

Varsity Standing, .200; Co-ed Standing, .750--Who Gets Official "M's"

A Regular Person Is Mr. Manager

Perhaps of all sporting persons the fighter's manager comes in for the least encomium and pleasant comment on the sport page. This is not as it should be. The managers of four most prominent scrappers are hard working and deserving little notice. They work untiringly for the success and promotion of their charges. And what do they get out of it? Very little at all except a fat percentage.

It must not be thought that any ordinary job can be a manager. A fighter's manager must be a man of intelligence and education, a shrewd keen-witted man and a good mixer. He must be able to talk convincingly and wear neat but not gaudy garb. Jimmy Dime, Johnny Kilbane's manager, is one of the neatest dressers in the managing profession. While in

New York shortly after Kilbane won the belt, all who saw Jimmy Dime remarked what a nice appearance he made. He is especially fond of argente shades with a stripe at the neck or in the sleeve. Several of them will be on the scene when a manager makes his debut. It is when a manager makes his debut with a promoter, in arranging for a bout that the real work of the intelligence. Frequently when the discussion of the purse is at hand it is found necessary for a manager to have a good head for figures. He must know how to count or he may lose out in the articles. Then, too, he must know how to add.

One of the chief requisites of the fighter's manager, however, is oratory or eloquence. When a manager has a fighter he wants to push along a often calls on the sporting editor and tells the sport ed. how good his man is. There is where the eloquence comes in. When the manager explains how it was that his boy lost all of his fights, the sport editor is apt to scoff and deride him. However, if the manager can speak convincingly, perhaps the editor will believe him. And the next day he'll run a three-column picture of the fighter, recommending that he be matched with Alke Gibbons.

There are quite a few managers who can talk in this surprisingly convincing way. They could sell ice to Eskimos. As proof of this consider quite a few of the heavyweights who might mention now exist in our land. They are where they are because they had managers who could chatter in talented fashion. Fighters' managers are among the most important of our un-

CHIP HAS FOOZLED EVERY KNOWN SPORT

SENSATIONAL MIDDLE-WEIGHT CONTENDER HAS MADE A STAGGER AT ALL GAMES.

NO FIGHTER HE PROVES

After Failing at Such Trifling Pastimes As Blacksmithing, Clerking and Baseball, Chip Tried to Break Into Fight Game with Disastrous Results.

George Chip, the end of whose meteoric career as a middle-weight contender was announced by press dispatches in yesterday's Missoulian, tried almost every occupation in the world before becoming a fighter.

Chip was a boy in a Pennsylvania mining town. Naturally he started out in life to be a miner, but in a short time this work pulled on him. It was too hard. So he went to work as a blacksmith's helper.

This is tough work, and swinking a sleigh and shoeing horses built up the future boxer's muscles. But he finally decided that it was also too hard, though his work in the shop strengthened him, and probably did more than any other thing to prepare him for his position in the ring.

Having given up blacksmithing, he figured that the easiest job in the world was clerking. He tried it and still he didn't like the work. The call of the diamond came to him, and he made an effort to be a baseball player.

Chip could hit and throw, but he was slow on his feet. He soon found that while he could hold his own down among the lower levels as a first baseman, he could never rise. He liked the game, but he found that it got him nowhere.

Famous Automobile Kings to Compete in Big Event

Indianapolis, Ind., April 8.—Albert Durray, the Gaul, will drive a 183-inch Peugeot, of almost insignificant dimensions, in the next 500-mile race on the Indianapolis motor speedway. His car, in spite of its size, or rather lack of it, will by no means be one of the slowest, having shown a speed of 97 miles an hour on the flats. It won the lesser grand prix of France at Boulogne last summer with ease. Durray may be expected to get the limit out of it, as he is one of the foremost drivers of France. Sunny and capable of disposition, his temperament is that of a man who will take any chance, yet remain a sportsman to the end. His most noted achievement is the world's kilometer record of 142.9 miles an hour.

Albert Durray (top) and Rene Thomas.

Another driver who is expected to distinguish himself at the speedway race is Rene Thomas, who will team with Albert Guyot at the wheel of a Delage. Thomas was born, it is said, with the incense of gasoline in his nostrils. Though nobody knows exactly when he did but into the racing game, he was handling motor bikes when motor bikes were about the only thing that would go. He has a string of medals sufficient to cover the walls of his dining room. During the last few seasons Thomas has handled mainly Peugeot and Schneider cars, his experience with the Delage this season being his first. Though new to the car he is expected to finish well up, his reputation as a driver ranking second to none.

EGGS FROM CHINA NOT CHINA EGGS

Calculations of importers of henfruit from orient smashed by receipts.

Chicago, April 8.—Eggs from China are the latest brie-a-brac for eating. Not china eggs, to fool the biddies American and Canadian hen should be worried at the new competition.

Electrical and railroad equipment going back from the United States may be designed to stimulate the egg crop ever there. But shipments from western Canada to China recently include 14 carloads of milk, which suggests that Hongkong soon may be on easy trading terms for fresh vegetables with Calgary and Medicine Hat.

The imports of eggs from China have caused some of the surplus of Alberta to be used to smash prices in Chicago which are at a record low level for butter and eggs.

Ordinarily the Alberta hen should not worry. It has a great big appetite in British Columbia but incoming China shipments made a difference. There were big imports but prices explained them. Here is the way the average prices fluctuated higher and higher: 1905, 30c; 1906, 34c; 1907, 37c; 1908, 40c; 1909, 50c; 1910, 55c.

More recently with the advent of some of the fruit growing poultry raising has come to the front, and the importations of dairy products have rapidly decreased in all parts of

At 1:40 o'clock the emperor and empress and other members of the royal family were summoned to the bedside. The dowager empress has been suffering from angina pectoris. She was born in 1859.

When you have a cold you want the best medicine obtainable so as to get rid of it with the least possible delay. There are many who consider Chamberlain's Cough Remedy unsurpassed. Mrs. J. I know of nothing so quick to relieve a cough or cure a cold." For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

SCHEDULE RECEIVES OFFICIAL SEAL AND GOES

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF A. S. U. M. APPROVES MANAGER'S TRACK LINEUP.

EMBLEMS ARE AWARDED

Seven Basketball Players Given Letters, but Won't Receive Sweaters—Question of Co-ed Insignia Comes Up, but No Action Is Taken.

Manager Armitage's track schedule was adopted, seven basketball players were given their official letters, and the plan of the co-ed athletes for official recognition was received in scornful silence by the executive committee of the Associated Students of the University of Montana yesterday.

The track meet schedule, arranged by Manager George Armitage and approved by the committee, follows:

April 18—Varsity freshmen and Missoula high school—Montana field.

April 25—Montana and Washington State college—Montana field.

May 13—State triangular meet—Montana, Montana Aggies and Montana Mines—Montana field.

On account of the heavy expense of the varsity's disastrous invasion of Utah, the student body will not be able to provide sweaters for the basketball team this year. Letters were awarded to Captain Cummings, Prescott, Ricketts, Sheridan, Crawford, McHaffie and Street.

Oh, Mercy! No!

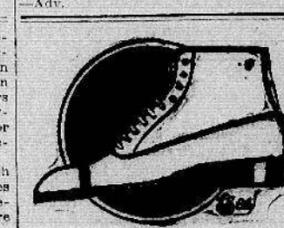

The question of recognition of co-ed athletes came up, but failed to meet any enthusiastic response. The matter was discussed and was then dropped. The university co-eds had a basketball team last winter which went through the season with a record which greatly intensified the St. Louis Browns' appearance of the varsity five. The co-eds feel that some recognition should be made, but the committee stands pat.

TOM MCCARTHY WINS WITH BROKEN HAND

Lewisport, Mont., April 8.—Tommy McCarthy of Ravenna, Neb., gave Jack Lester of Co. Idaho, Wash., a severe beating tonight, having a clear lead in every round except the second, which was even. In the fifth McCarthy broke his right hand, but no one knew it except himself. Lester was in distress after the fifth and hung on but made a game uphill fight.

"Slick" Merrill won easily over Howard Chapman and the battle between Allard of Butte and Cohen of San Francisco, while exciting, was given to Allard on account of his far better showing and condition. John H. McIntosh of Butte refereed and the large audience cheered each decision.

If you cough all night you get no rest, nor does anyone else in the house. Keep within reach a bottle of BALLARD'S HOREHOUND SYRUP. It is then easy to stop the tickling which causes the cough, whenever it appears. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Garden City Drug Co.—Adv.

Summer School Courses in All Sorts of Coaching, Especially Football and Track, Will Be Offered This Year—Big Eastern Man Will Direct Work.

Among its summer school courses the University of Montana will this year offer instructions in practical coaching. High school teachers expected to train athletic teams will be taught in a practical way how to go about it, men prominent in the athletic world acting as coaches of the coaches.

At present the university's plans have taken no definite shape. Not until an idea of the number of men who want work of this sort has been secured will Director Mastrom, who is in general charge of the course, be able to map out the summer campaign.

PLAYERS FOR BUTTE SECURED BY HOLMES

Butte, April 8.—"Ducky" Holmes, manager of the Butte team of the Union association, wired today the addition of two high-class ball players, one is "Pop" McBarado, first baseman from the Vancouver team of the Northwest league, and the other is Pitcher Edmondson from the Vancouver team of the Pacific Coast league. One more man, an outfielder, is expected to arrive at Provo, Utah, to train within a day or two, but Manager Holmes is keeping his identity secret.

OLD SOCKALEXIS SAD WANTED TO BEAT SON

Boston, April 8.—Louis Sockalexis of Old Town, Me., father of Andrew Sockalexis winner of the Boston Athletic association Marathon two years ago, offered himself as an entrant for this year's race today. His 50 years were held to be too many to allow him to compete with the youth of the country, and his entry was rejected. Louis said he had trained faithfully all winter hoping to equal the performance of his son.

TENNIS SEMI-FINALS

New York, April 8.—By winning their respective matches in the semi-final round of the national amateur tennis championship, the tournament today, C. T. Russell of Boston and C. E. Sands of this city are the finalists who will meet in the match tomorrow which will decide which will play in the challenge match against Jay Gould, the title holder, next Saturday.

YOUNG NEGRO RUNS CENTURY DASH IN 9-3

New York, April 8.—James E. Sullivan, secretary of the Amateur Athletic union, today made public a letter from William Umack, vice president of the Pacific Coast association, in regard to the record recently credited to Howard Drew, the little negro sprinter who formerly ran for Springfield high school.

Drew is now a student at the University of Southern California. In a dual meet at Berkeley, on March 28, he won a 100-yard dash and was timed in 9.3 seconds.

Mr. Umack says that Drew beat Bradley, who is a consistent 1-1/2 man, by six yards; that there was no wind to aid him and that the start was perfectly equal according to the rules.

The record committee is investigating and will likely allow it as a new record. If the record is allowed, it will equal that made by Dan Kelly.

YALE NINE LEAVES FOR SOUTHERN GAMES

ELI'S BASEBALL PLAYERS START SOUTH FOR FIRST BATTLES OF THE SEASON.

New Haven, April 8.—The Yale baseball nine left today on its Easter trip which includes the stiffest spring schedule of a decade. Six games will be played, five at Norfolk, Va., and one at Charlottesville.

As a result of the week's outdoor practice Coach Quinby has selected the following line-up to open the season:

Twenty players will be taken, but the above list indicates the nine who have an edge at present on the positions. Gile will alternate in the box with Brown, whose work is at present the most effective of any of the twirling squad. Handy, who is fast but wild, and Stevens of the second nine last year will be used in the minor games. Shear and Madge will be given a trial behind the bat.

The race for first base between Hovey and Swihart is close, but Swihart's experience in the few games he played last season has won him first choice in starting the year. Harpbin will make the trip as first substitute for all three of the other infield positions. The veteran trio, Captain Blossom, Reilly and Cornish, compose the strongest infield any college can show, it is believed at Yale.

Johnny Haves, who made a reputation in the south, has failed to be named for better than substitute position in the outfield. The only veteran in the outer garden will be Lou Middlebrook at center. Pete Falsely alternated with Middlebrook and also played several games in left field last year. Vaughn, who has won right field for a time, is the former Exeter player. Hal Pumphrey is still absent because of his recent attack of scarlet fever.

GAINER MAY BE SOLD TO BOSTON RED SOX

Detroit, April 8.—Del Gainer, one of the veterans of the Detroit baseball club, may play first base for the Boston Americans this season. Word to that effect was received here tonight from Manager Jennings, who is with one of the Detroit squads at Cincinnati. Jennings said he received a cash offer from Manager Carrigan of Boston for Gainer's release, but intending to keep him. Gainer has been hitting splendidly in the practice games and Jennings believes he may recover his old-time form.

Jennings also sent word that Dubuc would pitch the opening game against St. Louis here Tuesday.
