

WOMAN IS ACCUSED OF FREEPORT MURDER

HER NAME IS NOT DIVULGED BUT THE OFFICERS ARE SURE THEY'RE RIGHT.

Freeport, N. Y., July 7.—The indictment of a woman for firing a bullet into the heart of Mrs. Bailey in the office of Dr. Edwin Carman just a week ago, was pronounced tonight by District Attorney Smith, who will present evidence in the case to the grand jury Thursday.

"I intend to have this woman indicted if I have to present the evidence to every grand jury that meets in Nassau county for the next 10 years," he declared, after admitting that an indictment might be refused at this time because of insufficient evidence.

"I believe, though," he went on, "that the indictment will be returned. If the unexpected should happen, the evidence on hand now and any new facts that may be discovered will be presented to the next grand jury."

The story told by the witness who was examined in secret in the recess between the morning and afternoon sessions of the inquest yesterday was revealed today. A half hour before the morning proceedings opened a man whose name is kept secret told the district attorney that he knew who shot Mrs. Bailey. Briefly his statement is as follows:

"Last Tuesday morning the woman suspect met him (the new witness) and a man whose name he gave and who he said, is now in New York. The woman agreed to give them $50 each if one would bring a revolver and deliver it to her on the way at the side of Dr. Carman's home. The new witness and the man who he declared has since fled, came to Freeport from New York on the same train with the woman. The man now missing had the revolver in his pocket.

"At half past 7 that night he went to the Carman home and there met the woman who said she wanted to 'scare' someone inside. After a short talk the woman took the revolver, the man propped up the screen and broke the window and then stood to one side while the woman thrust the weapon through the opening and fired. Then, according to the story, she handed the revolver back to her accomplice, who leaped over the low fence at the side of the house and escaped while the woman disappeared in another direction."

According to the story the man who told it decided to inform the authorities when his companion failed to turn over the money collected for bringing the revolver from New York and carrying it away.

When the coroner's inquest into the murder is resumed here tomorrow morning several important witnesses will appear to testify.

POLICE CAN'T STOP DEMONSTRATION BY REDS

ANARCHISTS PROPOSE TO CARRY OUT THEIR PLAN FOR A PUBLIC MEETING.

New York, July 7.—The ashes of three of the victims of last week's dynamite explosion will be the object of public mourning by anarchists, Industrial Workers of the World and other sympathizers in Union square Saturday afternoon, according to an announcement tonight by Alexander Berkman, anarchist.

The plan to hold public services Saturday for the three men who are dead, Arthur Caron, Charles Berg and Carl Hansen, was blocked today by the refusal of the health authorities to allow the bodies to remain unburied until that day. They must be disposed of tomorrow morning, and they will be cremated.

Apparently the city authorities have found no way to prevent a demonstration being held Saturday. They can forbid the holding of a parade, but cannot, it was pointed out, prevent the agitators from taking the ashes into Union square. There the friends of the three men, according to Berkman, purpose to set up urns containing the ashes and pronounce the men martyrs while the police are being denounced.

COWAN GIVES LIE TO THE PRYOR STORY

FORMER MISSOULA MAN WRITES TO CLEAR HIMSELF OF FALSE CHARGES.

Great Falls, July 7.—(Special.)—Letters from Lynn F. Cowan, formerly proprietor of the Imperial theater of this city and also former manager of the American theater at Missoula, and who is also the husband of Miss Estelle Davis, a former Missoula girl, written to friends here throw a decidedly different light on the difficulty between himself and Dr. Charles A. Pryor, head of a motion picture film company of El Paso, Texas, which was so generously exploited in the Portland papers a few weeks ago.

The story as Cowan tells it is in keeping with that which his friends here believe it to be; one in which it appears that Cowan got the worst of the deal. Cowan, says terse English about the story told by Dr. Pryor in his letter here and referring to the Pryor story he says: "It is an absolute lie from start to finish and I am preparing to start suit."

Mr. and Mrs. Cowan are now at Portland, where he is engaged in providing an entertainment program in one of the largest hotels, contrary to the statement issued by Dr. Pryor to the effect that he had suddenly dropped out of sight and criminal actions contemplated by Pryor. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Cowan were greatly pleased at the contradiction and instead of being gone as the doctor insinuated, Cowan was in one of the most conspicuous places in Portland and had the officers and Pryor wanted the man they would not have had to go off the paved streets to get him.

COMMISSION'S FUNDS SAVED BY FRIENDS

Washington, July 7.—Powerful champions went to the defense of the industrial relations commission in the senate today and after an all-day debate defeated, 46 to 19, an appropriations committee amendment to cut down to $50,000 the $200,000 provided for the commission by the house in the sundry civil bill. Chairman Martin of the committee declared no results had been accomplished to warrant further expenditures, but Senators Borah, Stone, Kenyon, Cummins and Weeks insisted that the commission's investigations were all important. The West Virginia, Michigan and Colorado strikes were cited as evidence.

The Theaters

Star.
"Tito, the Terror" is a three-part detective story which the Star picture machine will project today and tomorrow. It is a gripping tale, and introduces a series of startling incidents. It concerns a diamond robbery committed by a band of desperados cleverly commanded by Tito, a genius in crime. The adventures of the detective in his endeavor to bring the band to justice and recover the jewels, is a series of situations which are exciting, to say the least. The usual one-act of comedy will complete the Star's program for today and Thursday.

Circus.
That Gentry Bros. shows, with its priceless collection of trained animals, is to give two performances in this city on Friday, July 10, at Higgins avenue and Spruce street, is the most pleasing news that has fallen upon the ear of the juvenile population in some time. Well they remember the last visit of this popular tented exhibition to this city. How they laughed when the monkeys' fire brigade made the record run for the big fire at the monkey hotel, the "monkey barber shop," the unrideable trick mule, and the clever acting of Mr. and Mrs. Snyder and little baby Snyder and many other things. In fact Gentry Bros., and Santa are close rivals in the minds and hearts of the youngsters and as it has been some time since the show has been seen here, every "kidlet" is keen in anticipation of the many wonders to be expected.

Two performances will be given in this city on the above date, afternoon and night, the doors opening at 2 and 8 o'clock.

Bijou.
The vaudeville act of Yeamans and Titus at the Bijou theater for the last two nights, is a pleasure to praise. The singing and vocal imitations as well as the comedy introduced is of the highest order and delighted every audience. It is a highly talented act, and one of the best ever brought to this city. Three reels are on the program.

Empress.
Today the Empress will show another chapter in the life of "Our Mutual Girl." This chapter is full of excitement, one you cannot well afford to miss.

Mr. Arthur Conan Doyle, creator of "Sherlock Holmes," is enlisted in the search for Margaret. Many notable friends of Mrs. Knickerbocker appear in this, including Mmc. Yarska of the Theater Sarah Bernhardt and Florence Reed, leading woman of "The Yellow Ticket."

A trip is made to the parlors of Miss Kennedy, modiste, where several gowns are selected for Margaret. Then to Thorle's, the Fifth avenue florist, where many flowers are ordered delivered every day that Margaret might return.

A majestic comedy-drama of western life, featuring Dorothy Gish and Robert Harro, and a Keystone comedy, "A Fatal Flirtation," with the Keystone funmakers in a riot of fun, complete the bill for today.

A Famous Yankee Composer
HENRY CLAY WORK AND HIS SONGS.

Only those who lived during the civil war can realize the power and influence exercised by the song writers of the time. Henry Clay Work, who was born at Middletown, Connecticut, in 1832, was imprisoned in Missouri for helping a fugitive slave to escape. He was a printer by trade and wrote "Kingdom Coming," "Babylon Is Fallen," and in his "Come Home" was a temperance sermon that never has seemed to lose its plaintive appeal. He was the author of "Grandfather's Clock," and at one time member of the music firm of Root & Cady, Chicago. His songs had a great vogue in their time, and still continue popular in the melodies of the old days.

Several of Work's famous old songs appear in "Heart Songs" now offered by this paper to its readers. Complete library of American song. See coupon elsewhere in this issue.

During the presenting of this play, Mandy is supposed to be looking for her husband. Mrs. Chilton looks toward a window and exclaims: "Look at dat gruffel! See dat nigger run!" There were several little boys on the front seat in the auditorium where she was giving this one night last winter, and as she spoke these words one of the boys sprang to his feet and made a break for the window, the others following. The audience howled with laughter—and it is needless to say Mrs. Chilton had difficulty in proceeding.
