WANTED TO LEASE A GOOD stock proposition or hay and grain ranch; irrigated. Address Box 6, Arlee, Mont.

Alias Summons.

In the District Court of the Fourth Judicial District, in and for the State of Montana, County of Missoula.

Corra B. Moore, Plaintiff, vs. James C. Moore, Defendant.

The state of Montana sends greeting to the above named defendant.

You are hereby summoned to answer the complaint in this action which is filed in the office of the clerk of this court, a copy of which is herewith served upon you, and to file your answer and serve a copy thereof upon the plaintiff's attorneys within twenty days after the service of this summons, exclusive of the day of service; and in case of your failure to appear or answer, judgment will be taken against you by default for the relief demanded in the complaint.

Not only comes the plaintiff, and for her cause of action against the defendant complaints and alleges:

First—That plaintiff and defendant were lawfully married at Butte, Mont., on the 27th day of April, 1908, and ever since have been and now are wife and husband.

Second—That plaintiff herein has lived and resided within the state of Montana for more than two years last past and immediately preceding the commencement of this action, and now lives and resides within said state.

Third—That plaintiff herein has at all times during all of said married life performed each and all of her marital duties to and toward the defendant, and she believes that the defendant herein discharging his duties as husband of the plaintiff has been guilty of wilful neglect to and toward her in this that for more than one year next immediately preceding the institution of this suit defendant has failed and refused to provide for plaintiff as his wife the common necessities of life, he having the ability and being able to do so at all of said times.

Fourth—That plaintiff is entitled to a reasonable attorney's fee herein, and she believes that the sum of one hundred dollars is a reasonable attorney fee as the plaintiff states on information and belief.

Wherefore plaintiff asks that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be dissolved and for an absolute divorce from said defendant, and (2) that she be given one hundred dollars attorney's fees, and (3) for her costs and such other and different relief as to the court may seem just and proper.

Witness my hand and the seal of said court on the 23rd day of June A. D. 1913. (Seal) THOS. P. CONLON, Clerk. 7-16-23-50-8-5

Summons.

In the District Court of the Fourth Judicial District of the State of Montana, in and for the County of Missoula.

Chara De Shaub, Plaintiff, Versus Clara De Shaub, Defendant.

The State of Montana sends greeting to the above named defendant.

You are hereby summoned to answer the complaint in this action which is filed in the office of the clerk of this court, a copy of which is herewith served upon you, and to file your answer and serve a copy thereof upon the plaintiff's attorneys within twenty days after the service of this summons, exclusive of the day of service; and in case of your failure to appear or answer, judgment will be taken against you by default, for the relief demanded in the complaint.

This action is brought to obtain an absolute divorce from the defendant on the ground that the defendant has inflicted grievous mental suffering upon plaintiff by a course of conduct toward and treatment of the plaintiff, persisted in and existing for more than one year that was of such a nature and character as to destroy the peace of mind and happiness of plaintiff and to make a wreck of his home and happiness, and for the further cause that defendant in the year 1908 deserted and abandoned plaintiff and his home, wilfully and without cause and still does continue to so desert and abandon plaintiff.

Witness my hand and the seal of said court, this 20th day of June, A. D. 1913. (Seal) THOS. P. CONLON, Clerk. 123 West Cedar. Deputy Clerk, James L. Wallace, Attorney for Plaintiff.
