

ALLEGED GAMBLERS RECEIVE WARNING FROM COURT

DUNCAN MAKES IT PLAIN HE HAS PROMISED NOTHING FOR PLEAS OF GUILTY.

I understand that it has been intimated that the defendants in these cases understand that if they plead guilty to the charge against them that the court would be inclined to give each a minimum sentence under the law...

Hopes Shattered. This were the hopes of the alleged gamblers somewhat shattered yesterday and instead of entering pleas of guilty each of the three took the statutory time to plead. Bonds were fixed at $1,000 in each case and the men given into the custody of the sheriff until the bail was furnished.

REVIVED

Old-Time Health, Eating Grape-Nuts.

"I had been sick for 10 years with dyspepsia and a lot of complications," wrote an Ark woman.

"An operation was advised, change of climate was suggested, but no one seemed to know just what was the matter. I was in bed three days in the week and got so thin I weighed only 82 lbs. No food seemed to agree with me.

"I told my husband I was going to try some kind of predigested food to see if I could keep from this feeling of continued hunger.

"Grape-Nuts and cream was the food I got and nothing has seemed to satisfy me like it. I never feel hungry, but have a natural appetite. Hate had no nervous spells since I began this food, and have taken no medicine.

"I have gained so much strength that I now do all my housework and feel well and strong. My weight has increased 8 lbs. in 8 weeks and I shall always eat Grape-Nuts as it is far pleasanter than taking medicines." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a reason."

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.—Adv.

UNION ASSOCIATION OUT OF CLASS SAYS ZAM

DETROIT PITCHER SAYS LOCAL LEAGUE IS EQUAL OF CLASS B IN EAST.

It is the opinion of Carl Zamloch, former pitcher of the Missoula club and last season with the Detroit Tigers, that the Union association is playing better baseball than minor leagues of a higher classification in the eastern and southern states. He says the association now rated as class D is furnishing an article fully equal to that played in eastern leagues classed as B. It was during the training trip last spring that the Tigers met teams in minor leagues of all classes and Zam says that his first impression was of the superiority of the Union association over leagues of equal rating. As he saw more of baseball there he became convinced that his first impression was sound. Class D ball in the east and south, he rates as on the level of small-town independent ball in the west. The Northwest league, he says, deserves class A rating.

GOVERNMENT CLOSES IN CONSPIRACY CASE

After the testimony of the 26th witness had been concluded yesterday the government announced its case closed in the conspiracy trial in the United States district court before Judge Fourquin in which the defendants are Walter L. Moody, Frederick H. Nichols, H. S. Lord and R. A. O'Hara. The opening statement for the defendants was made by Colonel Nolan, he having done most of the talking for them during the trial. He talked for over an hour in stating what the defendants were prepared to prove—that there was no conspiracy in the acquisition of any of the Bitter Root lands acquired by them as agents for the Bitter Root Valley Irrigation company; that their efforts had been directed to secure as much land as they needed but that in taking options or signing contracts nothing was done out of the usual and legitimate channels of business dealing. He maintained that no agreements to purchase land from homesteaders had ever been entered into before filings had been made and that this would easily be proven.

All concerned in the case were hoping that the trial could be terminated this week but this looked doubtful yesterday. The defendants will not have as many witnesses as were examined by the government.

The Theaters

Bijou. The Thompson duo, delayed in transit, will be here for tonight's show. The members of the team are reported as good comedy singers, dancers, etc. Barlow's 10 comedy dogs pleased a large audience last night. They do some very clever tricks that keep the house in an uproar. Queen, the star performer, is a slack wire walker, the most wonderful trick ever done by a dog. Baby Barlow, only three years old, amused everybody with her singing act. The picture program includes Pathe's Weddy, full of good fun, up-to-the-minute news. "The Comedian's Downfall" is a scream of fun. The orchestral accompaniment is up to the high standard of the Bijou theater.

Empress.

Those who have been following the recent Domino plays at the Empress will have noticed that each of them dealt with some historic or otherwise absorbingly interesting period, and when one considers that these plays are worked out in studios on the shore of the Pacific ocean in California, the fidelity to historic detail—both in costuming and scenic effects—is little short of marvelous. The Empress will today present another story of England and America in the sixteenth century, "Exonerated," in two splendid reels.

The scenes display the period with care, and the story of the young hero, falsely accused of theft, is nicely presented and tells the Puritans on their way to America. Later the love story develops and he marries Faith. Cobb, the villain in the piece, responds, but is mortally wounded during an attack by Indians, and confesses that he had fastened the original crime on Richard. The Keystone merry-makers will be seen in "Billy Dodge Bills," a feast of mirth and melody.

BEFORE McCULLOCH.

Judge McCulloch sat in department No. 1 of the district court today and heard the case of Hannah R. McClain against Charles R. Delaney in which suit was brought to quiet title and to recover damages for use of land and alleged destruction of a few apple trees. The case involved $200. Before the trial was ended the parties to the action settled the matter of ownership between themselves and the jury was asked to decide the question of damages. It returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $25.

TO STATE CONVENTION.

Alva Baird, Charles Bower and Bruce Hopper, representing the university, Y. M. C. A., will leave this morning for Bozeman to attend the state convention there Friday, Saturday and Sunday.
