BASEBALL DIAMOND FOR HAMILTON

VALLEY FANS TO BUILD BALL PARK FOR HOME TEAM AND HIGHLANDERS.

Hamilton, Nov. 16.—(Special)—A movement has been started locally which may result in a good baseball diamond and team in Hamilton next season. It is almost a cinch that the Missoula Highlanders would come to Hamilton to train next spring if a good diamond was possessed here. Since the fair grounds were located so near the city, the baseball association has talked of putting a good diamond within the latitude track. The fair commissioners are willing the diamond should be located there, but the work will have to be done by the association, as the fair commissioners are not in the baseball business, officially. There has been considerable talk the past few days among local fans relative to the advisability of getting the work started so that the diamond would be in shape for next season.

Within a half-hour from the time he alighted from the train this morning Dalton was out on the road for a sprint. He admits that he is feeling real pert and ready for a fast go. Dalton is a conscientious little scrapper when it comes to training, and will be busy with his daily routine work from now until the going rings. A good preliminary will raise the curtain for the main bout.

BROWN IS REPORTED TO HAVE MADE HAUL

Hamilton, Nov. 16.—(Special)—There is an unconfirmed report in Hamilton to the effect that "Bill" Brown, former manager of the sheep department of the Bitter Root stock farm, made away with $12,000, belonging to the Empire Cattle company of Chinook, Mont., for which he was acting as manager and foreman. The Missoulian on Thursday carried a story telling of a reward for Brown's arrest. It has since been reported here that Brown had a personal checking account of $12,000, from which he was supposed to pay help and other expenses of operating the ranch. It is reported that he got away with this amount in addition to the money received from a large cattle sale.
