PUBLICITY HURTS GOLF PLAY

Foreign comment on the showing made by the American golfers entered in the recent English amateur championship is unusually fair and considerate. Although the pick of the American field was entered and did not survive the fourth round it is generally conceded abroad that these players took their responsibilities too heavily and were doomed to defeat from the start. One English writer in reviewing the tournament stated: "When your men can come over and play a round just as though they were out for a country walk and play, not with any idea of winning, but simply to while away a summer holiday, they will probably win. You handicap them too heavily before they start. Too much publicity is had for one's nerves." Nobody knew Tubbs, who defeated Francis Outmet, for example, had even entered the tournament. He won simply because he was an unknown and out for a little golfing holiday and was therefore playing his normal game. It was quite good golf."

THIS MEETING SPELLS CLASS

Holiday Prizefights Big and Little Stars

Los Angeles, July 4.—Apparently awed by what he considered the superior "class" of his opponents, Matty McCue, a lightweight of Racine, Wis., who was substituted for Ad Wolgast, was an easy victim today for Joe Rivers of Los Angeles in the second round of a 20-round contest at Vernon arena.

McCue, whose press agent said he had never been knocked down in the course of 50 fights, sat down violently twice in less than two rounds when Rivers' flat landed viciously on his chin.

The first time he went to the canvas McCue smiled a weak way at Rivers and rubbed his jaw as if he did not quite understand how it happened. The second time he again stroked his jaw, but the smile was absent. He sat still while the referee counted to six, when his manager threw a sponge into the ring. Then he cried, "He didn't knock me out, he didn't knock me out."

The men entered the ring a catch weights, with Rivers two or three pounds heavier. McCue's ring fight became obvious as soon as the first gong sounded.

Britton.
Canton, Ohio, July 4.—Jack Britton of Chicago defeated Johnny Griffith of Akron, Ohio, in a hot 12-round battle today. There was no decision, but the popular verdict was for Britton.

Leach Cross Wins.
San Diego, Cal., July 4.—At the end of 20 rounds, Leach Cross, the New York dentist, was given the decision over "Red" Watson of San Diego in a fast fight here this afternoon. The decision of Referee Jack Root was unpopular with the crowd. Many declared that on account of both boys being in good condition at the end of 20 rounds and ready to continue, a draw decision would have been correct. Much money was bet, Cross being the favorite at 10 to 6 and 2 to 1. For the first five rounds both boys were cautious. After this they opened up and exchanged wallops. Cross fought for Watson's head and face, and started the blood flowing from his opponent's nose in the latter stages. Watson con-

DRIVER IS INJURED WHEN CAR TIPS IN RACE

PROBABLY FATAL ENDING OF AUTO CONTEST ON THE TACOMA SPEEDWAY.

Tacoma, July 4.—Bert Dingley, of Los Angeles, driving a car owned by W. H. Young, of that city, was seriously, if not mortally injured, when his car turned turtle in the next to the last lap of the 250-mile Monomathon upon the Tacoma speedway this afternoon. The accident occurred when C. E. Ruckstall and Dingley were fighting it out for second place. Earl Cooper had already won the race with five laps to spare and the two cars were giving one of the most sensational exhibitions of the day. Ruckstall had forged to the lead and Dingley was giving chase. In the 124th lap coming out of the west turn, Dingley's car was seen suddenly to shoot around and then plunge over the bank, his car rolling over and over. With Dingley was riding Edward Swanson, also a veteran racer. Earl Cooper, the steering wheel penetrated Dingley's abdomen and it is not believed

GEORGE CHIP WINS FROM MURRAY AT FRISCO

ASPIRANT FOR CHAMPIONSHIP KNOCKS OUT HIS OPPONENT IN FIFTEENTH.

WINNER WAS FAVORITE

Murray, However, Has Long End of the Battle Until the Final Punch is Delivered Which Puts Him to the Bad.

San Francisco, July 4.—George Chip of Newcastle, Pa., aspirant for the middleweight championship, knocked out "Fighting Billy" Murray of Petaluma, Cal., this afternoon in the 15th round of their 20-round fight.

The finish was not unexpected. Only Murray's indomitable courage and remarkable vitality enabled him to withstand the powerful punches of the Pennsylvanian in the last four rounds. Coming out of a clinch in the final round Chip shot three terrific right hooks to the Californian's jaw. Murray's arms dropped to his sides, his eyes closed and as he crumpled, Chip caught him flush on the jaw a heavy left uppercut. It was fully two minutes after he had been counted out that Murray revived sufficiently to be removed to his corner.

Murray led by a good margin up to the eleventh round. He outboxed and outgave his hard hitting opponent in almost every round. The Pennsylvanian was unable to land effectively with his celebrated left and right hooks. Murray staggered Chip in the second with a straight left to the jaw. Again in the seventh and eighth the customer was in distress and appeared tired and worried at the start of the tenth.

After an exchange of lefts to the body at the opening of the eleventh Chip changed the tide of battle with a solid left and closed Murray's right eye and brought a stream of blood from his nose. A moment later he sent the Californian down for a count of nine. From then to the finish it was the victor's fight all the way.

Chip was the favorite in the betting. Last night and this morning he would win inside of 18 rounds was offered. A flood of Murray money sent the odds to 10 to 2 at ringside.

A Draw.

New Orleans, July 4.—Joe Mandot of New Orleans and Johnny Dundee of New York fought for a ten-round draw here today, according to a newspaper decision.

McCarthy Gets Decision.

Goldfield, Nev., July 4.—Johnny McCarthy, the San Francisco lightweight, won a ten-round decision today from Kid Harrison of Reno, Sable Grande of San Francisco, a middleweight, knocked out Bob Graham of Goldfield in the fifth of a scheduled 10-round bout.

O'Hern Wins.

Lewistown, July 4.—In one of the fastest and hardest fights ever seen here, Paddy O'Hern won a decision over Len Keeg of Pittsburgh at the end of 12 rounds. O'Hern was faster and was very aggressive, while Keeg was superior at in-fighting. Many considered that the local lightweight was not entitled to more than a draw.

Clabby.

Snyder, N. S. W., July 4.—Jimmy Clabby of Hammond, Ind., won on a foul tonight from Eddie McGearty of Oshkosh, Wis., the title of middleweight champion of the world. The foul occurred in the eighth round. The battle was hard fought from the beginning.

Clabby's work was regarded by the crowd as a remarkable exhibition. Both men fought furiously and mixed it up continually. McGearty could accomplish little, however, against his adversary's superior skill. He tried repeatedly to land, but each time was blocked. He was desperate when he committed the foul. The contest was scheduled to go 20 rounds.

White Hopes.

Fort Smith, Ark., July 4.—Carl Morris of Oklahoma stopped Al Kubiak of Michigan in the sixth round of their scheduled 10-round bout here tonight.

that he can recover. Swanson was also seriously injured, but regained consciousness after being taken to a hospital.

The 250-mile race was captured by Earl Cooper. This is the second consecutive victory for Cooper in the local distance race. His time for the 250 miles was 3:24:03. 4-5. C. E. Ruckstall was second; Arthur Klein and James Parsons fourth. Prizes were offered for only four pieces. William Taylor was the only other pilot to finish the race.

Late tonight it was said Dingley would not live until morning. Both his legs were fractured and he suffered severe internal injuries. Swanson has a fighting chance to survive.

IN THE AIR.

New York, July 4.—Only two monoplane took part in the 41-mile air race from Governor's island to Spuyten Duyvil and back again to the starting point, circulating over the Atlantic Yacht club's station at Seguate today. Heinrich in his 50-horsepower monoplane won $500, the second cash prize.

DUKE KAHANAMOKU HAS A HARD STRUGGLE BUT DEFEATS TWO CHALLENGERS.

San Francisco, July 4.—Duke Kahanamoku, world's champion Hawaiian swimmer, carried off the honors in today's championship swimming matches here, establishing a new Pacific coast record of 2 minutes, 26 4-5 seconds in the 220-yard dash and retaining his title as world's champion in the 100-yard distance. The champion was hard pressed to retain his title in both events, winning literally by a nose from Perry McGilbray of the Illinois Athletic club in the 220-yard race.

Kahanamoku was pressed to the limit, too, in his first race, the 100 yards, by A. C. Rathel of the Illinois club, who finished less than 12 inches behind the Hawaiian.

DANNY CUMMINGS BREAKS WRIST AGAIN

IN HAMILTON FIGHT GAME FIGHTER LOSES BECAUSE OF UNFORTUNATE ACCIDENT.

JOHNS GETS DECISION

For Seven Rounds Bout Is Lightning—Both Men Fight Last Round With One Hand and Endear Themselves to Fans—Carroll Defeats McNeil.

Hamilton, July 4.—(Special)—The Hamilton fans witnessed the fight of their lives tonight when Danny Cummings met Tally Johns at the Lucas opera house under the auspices of the Bitter Root Athletic club. Johns got the decision at the end of the eighth round. That last round was most unusual and the unfortunate circumstance that made it so endeared both fighters to the hearts of all who saw them in the ring tonight. At the end of the seventh round Cummings, with a straight, hard jab at Johns' head, re-broke his right wrist. Spits of all his seconds could do, the plucky little fighter refused to quit and said he would go the next round, the limit of the fight, with one hand. Johns at first refused to fight his crippled opponent, but finding Cummings determined, Johns went back and fought with one hand behind his back. The gameness of the one and the true sportsmanship of the other touched the fans' hearts.

From the first lap of the gong until the end, the fight was lightning. There were some glibious fans present and some from this city who have witnessed most of the fights that have been held here and in Missoula during the last several years. All agreed that Cummings and Johns put up seven rounds of the best fighting to-night that has ever been seen in western Montana. According to the referee Cummings had the best of five rounds. Undoubtedly it was his accident that lost him the honors.

The preliminary battle tonight was between Eddie Carroll of Hamilton and Jack McNeil of Butte. The latter's seconds tossed the sponge into the ring in the sixth round of the 12 that was scheduled for eight. The local boy had all the best of his opponent after the third round and McNeil was in a bad way when he was withdrawn.

The crowd was small.

AGAINST DOCTOR'S ADVICE.

Cummings broke his wrist for the first time during his fight here with Carroll. He fought last night against the advice of his physician, who warned him that to fight again for a year would mean the re-breaking of his injured arm.
