

RECORD OF ONE WEEK IN MISSOULA'S SOCIAL LIFE

THE MOTHER HEART.

Thanks be for sweet, enfolding mother love
That wells in every finer woman's heart.
With power to reach from highest heavens above
To dark, forbidden haunts and ways apart.

Thanks be for crooning, tender mother songs
That ease all pain with soothing ministry;
And for the brave, enduring faith that lingers
To send forth sons to win great victory.

And then give thanks for greater mother love,
Embracing first her own, then reaching out
To serve with broad and comprehending love
The needs and problems thronging her about.

Thanks be for mighty, modern womanhood
That mothers men and laws imparitally,
Securing better homes and civic good
With tender mother heart efficiently.

—Mabel Kinney Hall.

Active service has begun in all lines of philanthropic and cultural effort. Missoula women have assembled, during the week just ended, in their many clubs and societies and set on foot the plans cherished by each for the forward movement of the year. The Missoula Women's club, the Park Addition club, the Daily Addition Mothers' club the As-You-Like-It club, the Orchard Homes Country Life club and auxiliary, the West-Side club, The North-Side Mothers' club, the Association of Collegiate Alumnae, the Westminster guild, the Socialist Women's committee, the Political Equality club and the Young Women's Christian association, both city and university sections, besides a long list of church and societies, lodges and social clubs, have gotten under way during the last two weeks. It is a tremendous amount of power for civic uplift and education that is applied by these numerous organizations. It is interesting to note, after making a careful study of programs issued in the various club year books, that child welfare, public schools and parks, home economics and a higher standard for modern drama, make the larger part of subjects to be considered.

Westminster Guild.
The opening meeting of the Westminster guild held last Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Emma Berg, was prophetic of a thoroughly interesting season. There were 40 young ladies present, all ready to enjoy the study of "Immigration" which is the prescribed subject for this fall. The program Wednesday evening was general by way of preparation. Articles were read by Miss Ruth Kellogg, Miss Mamie Willard and Miss Minnie Porterfield describing the three home missions supported by Westminster guilds of the United States. Miss Winnifred Feighner and Miss Effie Utter read articles on "Immigrants," introducing the new subject. At roll-call listters were read from three members of the guild who will not be in Missoula this year. Mrs. Carrie Fontaine Nora, Miss McEachran and Miss Maude Harper. Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the program. The next place of meeting will be at the home of the Misses Willard on South Fifth street, east.

Alpha Circle.
Mrs. Joseph Stoll delightfully entertained the ladies of the Alpha circle last Thursday afternoon at her home on Brooks street. A game of "500" furnished entertainment until tea time, when dainty refreshments were served by the hostess. At this time also, Mrs. Ferguson was given a beautiful souvenir spoon. Mrs. Colombe as president of the circle making the presentation speech in behalf of the other members. She expressed the love and best wishes of the circle for Mrs. Ferguson, who is to leave soon for her new home in Spokane. Mrs. Ferguson in turn expressed her appreciation of the gift. The next meeting of the Alpha circle will be with Mrs. Emma Schilling at her home on Toole avenue.

Episcopal Guild.
The monthly social session of the Ladies' guild of the Episcopal church will be held next Thursday afternoon, October 16, at the home of Mrs. J. J. Buckley, 1320 Gerald avenue. Mrs. Buckley and Mrs. C. H. McLeod will be hostesses. A cordial invitation is extended to all ladies who may be interested in the activities of the church.

Catholic Lady Foresters.
Mrs. J. K. Thompson will entertain the Catholic Lady Foresters and their friends Tuesday afternoon from 2:30 o'clock until 4:30 at her home, 713 South Fifth street, west.

Bridge Club.
Mrs. Charles H. Hall entertained the Bridge club with happy hospitality last Wednesday afternoon at her home on South Fourth street, west. The ladies present were Mrs. S. H. Coffey and Mrs. Frank Wilcox as guests and Mesdames Agnes Lombard, A. W. Wilcox, J. P. Rowe, C. W. Blair, C. A. Barnes, Kenneth Ross, E. C. Mulronney, A. D. Price, John Bunker, T. A. Fitzgerald and the hostess, members. Mrs. Agnes Lombard was at this meeting elected to serve as chairman of the club for the season.

Section Meeting.
Mrs. George Clark's section of the Ladies' Hand society will meet Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. William McBride at her home, 402 South Sixth street, east.

Kappa Alpha Theta Spread.
The young ladies of the active chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority entertained in charming fashion last evening. Their guests were taken to the Empress theater to see a program of photoplay and then asked to the home of Miss Merle Kettlewell on South Fourth street, east, where a delightful spread was served by the sorority. Autumn flowers and mountain ash berries made attractive table decorations and clever place flowers were fashioned of real apples cut to hold tiny candles upon which marshmallows were toasted. The guests were Misses Lila and Phyllis Carrigan, Beth Hershey, Iva Willoughby, Margery Maxwell, Frances Donaher, Ethel Stubblefield, Judith Hatch, Helen Buckley, Florence Ingram, Helen Cochran, Patricia O'Flynn, Louise Weber, Gertrude Skinner, Carol O'Donnell and alumnae members, Misses Mildred Clark and Eloise Knowles; Mesdames A. N. Whitlock, John J. Lucy, Gilbert Reinhard and Ralph Gilham.

At Cards.
Mrs. William Zimmer will entertain the members and friends of the Ladies' auxiliary to Ancient Order of Hibernians at cards next Thursday evening at her home, 621 Toole avenue.

Immanuel Chapter.
The auxiliary to Immanuel chapter, No. 54, Order of Eastern Star, will meet next Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Fox, 829 Cherry street.

King's Daughters Society.
There will be a meeting of the King's Daughters' society Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. F. C. Webster, 241 South Fifth street, east. All members are asked to be present for important business.

Kaffee Kraenzchen.
Mrs. Caroline Greenfield will entertain the ladies of the Kaffee Kraenzchen, Thursday afternoon at her home in the Wilson block.

Women's Relief Corps.
There will be held a social tea for the benefit of the Women's Relief corps next Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. White, corner of Spruce street and McCormick street. The hostesses for the afternoon will be Mesdames Sturm, McDonald and Walford. They will be pleased to welcome their personal friends and friends of the corps.

Sigma Chi Entertainers.
Members of Sigma Chi fraternity entertained a company of 50 young people Friday evening. There was dancing at Knights of Pythias hall until a late hour and then supper and a musicale at the fraternity house. Professor and Mrs. F. C. Scheuch, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Heyron and Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Reinhard chaperoned the delightful function.

For Mrs. Nixon.
Mrs. Zella Knowlton entertained in compliment to Mrs. M. Nixon of Helena, who has been her guest for a week, Wednesday afternoon at her home on Vine street. After a delightful afternoon of visiting, a daintily appointed tea was served. Mrs. Knowlton's guests were Mesdames Stover, Rovora, Victor, Wilburn, Wilkerson, Sperry, Garlington and the guest of honor, Mrs. Nixon.

A House Party.
Mrs. Tom Kinney was hostess at a house party for the week-end in her home at Thompson Falls. Her guests were Misses Edna Power, Dorothy Sterling, Marjorie Ross, Edna Rankin; Messrs. Robert Freye, Malcolm Whiting and James Safford.

Bride's Dinner.
Miss Edna Power entertained at dinner last Thursday evening the members of the bridal party for her wedding with Mr. Robert Freye, which will be solemnized next Thursday evening. The reception room of the Power home on University avenue were decorated with flowers in bridal pink and white and the dinner table was made beautiful with the same shades. Cupids were everywhere in evidence in the decorations and favors. After dinner the young people enjoyed a game of bridge. Miss Power's guests were Misses Dorothy Steffing, Maude McCullough, Evaro Avery, Abbie Lucy; Messrs. Robert Freye, Henry Turner, Paul Dornblaser, Allan Swift and Jack Power.

Reception to Pastor.
Several hundred parishioners and friends assembled in the parlors of the Methodist church Friday evening to give formal welcome to Dr. and Mrs. Charles D. Crouch and Miss Jones. The rooms were beautifully decorated with flowers. Refreshments were served, Mrs. John Leach being in charge and Mesdames Clark, Adams and Nelson; Misses Hazel Hill and Orpha Colner, her able assistants. A part of the evening was occupied with a pleasing program, whose numbers were:

Instrumental solo—Mrs. H. A. West. Vocal solo—Charles E. Perry. Address of welcome—Judge John E. Patterson. Response—Rev. Charles D. Crouch, D. D. Vocal duet—Will Castles and Mrs. McAllister. Address, "Our Pastor's Wife"—Mrs. David Andrews, president of the Ladies' Hand society. Response—Mrs. Crouch. Vocal solo—G. A. McAllister. Address, "Our Deaconess"—Mrs. J. E. Ambrose. Response—Miss Jones. Quartet—Mesdames Hoverson and McAllister and Messrs. Castle and McAllister.

Initiation Party.
Three hundred and fifty young people assembled made rather a large party at the high school Friday evening, but it was a party altogether harmonious and happy. The main feature of the evening was the ceremony of initiating the members of the freshman class. Stillman Ross, as king, and Miss Esther Jacobson, as queen, with David Roberts as court jester, presided over the ceremony which consisted of a variety of stunts, cleverly devised to try the mettle of the freshmen. Miss Schaefermann and Mr. Staehling were the only faculty members to be put to test. A part of their stunt was to debate a leading question of the day, using the German language. Following the exercises in the assembly hall, the young people adjourned to the gymnasium across the street for dancing. Later, after the electric wires leading into the gymnasium had been cut by malicious hoodlums, the party moved back to the assembly hall, where Miss Lereh and David Roberts entertained with humorous recitations and music added to the lively time.

Y. W. C. A. Classes.

Classes in the educational department of the Young Women's Christian association will be opened tomorrow evening. Enrollment has been prompt and enthusiastic in a number of the subjects offered. The young women, who wish to take the course offered by physical culture, count themselves fortunate to have Mrs. C. C. Staehling take charge of the class. Mrs. Staehling graduated from a leading gymnastic school in Boston and she has taught physical culture in the Normal college at Warrensburg, Mo., as well as in other cities. The young women who will take the course in dressmaking will have opportunity to make such garments as they may choose for themselves under the efficient instruction of Miss Nellie Umbarger. The course in cookery to be given by Miss Lucile Brewer is also attractive in its combination of practical and theoretical lessons.

At Sigma Nu House.

A company of the young people enjoyed the hospitality of Sigma Nu

Friday evening at the fraternity house. Singing and dancing and a late supper made a delightful and informal program. This evening there will be an informal fireside party at the fraternity house, with music and supper the features.

A Kensington Tea.
Mrs. H. H. Hollister and Miss May Johnson entertained a few of their friends at a Kensington tea yesterday afternoon in Mrs. Hollister's home on University avenue. Visiting over needlework and coffee cups made pleasant the afternoon.

Daily Addition Mothers' Club.

Good attendance and keen interest marked the meeting of the Daily Addition Mothers' club held on Friday afternoon at the Daily addition chapel. After a short business session, the ladies were entertained and instructed by Miss Alice Shepard, general secretary of the Young Women's Christian association, who told of the work of Camp Fire girls. During the social hour refreshments were served by Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. DeFord.

For Pencil Day.

All the precinct chairmen and others interested are requested to meet at the home of Mrs. Angevine, 222 West Spruce, Tuesday afternoon, at 3 o'clock to make plans for pencil day. It was decided at the state central committee meeting recently held in Butte, to set aside October 25 as pencil day to be observed in each city and village of the state. Missoula, the best organized city of Montana in suffrage work, is expected to make a splendid showing on pencil day.

In the Fifth Precinct.

The Political Equality club of the Fifth precinct will hold its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Gilman, Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. All ladies interested are cordially invited to be present and to bring suggestions for the year's work.

Sewing Club.

Misses Inez and Margaret Summers entertained on Wednesday evening a company of ladies who meet regularly once in a fortnight for a social evening with needlework. Those present at this meeting were Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Fletcher, Mrs. Apple, Mrs. Robinson, Miss Jennie Rowe, Miss Maxine Robson and the hostesses.

A Birthday Surprise.

A company of young people surprised Miss Gladys Brewer Monday evening in honor of her birthday, which came Sunday. Misses Florence Lebkamer, Alberta Stoggs, Irene Murray, Elizabeth Hershey, Evelyn Thomas, Inez Wardle; Messrs. Emerson Stone, Carroll Baker, LeRoy Lebkamer, Lardold Lansing, Stuart McHaffie, Tom Denny and Stillman Ross met at the South Sixth street east and all went together to the home of Miss Brewer. After the surprise and congratulations were given the party, including Miss Brewer, went to the moving picture theaters and later returned to the Brewer home for a spread of good things to eat, furnished by the self-invited guests.

George Bishop is Host.

H. G. Bishop was host at dinner Monday evening at his home on Plymouth street in celebration of his birthday and his tenth wedding anniversary. His guests were all the employees of the grocery department of the Missoula Mercantile company, 50 in number. They were seated about a long table, which was beautifully appointed, and served with a sumptuous repast of chicken and all that is good to eat with chicken. Mrs. Bishop and her sister played the part of waitresses gracefully and efficiently.

A Birthday Surprise.

A company of young people surprised Raymond Coen at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Coen, Wednesday evening in honor of his 18th birthday. A merry time was spent with dancing and music followed by a late and delicious spread. Many beautiful gifts were brought to the popular young man whose birthday was being celebrated. Those present were Misses Marie Owens, Kathryn Donohue, Gay Pritchard, Ruth Small, Bertha Smith, Olive Dudley, Hilda Marion, Juliette Marcure, Messrs. Jack Walsh, Roy Warden, Ed Walters, Joseph Lehen, Frank Owens, Bill Marion and the host.

Mills-Volk.

Miss Grace Edna Mills and George R. Volk were united in marriage at 7 o'clock yesterday morning at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Elva Mills, on South Second street. Rev. Elmer D. Gallagher, D. D., performed the ceremony in the presence of about 20 relatives and intimate friends. Miss Alma Krest was bridesmaid and Loring O. Mills was best man. The bride wore a modish traveling suit and hat to match, both very becoming. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Lillian Reeves. Following the ceremony an elaborate wedding breakfast was served by Mrs. Mills at a long table which was made beautiful with an artistic arrangement of roses, sweet peas and smilax. The reception room were also decorated with the fragrant pink and white blossoms. Mr. and Mrs. Volk left yesterday morning for their honeymoon journey to Spokane and to Post Falls. They will visit Mr.
