

GRAVES COMMENDS LOCAL FORESTRY ORGANIZATION

CHIEF OF FOREST SERVICE COMES TO MAKE REAL VISIT, FIRST IN A YEAR, HERE.

Chief Forester Henry S. Graves of the United States arrived in Missoula from Washington, D. C., yesterday and for the first time in over a year will spend some time making a thorough trip through the forests of district No. 1 and giving attention to some of the problems of the district which have been worked up for his final consideration. Mr. Graves was welcomed to the headquarters of the district yesterday with much cordiality. District Forester Slixo and all of the other officials here know Mr. Graves personally and their relations are most cordial. In turn Mr. Graves has a high regard for the men of this district and their ability. "District No. 1 is doing a splendid work," said Mr. Graves when talking to a Missoulian reporter, "and the highest compliment I can pay it is to remind you that for much over a year I have not intruded here with a personal visit. Forester Slixo and his men haven't needed me and the reports of their work have been highly satisfactory to us in Washington. District No. 1 is doing constructive work of high quality. We have much confidence in the administration here. We look upon the personnel of the whole district organization as being of exceptional quality."

To Make Field Trip.

Mr. Graves and Mr. Slixo expect to leave early next week for a field trip although the definite plans for the hike were not completed yesterday. "This is my first real visit to this district for over a year," said the forester. "Important things on the coast and in the southwest demanded my attention early last year and since that time I have been keeping close touch with congress and what it is going to do for the forest service. The appropriate bill seems to be decided upon as far as the forest service is concerned and I think it will go through according to the estimates that have already been announced."

"While unable to make an extended trip during these months, I did make several short ones and was particularly interested in the purchase of a big strip of forest land by the government in the Apalachee mountains. We have contracted for about one million acres of land there and are getting the work on several forests nicely started. "This is the first time I have been able to get away for any length of time and I want to put in several weeks in this district. There are a number of forests in district No. 1 which I have not visited. It is my purpose to stay out in the field several weeks and when I come back to Missoula I hope to be able to say that I am personally acquainted with every forest and every forest officer in the district."

"Mr. Slixo is building up a nice little business here in timber sales and other forest use. I will spend a few days getting hold of the details in the office here and then get right out into the field. Each forest has little problems of its own and then the trip will give me a chance to meet the supervisors and the rangers personally."

While Work Doing Fine.

In answering a question as to the general work of the service, the forester said with enthusiasm: "O, it's getting along fine! Work along all lines is developing rapidly. The business being transacted on the forests is growing as fast as we can handle it. By 'business' I mean the selling of timber or permits for various uses—transactions which make the forest yield a real income. We are working toward this end on every forest. We are trying to direct its development so that its business counts. We not only expect to put the administrative work on a self-supporting basis, but we aim to make the forest produce value and bring something back to the people in the way of reduced taxes. Of course this can't be done in a minute. We have had to begin the work with limited funds and against a very solid front of objections from those who did not believe in conservation and who looked upon our work as a sort of useless experiment for which they helped foot the bills. But as soon as we commenced to get some returns from the forests—give real money back to the people—this sentiment showed a sudden reversal of form and now those who once maligned us are our best friends and strongest supporters."

It was at this point in his interview that Mr. Graves took occasion to compliment Chief Forester Slixo and his corps of assistants. It was a sincere tribute to competent and hard men, fighting for definite results and making rapid progress because of perfect co-operation all along the line.

War Serious Matter.

Mr. Graves said that in Washington the Mexico situation had assumed a very grave aspect and that statements from the president all the way through congress, were watching things closely and that other business had been temporarily sidetracked. The situation is looked upon as exceedingly complex and there was no assurance offered that an immediate or peaceful settlement of the difficulties could be reached.

HAWTHORNE SOCIETY HOLDS POW-WOW BANQUET

MEMBERS OF UNIVERSITY LITERARY SOCIETY HOLD ENJOYABLE BANQUET.

"The First Annual Feast and Pow-Wow of the Flathead Tribe of the Hawthorne Literary Society," held last evening in the Palace hotel, was a glowing, war-crying, tom-tomming success. Hawthorne "Lit." target for the quills of unnumbered campus comedians, gave a demonstration of its rejuvenation that was thoroughly convincing. From the toastmaster's first, "the social gentlemen," to the final "whoops," the banquet was a happy success.

This year Hawthorne Literary society has shaken off the shroud with which tradition long ago invested it to play in university affairs the part that it was once accorded. In this the society has succeeded. The influence of the society has been strong and beautiful and last night the members met to celebrate the conclusion of a successful year. The program of toasts, more important even than the menu, was:

- "The Pow-Wow."
- "Heap Big Chief," Gordon Watkins;
- "Our Guiding Spirit," Charles Bauer;
- "The Happy Hunting Grounds," Pearl Clark;
- "Echoes from the War Path," Payne Templeton;
- "Life in a Teepee," Mac Poe;
- "The Medicine Man," Bernice Saffrage;
- "Blazing News Trails," Florence Lennson;
- "The Hunt," Chester Boddy;
- "Sashayawa Ahooah," Marion Denny;
- "Red Wing Story," Cora Harmon;
- "The Coming of the Whites," Frances Grogan;
- "The Pipe of Peace," Vera Pridle;
- "The Great Spirit," Helen Smith;
- "Our War Song," Jessie Leese;
- "White Man's Views of the Tribe," Professor Phillips;
- "Whoops," members of the tribe; trill song.

The banquet was arranged by Gordon Watkins, Cora Harmon and Gussie Gilstead.

MATT IGNATIUS LUCY TO WED BOZEMAN GIRL

Bozeman, May 9.—(Special.)—Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Charlene Grace, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Clarke, of Bozeman to Matthew Ignatius Lucy of Missoula, the wedding to take place in Bozeman, Thursday, June 4, at the Holy Rosary Catholic church. The Clarke family formerly lived in Missoula and Mr. and Mrs. Lucy will make their home in that city.

Yesterday morning The Missoulian said that Walter McKloske had been sent to the state insane asylum after going crazy in search of gold. It appears that not the desire for wealth, but illness developed while prospecting near Quartz drove McKloske crazy. While strolling in the hills McKloske contracted inflammatory rheumatism and worried so over his condition that he lost his mind. While yet sane McKloske sent a letter to his brothers in Quartz asking for help. The brothers found the madman gone, two men who had cared for him describing his escape. After searching in the hills the brothers found McKloske and brought him to town. He was sent to the state asylum and will, it is believed, return to the normal under good care.

HOLIDAY IS ENJOYED BY ACADEMY STUDENTS

Thursday, a holiday granted to the pupils of Sacred Heart academy by Right Reverend Bishop Carroll, was very agreeably spent in picnicking, by the senior department of the academy. The picnickers were conveyed to Grant creek, the picnic ground, in automobiles, and they spent the day in lunching, wading, taking pictures and horseback riding. At night a huge bonfire was the center of attraction, and the number of smiling faces seen surrounding it was a pretty sight. The seniors spent the night out, and rose at an early hour, enjoying a delightful walk into the city.

91 Year Old Pioneer Thanks Duffy's

"Grand Old Age and How To Attain It" has been told hundreds of times by willing testimonials to the fact that Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey actually delays the effects of old age and brings back the vivacity and versatility of youth to its grateful users. Here's another achievement to its wonderful record:

"In 1835 I landed in New York after a voyage of about eight weeks from Germany, then to Buffalo via the Erie Canal, staying in Buffalo a short time. We started through the woods for our future home, known as the 'Hyman Homestead' to this day. Our family consisted of nine children, and not having any money to start with, we had the experience of the early pioneers. Later, as I grew up, I became interested in the milling business, farming, cattle dealing—worked hard for a good many years, and the famous John Miller, at that time one of the leading doctors in this section, said my time was short, so for the last 25 years or more I have been using Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, and I am thankful to say that I am well and healthy at 91 years and hope to make a good record yet."—Conrad Hyman, Strykersville, N. Y.
