

CHICAGO IS AFTER OLD MAN HARD LUCK HAS NO TERRORS FOR WRIGHT

WESTERN RECORD OF MOREAUX

WINDY CITY POLICE SEND PICTURES AND DESCRIPTION OF SWINDLER KNOWN HERE.

About every so often Augustus Moreaux gets into the limelight. Sometimes he makes a statement for publication and again it is a story of his being arrested again and accused of some new criminal act. The fellow is too well known here through his connection with an attempted swindling of the owners of the old Bass ranch of 1,000 acres now owned by a man named Culbertson—Moreaux's trouble having been with Mrs. Culbertson, who was formerly Mrs. Rodella Dwight of Kansas City—to need any introduction in connection with anything new that may be "sprung" concerning him. The last time he was arrested it was in Butte. Then he was called to serve out a sentence of three years for obtaining money under false pretenses in the above transaction.

His Chicago Record.
The latest about Moreaux is in connection with his record in Chicago. The police department there is seeking information concerning his western escapades so that his record may be kept up to date in the files. The request has been received by the police department and the following copy of his Chicago record appears on a sheet under two photographs showing profile and full-face views of Moreaux:

"Edward J. Moreaux—The side and front views published herewith are photos of Edward J. Moreaux, real name Augustus T. Moreaux, register #2572 of the bureau of identification, department of police, Chicago, Ill., taken at the time of his arrest, August 16, 1908, on charge of being a fugitive and a confidence game promoter. Description: Age, 45; 5 feet 8 1/2 inches; 151 pounds; dark chestnut hair, dark brown eyes, sallow complexion. Birth: Illinois; 69-7-19; 89-7-19; 193-154 145; 6-3-24; 11-1; 8-8; 4-4; ft. hr. sc. 1 1/2; c. r. cheek 2 1/2; wing of nose, wears eyeglasses.

"He married first and lived at Sioux Falls, S. D. He was convicted in Kansas City, March 19, for obtaining money under false pretenses and sentenced to three years in the penitentiary.

"We wish any penitentiary or prison record of record of arrests."

REBELS BUYING WARSHIPS.

Douglas, Ariz., Feb. 8.—The Mexican constitutionalists are negotiating with France for the purchase of two armored cruisers, according to Consul Lelevier here. While not new, Consul Lelevier said today the vessels would be superior to any owned by the Huerta government.

UNIVERSITY STUDENT, THREE TIMES PURSUED, COMES THROUGH SMILING.

Arthur Wright, a well-known university student, was released from quarantine for smallpox yesterday and last evening announced himself meekly waiting for whatever else fate has in store for him. It will be remembered that Mr. Wright was taken ill in Great Falls, where he was spending his holiday vacation. His malady was pronounced smallpox and he was taken to the county pesthouse there. He made a surprising recovery and was out in about 10 days, returning to Missoula. Scarcely had he reached this city when he had an attack of appendicitis that threatened to put him on the operating table. Before he decided upon the knife, he commenced to break out and was as-tounded when the doctors pronounced the disease smallpox and hustled him off to a little shack down by the river where he was left for a couple of days without a nurse or care of any kind. That he had real smallpox this time was proof positive that his first malady was chickenpox and that he was exposed to the other disease when taken to the pesthouse.

Mr. Wright is a popular student at the varsity and his many friends are glad to see him out of quarantine and hope that his series of troubles is ended. The young man has stood his bad luck without complaint and his smile yesterday was evidence of his brave heart.

CHINK AVIATOR EN ROUTE.

San Francisco, Feb. 8.—Arthur F. Lynn, a San Francisco-born Chinese youth, one of the first of his countrymen in the United States to become a scientific aviator, arrived here today from the east. He is en route to Peking, where he will give exhibition flights before officials of the Chinese government as a demonstration of his fitness to teach the soldiers of the new republic how to fly. His aeroplane is painted in red and yellow, the colors of the Chinese republic.

NEW CHURCH INAUGURATED.

Rome, Feb. 8.—A new Waldensian church, erected by Mrs. John S. Kennedy of New York in memory of her father, the late Cornelius Baker, was inaugurated today. The pastors of the Waldensian churches throughout Italy, the diplomatic representatives at Rome and many distinguished guests were present. A bronze tablet was set up in the church in honor of Mrs. Kennedy.

AT THE THEATERS

SCENE FROM "A DAUGHTER OF THE HILLS," A FAMOUS PLAYERS PRODUCTION OPENING AT THE EMPRESS TODAY.

The Empress offering today, "A Daughter of the Hills," the latest Famous Players production, strikes a new note in Roman subjects. It is a pastoral drama of long ago, an appealing romance played in the shadow of Nero's throne. While not as pretentious by far as the famous production of "Quo Vadis," the personal appeal is far greater than in the other production. The story relates how Sergius, one of Nero's most powerful gladiators, prior to an impending contest in the arena, goes into the country, where in his travels he encounters Floria, a shepherdess, all tenderness and sympathy, with whom he falls deeply in love.

The cruel Roman sports, the brutal gladiatorial fights in the arena, and the sweet sympathy of Floria, the shepherdess, whose heart is torn by the savage fight, form a picture of gripping interest alternately thrilling and appealing.

In the end, the gladiator's savagery is conquered by the gentle influence of Floria and Paul, he renounces Nero's sovereignty, abandons his trade, and deprived of all but Floria's love, returns to the hills, where the peaceful silences surpass all the glories of Rome.

Laura Sawyer as Floria, Wellington A. Sawyer as the gladiator, Frank Van Buren as Paul, the apostle, Alexander Gaden as the slave, and other members of the Famous Players' stock, enact their roles with their usual faithfulness and sincerity.

Vaudeville.

The big program which opens tonight at the Bijou theater promises many good numbers. The four Van Staats are here in a decided novelty, an old Dutch musicale. They are singers and musicians of note and a merry time is promised every audience. The eminent Irish comedienne and monologist, Hattie Wade Mack, will be the second act. She is very clever and produces no end of laughter. Pathe's Weekly heads the picture bill with up-to-the-minute events from troublesome Mexico and many other places. "The Janitor's Flirtation" is the comedy, and the Lubin company offers a splendid dramatic offering entitled "Before the Last Leaves Fall." The Bijou has got the habit of good shows and the people have got the habit of patronizing the Bijou—two good habits to have. The Bijou orchestra is another part of the big bill today.

Blindness of Virtue.

Wherever presented, "The Blindness of Virtue" has attracted much attention, especially with mothers with young daughters approaching womanhood, as the best method to inform them of matters concerning sex relationship. It has been a problem of years whether it is best to teach the young matters of this kind or not. The play, on the other hand, shows that this should be done for the protection of the girls. The subject has been taken up editorially by the press in many large cities and has received the endorsement of many women's organizations, physicians and clergymen. This play will be the attraction at the Missoula theater, Wednesday, February 11.

Cosmo Hamilton, the author, wrote a book on the subject under the same title as the play, which was widely read. The bishop of London was so impressed by the book that he told Mr. Hamilton, in an interview of his seeking, it was his belief much good could be accomplished if the book were dramatized. This interview was the inspiration of the play, which has been running more than two years in England and America. The subject is a beautiful story, clothed with much delicacy in situations and dialogue, and women and young girls have crowded the matinees.

"Widow by Proxy."

"Oh, I wish I had the gift given us to see ourselves as others see us." —Burns.

Little did Bobbie Burns think when he wrote those lines that some day there would be such a power given us by Edison.

Miss May Irwin, who will appear at the Missoula theater Friday, February 13, in "Catherine Cushing's" farce, "Widow by Proxy," says of the value of motion pictures as an adjunct to proper acting:

"I think every actor or actress, however famous or successful, could learn a great deal by having her picture taken by the movies and then have the reel shown to her.

"I'll wager the actor or actress would see a lot of things about their acting that they would change, and at once. What a cheer the many overworked stage directors would emit if the movies were in general use for that purpose. And how ashamed many actors would be for daring to ask their manager for a raise in salary.

"I never have been sensitive because I am stout, but when I saw myself in the pictures; oh, well, I'm glad that I had lost 24 pounds before the pictures were taken."

GOLD DUST FAME.

The fame of the Gold Dust Twins has spread so far and their reputations have become so general that almost every mail brings to the N. K. Fairbank company, Chicago, letters of praise from tired housewives who have lightened their housework with Gold Dust.

"I want you to know and to thank you for your wonderful discovery of Gold Dust," said Mrs. Louis W. Batty, Hoopston, Ill., in a recent letter to the Fairbank company. "I could not keep house without it in my kitchen work, and washings are a hundred per cent lighter since using Gold Dust. When I first began keeping house I used all kinds of recipes for washing, but to no avail. I really thought I could never continue to do my washings under the old way of washing clothes until I tried Gold Dust. Now my washings are done in half, yes, less than half the time and they are clean, too, and I don't feel tired out as I did before. I often think that if you were going to stop making Gold Dust, I would be tempted to lay in a great supply to last forever.

"I am really thankful for the Gold Dust Twins and recommend it whenever I have the opportunity."

NO CHANGE IN POLICY.

London, Feb. 8.—A statement issued by Christabel Pankhurst, the militant suffragette leader, and made public today, says the secession from the Women's Social and Political union of her sister, Sylvia, will bring about no change in the policy of the union.

CURRIE IS WILLING TO GO AFTER STATISTICS

ASSESSOR SAYS PROPOSED PLAN WILL COST MONEY AND TAKE MORE DEPUTIES.

"I have never attempted to dodge the responsibility of collecting agricultural statistics of Missoula county as required by the law now on the statute books," said County Assessor Dan Currie. "This was not a matter in which I should have taken the initiative. These statistics are to be listed and reported on blanks which state authorities are to provide. They have never made any provision for the work and consequently it was not done here or in any other county of the state."

With a reporter Mr. Currie was discussing the Missoulian's story of several days ago which stated that Commissioner Kennedy and Auditor Keating had decided to call upon the county assessors of the state to gather all sorts of agricultural, horticultural and stockraising statistics, in connection with their examination of land and property this year for a basis of tax levy. The law has been on the books for some time but has always been a dead letter. With the organization and publicity the figures, such as it was proposed to secure under this law, are needed and the word has gone out that assessors must make their plans to secure these figures while doing their regular field work this spring.

No Provision Made.

"I expected to be called upon to do this work last year," said Mr. Currie, "but no instructions came from the state officials and no blanks were furnished, the law providing for the use of special forms, and so nothing was done. The list of questions to be answered, which you gave in your story, was just a beginning. Information of every conceivable sort about the farm, orchard and stock must be secured from every property owner. They must be accurate and complete and this means a personal interview of every taxpayer outside of the city. It will take an army of deputies to do this in connection with the regular work. I have put the matter up to the county commissioners and will be perfectly willing to undertake the job in Missoula county if the appointment of the required number of deputies is authorized.

Difference of Opinion.

"The figures to be gathered and compiled under this plan will be valuable of course, but I have heard a difference of opinion as to the scheme being practicable—whether the statistics will be really worth the money they cost. But this is not a matter for me to decide. If the order comes to do the work it will be willingly undertaken and thoroughly executed."

FACT

Local Evidence.

Evidence that can be verified. Fact is what we want. Opinion is not enough. Opinions differ. Here's a Missoula fact. You can test it.

Mrs. D. P. McClelland, 241 E. Railroad St., Missoula, Mont., says: "For several years I had kidney trouble and I didn't know what to do, as everything I had tried had failed to help me. My kidneys ached constantly and lumbago played havoc with my back. The kidney secretions were distressing and my whole system was affected. A friend advised me to use Doan's Kidney Pills and I got them at the Missoula Drug Co. They brought relief from the first and seven boxes cured me."

The Cure Lasted.

On November 2, 1912, Mrs. McClelland said: "You may continue publishing my endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills. I have had no signs of kidney trouble since I used them." Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the name that Mrs. McClelland had. Foster-McClelland Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

WAITRESSES ARRESTED.

Chicago, Feb. 8.—Seven striking waitresses who continued picketing a downtown restaurant today were arrested. They were charged with "lounging and loafing."

GAMING EQUIPMENT GOES TO MAKE BONFIRE

OREGON OFFICIALS BURN PARAPHERNALIA TAKEN FROM CLOSED SALOONS.

Baker, Ore., Feb. 8.—Gambling paraphernalia taken by Colonel Lawson and his militia men from Copperfield and Huntington last month, went up in smoke today, in accordance with orders from Governor West. A huge bonfire built on the edge of the city was lighted and every roulette wheel, slot machine, Faro bank and crap table captured from the saloons of the two towns on the eastern edge of Baker county was piled on this bonfire.

There was no resistance on the part of attorneys for the Copperfield saloon men, in fact, they did not even appear on the scene, and paid not a whit of attention to the movement of Governor West's agents.

Adam Schortgen, who has been a special agent for Governor West for several months, did the work. He did not destroy the liquor taken from the Copperfield saloons, but turned it over to a local transfer house for storage.

A FISHY TALE.

Babylon, N. Y., Feb. 8.—Mrs. Corn Krause was shot and instantly killed tonight when she attempted to wrest a revolver from her 3-year-old daughter, according to the story told the police by her husband, Paul Krause, an inventor. Krause said the baby was playing with the weapon when the mother tried to take it away. He could not determine which had the finger on the trigger when the revolver was discharged.
