With her was two of her own folk, a woman and an old man named Abraham. ANOTHER PIONEER OF BITTER ROOT IS CALLED.

JOHN LANCASTER DIES AT HOME IN STEVENSVILLE AFTER SHORT ILLNESS.

Stevensville, July 31.—(Special).—Another pioneer of the Bitter Root valley crossed the Great Divide today when John Wesley Lancaster died at his home in Stevensville at 5 p. m. Mr. Lancaster was 84 years old, but had been in splendid health until last Tuesday, when he became ill with heart trouble. He grew steadily worse since that time until the end came today. The death will cause general regret in the Bitter Root for Mr. Lancaster had a host of friends and neighbors who held him in high esteem.

John Lancaster was born in Kentucky in December, 1829. When 12 years old he moved with his parents to St. Joseph, Mo. When 19 years of age he left home for the west as a driver with a government pack train. At Fort Hall he met Major Owen, who later established Fort Owen near this town, the ruins of which are still standing. At Fort Hall the pack train split, Mr. Lancaster's division going to Portland. There was one house where the city of Portland has been built when Mr. Lancaster first saw the site. He left the service of the pack train and for some time ran a boat on the Columbia river.

In the spring of 1850 he went to California and there met D. F. Sanders the two becoming lifelong friends. Mr. Lancaster marrying Mr. Sanders' sister after the men returned to Oregon several years later. He lived in Oregon for a number of years, having a mail-carrying contract from the government, his route being covered on horseback. In 1869 he returned to the Bitter Root, first locating 15 miles southeast of Stevensville, but a year later taking up a homestead, known as the old Lancaster ranch, three and one-half miles south of town. This he sold a few years ago and moved to town to spend his declining years. In 1907 Mr. Lancaster was a member of one Montana legislature.

He is survived by his wife, his sister, Mrs. Hendrickson, four sons, George, William, Howard and Ben, and two daughters, Mrs. H. W. Flanigan and Mrs. E. T. Baker. All except William Lancaster, reside in or near this town. The funeral is to be held Sunday with services at the residence, Rev. E. C. Bartlett to officiate.

Washington, July 31.—In order to keep in close touch with the war developments in Europe and to have prompt information about Americans living or traveling in the affected countries, Secretary Bryan today called the American diplomats in the countries which may be involved, instructing them to report promptly by cable the cases of all Americans killed, injured or distressed.

HIGH RATES.

New York, July 31.—Insurance companies continued to ask $10,000 per $1,000,000 and even that rejected some risks. It was asserted. The whole question of gold exports took on a new phase when it became known that ships of the English, German and French lines surely would be pressed into the service of their respective governments in case of hostilities.

NOMINATIONS.

Hamilton, July 31.—(Special).—Ed Everett of Florence has announced himself as a candidate for county commissioner on the socialist ticket. George Murray of Stevensville has also announced himself as a candidate for the office of county clerk and recorder on the socialist ticket.

TWO BIG FEEDS.

Seventy-five men were still fighting fire at the Palley's Lumber company's woodyard at an early hour this morning. The crew was taken a lunch of sandwiches by James Walsh of the Missoula hotel. More cuts were ordered for 5 o'clock this morning. Part of the order was 150 sandwiches and a 10-gallon can of hot coffee.

CONTRACT IS MADE FOR ANOTHER SEASON

HAMILTON WILL HAVE THE CHAUTAUQUA PROGRAM NEXT YEAR AGAIN.

Hamilton, July 31.—(Special).—At a meeting of a large number of business and professional men at the chautauqua tent at 11 o'clock this forenoon it was voted to sign up a contract with the management of the Elston-White chautauqua system for a chautauqua next year. It was reported at the meeting that nearly 500 tickets had already been subscribed for, and it was the sentiment of the meeting that the remaining 150 tickets will be pledged within the next 24 hours. There were several talks at the meeting, each speaker agreeing that the chautauqua is one thing that Hamilton and the surrounding community cannot do without. Officers were elected as follows: Rev. J. C. Lewin, president; Dr. H. Craddock, vice president; J. C. Conkey, secretary; George K. Dick, treasurer.

The chautauqua for 1914 closed this evening with one of the largest crowds present during the week. Two concerts given today by the Lumber singing orchestra were well liked, as were the lectures by Dr. Charles Seasholes and the evening of entertainment by Platt Jones. All who have attended the chautauqua this year are loud in their praise of the attractions offered, the course as a whole being pronounced as stronger than the one offered last year. In the minds of many the lecture by Dr. Green stands out conspicuous as the big thing of the week, while others favor the Italian band.

CIRCUS INJURY.

Mankato, Minn., July 31.—William Rowell, a prominent resident of St. Clair, who was injured by a falling tent pole at Ringling's circus last Friday, died yesterday. Employees were taking down the supports of the large tent as the audience was leaving, when one of the large poles fell. Mr. Rowell's spine was injured. He was 57 years old and leaves a family. Miss Margaret Scott of Artesian, S. D., also was struck by the pole, and is still in a local hospital. One or two others received slight injuries.
