Great Falls, June 26.—With the Electric having the game sailed away up to the ninth, the Knight Owls got to the local pitchers and scored seven runs. Hildebrand walked two pinch hitters, Pourroy and Foley, who were scored by Knight's two-slugger. Hildebrand threw the ball away trying to head off Knight at third and he scored. Four hits were made off Delhi, who relieved Hildebrand, three more scoring. Hester went in and ended the game, but one more run was scored on the Grow in from Pourroy's fly. The Electric rallied in their half but scored only two. The score:

WHITE MAY BE CHOSEN.

Los Angeles, June 26.—Jack White, the Chicago featherweight, probably will be substituted for "Harlem" Tommy Murphy in a 20-round bout with Johnny Dundee, scheduled for July 15, at Vernon arena.
 Upon receipt of a message from Murphy calling off his match with Dundee on account of an injury, terms were offered to White by the Pacific Athletic club. White lost a decision to Dundee in their bout here, June 27.

Connie Mack Won't Talk, But He Gets the Results

Great Manager of Philadelphia Athletics Refuses to Concede Himself a Pennant Even After the Whole World Agrees His Team Will Win Rag.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 26.—Baseball managers are less given to making bold predictions than are most men identified with professional sports. Take, for instance, "Connie" Mack, manager of the team that now seems almost certain of being a part of the 1913 world's series. If Mack were asked at this moment whether he thought the Athletics had an snaking chance to carry off the big achievement he probably would soliloquize in this fashion: "June is always one of the pleasantest months of the year, and I am quite certain that athletes are benefited by total abstinence. Suffrage has a stronger foothold in America because our women are less militant than they are in England. But the best way for a young man to succeed in any profession is to begin at the beginning and work up. Baseball is an exceedingly popular game. The Athletics have been playing it for quite some years now. While in other cities of the major league circuits there are frequent complications over salaries, the baseball world doesn't often hear of any player attached to the Athletics holding out for an increase in wages. Mack has that happy faculty of making his men content with their surroundings, and giving them just enough money to keep them from starting on a scolding expedition for bigger returns. There are no $15,000 a year Cobbs in the Athletics team, though on a basis of their actual value some of the young men who win pennants for him might be worth nearly that much.

Mack Gets Results.
 Few managers could get the results from the Athletics' pitching staff that Mack is producing this year. In this department the team is undeniably weak, yet undeniably strong under the system that Mack follows. There are only two veterans on the pitching staff—Frank and Bender. The others are youngsters who have promise of becoming stars in their line, but suffering just now from lack of experience. How he can make them go along day after day winning games and triumphing over veterans of established value is a thing that admittedly puzzles the clubs that are the victims of this skillful juggling procedure.
 It is the belief among some managers that the team itself is benefited in the long run when a pitcher is forced to remain in the box, though he may be receiving a terrific pounding from the opposing team. That is true so far as it concerns veterans, but it would be disastrous with the Athletics if the young pitchers were put through this course of taking their medicine. In some of the games this year Mack has not hesitated to use three or four and even five pitchers, putting in the veterans when it becomes necessary to pull the game out of the fire. Indeed, the Athletic pitchers have no cause for complaint, so far as being given plenty of work is concerned.

 In a world's series the situation might be different, but by the end of the season one or two of the younger Athletic pitchers will have settled into his stride. Under the Mack system of tutelage a pitcher becomes a veteran in a single season.

Connie Won't Talk.
 Of course, Mack is the acme of conservatism. He doesn't like to discuss the chances of his team winning the pennant, preferring that results should speak for themselves. Other managers are a bit more garrulous than the uncommunicative "Connie," but it is a peculiar fact that the brighter the prospects of any team the less its manager is given to making predictions. Mack, Gray, Charlie, Dowd, Evers, Tinker, Huggins, Stallings, Dahlen—none of them have made any rash statements this year. The policy of conservatism in that respect is the one best bet in the National League right now. And in the American league the playing managers have had their tongues tied to a certain extent by the "Ban" Johnson, edict against signed articles, though if they were not under that handicap the chances are that they would keep their opinions to themselves.
 As long as Mack can give an imitation of the well-known sphinx and continue winning pennants and world championships and things, he will not lose any slumber over the silent treatment he has selected. Mack is one of the most remarkable managers that has ever graced the national game. How he does it is a mystery even to those who are closely associated with him. As a developer of players he probably is without a peer, though as a player himself he never set the world on fire. There are few players in the Mack fold that were not brought out under the personal supervision of the manager.

Two New Pitchers for Missoula.
 Two new pitchers are expected to report to Manager "Nig" Perrine of the Highlanders in Butte this week. Pitcher Daly of the Spokane Northwestern league club left Spokane yesterday for Butte, and Pitcher Dawson of Pendleton, a promising youngster, is now on his way north. Both of these men will be in Butte before the end of the week.
 The Helena club yesterday secured Pitcher Gaut and Catcher Fox from Salt Lake. Gaut hasn't been going well under McCloskey's banner, and Fox was extra baggage. Helena releases Pitcher Hopkins to Lewistown of the Midland Empire league.

Notes from the Anvil Chorus

THE TALE OF PAT M'GEE.
 (Prologue.)
 Reader, no doubt you've read some where
 That oft-repeated tale
 Of how a homer in the ninth
 Won the hitter girl and kale.
 Somehow they all wind up that way;
 Such stuff is growing old.
 Now Pat McGee—but you will see,
 I will a tale unfold.

I.
 His calico told Pat McGee
 She guessed she'd rest her shoes
 In none but some big leaguer's trunk.
 "Beat it," she says, "You lose."
 But Pat allowed she counted him
 As down and out too quick.
 "Me for the Mudville club," he shouts,
 "I'll make Ty Cobb look sick."

II.
 Like any dub he bought a club
 With Jackson's picture on it;
 He grabbed a "unio" and some hose,
 Put an "M" upon his bonnet.
 Well, they kept poor Patrick on the bench
 Until, one August day,
 They bade him get his warclub out
 And mingle in the fray.

III.
 'Twas in the ninth, the score was tied,
 Two down, a man on first,
 And Casey (you know Casey). Well,
 The bleachers nearly burst
 As Casey started from the bench.
 "Then someone shouted, 'Wait!
 McGee will hit for Casey,'" and
 McGee walked to the plate.

IV.
 He didn't rub his hands in dirt,
 He was too scared for that;
 He did wipe them on his shirt,
 He just embraced his bat.
 The pitcher grooved the first one,
 And our Patrick let it by;
 The second curved square over
 And Pat met it in the eye.

V.
 The bleachers gasped and then the fans
 Rose as one man and yelled;
 Over the fence, across the field,
 The howling concourse swelled
 Through dust and dirt toward Pat
 McGee,
 Who gave a look, and then,
 With one leap, cleared the highest Fence.
 He'd sacrificed.

VI.
 Amen.
 The tale is told, the curtain falls;
 Thanks for the kind applause.
 This old-time stuff should get the hook
 Else why, pray, have we laws?
 What's that? The lady? End the tale
 In any way you please,
 But I have searched through Mudville
 And there ain't no young McGee.

Robust Is Right.
 Says the esteemed, who-would-be-without-it-for-a-nickel Sentinel, "The missing boy is described by the mother as being 5 feet 6 inches high and weighing 135 pounds. He is of robust figure."
 One out, none on bases, the opposition four runs ahead and Ty Cobb withdrawing from the field after failing as a pinch hitter. That is a dismal setting for a rally, yet Detroit pulled one off yesterday under those conditions. A double, an error and a base on balls filled the bases and Crawford tied the score with a home run.

Manager Cliff Blankenship is still seriously ill, so ill that he cannot receive visitors. Too loyal attention to his team is the trouble. The Peerless leader has the sympathy and best wishes of the whole city.

Great Rally.
 Detroit, June 26.—St. Louis defeated Detroit, 7 to 5, today, in an exciting 14-inning struggle. With a four-run lead at the beginning of the eighth inning and Leverenz pitching wonderful ball, the Browns appeared to have the game safe. Stange opened this inning with a double, after Dubuc and Cobb, as pinch hitters, had failed to connect. Austin tumbled Bush's grounder. Rondout, hitting for Vitt, drew a pass and Crawford cleared the bases with a drive to right for a home run. Thereafter, neither side could get a man over the plate until the 14th. Shotten, first man up, reached first on an error by Hennessy, who had replaced Vitt at second. Stovall, Pratt and Brief then singled and two runs came in.

Bender Is Generous.
 Washington, June 26.—Philadelphia took both ends of a double-header today, defeating Washington, 11 to 2, and 10 to 3. The Athletics continued their terrific hitting and batted Mallin from the box in the first game and Groom, in the second. For the visitors, Plank pitched a steady, winning game in the first, while in the second, Bender, who relieved Brown after the locals had scored two runs, simply toyed with Washington. The only run scored on him was made by Ainsmith, who singled and was allowed to steal all the way home. The Indian deliberately held the ball until after the runner crossed the plate. Scores:
 First game— R. H. E.
 Philadelphia 11 16 1
 Washington 2 5 1
 Batteries—Plank and Schang; Mullin, Engel, Wilson, Groom and Henry; Ainsmith.

White Sox Pass Boston.
 Chicago, June 26.—Chicago played an uphill game today, and after using three pitchers, defeated Cleveland, 7 to 5, and went into third place in the pennant race. Walsh started to pitch for Chicago and was touched for five hits. These, with an error and a sacrifice, netted five runs. Walsh was replaced by Benz, who allowed only two hits. He showed weakness in the ninth and Russell was sent to the rescue. The locals hit Veau Gregg in bunches and these hits, coupled with the loose fielding, enabled Chicago to win. Lajoie had an off day, making three costly errors.
 Score— R. H. E.
 Cleveland 5 7 6
 Chicago 7 8 1
 Batteries—V. Gregg and Carisch; Walsh, Benz, Russell and Schalk.

Will Be Sent Back.
 Chicago, June 26.—As soon as agents of the department of justice received a report that Jack Johnson, the negro pugilist, had been seen in Montreal, Canada, they began to search. At Johnson's home here it was stated that the negro had gone on a fishing trip to Cedar Lake, Ind. Charles F. DeWoody, special agent of the department of justice, at once investigated at Cedar Lake and was told that Johnson had not been there for several weeks.
 "From the circumstances, I think it not improbable that Johnson has gone to Canada," said Mr. DeWoody. "However, he may be brought back, although the crime is not extraditable, as it is the custom of the Canadian police to expel aliens who are under conviction of crime."
 Johnson is under $15,000 bail pending an appeal from his recent sentence under the white-slave act to serve one year and one day in the Leavenworth penitentiary.
 "Johnson will be returned to this country either by the Canadian authorities or by those of any foreign country to which he might go if it proves true that he attempted to forfeit his bond and leave the United States," according to Elwood W. Godman, chief assistant district attorney here.
 "The Canadian police will send him back if he is recognized there," said Mr. Godman. "If he goes to France, he will be extradited, as our foreign treaties provide extradition for the offense of which Johnson was convicted."

HEAT IS FATAL.
 Minneapolis, June 26.—One man was killed and another probably fatally injured in seeking relief from the heat today. A. F. Price and Frank Davis, with many others, had gone from downtown lodging houses to sleep on a stone wall above the railway tracks skirting the river bank. This morning a crew of switchmen found Davis lying on the tracks with a fractured skull. Twenty feet away was the body of Price, his neck broken. Both evidently had fallen from the wall in their sleep.

WAR ON ROWDYISM.
 Chicago, June 26.—President Ben Johnson of the American league declared relentless war on rowdyism on ball fields today. In discussing the suspension of Joe Jackson of Cleveland, the league executive said he was determined to suppress outbreaks of roughness and that, as an example, Jackson's suspension was made indefinite.
 W. J. Ferguson is appearing this season as Fouché in Joseph M. Gaithe's latest success, "The Purple Road."

TO RUSSIAN CAPITAL JACK JOHNSON IS GOING
 ADMITS IN MONTREAL THAT HE IS GOING ABROAD TO FIGHT, BUT WILL RETURN.

Montreal, June 26.—Jack Johnson, the negro pugilist, who is in this city, admitted tonight that he intended to sail for Europe next Tuesday to engage in fights in St. Petersburg next September. He said he did not intend to forfeit his ball bond, which calls for his presence next November in Chicago, where he is under sentence on a white-slave charge.
 Johnson, accompanied by his white wife, arrived here early today, having come direct from Chicago. During the day, in an effort to avoid newspaper men, he moved for a dozen times from houses in which he had engaged rooms. Tonight, however, he called a newspaper office on the telephone and outlined his plans.
 "I will remain in Montreal until next Tuesday, when I am booked to sail for Europe," said Johnson. "I intend going direct to St. Petersburg, where I have a contract to fight Sam Langford and Gunboat Smith. These fights will be pulled off some time in September."
 Johnson stated that the immigration authorities made no effort to stop him at the Canadian line. He claims there is $23,000 due him in Toronto and he has come to collect it before leaving for Europe. He said his ball bond only requires his presence in court next November and he has no intention of forfeiting his bond, but will return on the date set for hearing his appeal from his conviction on the white-slave charge.

Phils Beaten Twice.
 Philadelphia, June 26.—Philadelphia's winning streak was broken today, Brooklyn taking both games of a double-header, the first, 5 to 2, in 14 innings, and the second, 4 to 2. Rucker, who pitched in great style in the first game, was forced to leave the field owing to the heat after making a single in the thirteenth. Curtis finished out the contest and also twirled his team to victory in a duel with Alexander in the second. Both games were marked by brilliant fielding.
 "Manager Dooin had his right hand badly hurt by a foul tip in the second event. The scores:
 First game— R. H. E.
 Brooklyn 5 10 1
 Philadelphia 2 11 2
 Batteries—Rucker, Curtis and Fischer; Rixey, Seaton and Killifer.
 Second game— R. H. E.
 Brooklyn 4 11 0
 Philadelphia 2 5 0
 Batteries—Fischer, Alexander and Dooin; Killifer.

Reds Beat Cubs.
 Cincinnati, June 26.—Cincinnati won the second game of the series from Chicago today, 5 to 3, by hitting Cheney hard and often. Brown, while hit frequently, managed to keep the drives well scattered and was never in serious trouble. Score:
 R. H. E.
 Chicago 3 8 0
 Cincinnati 5 13 2
 Batteries—Cheney and Bresnahan; Brown and Clarke.

Roberts Catches Saltee.
 St. Louis, June 26.—St. Louis, by scoring three runs in the last half of the eighth, defeated Pittsburgh, 5 to 4, in the second game of the series. St. Louis' runs in the eighth were the result of Konetchy's home run drive to left field with two on bases. Pittsburgh's runs were scored by bunching hits with errors. Magee furnished the fielding features.

CLASSIC ENCOUNTER PREVENTED BY RAIN
 Hamilton, June 26.—(Special.)—Because of a downpour of rain which started this afternoon and is still whipping it up late tonight, Umpire Frank Peshek this afternoon granted a stay of execution in the case of the courtroom against local lawyers until next Tuesday evening.
 Subpoenas ordering members of the two teams to appear this evening before Umpire Peshek to testify on the national game and to bring exhibits such as balls, bats, mask and gloves, were served today by an officer from the sheriff's office upon all parties to the case.
