MISSOULIAN WANT ADS BRING QUICK RESULTS

I met a man, a ragged man, beside the dusty road; his hands had last been washed, I guess, before his hair was moved; his face was pinched and hungry; yet the beggar wore a smile: I asked him why his clothes were torn, he answered in this style: "My pay is something close to nil, I live on human food, I have to walk or stay at home, I'm too poor to get stewed; I have not luxuries of wealth, nor arrogance of place—" "But why?" I asked, "the happy smile that gleams upon your face?" "Just gaze about you," said the man, "why shouldn't I be glad? The men who have the things I ask are all too clearly sad. Behold the fervid candidate this sunny Monday morn; he curses, as he views his fate, the day when he was born. He cannot ask his dearest friends to boost him at the polls; he hardly dares to speak to folks whose names are on the rolls. If he is beaten he will howl and say the deck was stacked; and if he wins—a wretched man!—his poor heart will be cracked. They'll kick at everything he does and call his family names; the man in office whom everybody blames. Nay, I would rather sit in rags and live on bread and cheese than share their popularity with luckless men like these."

One's sympathy ought always to be with the candidates; unfortunate man who feels unhappy if he is beaten and sters into grief if he wins; but when to his ordinary load of care they add a law forbidding the candidate to plead his cause at the polling-places, the hardest heart must feel some pity. It is a cruel law. But if they must keep away from the center of today's activities, the candidates may at least console themselves with recollection of the fact that their preliminary campaign has been strenuous enough. Not in a good many years has Missoula been so thoroughly interested in a race for municipal offices. That circumstance insures a wise choice today, an ending made doubly certain by the caliber of the candidates.

Mrs. Mabel Kinney Hall, to whose backwardness attention was called a week ago, has again fallen down on her job. She deserves censure. Last week she defended her failure to herald the coming of feminine trousers by saying that they had been here for a year, a fact which mere male observers of the fashions (even in these frank days) could hardly have been expected to learn. But she can hardly offer that defense against the charge that she has neglected to chronicle the arrival of the colored wig. She must be guilty of treason. She hopes to help these new attractions into vogue by keeping the unsuspecting public in ignorance. Orange wigs, lavender wigs, green wigs—all these are on display in the windows of the Missoula Mercantile company. There are wigs to suit every sort of complexion, to match every shade of hostility. Into our quiet, happy community this latest vice of the crowded centers of barbarism has been thrust. Whether we are drifting? There is little enough to be said in denunciations of these horrible things, a proper denunciation of which would fill columns; but there is something they may be unnatural, ugly, insanitary, but they are frankly false and to that extent are more agreeable than the rats of yesterday.

If the spirit of him who gave Greenough park to the people of Missoula was able yesterday to see it, the understanding of the value of the gift must have been reward enough for the giving. The great park literally was filled with people yesterday. All Missoula took advantage of the spring sunshine by going to the Battlement park for first sight of growing green. Every pathway carried scores of people; every bench was occupied. Thanks to the service of the street department the heavy underbrush which has delayed past springs by keeping the ground soggy until late in the season has been cleared away so that every path is dry. From the same source have come wing-dams which will prevent any but a unprecedented flood from driving people out of the park. During the stormy discussion of city affairs some people have complained against the addition to the tax levy made for the purpose of park building. If those people could have seen the happiness caused by the expenditure upon Greenough park of a small part of the new fund they must have ceased their railing. The enjoyment which hundreds of Missoula people found yesterday in Greenough park would have been cheap at almost any cost. —G. P. S.

Poultry Helps

Poultry raising is about as old as the hills, but only within the past generation have the full possibilities of the industry being realized.

No one can predict the future. Observation and reading are doing much to post the public on facts regarding it, and there seems to be no limit in sight—all that we know is that poultry raising is now one of the most profitable industries, and that it is rapidly advancing. Capital is finding its way to investment in poultry raising, and into the manufacture of correct appliances for its future advancement. Poultry culture has the confidence of the general public, and, while many will always fall from lack of application and proper regard for necessary conditions, these failures will be in no greater proportion than may be found in any industry that tempts the unworthy and the unfit by its promise of unusual profits. The course of any line of human endeavor is marked by the wrecks of those who fail, and who would fail in any venture where study and application are required. To the man who is willing to give it his earnest attention, his zeal and application, it offers the inducement of a healthy and pleasant occupation and the very best chance for money-making.

Conkey's Remedies and Preventatives will prevent and cure all diseases, parasites, etc., that fowls are heir to. EVERYTHING READY FOR THE PRIMARIES

Election for Elimination of Candidates for City Offices Will Be on Today From 8 A. M. to 6 P. M.—Attention Called to Corrupt-Practice Act.

CORRUPT PRACTICE ACT.

Section 34.—It shall be unlawful for any person at any place on the day of any election to ask, solicit, or in any manner try to induce or persuade any voter on such election day to vote for or refrain from voting for any candidate, or the candidates or ticket of any political party or organization, or any measure submitted to the people, and upon conviction thereof he shall be punished by a fine of not less than $5 nor more than $100 for the first offense, and for the second and each subsequent offense occurring on the same or different election days he shall be punished by fine as aforesaid, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than five nor more than 30 days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Today is the day. From 8 o'clock this morning until 6 o'clock this evening qualified electors will have an opportunity to cast their ballots in Missoula's primary election. The judges and clerks of each of the city's eight precincts will be on the job during these hours. They will start counting the ballots at 6 o'clock. But an opportunity to vote does not mean an opportunity to do any campaigning or electioneering today. A slight at the section of the corrupt-practice act given above should be sufficient warning to any who are not aware of the provisions of the act. Police Commissioner Houston stated yesterday that the provisions of the law would be enforced to the letter and there would be no winking or excusing allowed.

There are more candidates in the field for today's primaries than at any of the elections held since Missoula adopted the commission form of government. Sixteen of Missoula's citizens are asking for a place today. Four can win at the primaries, two for mayor and two for councilman. KATTERFIELD TALKS TO LOCAL SOCIALISTS

A crowd which completely overflowed the capacity of the Barber & Marshall hall remained attentive yesterday afternoon to L. E. Katterfield, a prominent socialist orator. At the conclusion of the address the socialists declared that it was the best effort ever made in the interests of socialism in Missoula. Mr. Katterfield is the originator of the national socialist lyceum bureau, which secures speakers to send throughout the country and lecture. He is himself a very eloquent and convincing speaker. He is not ratted or ranting in voice, manner or thought. "How to Get What You Want" was his theme yesterday. He took up the common necessities of the masses, good food, good clothing and comfortable homes, and endeavored to show how these could best be obtained by the application of socialistic doctrines. Mr. Katterfield goes from Missoula to Butte, where he will lecture.

CHANCE TOO LEARN MOHAMMEDAN FAITH

This afternoon at 5 o'clock in the literature room of the university, Professor Texler will outline the faith of Mohammedanism as given in the Koran, the English translation of the Koran by George Sale, his work of 1754, will be used. All persons wishing to get a sketch of the Mohammedan faith will be welcome to hear the lecture.

OFFICER IS COMING FROM OREGON PRISON

A telegram was received from B. K. Lawson, superintendent of the Oregon state penitentiary at Salem, Ore., yesterday, instructing the police to hold Frank Minnick and L. N. Davis until his arrival. The men mentioned were arrested from a description sent out by the Oregon officers. They are wanted for breaking parole. Minnick gave his name Saturday as Frank Cook.

GLENN ROBINSON'S FUNERAL.

The funeral of Glenn Robinson, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Robinson of Salsese, who was drowned near his home last Friday night, will be held this morning at 10 o'clock. Services will be at the Marsh chapel, Rev. J. N. Maclean officiating.

I TOLD YOU

In Saturday's Sentinel and Sunday's Missoulian of the wonderful investment opportunity I am offering at Astoria, Oregon.

I gave you 32 reasons why Astoria must become a great city—the possibilities of growth scarcely realized by anyone.

I told you of my lucky purchase of a block of lots in that "City of Opportunity."

I told you that in order to get the price I wanted I had to take a larger number of lots that I can handle alone.

I told you of my offer to sell three or more lots to one person for spot cash at the wholesale price of $33 each.

I told you that only 50 lots would be sold at this price, and that you could take your choice from my entire holdings.

I told you that the remainder would be put on the market at $60.00 to $100.00 each on the easy terms of $5.00 down and $5.00 per month.

I told you to come to my office rooms, 215 and 217 Hammond Building, today and let me furnish you the proof that Astoria real estate is the best buy on earth. Some did not wait for Monday, but saw me yesterday, and a number of lots are already spoken for.

Now I Want to Ask You

WILL YOU EVER GET RICH?

CAN YOU DO IT BY JUST SAVING?

AT YOUR PRESENT RATE OF SAVING HOW MUCH WILL YOU BE WORTH IN 20 YEARS?

HOW MANY MEN DO YOU KNOW WHO HAVE BECOME INDEPENDENTLY WEALTHY?

HOW DID THEY GET IT?

THE ANSWER IS AND EVER MUST BE:

"JUDICIOUS INVESTMENT."

THERE IS ABSOLUTELY NO OTHER WAY.

THE BEST INVESTMENT ON EARTH IS THE EARTH ITSELF.

BUY LOTS IN A GROWING CITY AND YOU HAVE THAT ENTIRE CITY—EVERY MAN AND WOMAN IN IT—WORKING TO MAKE YOUR PROPERTY MORE VALUABLE. GET IN A GREAT SEAPORT LIKE ASTORIA, AND NOT ONLY DO YOU HAVE THE WHOLE CITY WORKING FOR YOU, BUT MORE THAN 3,000,000 PEOPLE SCATTERED OVER 300,000 SQUARE MILES OF TERRITORY ARE AIDING IN THE UPBUILDING OF THE GREATEST FRESHWATER HARBOR IN AMERICA. THE WHOLE COLUMBIA RIVER BASIN IS DIRECTLY TRIBUTARY TO THIS "CITY OF OPPORTUNITY" AND WILL POUR ITS GOLDEN TREASURE INTO THE CHANNELS OF TRADE THROUGH THIS GREAT PORT.

BEN FRANKLIN SAYS: "THE ROAD TO WEALTH IS AS PLAIN AS THE ROAD TO MARKET."

THE OPPORTUNITY IS BEFORE YOU. IT IS UP TO YOU. BUT YOU MUST ACT. SIMPLY WISHING WILL NOT GET YOU ANYWHERE. DON'T HAVE A WISHBONE WHERE YOUR BACKBONE OUGHT TO BE.

MAKE IT YOUR BUSINESS TO SEE ME TODAY.
