

FOR TONIGHT'S GO BOTH FIGHTERS ARE READY

CLASSY BATTLE PROMISED IN HAMILTON BETWEEN DALTON AND SMITH.

Hamilton, Nov. 27.—(Special.)—Everything is in readiness for the 12-round boxing exhibition at the Lucas opera house tomorrow evening between Jerry Dalton of Indianapolis and Matty Smith of Chicago.

Jerry Dalton needs no introduction to local fans. His heady and convincing work against Tally Johns was about the best thing ever handed out to ringside fans in Hamilton, and made him many friends, in spite of the fact he lost to Johns on aggressiveness.

Matty Smith, who has been in training in Butte, arrived in Hamilton this evening, and looks ripe for his bout with Dalton. Butte papers give Smith credit for being a good mixer with considerable science, and his ring record indicates that he has been in the ring with several fast men, and has always given a good account of himself.

CORVALLIS NOTES

Corvallis, Nov. 27.—(Special.)—One of the most delightful social dances of the season was held at Rowe's hall Friday evening, under the management of Ben Rowe and Pete Johnson. A large, jolly crowd was in attendance and dancing to the music of Goodfellow's orchestra, continued until a late hour.

Dr. R. W. Beck, C. C. Chaffin, Johnnie Ritchie and John Flanagan of Hamilton attended the turkey shoot held here Sunday by the Corvallis meat market. Shooting was open-sight at a hundred yards, resting, and though brief was lively and full of interest to the competitors.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Prints and little daughter, came down from the company ranch Saturday, and will spend the winter here and on their ranch.

Miss Ella Fulligan came down from Hamilton Saturday for a brief visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Whitesitt departed Sunday afternoon for a month's visit with relatives at Kansas City and also at Fort Scott, Kansas.

HOLIDAY OBSERVED BY AMERICANS IN MEXICO

MRS. O'SHAUGHNESSY RECEIVES CALLERS AND THE CHARGE ATTENDS CHURCH.

Mexico City, Nov. 27.—The Americans in Mexico joined their countrymen at home in observance of Thanksgiving day. Mrs. O'Shaughnessy, wife of the American charge d'affaires, received the members of the colony at the embassy.

Special services were held at Christ church and the Church of San Lorenzo, the American Catholic church, attended by Mr. O'Shaughnessy. The Protestants were addressed by Dr. Sidine Conner, who with the consul general, Arnold Shanklin, beside him in the pulpit, read the president's proclamation.

It is estimated by the consulate that there are now about 1,500 Americans in the capital, of whom 300 are women, as compared with 8,000 under normal conditions. The members of this depleted colony dined today for the most part at the restaurants and clubs because many of the homes have been broken up by the absence of the wives.

The most pretentious effort to keep up the spirit of the day was at the American club, where a few tables were occupied by Mexicans of the better class, notwithstanding the predominance of American colors and decorations.

An executive session of the chamber of deputies was held today, and the proposition to reduce the salaries of the members was discussed but no action was taken.

There is a report current here that the rebels have evacuated Victoria, capital of the state of Tamaulipas, and are moving in the direction of Tampico. The report has it that the rebels practically razed the city and destroyed the archives.

Such reports of developments throughout the country as are available indicate rebel progress almost at all points.

audience and wins for her several curtain calls at the end of the last act.

Empress. In addition to the sweet-voiced Knowltons, the vaudeville team best known on the circuit, they have been playing as "Vance and Vance." Mr. Knowlton having been a university student here several years ago, the Empress will have another splendid picture program today.

The "Living Corpse," the four-part picture adapted from Count Leo Tolstoy's famous drama, was shown to crowded houses last night at the popular Isis theater, and proved to be one of the greatest pictures ever shown here in Missoula.

Never before has it been better demonstrated than on yesterday's bill at the Bijou theater, that if you want the best in vaudeville the Bijou has it. A bill that cannot be approached.

It is a selected bill of vaudeville picked from various acts that have open dates for Missoula, out of which only the best are accepted.

Harveys is another splendid dancing and singing act. Mrs. Harvey has the reputation of wearing the most expensive gowns to be found on stage.

Stevensville, Nov. 27.—(Special.)—Stevensville high won the football championship of Ravalli county today by defeating the Hamilton team, 19 to 0.

There were between 500 and 600 people on the sidelines and they saw a good game. Both teams played clean fast ball and there were no penalties.

Tonight the local high school entertained the visitors at a banquet.

liberty to say what I have. It is true indeed, that a high spirit and a high aim have been brought into the policy of the United States in its dealings with adjacent countries and it is because the president has taken the attitude he has—a step which none can but admire, whatever its consequences may be—that I propose good health to Mr. Woodrow Wilson, the president, and to Mr. Woodrow Wilson, the man.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Monroe drove to Plains yesterday morning and will go from there to White Pine to visit with Mrs. Monroe's relatives over Thanksgiving.

CAMAS NOTES

Camas, Nov. 27.—(Special.)—Miss Gladys Cross returned home Sunday after an extended visit with relatives near Kallispell.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Monroe drove to Plains yesterday morning and will go from there to White Pine to visit with Mrs. Monroe's relatives over Thanksgiving.
