

YALE-TIGER GAME FEATURE FOR TODAY

STRUGGLE BETWEEN ELI AND PRINCETON BIG EVENT ON TODAY'S CARD.

New York, Nov. 7.—Football games which will have a decided bearing on the ultimate ranking of eastern college eleven are scheduled for tomorrow. The feature games of the day being the Tiger-Harvard battle at Princeton, and the Pennsylvania-Dartmouth clash at Philadelphia, although several of the other big teams face rivals that should prove dangerous. The Harvard squad, more than 30 strong, spent the night before the game in this city and will move on to Princeton early tomorrow. At their temporary headquarters it was said that every member of the first string was in perfect condition and that while the coaches were not over-confident, they looked forward to victory by a small score. The crimson team is conceded to be the strongest eleven in the east this season. Holy Cross counted against Harvard by picking up a fumbled punt and Cornell forced the soft team back for a touchdown in the final minutes of last Saturday's game. These points, with three scored by Williams through a field goal, constitute the total of 16 points recorded against Harvard. To offset this the powerful crimson machine has rolled up 117 points.

In Princeton, however, a team stronger and better groomed in the rudiments of football than any previous line would be faced and the full power of the team would be tested. The aggregation is strong and fast and has broadened its play since it was defeated by Dartmouth two weeks ago. Considered as a whole, the Princeton line should be able to hold the crimson followers in check, but the Harvard backfield is expected to prove faster and more shifty. If Law is at his best he should be able to hold his own in punting with either Brackley or Mahan.

At Franklin field, Philadelphia, where Pennsy meets Dartmouth, another fast and brilliant game should result. Each team has shown class. Yale will have her final tryout before facing Princeton next Saturday against the fast Brown university eleven. If the Eli aggregation plays up to the standard of its best work this season, Brown should be defeated.

Cornell is fighting in the only inter-sectional game of the day, meeting the University of Michigan eleven at Ithaca. Cornell is prepared to battle to a finish against the Wolverines, but the record of the Red and White to date is not reassuring, since Carlisle and Harvard have defeated the Ithaca team. Michigan, too, has met defeat by the heavy Michigan Aggies. Both the Army and Navy have strong contenders for their Saturday games in Albright and Bucknell, respectively.

1912 Scores. The leading games to be played in the east tomorrow, with the scores of 1912 where the same teams met, follow:

- Harvard at Princeton, 14 to 4. Brown at Yale, 6 to 10. Dartmouth at Pennsylvania, no game. Michigan at Cornell, 20 to 7. Albright at West Point, no game. Bucknell at Annapolis, 17 to 7. Carlisle at Johns Hopkins, no game. Swarthmore at Lehigh, 0 to 7. Trinity at Haverford, no game. Worcester at Amherst, 14 to 13. Rochester at Colgate, 6 to 27. Rutgers at Hamilton, 25 to 66. Lafayette at Pittsburgh, no game. Williams at Wesleyan, 7 to 7. Andover at Exeter, 7 to 0.

Princeton Ready. On the eve of the battle with Harvard, the Princeton football squad rested quietly in the university house under the watchful eyes of the coaches and Trainer Kemp Fitzpatrick. Every play the Tigers could possibly use against Harvard in the way of an attack was rehearsed thoroughly this afternoon. This was no scrimmage, the nearest approach to it being a short drill in forming interference on the kickoff. In addition to the team work the coaches took for some work in kicking, and Captain Baker came in for a brisk practice at drop kicking and goal from placement.

Every one of the first string men except J. Baker is in good condition. He has developed a bad knee and is not likely to get in the game. There is a decided feeling of optimism prevailing among the students as well as coaches, and the Harvard money, which is being offered at odds varying from 10 to 4 to 4 to 3, is taken as fast as it is offered. The entire 3,000 seats in the temporary stadium were sold out tonight, according to the athletic treasurer, and there still was demand for accommodations. The field was covered after the practice and will remain so until about time for the game. The only change in the lineup, the coaches stated, would be shifting of Captain Baker from left to right halfback, where he has been playing the last week.

The officials will be: W. S. Lanford, Trinity, referee; Neils Shaw, Michigan, umpire; David Fritz, Brown, head line man.

Yale Braces. New Haven, Conn., Nov. 7.—A long signal drill behind closed gates this afternoon constituted Yale's final practice for the Brown game tomorrow. The coaches are quoted as saying that the eleven has recovered from its slump of last week and is in prime condition. The offense is still a little crude, owing to the shift of Wilson from fullback to quarterback, made necessary by the injury to Cornish last Saturday. Captain Kercham will play right end, an entirely new position for him. Way will take Ketcham's former position at right guard.

Brown Is Confident. Hartford, Conn., Nov. 7.—Brown university's football squad, accompanied by coaches and trainers, arrived here this afternoon from Providence and had signal practice on Trinity field. There is a general feeling of confidence among the men concerning the result of the game with Yale tomorrow. The squad will leave for New Haven tomorrow morning.

Pennsy in Secret Drill. Philadelphia, Nov. 7.—The University of Pennsylvania football team was given a signal drill today on the links of the White Marsh Country club in preparation for the game with Dartmouth. Despite his injured eye, Walter Simpson insisted what he will play center on the Pennsylvania eleven and the coaches are hopeful that his condition will permit him to do so.

Reports from the weather bureau predicting rain caused the authorities to cover Franklin field with straw so that the gridiron would be as dry as possible for the contest.

FIERCE SCRIMMAGE GIVEN VARSITY BY COACH

HEILMAN WORKS MEN HARD IN PREPARATION FOR GAME WITH STATE AGGIES.

A battering scrimmage with the scrubs which left the varsity bruised and sore was the dish which Coach Heilman served at his training table yesterday afternoon. He kept his men pounding away at each other until it was too dark to distinguish friend from foe, and then made them whirl around the track until they were ready to quit.

"You can't overestimate the importance of next Friday's game," says the coach. "People who tell you that the Aggies are yellow, or that they will quit when they get over here, are mistaken. The college has a strong, fast team, capable of playing better football than it displayed a week ago. I can't see where the advantage has changed a bit. Montana is going to have to fight desperately from whistle to whistle if the state championship is going to be kept on the university campus. The men won't show anything like over-confidence. They realize just what they are up against, and will fight to the finish. Give us the support we deserve from the people of Missoula and we ought to win."

Several important additions to Quarterback Kelly's list of plays were made last week, and were used with good effect against the scrubs last night. The varsity played hard, fast ball against the second and gained consistently, despite the strenuous opposition of Lambert. The big fellow seems to have recovered from the injuries received in the game with Pittman, and is playing warden than ever. He backed up the scrubs line last night and fought hard, but even with him to back against the varsity traveled along well.

Officials have not yet been agreed upon for the big game. It is thought that Tom Robbins will referee. He held the whistle in the first game, and gave thorough satisfaction to both sides. The university is anxious to have him work next week. The varsity would like to have Best umpire again, but opposition to him seems to be too severe in Bozeman.

GREATLY SHOCKED AND LIVES.

Vallejo, Cal., Nov. 7.—Although 1,000 volts of electricity passed through his body today while working on a dredge in San Pablo bay below the Mare Island lighthouse, William Earl, 32 years of age, is still alive and is expected to recover. He was terribly burned on both legs and his left hand. Earl was "grounded" when the current struck him and so escaped its full force.

NOT GUILTY.

Minneapolis, Nov. 7.—Mrs. Ida Lockwood was found not guilty of having poisoned her 9-year-old daughter, Viola, by a jury in the district court tonight. Mrs. Lockwood was declared to have been insane at the time of the death of her child and at the time of her confession. Mrs. Lockwood was arrested September 30.

TO ADVERTISE GAME STUDENTS GET BUSY

NUMEROUS "STUNTS" PLANNED BY UNIVERSITY PEOPLE FOR BATTLE NEXT WEEK.

Next week the university students will start a fresh scheme for advertising next Friday's game between the varsity and the state Aggies. Badges, carrying the date of the game and an appropriate slogan, yet to be selected, are to be printed at once. These will be sold for 15 or 20 cents next week among supporters of the home team.

"Bear dope" out of the Farmer stronghold is not affecting the varsity rooters very much. The university students are inclined to be just as dubious as are the Aggies. Despite the fact that Montana won in Bozeman, the best that can be given the varsity is an even break. Over-confidence and lack of fight lessened the effectiveness of the Farmers in the first battle. When they come here next week it will be with the same spirit of desperation that drove the Grizzlies to make the battle of their lives a week ago. The game will be more hotly-contested than any ever played with the Aggies. Odds can't be else than even and a break in the luck is apt to settle the score.

Realizing this, Coach Heilman's men are working hard and the students at the university are using every possible means to work up enthusiasm among the people of Missoula.

An appeal is being made to the alumni in order that the rooters' stands be filled. A band may be hired and there is talk of securing a club grizzly for a mascot. Several stunts for the entertainment of the crowd between halves and before the game are being discussed. There is no doubt but that the game will be the biggest college affair ever held here.

The Aggies will bring over a strong troop of supporters with them and may have their famous band on the field to cheer them to harder fighting.

The Bozeman papers are laboring diligently to cover up Coach Bunker's preparations with "bear talk." Says the Bozeman Courier: "There is little belief in Bozeman that the college can defeat the Missoula team on their home grounds on November 14. Playing about 40 per cent of what they were capable of, the college were downed here under most favorable conditions, and a general let-down appears due. Monday night in the scrimmage several of the men were badly injured, and this has slowed up the practice."

NOTRE DAME DEFEATS PENNSYLVANIA STATE

State College, Pa., Nov. 7.—For the first time in its history the Peoria college football eleven was defeated on the home field today, Notre Dame university winning, 14 to 7.

With the exception of five minutes at the close of the first half and a similar period at the opening of the second half the Blue and White outplayed the visitors. In these few minutes Notre Dame uncovered a series of brilliantly executed forward passes which, together with the wonderful gaining power of Behrman, the 200-pound fullback, produced two touchdowns, Dotis kicking both goals.

Captain Miller of Pennsylvania State carried the ball for big gains and puzzled the visitors with his hard punts.

HIGH SCHOOL TEAM WILL MEET VICTOR

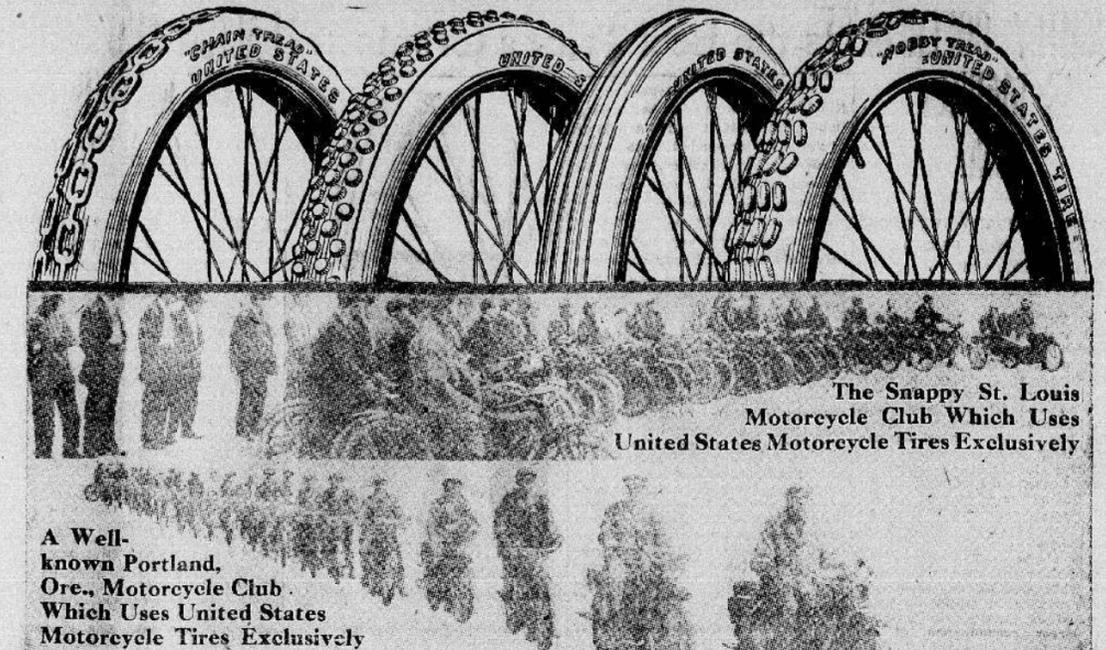

The Missoula high school football team, accompanied by Coach McLaughlin, will go to Victor this morning for a game with the Victor high school. The coach is taking with him every man who has been a faithful attendant at football practice and will give everyone a chance. Unless they are needed, which is hardly likely, the first string men will stay on the bench. The team plans to return this evening.
