Chicago, Aug. 26.—In a game in which Cheney allowed Boston but one hit and no runs and Sater scored Chicago's only run with a four-base drive, the tension of the close league race today was so great that the players of both clubs engaged in a fist fight. Several players were banished from the game.

In the seventh inning, after Sater drove the ball over the right field screen for his home run, Zimmerman followed with a hit to left field and attempted to stretch it into a double. Evers was waiting with the ball and when Zimmerman slid into second base, tagged him. Something unseen happened, for Evers hit Zimmerman on the head with the ball as the player slid past the base. Zimmerman arose immediately and in a moment a free-for-all fight followed. When order was restored, Zimmerman, Evers, Maravalle and Schmidt were sent to the clubhouse.

Sport Snapshots

Jim Corbett tells a similar story. He was taking on all comers on a tour and appearing in Philadelphia and he discovered that a great towering brute from a mine was very anxious to meet him. The large scrappy person was first on hand at the theater, but Corbett's managers took care to overlook him. But as Corbett was playing several different theaters in various parts of the town and as the large person was on hand to battle in every evening's performance, they soon found that it was hard to avoid him. The crowds finally began to get wise and to demand that Corbett fight the big rascal. Newly crowned champs seldom care to take a chance with their titles against some unknown who might with one lucky swing spoil everything. After quite a bit of maneuvering Corbett was able to escape the large man, though the crowd was somewhat displeased. Corbett himself trembled each evening when he found the big man out in front of the crowd.

RIFLE MEN GATHER AND ORGANIZE CLUB

The Missoula Rifle club was organized last night. At least there were enough interested members present at a meeting in the Missoula hotel to perfect a temporary organization of the club and several were signed up as regular members.

Now that the list has been started and the organization actually begun those at the meeting last evening declared that it will be a small matter to enroll at least 25 members in the next week or 10 days. Good interest was shown in this new sportsman's club of Missoula and it will not be long before all members are competing on the range.

H. H. Montgomery was made temporary secretary of the club. All the preliminary arrangements have been left to him and he will circulate the list on which new members may declare themselves. Permanent organization will be perfected on September 3 at a meeting at the Missoula hotel. At that time officers for the ensuing year will be elected and negotiations begun to have the Missoula club listed as a member of the National Rifle association.

The meeting last evening was not called until late and many men, who went to the hotel, left before the session was called to order. However, all of these will be given an opportunity to enroll as members and take part in the meeting of September 3.

Lassie McGregor was installed favorite and won the first two heats rather easily, Margaret Drinn being a contender.

In the third heat Murphy's horse went to a bad break going down the stretch and Walter Cox's mare finished first. In the fourth heat Lassie McGregor duplicated and finished second. The fifth heat found Murphy out in front, the daughter of Jay McGregor winning from Margaret Drinn with little to spare. McCloskey was distanced in the second heat.
