

SOCIETY

OLD FRIENDS.

Among the garnered fruits of autumn, ripe and sweet, The dearest token Heaven to earth-man lends, The crown of labor, ere that labor ends, We count the blessed days when old friends meet. An "old home week" has lured back wandering feet To many a door where Mother waits and smiles; With welcoming love to cover years and miles; And childhood friends grown old are there to greet. The same rich boon has come this week and here. Old friends, who wrought and labored mightily To build Montana free from shame and fear, Are met to count in mutual memory Their joy and grief in service pioneer— Old friends and builders for eternity.

—MABEL KINNEY HALL.

Hospitality has been extended in a large way during the week to hundreds of honored guests who have come to Missoula from all over Montana to attend the two great state conventions which have been in session here. Every one in the city has had part in the pleasure and honor of making welcome the Montana Pioneers and the Sons and Daughters of Her- man and to that end private social functions have yielded place. It has been good to greet teachers and students coming in from vacation journeys and there is a delightful stir of reviving social life which promises many pleasant doings in the weeks to come.

King's Daughters Meet.
There will be an important meeting of the King's Daughters' society tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the home of Mrs. J. D. McCornick, 803 East Cedar street. Officers to serve for the coming year are to be elected at this time and all members and prospective members are asked to be present.

Past Grands' Club.
Mrs. N. D. Warner was hostess last Thursday afternoon for the club of ladies who hold the title of Past Grand in the Daughters of Rebekah lodge. The usual pleasant session was enjoyed with visiting and refreshments and study of the lodge manual.

Married People's "500" Club.
Reorganization for the winter was made last Monday evening of the Married People's "500" club. Mr. and Mrs. Tracy were host and hostess at their home on Butte avenue. Other members present were Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Lilly and Mr. and Mrs. Crawshaw. A good game and an appetizing supper made the entertainment.

At Bonner.
The Daughters of Rebekah at Bonner entertained for the benefit of the Past Grands' club Friday evening at the Masonic hall in Bonner. There were present more than 100 guests, including a number from Missoula. The hall was brilliantly decorated with flowers and banners in pink and green shades. Cards and dancing and delicious refreshments formed the entertainment.

Bridge Club.
Mrs. A. D. Price was hostess for the Bridge club last Wednesday afternoon at her home on South Sixth street, east. In addition to the members present there were as guests Mesdames Carl Greenwood, R. F. Gaines, R. A. Roderick and Mrs. E. A. Morley and Miss Greene from Helena. The club will meet next Wednesday with Mrs. J. P. Rowe.

"500" Club.
On Friday afternoon Mrs. A. M. Stevens entertained the ladies of the "500" club at her home on North Second street. Mesdames Belknap, Tracy, Wason, Crawshaw, Taylor, Pease and Wright had part in the charming hospitality offered by Mrs. Stevens.

Mrs. Rudd Hostess.
Mrs. J. A. Rudd was hostess at her home on University avenue Friday afternoon. Seven tables accommodated the ladies for a delightful game of bridge, played in rooms made fragrant and bright with a profusion of sweet peas and asters from Mrs. Rudd's gardens. Many compliments were bestowed upon the hostess for the unusually beautiful asters which she has grown by her skillful gardening. Mrs. Rudd's guests included Mesdames Roderick, Potter, Gately, George Briggs, C. H. McLeod, J. M. Keith, E. H. Boos, Kenneth Ross, Dan Ross, H. T. Wilkinson, Donohue, Thompson, Scheuch, Parsons, C. L. F. Kellogg, Lusk, Coffey, Buford, Carl Greenwood, Henry Greenwood, F. H. Elmore, Mulrooney, Barnes, Rowe, C. H. Hall, Hollister, Dwight Hughes, S. H. Russell, Pussley, Rutherford, Swearingen, D. T. Mason, Frank Beckwith, A. D. Price, E. A. Morley, Misses Greene, Gertrude Sioane and Josephine Polleys. Misses Helen and Katherine Rudd assisted in serving the daintily appointed refreshments.

Miss Gluyas Surprised.
Miss Clara Gluyas was happily surprised by a number of her friends, who assembled at her home to help celebrate her birthday. A pretty souvenir spoon was presented to Miss Gluyas and the evening was spent with games, music and refreshments. Those present were Misses Matilda and Carolina Paladin, Alba Williams, May Swanson, Laura Johnson, Louise Harrison, Ethel Tonkins, Lillian Tonkins and Nell Helwig. Upon this same occasion, the Misses Johnson and Swanson, who are leaving soon to attend college, were presented with dainty boxes of stationery as a farewell reminder.

At Orchard Homes.
Friday evening at the Orchard Homes Country Life clubhouse, Miss Jeanette Rankin addressed an attentive audience on the subject of "Dual Suffrage." Her clever and magnetic exposition of the matter proved highly convincing and the residents of Orchard Homes counted it a privilege to hear her. In honor of the occasion the clubhouse was decorated with masses of golden glow and yellow banners. Musical numbers were furnished by Mrs. Robinson of Minneapolis, who is here visiting Mrs. H. H. Hayes, and by Miss Lenore Hemmick.

MISS IRENE DAVIS.
A charming guest for the summer in the home of her aunt, Mrs. Harriet Dinmore. With her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Davis, of Butler, Mo., Miss Davis will now make a tour of the Pacific coast cities.

For a Birthday.
Mrs. E. D. Ganitt was tendered a birthday surprise by some of her friends, who presented her with some beautiful china in honor of the day. The ladies who spent the afternoon with Mrs. Ganitt were: Mesdames Reed, Deakin, Coy, Hansen, F. J. Williams, J. B. Williams, Farrell, Ferguson and Stone.

Exhibition of Products.
The women's auxiliary to the Orchard Homes Country Life club will be pleased to welcome all friends who may be interested in attending the exhibition of flowers and vegetables grown in the gardens competing for prizes offered by the ladies to children of Orchard Homes. The exhibition will be held Monday evening at the Hawthorne school and at that time prizes and premiums will be awarded.

Congregational Ladies.
The Ladies' Aid society of the Congregational church will meet with Mrs. F. A. McDonald at her home, 311 South Sixth street, east, next Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Bertha Thurston will assist Mrs. McDonald in entertaining. All members and friends will be made cordially welcome.

At the Spurgin Home.
Mrs. Spurgin and Miss Minnie Spurgin entertained about 40 ladies of the neighborhood last Monday afternoon at the beautiful Spurgin home in Orchard Homes suburb. The ladies visited over their needlework and at tea time they were served delicious refreshments in the dining room which was richly adorned with golden glow and other yellow garden flowers.

For a Picnic.
One of the pleasant parties which went into the mountains for a picnic on Labor day included Mr. and Mrs. Farnham, Mr. and Mrs. White, Mrs. Frank Beckwith, Mrs. Preston, Misses Eve and Mathilde Ammen, Messrs. Silcox, Whitney, Henderson and Ellard.

Birthday and Wedding Anniversary.
Mr. and Mrs. F. X. P. Scully entertained about 40 of their friends Saturday evening in honor of their wedding anniversary and at the same time of Mr. Scully's birthday. Japanese lanterns were hung about the spacious lawn of the Scully home and the guests enjoyed dancing and music out of doors. One of the very pleasant features of the occasion was the singing of a number of solos by Ray Webb, who charmed his hearers with a magnificent baritone voice. Late in the evening, supper was served in one of the R. & S. greenhouses, which happened at this season to be vacant and available. Floral decorations added to the effective whole of the evening's entertainment.

Camping.
Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Peers and Mr. and Mrs. Fields White spent the week end, including Labor day, in a camping trip to the extreme end of the Rattlesnake valley. They report good fishing and beautiful scenery.

Socialist Women.
The women's socialist committee will spend next Tuesday afternoon from 2 o'clock until 5 at the home of Mrs. J. W. Reely on West Cedar street. A covered dish tea will be served, each lady being expected to bring a part of the refreshments in a covered dish for a surprise.

At Cards.
Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hill entertained Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Trask and Miss Jane Twomey at cards Friday evening at their home on Rollins street. Miss Twomey has recently come from Greeley, Colo., to teach the primary department in the Whittier school. She is living in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Trask on South Fifth street, east.

Sans Souci Club.
Mrs. Nat Little was hostess for the Sans Souci club Wednesday afternoon. Of the members there were present Mesdames Edward Forbes, T. A. Price, Roy Wilbur, H. L. Bickenbach, George Wilcox and Alex Peterson. The meeting took the form of a farewell for Mrs. Wilbur, who is to leave next Wednesday for a six weeks' visit at her old home in Nebraska. While they visited the ladies busied themselves with sewing for Mrs. Wilbur, helping in her preparation for the journey.

Wade-Cousins.
Miss Amy Wade and Marshall Cousins of Eau Claire, Wis., were married Wednesday morning at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Wade, at Pine Tree ranch, Charles, Mont. Rev. J. C. Irwin of Hamilton was the officiating clergyman. After the ceremony the bridal party motored to the Bitter Root inn for dinner and then to Missoula, where Mr. and Mrs. Cousins took a train east. They will be at home after October 1 in Eau Claire, Wis., where Mr. Cousins is cashier of the Union National bank. Mrs. Cousins won a host of admiring friends last summer when she taught domestic art and science in the summer school of the university. She had intended to go to New York this fall to resume her course of study in Columbia, but was finally persuaded to change her plans. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wade, are in Missoula for a few days visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Pound and other friends. They will leave their ranch at Charles to spend the winter in their home at Eau Claire, as is their custom.

At Camp Lingerlonger.
Miss Beth Herstey had as house guests for the week at Camp Lingerlonger Misses Evelyn Thomas, Alberta Stone, Florence Lebkicher, Lulu Wright, Gladys Brewer, Irene Murray, Lewina Ainsworth and Alleen Ambrose. For Friday the number was doubled, each young lady having invited one other guest. The added company included Misses Evelyn McLeod, Ruth McElhaffie, Nellie Hay, Marie Lebkicher, Inez Wardle, Marie Wright, Margaret Beck, Chetita Stone and Elma Peterson. Tennis, boating and mountain climbing are among the happy pastimes enjoyed at this attractive camp.

Burns-Hoefer.
Miss Maud Burns of this city and Irving Hoefer of Dixon, Ill., were married Friday at noon at the home of the bride's mother in the Union block. Rev. H. S. Galley performed the ceremony and only a few of the relatives and intimate friends of the family witnessed the beautiful service. Masses of roses and sweet peas adorned the reception rooms and little Dorothy Dods, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Dods, carried the wedding ring for the service hidden in the heart of a great pink rose. The bride wore a white satin champagne wedding gown trimmed with pearl bands and imported lace. Her becoming cap was also made of the imported lace. She wore no jewelry except a string of gold beads, a gift from the groom, and she carried a shower bouquet of pink and white roses. At the conclusion of the ceremony a delicious wedding breakfast was served. Mrs. Hoefer was very lovely in her going-away gown, which was made of a French blue brocade wool and trimmed with fur. She wore a hat to match the gown. Mr. and Mrs. Hoefer left on a 4:30 o'clock train for points east. They expect to visit friends in Butte to make a tour of Yellowstone park and visit relatives in Chicago before they go to their home at Dixon, where Mr. Hoefer holds a position of responsibility as superintendent for the city water company. A house is all ready for the bride's home-coming. Mrs. Hoefer graduated from the University of Montana in the class of 1906 and her husband graduated from the University of Wisconsin. Both are sincerely liked and admired by a host of friends in Missoula and in other cities. A wealth of beautiful wedding gifts showered upon them testified to the love of their friends. There was a pretty scene at the Milwaukee station when the bride and groom took their train. A dozen or more of young ladies, who are close friends of Mrs. Hoefer, threw a shower of sweet peas over them until the station platform was paved with the fragrant blossoms. When the young ladies got on the train and rode as far as Bonner to give a final shower for the bride and groom.

Cunningham-Hazelrigg.
The wedding of Miss Jessie Cunningham and Roy Hazelrigg was solemnized at 8 o'clock Monday evening at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Elva J. Cave, on East Front street. Rev. F. J. Salsman, pastor of the Baptist church of Stevensville, performed the ceremony in the presence of about 12 relatives of the bride and groom. Miss Ida Cunningham and Ralph Bush were attendants. The bride was exquisitely gowned in a white imported robe and all the floral decorations of the rooms and the tables where refreshments were served were beautiful with artistic simplicity. Mr. and Mrs. Hazelrigg have taken an apartment at the Rozale for their residence. Mr. Hazelrigg will teach chemistry in the high school this year, where he has already won the sincere liking of his pupils in physics last year.

To Study in Europe.
The Misses Bessie Epperson and Ruth and Edith Greenough are making preparations to leave Missoula tomorrow for a year of study and travel abroad. They will sail from New York city September 20 and go directly to Rome, which will be the central point of their sojourn and study.

Through Glacier Park.
Miss Alice Woody and Miss Margaret Ronan have returned from a tour of Glacier park which was especially delightful. The young ladies chose to walk the first stages of the journey through and they went with a pack outfit to the farthest points of interest. They had as traveling companions part of the way Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Bradley of Chicago. The latter is widely known to the reading public as Mary Hastings Bradley, author of charming romances. One of her stories, "A Will and a Way," is now running as a serial in the Woman's Home Companion.

Swanson-Olson.
Miss Jennie Swanson and Albert Olson, both residents of Butte, were married at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening at the parsonage of the Swedish Congregational church on West Spruce street. Rev. C. R. A. Blomberg performed the ceremony and Miss Esther Landrose and Mr. Ellison were witnesses. Mr. and Mrs. Olson will make their home in Butte after a short honeymoon journey.

Mayhew-Dana.
Miss Pearl M. Mayhew of Florence and Paul R. Dana of Deer Lodge were married at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon in the Methodist church of this city. Rev. Thomas Hardie of Helena performed the ceremony in the presence of the parents of both bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. Dana went away for a short wedding journey and after September 15 they will be at home at Florence. The friendship which ripened into romance began while the young people were classmates in Montana Wesleyan university at Helena.

Informal Dance.
Mrs. W. E. Moore entertained a company of young people informally at her home on East Main street Tuesday evening. Dancing and singing were the features of the evening's fun.

Daughters of Hermann.
Eagles' hall was the scene of wholesome and delightful merry-making Thursday evening at the reception and banquet tendered by the local lodge of Daughters of Hermann to visiting Sons and Daughters of Hermann. The executive committee, Mesdames Watterskirchen, Heckler, Hubert, Borman and Greenfield, with the assistance of many others from the lodge, had made the banquet room a lovely bower with banks of veriegrees, golden rod, red asters and phlox. Music, recitations and impromptu speeches followed the fest of good things to eat. It was a propitious opening of the social part of the annual convention. A day of sight-seeing and visiting was enjoyed Friday by the Daughters of Hermann. While the members of the brother lodge held their business sessions, the ladies made a tour of the city in automobiles and upon their return they were served ice cream, cake and coffee at Eagles' hall. In the evening the ladies were guests of the Sons of Hermann at an elaborate banquet served in the Knights of Pythias hall. The order of entertainment yesterday was similar, with a grand ball at the Elks' hall to complete the evening.

Mrs. Kirkeby Here.
Mrs. H. P. Kirkeby of South Pasadena, Cal., is a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Chadwick, 736 South Fourth street west. Mrs. Kirkeby was for 15 years or longer a resident of Missoula and she has been greatly missed by her friends here since she moved to California three years ago.

Mrs. Gibson Here.
Mrs. Andrew Gibson and two daughters stopped over for a few days with friends in Missoula while on their way from the Pacific coast to their home in St. Paul. They were the guests of Mrs. Agnes Lombard at dinner Friday evening, and they are being entertained by others of their many friends here.

C. E. Society.
The Christian Endeavor society of the Christian church held a business meeting and social Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Lesseg on South Fourth street. There were more than 20 young people present to have part in the semi-annual election of officers. The social session of the evening was very enjoyable.

NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA, GAS OR INDIGESTION

"Pape's Diapsin" Settles Sour, Upset Stomachs in Five Minutes.

Time it. Pape's Diapsin will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach surely within five minutes. If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Get from your pharmacist a fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapsin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large fifty-cent cases contain enough "Pape's Diapsin" to keep the entire family free from stomach disorders and indigestion for many months. It belongs in your home.—Adv.
