for the indignities the marchers suffered.

Fight From the Start. The scenes which attended the entry of "General" Rosalie Jones and her hikers on Thursday when the bedraggled women had to fight their way up Pennsylvania avenue, swamped by a mob with which a few policemen struggled in vain, were repeated today, but upon a vastly larger scale.

Although stout wire ropes had been stretched up and down the length of Pennsylvania avenue from the Peace monument to mall behind the White House, the crowds overstepped them or crawled beneath. Apparently no effort was made to drive the trespassers in the early hours, with the result that when the parade started it faced an almost solid wall of humanity every hundred yards.

A Hostile Crowd. On the whole it was a hostile crowd through which the women marched. Miss Inez Millholland, herald of the procession, distinguished herself by adding in riding down a mob that blocked the way and threatened to disrupt the parade. Another woman member of the "petticoat cavalry" struck a hoodlum a stinging blow across the face with her riding crop in reply to a scurrilous remark as she was passing. The mounted police seemed powerless to stem the tide of humanity.

Hoodlums, assembled in front of the reviewing stand, in which sat Mrs. Taft and Miss Helen Taft and a half-dozen invited guests from the White House, kept up a running fire of caustic comment. Apparently no effort was made to remove them, and, presently, disgusted, the White House party left before the procession had passed in its halting and interrupted journey toward Continental hall.

Deficiency Bills. Deficiency bills allowed as follows: Prison, $2,891; orphan, $7,144; public printing, $3,952; deaf and blind, $1,000; state capital, $8,000; heating plant, deaf and blind, $31,391; reformatory, $404; judges, $4,785; livestock commission, $1,650; improvements state prison, $10,000; county attorneys, $1,000; coal mine inspector, $378; prison, $5,000; health, $525. Total deficiency bills, $81,474.

Sundry. Sundry appropriation bills allowed as follows: Electoral, $222; assistant

(Continued on Page Seven)

(Staff Correspondence.) Helena, March 3.—The following report has been prepared by the appropriation committee. It shows the total amount appropriated and also shows that the committee has come within $188,000 of the amount allowable under the constitution. The committee has the legal right to appropriate any sum up to $100,000 over and above the income of the state. This committee gave out in appropriations $288,000 over the amount of income of the state.

This report is one of the first of its kind that has been gotten out by an appropriation committee. It sets forth clearly just where all of the money is to go.

A uniform discount was taken off of the amount recommended by the state board of education.

Under the heading, "sundry appropriations," the following appropriations are to go to the agricultural college besides the money given it in the general appropriation bill: Wheat investigation, $1,000; poultry, $500; grain laboratory, $4,000; the school of entomology and a few others are pending. The report:

State university, recommendation of state board, $231,925; less 5 per cent, $219,329; amount appropriated, $415,329.

Agricultural college, recommendation of state board, $288,450; less 5 per cent, $273,125; amount appropriated, $273,125.

Normal school, recommended by state board, $123,000; less 5 per cent, $116,850; amount appropriated, $116,850.

School of mines, recommended by state board, $65,000; discount, $3,000; amount appropriated, $62,000. Total for educational institutions, $769,305.

Other Institutions. Orphan's home, $115,000; deaf, dumb and feeble-minded, $153,700; improvements, buildings, etc., feeble-minded, $30,000; insane asylum, $427,500; state hospital for inebriates (at insane asylum), $10,000; state prison, $17,900; reform school, $65,500; soldiers' home, $10,000; tuberculosis sanitarium, $1,000; state fair, $10,000; legislative expenses, $126,000; executive and judicial expenses, $117,000.

Deficiency Bills. Deficiency bills allowed as follows: Prison, $2,891; orphan, $7,144; public printing, $3,952; deaf and blind, $1,000; state capital, $8,000; heating plant, deaf and blind, $31,391; reformatory, $404; judges, $4,785; livestock commission, $1,650; improvements state prison, $10,000; county attorneys, $1,000; coal mine inspector, $378; prison, $5,000; health, $525. Total deficiency bills, $81,474.

Sundry. Sundry appropriation bills allowed as follows: Electoral, $222; assistant

(Continued on Page Nine)

The Classified Ad Brings You Comfort

Are you looking for a good boarding place? There are scores of home-like, comfortable, restful boarding places in Missoula and there is one best way to locate among them the very one you would most like. Just state your case in a little MISSOULIAN Classified Ad. Then form the habit, too, of reading the classified page each day.

There are some of these boarding places which have place on the classified page each day. You can look over the list while you are eating breakfast. It will not take much of your time. If you don't find just what you want, insert a Classified Ad of your own. You'll be sure to get on the track of the place you seek.

The cost of this service is only one cent a word. That is very little, compared with the service rendered. You can't get any such value for your money anywhere else. It is such good service that its cost is insignificant. There are thousands of people in western Montana who read these ads every day. One cent a word places you in direct communication with them.

The Power of the Press as an Educator

A great man declared that no hours of his day were better employed or more enjoyable than those which brought him in close touch with people in all walks of life.

Of course, he referred to the hours spent in reading the daily newspaper. The newspaper brings you in touch with people the world over and with the affairs of every country.

Read THE MISSOULIAN this morning and every morning. Discuss its varied subjects at the table, in the morning, or whenever the occasion presents itself. THE MISSOULIAN with its many excellent features, affords a splendid post-graduate course for grown-ups and gives the children more general information in one day than they are apt to learn at school in many days.

It will also pay you to read the advertisements in THE MISSOULIAN closely and constantly every day, for they contain valuable information of new goods and opportunities to economize.