

DAY FOR THE BEARS CAUSES STOCKS TO DECLINE

MANY ISSUES ARE FORCED DOWN SEVERAL POINTS, BUT RE- COVER IN PART.

New York, Sept. 20.—Bear traders took the stock market in hand at the beginning of business today and brought about a continuation of the decline. Union Pacific was forced down a point and others of the active issues receded nearly as much. Rock Island common and preferred shares touched new low figures for the present decline.

In spite of the comparative readiness with which the market responded to selling pressure, the bears did not press their advantage. The steady demand for stocks at the lower level was not to their liking. Efforts to get back stocks sold caused an upturn and prices gradually recovered the ground lost.

Trading was of a listless character throughout the session.

There was a disinclination to make fresh commitments because the stock exchange is not to open on Monday until noon. The holiday in London tended still further to restrict trading here.

The showing by the banks on the week of an actual cash gain of nearly $2,500,000 was closely in line with forecasts.

Shifting of the burden of loans was reflected in a loan decrease of nearly $10,000,000, and over $5,000,000 was added to the surplus, which was nearly doubled.

Bonds were inclined to weaken again, with Rock Island refunding 48 under marked pressure. Total sales, par value, $49,000.

United States 4s registered declined 1/2, the 4s coupon 3/4, and the Panama 2s 3/4 on call on the week. Panama 3s registered rose 1/4.

Grain and Provisions.

Chicago, Sept. 20.—More than a million bushels of wheat suddenly thrown on the market in the last hour today by a few leading houses made prices suffer a decided break. Prospect of a large increase in the visible supply total was said to have had considerable to do with the selling. The close was weak, 3/4 to 1c lower. Corn lost 1/4 to 1/2c; oats 3/8 to 1/2c; and provisions 2 1/2 to 12 1/2c.

Piling up of wheat stocks northwest cut a figure in preparing the way for the setback in wheat. Manitoba shipments have been monopolized the export outlet, there was but little domestic milling demand.

When wheat declined corn prices flattened out. Previously the market had shown strength owing to wet weather, which was expected to delay farmers' deliveries. Early firmness of oats gave way to the general weakness of other grain. Many week-end longs sold out. Provisions, after holding steady most of the day, showed moderate depression. The chief reason seemed to be that traders on the bull side preferred to let go of holdings rather than carry the liability over to next week. Today's range:

September wheat opened and high at 88 1/2c; low and close, 87 1/2c. September wheat opened at 75 1/2c; high, 75 1/2c; low, 74 1/2c; closed, 74 1/2c. September oats opened at 41 1/2c; high, 41 1/2c; low, 41 1/2c; closed, 41 1/2c.

Chicago Livestock.

Chicago, Sept. 20.—Hogs receipts, 39,000. Market steady to a shade higher. Pigs, 25 to 50c lower. Bulk of sales, $8.05@8.70; light, $8.50@9.15; mixed, $7.85@9.12 1/2; heavy, $7.70@8.95; rough, $7.15@7.95; pigs, $3.75@8.85. Cattle receipts 400. Market steady. Beeves, $6.85@9.30; Texas steers, $6.90@8.80; western steers, $6.20@8.35; stockers and feeders, $5.40@9.80; calves and heifers, $3.90@8.75; calves, $8.75@11.75.

Money Market.

New York, Sept. 20.—Bar silver, 61 1/2c. Government bonds steady; railroad bonds, easy. Money on call, nominal. No loans. Time loans steady; 60 days, 4 1/2 to 4 3/4 per cent; 90 days, 4 1/2 per cent; six months, 5 1/4 to 5 1/2 per cent.

Minneapolis Wheat.

Minneapolis, Sept. 20.—Close: No. 1 hard, 87 1/2c; No. 1 northern, 85 1/2c@87 1/2c; No. 2 northern, 82 1/2c@85 1/2c; No. 3 wheat, 80 1/2c@83 1/2c; No. 3 hard Montana, 80c; September, 83 1/2c; December, 86 1/2c@86 1/2c; May, 84 1/2c@86 1/2c.

Metal Market.

New York, Sept. 20.—The metal markets were quiet and practically nominal. Lake copper, $17; electrolytic, $18.75@19.17; casting, $16.62 1/2@16.75.

Weekly Bank Statement.

New York, Sept. 20.—The statement of the actual condition of clearing-house banks and trust companies for the week shows that they hold $10,657,550 reserve in excess of legal requirements. This is an increase of $5,226,700 from last week. The statement:

Loans, $1,933,832,000; decrease, $9,888,000.
Specie, $336,335,000; increase, $2,427,000.
Legal tender, $78,043,000; decrease, $1,980,500.
Net deposits, $1,788,619,000; decrease, $6,876,000.
Circulation, $45,114,000; decrease, $216,000.
Banks' cash reserve in vault, $348,925,000; trust companies' cash reserve in vault, $65,454,000.
Aggregate cash reserve, $414,379,000.
Excess lawful reserve, $10,657,550; increase, $5,226,700.
Trust companies' reserve with clearing-house members carrying 25 per cent cash reserve, $50,654,000.

BODY OF DEAD MAYOR TO BE VIEWED

mobiles following the hearse carrying the body of the late mayor, members of the board of estimators, Robert Adamson, the late mayor's secretary, R. A. C. Smith, commissioner of docks and ferries, and Police Commissioner Rhinelandt Waldo. No members of the mayor's family accompanied the body.

All during the day vehicles drove up to the Gaynor home with floral offerings and it was necessary to employ two automobiles to carry the flowers when the procession started.

Children of the East Side offered homage in their own way tonight to the man whom they had recognized always as their friend, and nearly 500 pupils of the schools nearby, their ages ranging from 8 to 15, marched through the mist from Hamilton Park and were allowed to pass through the hall where their mayor's coffin was resting.

Their clothes were dripping wet for they had walked all the way without protection, marching to the strains of "Nearer, My God, to Thee," played by a Boy Scout band and drum corps.

It took just eight minutes for them to pass through the hall.

One of them laid on the coffin a small bouquet of asters and throughout the night it divided honors with the offering of the Gaynor family that lay there.

MINISTERS ARE ASKED TO MEETING IN HELENA

Helena, Sept. 20.—(Special.)—For the purpose of developing a state-wide moral sentiment, a meeting of the ministers of the state has been called by "Helena ministers and others," to be held here next Friday morning at 9:30 o'clock in the Methodist Episcopal church south. It is reported the same persons that started the campaign against the Kiley boxing bill, also arranged for holding the meeting next week, and that the Kiley bill and other matters will be considered.

GENERAL SALZA DIES.

Rome, Sept. 20.—General Salza, who was head of the Italian Cyrenaica expedition, died today at Treviso, Italy.

How to Cure Cholera Morbus.

Many cases of this disease result fatally before medicine can be obtained or a physician summoned. It is easily cured when the proper remedy is at hand. Mrs. Charles Stewart of Mt. Collins, N. Y., says: "When my husband had cholera morbus last summer he used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and it cured him promptly. Every family should keep this remedy at hand. It only costs a quarter. For sale by all druggists."

MOVING OF CROPS HALTS PROGRESS OF MARKET

OPTIMISM CONTINUES BUT NEED OF MONEY RESERVES STOPS MUCH TRADING.

New York, Sept. 20.—The problem of the money market played an important part in the speculative situation this week and was an effective restraining influence. There were several special points of strength in the list which served to sustain the market and facilitate profit-taking, and at intervals to turn the whole movement upward. Sentiment over the future remained optimistic, but recognition was given to the unwisdom of attempting to force a campaign to advance prices at a period when the season's demand for trade and commerce was drawing down reserves and making extra demands for credit facilities. The hardening tendency of money rates in spite of the scaling down of stock market loans that was in progress, witnessed to the working of inroads on banking resources.

The approaching money settlements in Berlin are being prepared for by reports to the London gold market. New York clearing house banks keep up their percentage of reserve, but only by shifting loans to the trust companies and by drawing on nearby money centers for cash.

The August foreign trade statement confirmed the tendency of recent months toward expansion of export values and shrinkage of imports. This showing is complicated, however, by the question of the results to follow the operation of the new tariff law, nearly approaching enactment. The government's warehouses are filled with imported goods in bond, waiting for the reduction of duties to be thrown on the market. It is felt that the exact effects to follow can not be foreseen. Bankers and merchants are, therefore, inspired to caution.

There is a distinct improvement in the tone of the investment markets. The rise in securities bringing fixed interest return reflects this confidence.

Trade advices continue mixed. The influence of crop damage remains to be measured. The iron and steel trade is given over to conjecture of the new competition to be met with reduced duties and of the extent of railroad buying to be expected.

Copper statistics are a strengthening influence on the price of metal.

was immediately advised to perform no further executive act, but to respect the decision of the court until it should be reversed.

Yesterday two matters arose that seemed to demand immediate consideration and under the decision of Justice Hasbrouck it was evident that the public authorities would not recognize any act of Governor Sulzer. His counsel, for the purpose of enabling these seemingly important matters to be disposed of advised that the papers should be transmitted to Lieutenant Governor Glynn, thus abiding by the decision of the court until it could be reversed by a higher tribunal.

"The question as to whether the assembly had the power to impeach is now being argued before the court before the trial of impeachment by Mr. Marshall and it is absurd to think that pending that argument and before any decision between the court for the trial of impeachment is made that Governor Sulzer or his counsel would in any way concede the legality of the proceedings of the legislature, or that he is not rightfully entitled to act as governor."

Decision Monday.

The decision of the court of impeachment on the question probably will come on Monday. Attorney Marshall is expected to finish his argument Monday morning and Mr. Parker, chief counsel for the impeachment managers, will answer it. The vote will follow.

Should the governor lose, the case must come to trial, as this will spike what his friends consider as the strongest gun in the battery of legal objections. While there will be left the question of the impeachment of the officers charged, his counsel purpose to attack only three of the eight articles of impeachment—these having to do with the filing of a false campaign statement and with his Wall street speculations. If these charges should be thrown out, five other counts will remain.

James C. Garrison, the governor's friend and graft investigator, was still a prisoner tonight in the Albany county penitentiary where he was committed by the assembly for contempt of that body. Efforts of his counsel to procure a writ of habeas corpus were unavailing, owing to their inability to find a supreme court justice who was holding court. They promised action on Monday, however.

CHILDREN WIN PRIZES.

Kalispell, Sept. 20.—(Special.)—Final decision in the contest for tree trips to the state fair by school children of the county was given out today, with the result that five boys and two girls will visit the state fair next week at the expense of the state. The successful ones are Katherine Foot, Roy Huntington, Minnie Jahnske, Floyd Hulbut, Robert Gaudin, Harry Jack, and Albert Cramer. The first two named also were chosen as the best exhibitors and received handsome medals, presented by Howard Elliott, former president of the Northern Pacific railway.
