Summons.

In the District Court of the Fourth Judicial District of the State of Montana, in and for the County of Missoula.

Jesse P. Shaub, Plaintiff, Versus Clara Da Shaub, Defendant.

The State of Montana sends greeting to the above named defendant:

You are hereby summoned to appear in the court in this action which is filed in the office of the clerk of this court, a copy of which is herewith served upon you, and to file your answer and serve a copy thereof upon the plaintiff's attorney within twenty days after the service of this summons, exclusive of the day of service; and in case of your failure to appear or answer, judgment will be taken against you by default for the relief demanded in the complaint.

This action is brought to obtain an absolute divorce from the defendant on the ground that defendant has neglected grievous mental suffering upon plaintiff by a course of conduct toward and treatment of the plaintiff, persisted in and existing for more than one year, that was of such a nature and character as to destroy the peace of mind and happiness of plaintiff and to make a wreck of his home and happiness and for the further cause that defendant in the year 1908 deserted and abandoned plaintiff and his home, wilfully and without cause and still does continue to so desert and abandon plaintiff. Witness my hand and the seal of said court, this 20th day of June, A. D. 1913.
