OUT OF A JOB

CLAYTON HERRINGTON.

Judge Clayton Herrington is the San Francisco man connected with the United States department of justice who dared to criticize Attorney General McPherson for ordering a postponement of the Dinges-Caminetti white slave cases in California. For this he was suspended from duty without pay. Herrington now says that his criticism was justified, and that Attorney General McPherson admits it by ordering a speedy trial of the cases.

A Good Investment. W. D. Magt, a well known merchant of Whitewater, Wis., bought a stock of Chamberlain's medicine so as to be able to supply them to his customers. After receiving them he was himself taken sick, and says that one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was worth more to him than the cost of his entire stock of these medicines. For sale by all druggists.-Adv.
