

MISSOULA, MONTANA, SUNDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 15, 1914

PARTNERS

Whether it be the two, tramping the lonely hills,
Tracing a gleam of gold in deep-hid rocks and rills,
Fighting the wilderness in quest of worthy gain;
Partners in free content, comrades in toil and pain,
Building a house of dreams in the campfire's fleeting glow,
Sharing in ardent hope, the home they may never know.

Whether it be the two, dancing a merry round,
Grazing halls of light, where youth and mirth abound,
Swinging in perfect time with music lulling sweet,
Drinking the wine of joy, enchantment passing fleet,
Partners for hit one dance, comrades for a day,
Clasping eager hands, turning swift away;

Whether it be the two, man and his woman mate,
Guarding with equal care, welfare of home and state;
Bearing, rearing or voting, sharing an equal part,
Pledged to each the other, head and hand and heart;
Terms of finest living, love that never ends,
Partners of equal rights, loyal and lasting friends.

Avery told of his recent visit to the Lincoln memorial home in Washington. During the evening Mrs. Dunham proudly wore a Lincoln and Hamlin badge. This she had found in her grandmother's Bible, and as a keepsake she treasures it very highly. During the evening Miss Bertha Schmidt sang several solos and played a number of selections on the piano, all being much enjoyed. Delicious refreshments also added to the pleasure of the evening.

The assembly took this occasion to nominate Mrs. Dunham as a delegate for membership in the supreme assembly of United Artisans. This is recognition that is well deserved because of a splendid record of work in the interests of the order. Mrs. Dunham having secured about 50 new benefit members for the local assembly. Mrs. Dunham's friends were especially pleased when a telegram of congratulation came from headquarters notifying her that she had been nominated by the Denver assembly.
