Caught on the Run About Town

Today my ankles gave me pain, my chest fairly ached with cold, my feet were soaking now with rain, my summer shoes can't hold. Alas, I fear, the season dress for changing things has come, with war-time prices all around to put us on the bum. Now must we shed our low-cut shoes and slough off B. V. D's, and let our hair grow long again unless we want to freeze. I hate to change, to throw the clothes of August in the ditch; I hate to put on flannels and feel the autumn itch. But on the mountains gleams the snow and bitter bites the breeze that shoots past low-cut oxfords and frisks around my knees. Though merchants boost the prices up and blame them on the war, I can't afford to freeze to death, I'll pounce up once more.

Yesterday was the hundredth anniversary of "The Star Spangled Banner." The calendar says so. Otherwise, one never would have guessed, for flags were scarce. Missoula seemingly made no visible observance of the occasion. The city hall was not decorated, and the courthouse showed no bit of color. The only noticeable bit of painting fluttered from a telegraph pole opposite The Missoulian office. It was faded and tattered and deflated-looking. Not even the responsibility of representing all Missoula seemed to rest on a bit. It dragged from the pole all day, soggy with rain. It was Missoula's only recognition of Francis Scott Key. It was placed on that pole on July 4.

A. L. Stone yesterday presented to the Missoula fire department a copper trumpet won by the old volunteer department in 1893. The trumpet credits the Missoula fire fire-fighters with the state championship, won in competition against all Montana at a state firemen's tournament. The trumpet is a valuable trophy and ought to make a prized addition to the department's collection. It was won by Missoula before the organization of the paid department. Chief Bob Mentrum was the only salaried man on the department. All of his assistants volunteered their services. The boys were well drilled, though. They went to the state tournament in those days tournaments took place now filled by conventions—and walked away with the championship, to win which a team had to excel in throwing water, carrying equipment and setting under way. When the volunteer department disbanded to make way for the present crew, the trumpet was given to Mr. Stone. Yesterday he turned it over to Chief Laffness. It will occupy a place of honor in the station.

To sell undesired books one must be an artist. One grumbles about book agents and curses them, but when dispassionately viewed they must evoke wonder. They are a tribe accursed, they start under a careful hand; yet they will sell you of (if they are masters) the very things you desire least. We recall, for example, a man who came here five years ago with a ten-volume set of books on business methods. The set sold for some terrific sum, yet the frantic gentlemen actually sold five sets in one fraternity house, and made the boy's come to him to buy it. He literally filled that house with literature. When deliveries had been made there wasn't room in the fraternity house for the owners of the books. But occasionally even the most masterful of grafters falls down.

But occasionally even the most masterful of grafters falls down. Come to Missoula the other day a woman with a clever dodge. She sold to faddists and religious people. Her method was this: she would ask the prospective customer if she believed in, Oh, say, Methodism; if the customer said no, she should buy this book; if she agreed the answer was the same. It was a clever scheme and worked well—for a while. During the day, though, the agent went to a local business man, and after a short discussion asked him if he was a Catholic. He said he was not. "Well, here is a book you must read," she said. She handed over a volume. The man looked at it, then laughed. "You drew out the wrong book. This is the 'yes' book," he said. "That settled the agent. She hasn't been seen here since."

THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER HONORED IN SCHOOLS

TWO BUILDINGS RECEIVE SUITABLE PICTURES, TO MARK THE ANNIVERSARY

The occasion and the inspiration for the writing of "The Star Spangled Banner" was celebrated with the reverence due yesterday in every school room of the public schools of Missoula. The song was sung at the regular music hour in each school and its meaning in the history of the nation discussed.

In the Roosevelt and the Central schools, a handsome picture appropriately framed, was presented by the local post of the Women's Relief corps and hung in the assembly hall of each school. The pictures were the admirable lithographs prepared in 1910 in connection with the national movement to purchase the Francis Scott Keyes home for a national memorial. It was in 1910 that Mrs. J. Wilson Moore of this city was state president of the Women's Relief corps and Mrs. Kate McDonald was patriotic instructor, and these ladies at that time had the pictures made ready to be given to the two schools designated. There never seemed to come the right time to present the pictures until the anniversary celebration of yesterday.

INFANT LAID AT REST.

The funeral of Dorice June Moore, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Moore, who died early Sunday morning was held this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the family home on Sherwood street. Rev. Harold Griffin conducted the service and interment was in Missoula cemetery. Mrs. Moore was before her marriage, Doracie Crain. Mr. Moore is a well-known motorman of the street railway company.

Doughnuts That will remain moist.

Every housewife who bakes her own bread knows that if a little potato is added to the sponge, the bread will not dry out as quickly. In this recipe potato is utilized to make doughnuts that will remain moist and fresh for several days.

K C will be found to have distinct advantages over any other Baking Powder for doughnuts. K C is a double acting baking powder with which a large batch of doughnuts may be mixed and fried a few at a time. The last will be as light and nice as the first.

K C Potato Doughnuts

By Mrs. Nevada Briggs, of Baking School fame.

2 cups flour; 2 eggs; 1 cup sugar; 1 level teaspoonful K C Baking Powder; 1 teaspoonful salt; 1 teaspoonful nutmeg; 1 cup milk; or more if needed.

Sift three times, the flour, salt, spice and baking powder. Beat eggs with rotary beater, then still using rotary beater, gradually add sugar, then work in the mashed potato with a spoon and alternately add milk and flour mixture. Make a soft dough, roll into a sheet, cut into rounds, pinch a hole in the center with the finger and fry in deep fat.

Fat for frying should not be hot enough to brown the doughnut until it has risen. When the doughnut is dropped into the fat it sinks to the bottom. As soon as it comes up it should be turned and fried a number of times while cooking. This recipe is excellent as they do not take the fat in frying and will stay moist for days.

Swellings of the flesh caused by inflammation, cold, fracture of the bone, toothache, neuralgia or rheumatism can be relieved by applying BAL-LARD'S SNOW LINIMENT. It should be well rubbed in over the part affected. Its great healing and penetrating power eases the pain, reduces swelling and restores natural conditions. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by George Freishelmer.—Adv.

PLEASEING SESSIONS OF SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

MISSOULA COUNTY TEACHERS HAVE ENJOYABLE AND PROFITABLE MEETINGS HERE

The second day of the Missoula County Sunday School association's convention, now being held in the First Methodist Episcopal church in Missoula, was one of profit and inspiration to the delegates, who have come from all parts of the county.

Last evening, Rev. C. B. Allen of the Baptist church was in charge. Special music was furnished by the Baptist church choir, and many good talks were heard. Among the features of the evening was a review of the life and character of Jean Val Jean. Dr. Coffman of the university faculty gave the review. The subject was well handled and much enjoyed.

Rev. Charles D. Crouch of the Methodist Episcopal church gave an interesting and instructive talk on "What Makes a Successful Teacher." The evening's devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. J. N. Maclean of the Presbyterian church.

The afternoon services were conducted by the Rev. E. D. Gallagher, pastor of the Congregational church. Mrs. Franklin Brewer spoke instructively on "What the Cradle Roll Means to the Sunday School." Rev. R. D. Osterhout contributed valuable suggestions in his talk on "The Home Department and Its Mission," and Mrs. Harold E. High spoke from personal experience on "The Primary Superintendent and Her Work."

He threw his money in the grass beside the walk, where it was later found. Officer Sweeney appeared on the scene as Abernathy was being pummeled. Abernathy's "pal" introduced two men and the four were making the rounds. Abernathy had $56 with him. After a time the four men went down Front street and before Abernathy knew what was happening he was slugged.

Word was received from Drummond yesterday of the arrest of two men who dropped from a freight train there. They answered the description of the holdups telegraphed by Sheriff Kelley to railway points near Missoula.

LADIES AUXILIARY A. O. H.

There will be a meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary of the A. O. H. Tuesday afternoon, 2 p. m., K. P. Hall. DOROTHY QUINN, Recording Secretary.

AT Drummond.

Drummond, Sept. 14.—(Special.)—Sheriff Kelley of Missoula arrived here last evening to take to Missoula the two men arrested this morning by Deputy Sheriff Mellen, who were thought to be connected with the hold-up at Missoula Sunday evening. The men gave their names as Frank Howard and John Allen and were apprehended as they alighted from a freight train here. They both carried arms, one a .38 and the other a .44 caliber gun with plenty of cartridges. In case they are not the parties wanted at Missoula, they will be returned to Granite county to be tried on charges made here.

KELLEY BRINGS IN TWO HOLDUP SUSPECTS

Sheriff Kelley last night returned from Drummond, bringing with him two of the toughest-looking "bad" men that have been placed in the Missoula county jail in a long time. They gave the names of Frank Howard and James Hartman. These are believed to be felicitous.

The men are being held as suspects of a "strong-arm" robbery which took place Sunday night in a dark place near the end of West Front street.

BELIEVED TO HAVE "STRONG-ARMED" ABERNATHY SUNDAY, CAPTURED AT DRUMMOND

Clifford Abernathy was the victim of the holdups. He had come to town with a bank roll, earned while fighting forest fires, and with a companion from the fire line, he proceeded to see the town. Abernathy's "pal" introduced two men and the four were making the rounds. Abernathy had $56 with him. After a time the four men went down Front street and before Abernathy knew what was happening he was slugged.

Word was received from Drummond yesterday of the arrest of two men who dropped from a freight train there. They answered the description of the holdups telegraphed by Sheriff Kelley to railway points near Missoula.

Guns Found.

When searched the two men had a heavy pair of pliers, two guns of .38 caliber with extra long barrels, a gold watch, some money and two boxes of cartridges. Sheriff Kelley believes the watch is stolen property. It is a lady's timepiece, engraved with M. E. M. on the front of the case and inside the case on the back is written "Papa to Myrtle, 1906."

Both Howard and Hartman are above average size. They claimed to have come from Butte, but this story has been proved untrue by a man who identified them as men whom he had seen with Abernathy last night.
