

NEW PULLMAN CAR FOR BABY TROUT

MONTANA - HATCHED YOUNGSTERS WILL TRAVEL IN A PALACE ON WHEELS.

Advises from the headquarters of the Montana fish commission are to the effect that Montana trout will soon travel in state when they journey from the hatcheries to the waters which are to be their permanent abodes.

The state game warden, J. L. DeHart, has received from the Chicago shops, where the car is being constructed, the specifications of the new palace on wheels.

The car is constructed like a Pullman sleeper. It is fitted with berths for the fish commissioners and their assistants, and is provided with tanks for the transportation of the young trout.

The construction of the new car was authorized by the thirteenth assembly. It will cost $5,000, and in its construction the general plan of the federal fish-commission cars will be followed.

SALE OF TICKETS IS NOT BRISK

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE SQUADS FIND SEASON TICKETS HARD TO SELL.

Practically all of the squads engaged in selling tickets for the interscholastic meet have reported and when the total was made up at the chamber of commerce offices last evening it was manifest that the sale would be less than that of last year.

The chamber of commerce has taken over the responsibility of raising $1,500 toward the expenses of the meet. The officers of the chamber of commerce hold that the interscholastic meet is one of the most important events during the university year and should be enthusiastically supported by the citizens of Missoula.

It is now absolutely assured that the town will be closed up Friday afternoon of next week. Practically all of the stores have agreed to suspend from 1:30 till 5.

The tickets are made up of six coupons and are more in the nature of a club than a season ticket. It may be used by six people for one afternoon of the athletics or an evening entertainment, or by one person for all the events of the week's program.

AN APPEAL TO WIVES

You know the terrible affliction that comes to many homes from the result of a drinking husband or son. You know of the money wasted on "drink" that is needed in the home to purchase food and clothing.

Nursery Company's Boosting Bears Two Kinds of Fruit

YOUNG CHERRY TREES.

Probably there is no local institution or industry which has done more to advertise Missoula favorably than has the Missoula Nursery company during the fifteen years or more that it has been supplying trees and shrubs and plants to the people of Montana.

In the number of orders filled, said Mr. Dallman to a Missoulian reporter, "this year has led all others since I have been in the business. In the total number of trees shipped, this year's record is beaten by one year only. That was the first year that the Bitter Root Irrigation company planted the largest acreage of orchards.

INSIDE THE GREENHOUSE.

AMONG THE FLOWERS.

Our shipping season began this year with the demand for sweet-cherry trees from the states to the west of us. We shipped many carloads of these trees to Idaho and Washington. There has been a very general planting of big sweet cherries this year. The demand for apple trees has continued, almost unabated. The choice of varieties is narrowing somewhat. The growers are finding that they can do better without scattering so much. And this is bound to be a good thing for the orchard industry in western Montana.

"We are selling a lot of roses this spring. There will be more roses than in any year since I have been in the business. I am sure of that, just from our sales alone. We are getting orders for shrubbery that are extensive and the lists we are making for future delivery of bedding plants is getting longer every day.

"There have been some fine late orders for fruit trees, too. Today, over long-distance telephone, I received orders for nearly ten thousand trees. That is not bad when the season is so nearly over. For the home market we shall be sending out trees for another fortnight. The sale of perennial plants and shrubs is not at its height. The people are, as a rule, just getting into the making of new flower gardens and replenishing the old ones.

"We have had the largest force of workmen at our place this year that we have ever had. The orders have come so fast that we have worked nights and Sundays since the first of April. I expect naturally that there will be a little slowing up now, but there will be enough local business to keep us going at high pressure for the rest of the month. We have several flower gardens to lay out and plant and we are busy every day in consultation with people who are planting their own but who seek advice as to the selection of their roots and seeds.

"As soon as the weather gets a little warmer, the rush will begin for bedding plants. It seems to me that there have never been so many inquiries as this year in regard to gardens and bear him. Sunday school at 12 o'clock.

Moore and Miss Huribut. Miss Ross will sing, "Jesus Lover of My Soul," at the evening service.

Second Methodist. Second Methodist Episcopal church, test has had a good deal to do with exciting interest in this line. It is a good thing. A visit to the city store of the Missoula Nursery company is always a pleasant experience. A call at the nurseries of the company in Orchard Homes is sure to be a revelation to those who are not familiar with the extent of the operations of the company. There are a good many men employed all the year at the place. There is something doing all the time. In the spring there is the rush of shipments and as soon as this is over there begins the preparation for the next season. There are new baby trees to be planted and cultivated all through the summer; there are last year's young trees to be cared for and developed into next year's shippers.

In the fall the shipping stock has to be removed to the cold-storage warehouses of the company which hold millions of trees. In the winter there is the budding and grafting to do for the next spring's planting. All the time there is the work of the special season to be done in the greenhouses and the gardens. It is a busy place, no matter what time of year one calls. And the clean, strong stock which is grown at these nurseries has gone out to all parts of the northwest as a sample of what Missoula climate and soil, combined with scientific effort, to produce good trees and good plants of all sorts. There are vast reaches of orchards all over this region whose trees have been grown in this valley. It is worth the trip to go out to Orchard Homes and see where these trees come from and how they are produced.

SECRETARY WILSON ORGANIZES. Washington, May 3.—Secretary Wilson organized today the clerical force of the department of labor. He appointed Robert Watson, Lowell, Mass., chief clerk; George C. FIREMEN WILL STICK. Salt Lake City, May 3.—After a conference with Mayor Samuel C. Park, the city's fire-fighting force agreed to withdraw their resignations which were filed with the mayor yesterday after the city commission had refused to grant them an increase in wages. It is said today that the commission has agreed to readjust the firemen's salaries in accordance with their demands within 60 days.

Health a Factor in Success. The largest factor contributing to a man's success is undoubtedly health. It has been observed that a man is seldom sick when his towels are regular—he is never well when they are contaminated. For constipation you will find nothing quite so good as Chamberlain's Tablets. They not only move the bowels, but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion. They are sold by all druggists.

ENLISTED MAN MAKES GOOD. Washington, May 3.—Clarence O'Brien, of Omaha, one of the very few enlisted men of the navy to rise to the qualifications of a commanding officer, has successfully passed the severe entrance examination to the naval academy at Annapolis. Ward enlisted as a hospital apprentice at Omaha, April 25, 1911.

The great calamity in Omaha was quickly overshadowed by the terribly disastrous floods in Ohio. Great suffering and sickness from colds and exposure resulted. L. Poole, 2217 California St., Omaha, writes: "My daughter had a very severe cough and cold but Foley's Honey and Tar Compound knocked it out in no time." Refuse substitutes. Missoula Drug Co.

PETITIONERS WANT SCHOOL BOARD TO BUY PRICKLY PEAR UNIT IS DEDICATED TO USE

TRUSTEES ASKED TO INQUIRE IF EPISCOPAL CHURCH PROPERTY CAN BE PURCHASED.

EIGHT THOUSAND ACRES OF LAND WILL BE IRRIGATED BY NEW SYSTEM.

A petition has been circulated and generally signed, asking the trustees of Missoula school district to seek to purchase the Episcopal church property which adjoins the Central school and which, it is understood, is for sale. The board of trustees has appointed a committee to inquire if the property can be bought and, if so, at what price.

It is argued in support of the petition that the present Central grounds are too small for the number of pupils enrolled at the building. There are about 300 of the best in town on the rolls at the Central. At present it is necessary for them to use the streets for a playground.

There has been an increase in attendance at the Central building this year. The only seventh and eighth grades north of the river are in this building.

The acquisition of the church property, if it can be obtained, will make the Central grounds valuable and commodious. The property would be bounded on all sides by streets; there would be ample ground for the erection of the fine central building which the city must sometime have.

All this, of course, is dependent upon the ability of the district to buy the property. It is understood that the Episcopalians hope to build a larger church soon and in another location.

UNCLE SAM ISSUES COOK BOOK

VOLUME CONTAINS MORE THAN EIGHTY RECIPES FOR PREPARING MUTTON.

Washington, May 3.—(Special)—The latest government cook book, giving more than 80 recipes for preparing mutton, describing the edible qualities and nutritive food value of this meat, is now ready for distribution and may be had upon request from any senator or congressman by asking for farmers' bulletin 526. The National Woolgrowers' association is planning a wide distribution of this bulletin with a view to stimulating the public demand for mutton and thereby insuring a stronger market for their mutton sheep. Secretaries of state associations are requested to solicit from residents of the wool-growing states the names of persons residing in the east to whom copies of the pamphlet may be sent.

"Judged by its composition, palatability, wholesomeness, digestibility, relative cost and the number of ways in which it can be prepared for the home table, mutton is a most important foodstuff," declares the bulletin, "and is well worth the attention of the housekeeper who desires to provide her family with an attractive and palatable diet at a reasonable cost."

According to this authority, mutton has always been a most popular food in the orient and among the western nations. The ease with which the sheep is raised, and the fact that its flesh is not, like some other meats, excluded on religious grounds from the dietary of any large group of people, combine with its palatability to bring it into wide favor. The general belief that mutton and lamb are wholesome is strengthened by the experience of the experts in the department of agriculture, who find comparatively few sheep carcasses unfit for food; the sheep has no disease, alive or dead, it can communicate to man. Its value is equal to that of beef.

"While mutton and beef did not differ materially in percentage composition or digestibility, mutton has an advantage in that it is capable of somewhat more economical use. The mutton carcass is of such size that a quarter or a half, either of which supplies a variety of cuts, can be conveniently utilized in a household of moderate size with ordinary refrigerating facilities, and the price per pound is commonly lower than that of the meat is bought in this way. There is a certain advantage, too, in the fact that the leg, which has the smallest percentage of waste of any of the cuts fitly use, for a piece of meat which has not been cut up keeps better than one which has been cut up."

RECEIVES SAD NEWS OF DEATH OF MOTHER

Mrs. Wallace Galloway of 917 Sherwood street yesterday received word of the death of her mother, Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Dauton, at Monroe City, Mo., on Friday afternoon. Had she lived until May 4 she would have been 88 years of age. She came with her parents, William Stevens and wife, from Maryland to what is now Hannibal, Mo., in 1838, and within 30 miles of that place she passed her long and useful life. In early womanhood she united with the Presbyterian church, and continued an exemplary member of it until the day of her death.

Helena, May 3.—(Special)—On the formal completion of the Helena project of 8,000 acres under the Prickly Pear valley pumping project of the Helena reservoir and irrigation camp, many people motored into the valley today to be shown over the works. The pumps were started May 1 and will be prepared to furnish water in any quantity to land-owners all during the season at the contract price of $1.75 an acre foot. The company maintains the ditches and land-owners are under no expense save to maintain their own laterals.

Water is distributed through three ditches to lands on the north and western slopes of the valley through three ditches, of a total length of 28 miles. It is piped into the ditches from a pumping plant on the shore of Hauser lake at the rate of 100 cubic feet per second. The pipe lines are from 3,000 to 5,000 feet long and the ditches are at an elevation of 70, 110 and 150 feet, respectively, above the level of the lake.

ARBONETTES BUSY.

Bradford, England, May 3.—Extensive sheds belonging to the Midland railway, containing much freight, burned down here last night, causing a loss of $500,000. Arbonettes have broken out in these sheds on three successive Friday nights. The militant suffragettes were suspected of arson but there was no proof of this. The latest fire was evidently incendiary for the firemen discovered it had been started simultaneously in several parts of the building.
