"BOKOO VINEGAR" DISPLAYED BY VARSITY

COLLEGE FOOTBALL CANDIDATES GO THROUGH WORK-OUT IN SNAPPY STYLE.

HOT SCRIMMAGE FEATURE

Varsity Works Against Scrubs For Half an Hour, Old Stars Re-establishing Themselves and New Men Show Speed—Weight Is Handicap.

Disclosing a supply of vinegar that helped to make observers on the sidelines forget deficiencies in weight, the candidates for the varsity wallowed through another hard conditioning grind last night, the watchful eye of Coach Heilman following them all the way. The men adopted the new signals and the new formations given them by the coach with surprising rapidity and the workout was full of snap.

A chalk talk opened the busy afternoon and was followed by a bit more of rudimentary drill. Then two squads were sent through rapid signal practice for an hour, meeting each other in a rapid-fire scrimmage in the last act of the afternoon's drama.

The coach lined the varsity against the scrub eleven, putting the second-string men on the defensive. The veterans met unexpected opposition in the second squad and during the half hour of stiff play the old men didn't gain much more than 100 yards against their less experienced opponents. Coach Heilman placed the men as follows for the afternoon's battle.

Varsity	Scrubs
Wiedman	Anderson
B. Craighead	L. E. R.
Daems	L. T. R.
E. Craighead	L. G. R.
Streit	C.
Schlegle	R. G. L.
Gault	R. T. L.
Kelly	R. E. L.
Troyer	Q. B.
Busha	No. 1
Owsley	No. 2
	W. Brown
	F. B.

Kress played in the varsity backfield during signal practice, but had to leave before the scrimmage started and was replaced by Troyer.

Stars of Scrimmage.

The varsity was given the ball in the center of the field and rushed it through the scrub goal line. Only simple line bucks and wide end runs were used, no complex plays having been added to the repertoire at this early stage. Kelly ran his team well, though, using speed which surprised the spectators and tearing off some brilliant runs himself. Owsley also was a ground-gainer, plunging through the line for lots of yardage and using his speed for strong advances around the wings.

The second team put up a strong resistance, though. Robinson at left end and Sorenson, who was shifted from the line of scrimmage to a point half way between the two stages of defense, excelling as defenders. Little Robinson smashed up the interference on wide runs in gill-edged fashion and Sorenson backed up the line like a brick wall.

Captain Smead assisted Coach Heilman during the afternoon, but is still badly crippled with a wrenched knee to take part in the game. He and the new leader were enthusiastic over the showing of the men, though. The spirit was good and all of the players, though light, fought hard.

Physical Director Mustaine yesterday signed with Gonzaga college for a game in Spokane on November 2. The date of the game with the Aggies will be changed, if possible, postponing the inauguration of the season until October 11, when the varsity will meet Pullman. The Washingtonians are anxious to get two games with the varsity and the Utah Aggies want to come north. These questions will be decided within a few days.

BOB SHAWKEY.

Philadelphia, Sept. 24.—Though he has been but two months away from the minors, Bob Shawkey of the Athletics may be used by Connie Mack in the world's series. Robert is proving a regular bear-cat in the box and in the games he has played since entering the big show has permitted but an average of one run for each five innings.

Had Connie Mack's hurling staff not become suddenly weak Shawkey would still be with Baltimore. Connie's veterans gave way this summer and he had to do something to strengthen the pitching end of his club. He brought Shawkey from Baltimore and put him to work. Shawkey has pitched some small ball for the Philadelphia team. Shawkey made his American league debut in July against the White Sox in Chicago. They got two runs off him in seven innings. Since the debut Shawkey has allowed 15 runs in 66 innings. The Browns are a hard club for Boston, Sept. 24.—A rugged game today resulted in a 10-to-9 victory for Philadelphia, the new American league champions, over the Red Sox. Wyckoff, the visiting pitcher, was always in difficulty owing to his inability to get the ball over the plate. But his teammates hit opportunely and Boston's errors were of assistance. Score: R. H. Friends Expected Her to Die.

"I sincerely believe my life was saved in the fall of 1910 by using Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," writes Mrs. Agnes Booth, Tonawanda, N. Y. "I was taken with diarrhoea followed by an attack of acute indigestion. Power of the pen fails to portray the agonies I endured. My friends expected me to die as I had been unable to get relief for so long a time. This remedy went directly to the seat of the trouble and cured me in a few hours' time." Philadelphia, Sept. 24.—Boston and Philadelphia split even in a double-header here this afternoon. Boston won the first, 4 to 0, and Philadelphia captured the second, 11 to 6. The opening event was won by the visitors through the excellent twirling of Rudolph, who held his opponents to three hits and did not permit a runner to reach third base, while Maranville and Smith made some sensational plays. Seaton gave a pass and was hit for a single and two doubles in the fifth, the visitors scoring three runs. They added another in the ninth on three singles and a sacrifice off Brennan's delivery. Scores:

Fumbles Beat Cubs.

Pittsburgh, Sept. 24.—Chicago's errors and two wild pitches by Cheney in the first inning gave Pittsburgh the opener of the series, 3 to 2. Carey, leading off in the first inning, was safe on Evers' fumble. A wild pitch enabled Carey to take second. Doan hit to Cheney, whose throw failed to get Carey at third. With Wagner on, Cheney then uncorked his second wild pitch, Carey scoring and Dolan reaching third. Wagner walked and Dolan scored in Vix's sacrifice fly.

Another fumble by Evers on Dolan's grounder in the third, followed by Wagner's double that hit the left-field fence, gave the Pirates their third run. Chicago scored a run in the fourth. Leach's short fly went for a double in the sixth and he scored when Williams singled. Score:

Chicago	2	4	3
Pittsburgh	3	4	1

Batteries—Cheney, Lavender and Archer; Hendrix and Gibson.

Matty Wins Another.

New York, Sept. 24.—The New Yorks crept a little closer to the championship today when they took a close game from Brooklyn, 2 to 1. The game was a pitchers' battle between Mathewson and Reulbach. The New York star yielded more hits, but he had better control. At several stages a hit would have beaten Mathewson, but the veteran was at his best in the pinches.

Both clubs bunched three hits in the fourth inning when all the scoring was done. The winning run came over when Merkle singled, took third on Spodgrass' single and scored on Doyie's sacrifice fly. Meyers slightly hurt his hand while at bat in the sixth and retired in favor of McLean. Score: R. H. E. Brooklyn 1 12 2. New York 2 6 0. Batteries—Reulbach and Fischer; Mathewson and Meyers, McLean.

The Theaters

At the Bijou.

Two big and entirely different comedy musical acts open at the Bijou tonight. Everybody enjoys this kind of high-class entertainment, and we never let an act of this kind pass up Missoula at any cost. In the musical LaMoines, Mrs. LaMoine is a niece of Paul Dowling, the millionaire pump manufacturer of St. Louis, and of August Geddiker, a prominent banker of Hanover, Kan. Why is she on the stage then? She likes it, and made good just because she likes it. She is a popular number. It's as good as going to Ringling Brothers' circus to hear herself and her husband imitating the wild animals.

There will be packed houses at the Bijou for this number alone. But then, there is Karl Karey, New York's miniature cabaret entertainer, with a splendid repertoire of music and singing. In the photoplay program Pathe's Weekly heads the bill; then comes "Zeb's Musical Comedie," a dandy Edison comedy. The dramatic offering is a Biograph, "The Adopted Brother."

At the Empress.

The Empress theater offers a program of unusual attractiveness for today, matinee and night. Two strong dramas are relayed by a clever comedy. In "The Redemption," Florence La Badie appears in one of the best roles she has yet undertaken. The story told in this film is one of universal interest, heart-gripping, intense. "The Gypsy Queen" is a Keystone comedy, featuring Mabel Normand and all the rest of talent that has made the Keystone funnies really funny—and famous. There is a special

Heilman's Mates Start Work

Strenuous football practice is the order of the day at the University of Pennsylvania just now, just as it is at other colleges. In the scrimmages during the past week a number of new men have done such good work that the coaches have expressed themselves as pleased with prospects for the coming season. The accompanying picture shows Schwegler of the U. of P. team tackling a flying dummy.
