I suppose that Woodrow Wilson's doing everything he can—but he ought to find somebody to boss the weather man; I am patient and enduring and I'm not inclined to kick, but this democratic weather dope makes everybody sick; the weather never was so bad nor so overrating mean—it's been getting poorer and poorer all through nineteenth-century weather man sends warning that there's going to be a storm—we hustle winter underwear and the weather comes off warm; and then he posts a bulletin that the weather will be fair—we turn out to enjoy it and a snowstorm makes us swear; with Bryan giving lectures and Daniels swining round—with Garrison a-junketing, where can relief be found; for Lane is irrigating and McAdoo counts cash—McReynolds plays at politics and the weather gods to smash; so Woodrow must find someone to boss the weather man—for we've stood this monkey-business as long as mortals can.

If anybody asks you who grows the best Duchess apples in the state of Montana, don't hesitate a minute. Just tell him, off-hand, that it is Frank McHaffie of Missoula, secretary of the Missoula Anglers' association. This is no joke. Mr. McHaffie has the credentials in his pocket—unless he has trevel them into cash. He had them there yesterday and he seemed so fully proud of them that it was not reasonable to suppose that he would ever present the documents for transmission into base gold. It required considerable persuasion to induce Mac to send his apples to the state fair. But he yielded to the importunities of those who know good apples when they see them, and he packed a plate of them over to Professor Dean for transportation to Helena. Now he has a certificate that his fruit captured first honors in state-wide competition and he is as proud of the possession as he would be if he had caught the biggest bull trout of the year.

"If you don't stop that class ad, I'll have to go out and get some more chickens for I have sold all of mine and there are calls still coming for fowls." This was the message which came to The Missoulian's advertising desk yesterday. There had been a little ad running in the Missoulian-Sentinel three-day service, announcing that there were chickens for sale at a mentioned place. When the woman put the ad in the paper, she thought it would be easy to get rid of her birds. She was about to move and she had to dispose of them quickly. But when the ad had had two days' service, she realized what the twice-a-day class ad means. Not only were all her chickens sold, but she could have sold as many more. The testimony of this woman is the testimony of the great majority of people who use the Missoulian-Sentinel class ad. It is the best and busiest advertising there is. Yesterday the Man About Town received three testimonials as he made his rounds. This, quoted here, was one of them. The others were in the same vein.

"If it is true that there cannot be a race meeting without pool-selling," said a south-side man yesterday. "I think the county commissioners are wasting the money that is to be spent in the construction of a track at the fairgrounds. I have not a doubt that there will be a law absolutely forbidding any more pool-selling in the state and I don't believe there is anybody familiar with sentiment through the state who thinks any differently. But, on the other hand, I don't believe the elimination of the tout and the racetrack gambler will put the state fair out of business. I am told that the Minnesota state fair has increased in size and has grown in popularity since pool-selling was forbidden there. But, even if it killed every fair in the state, I would like to see the gambling feature abolished. If we cannot run fairs without this professional race element, then I think we'd better get along without fairs."

Important affairs of the lodge and principally the planning of a vigorous field campaign for members, are to be discussed at a business meeting of the Local Order of Moose tonight. TWO SCORE NOW TRY TO ENJOIN CITY

EAST FRONT STREET RESIDENTS OBJECT TO PAYING IMPROVEMENT TAX.

Herman Kohn, C. H. McLeod, Tyler B. Thompson, D. R. Feighner, Missoula Mercantile company, First National bank, Mrs. E. J. Cave, Laura M. Conkrite, Kate Zinger, E. S. Newton, Paul Gerber, Chris Knudson, Grace and John Sheumeyer, J. P. Talbot, G. Deschamps, B. L. Orr, Lizzie Kennedy, Joseph Solomon, Leo Solomon, J. M. Keith, T. H. Thibodeau, F. J. Whistler, Kate McCormick, Marie J. Higgins, J. C. Lehson, Knights of Pythias lodge, W. H. Reid, Allen Stephens, Julius Grill, Harry Williams, D. J. Heyfron, W. B. Sullivan, Lizzie D. Wicks, A. L. McComb, Susan A. James, A. E. Demers and H. E. Gerber—these are the plaintiffs named in an injunction suit filed yesterday afternoon in the district court against the city of Missoula. It was the filing of this suit that caused the smile of City Attorney Woody, made brighter than usual by his victory in the Himes damage case, to fade away and give place to a frown of displeasure. The suit is brought by property owners of East Front street, and the allegation is that they were not properly notified and given an opportunity to appear in protest against the creation of an improvement district for the opening of East Front street. It is asked that the city be enjoined from collecting the special improvement tax that has been levied against the district for this year, and that the action of the city in creating the district be declared null and void.

BIGGEST MOUNTAIN LION IS SHOT ON DEEP CREEK

A mountain lion, which, after being drawn, weighed 125 pounds, fell a victim to the good aim of Lee Cahoon yesterday, and when the animal was brought to the city it was viewed by hundreds of people. The lion was declared by everybody—and, of course, everybody who declared himself knew in these parts, it was an immense cat, regular circus size, and had a beautiful hide and a tail that would put to shame many an African beauty of the same family. The most remarkable thing about the lion is that it was killed so near Missoula, and that its mate is still running at large. Mr. Cahoon killed the animal on Deep creek, 18 miles from the city, shooting a 32-40 caliber rifle, the bullet taking effect in the shoulder. His son saw the other lion, and Mr. Cahoon expects to bag it soon.

EFFORTS ARE FRUITLESS TO GET VARSITY GAME

Manager George Armitage's last-minute efforts to arrange a game for the university team Saturday have been futile and last night it was known positively that Saturday will be a blank on the varsity schedule. During the week he has corresponded with three managers, of the Anacosta team, the College of Montana at Deer Lodge and the Ramblers of Butte. The last refusal came yesterday. The schedule for the remainder of the season, however, is encouraging. There is a contest every Saturday until Thanksgiving and that date is open for a game with Whitman college at Walla Walla, Wash., if the varsity wants it, and it is considered very likely that it will be arranged.

HOME FROM CONVENTION ARE PYTHIAN DELEGATES

Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Zeh and Mrs. J. D. Scott were early home-comers last night from the Montana grand lodge of Pythian orders which has been in session in Butte for the last three days. The other delegates will return today. The Butte lodge members were delighted to hear that the Missoula people, and there was not a dull moment between the business meetings. Yesterday the Knights of Pythias elected officers. Mr. Zeh was promoted from inner guard to master at arms. Mrs. Zeh, too, was a grand lodge officer and now holds the office of grand junior. F. S. Way of Livingston was chosen grand chancellor and Miles City was selected as the convention city for next year.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.—Adv.

CASE ENDS HAPPILY FOR ALLEGED BIGAMIST

WIFE NO. 1 FORCES MISSOULA MAN TO DIVORCE HER AND REMARRY WIFE NO. 2.

Believing that he was a free man—free because of having been divorced by his wife—Fred V. Burks, well known in Missoula, married Eva Chaffin of the Bitter Root valley last spring, and the two lived happily together until a few days ago, when the domestic tranquility was suddenly shattered by Mr. Burks' arrest on a charge of bigamy. Confronted by his first wife, Burks was forced to admit that he had no proof of her having divorced him, but because she had served him with papers, after he had sent her money to prosecute the divorce, he took it for granted that the divorce had been regularly issued and that he was a free man. Wife No. 1 arrived here from Portland several days ago, and caused Burks' arrest as soon as she learned that he had married again. Burks explained the situation from his standpoint, and after a careful investigation of the case by the officers, and after the first wife had consented to the plan, Burks was allowed to secure the much-needed divorce on a promise that he would immediately remarry wife No. 2. The decree was granted by Judge Patton yesterday afternoon, and Burks immediately secured his third marriage license and Justice H. M. Small performed the ceremony. Thus did Burks escape the law, which, he says, he had no intention of breaking.

MONTANA MOVIE MEN FORM ORGANIZATION

Managers of theaters and moving picture houses in Montana met in Butte yesterday and organized the "Montana Theatrical and Exhibitors' Association." Fred Quimby, manager of the Empress theater, attended from Missoula and it is understood that the other managers here intend to join. Mr. Quimby says there were 50 members at the meeting yesterday, representing picture shows and theaters in every part of the state, and that it was known that over 60 houses asked for admission. The object is for cooperation in working for mutual benefits. Phil Levy, manager of the Ansonia Amusement company of Butte, and William Curtis, secretary of the Montana Amusement company, conceived the idea. They were chosen yesterday as president and secretary-treasurer of the association. The headquarters of the organization is to be in Butte.

Man Alive! Consider Your Health!

Why do doctors advise WOOLEN underwear? Because it is warm? Yes, but not for that alone. But because WOOL protects the body from shocks of sudden heat or cold, because WOOL takes up and radiates the perspiration, because WOOL in contact with the skin keeps the pores open and the body in healthy condition, because WOOL is the enemy of colds, pneumonia and disease.

UNDERWEAR

--is the only genuine ALL-WOOL underwear sold at a moderate price. It conforms to every hygienic requirement and is made to fit on anatomically perfect lines—a better HEALTH UNDERWEAR cannot be had.

Underwear is made from the very finest of wools, domestic and Australian, blended in proper proportions to secure the elements of warmth, comfort and service. The carding of the raw wool, spinning of the yarn, weaving of the fabric, cutting and finishing of the garment is done with the utmost care. It is moderate in price because its popularity enables us to handle enormous quantities and because there is no overhead expense nor royalties to pay for the use of some physician's name, as in the case of other widely exploited underweares that by actual comparison are not as good as WOOL-N-WORTH.

We don't sell Wool-N-Worth underwear on its merits as a health underwear alone. It is the best winter underwear for all men to wear, if for no other reason than for the sake of economy—it is the underwear that wears.

Beware of Imitations

"A peer by any other name would smell as sweet," but beware of underweares that may LOOK like and be sold on the pretext of being as good as WOOL-N-WORTH. Unless the WOOL-N-WORTH label is in the garment, you are not getting WOOL-N-WORTH underwear. The label is your assurance of underwear that's WOOL and WORTH the Price, accept none without it.
