

YOUTH REIGNS AGAIN IN SOCIAL FUNCTIONS OF CITY

Missoula is once again astir with youth. About 3,000 students, counting the tiny tots who are for the first time proudly lining up in the primary rooms of the city schools, and counting on through all the school rolls until the high dignity of the law department of the University of Montana is attained, bring their fun-loving, lively originality into the social activities of the city. It is good to look and listen on these bright afternoons, when the student throng comes over the big bridge. And it is good for the souls and hearts of the older people of the city, to gather in such social functions as have been given during the week just past to offer sincere welcome to the youth that has come to be a part of the sweet and wholesome current of Missoula society.

Mrs. H. G. Bishop.
Mrs. Herbert G. Bishop entertained charmingly at whist Thursday afternoon at her home on Plymouth street. Her rooms were all in white and gold with a profusion of asters, carnations, golden glow and marigolds. After the game of cards, the ladies were served a choice menu. Mrs. Bishop's guests were Mesdames Hensolt, Heckler, Walterskirchen, Borman, Beall, Kuppel, Redle, Murphy, Wright, Wagner, Sonntag, Swant, Siegel, Schindler, Misses Swant and Sonntag and Masters Wagner and Sonntag.

To California.
A number of Missoula people expect to leave next Saturday for their annual flitting to California. The company as now organized will include Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Beck and Miss Margaret Beck, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Price and three daughters, Mrs. W. B. Parsons and Mrs. Weitzel.

Y. W. C. A.
The first of the Vespers services for the season will be held at the Young Women's Christian association home on East Cedar street, this afternoon at 7:30 o'clock. There will be a concert of sacred music, followed by a social hour. Especially are young women, who have recently come to the city, invited to be present.
There will be a meeting of the board of directors of the Y. W. C. A. Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock.
Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock will begin the course of instruction in millinery. Miss St. Germain will have the work in charge.
Registration for the classes in sewing and dress-fitting will continue this week.

Mrs. P. M. Reilly.
Among the brilliant functions of the week were the two afternoons at bridge given by Mrs. P. M. Reilly at her apartments in the Hammond block, Thursday and Friday. Mrs. Reilly's rooms were bright with autumn flowers and at the conclusion of the game, dainty refreshments were served. Mrs. Reilly's guests Thursday afternoon were Mesdames Bandmann, Barnes, Berry, Lombard, Elizabeth Scheuch, Mason, Power, W. B. Parsons, Carl Greenwood, J. M. Lucy, Rodrick, Frank Thomas, Mollie Wallace of Seattle, Forbis, Hollister, J. P. Rowe, Kenneth Ross, A. D. Price, J. M. Price, Dan Ross, Toole, Skinner, Buford, Wilcox, Birdsall, Hart, Frank Elmore, E. F. Dodds, E. H. Boos, George Weisel, Samuel Bellow, Misses Evaro Avery, Frances Birdsall and Susie Bandmann. On Friday afternoon, Mrs. Reilly's guests were Mesdames Thane, Pearson, West, Weitzel, Peterson, Buckner, Freeze, Newlon, Percy Holter of Helena, England, Turner of Seattle, Haviland, F. C. Scheuch, Smith, Campbell, H. H. Parsons, Henry Greenwood, Abbon Lucy, Wilkinson, Hyde, Grubbs, McHaffie, T. A. Fitzgerald, W. E. Shea, R. F. Gaines, LaRue Smith, Thomas Stephenson; Misses Avery, Birdsall, Bachelier and Bandmann.

Mrs. Peterson.
Mrs. J. Lelev Peterson entertained at bridge one afternoon last week at her home on East Pine street. Her daughter, Miss Elna Peterson, assisted in the pretty function. The guests were Mesdames Gilbert Reinhard, Carl Greenwood, Henry Greenwood, J. M. Orvis, Jesse Rothenberg, William Steinbrenner, Fritz Larson, John Dahlgren, Herman Kohn, E. H. Freeze; Misses Olive Arnett, Evelyn Oker of Helena and Helen Orvis.

Mrs. G. F. Brooks.
Mrs. George F. Brooks entertained some of the friends of Mrs. Marlin Webster in her honor, Tuesday afternoon at her home on Washington street. The company included Mesdames Webster, Frank Thomas, F. L. Darbee, A. J. Gibson, Julius Grill, J. D. McCormick, J. Wilson Moore, C. E. Putney, W. H. Reid, E. B. Hord, Lee Hiscock, William Anderson, E. A. Brooks and Miss Nellie Gibson.

For Mrs. Lewis.
Mrs. H. J. Riley entertained 35 ladies who are intimate friends of Mrs. T. L. Lewis Wednesday afternoon at her home on South Third street. Mrs. Lewis expects to leave about the first of October to be with her daughter in Ellensburg, Washington, and this opportunity for a little visit before her departure was greatly enjoyed by Mrs. Riley's guests.

Social Tea.
The ladies of the Episcopal church will hold a social tea next Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. J. Buckley on Gerald avenue. The hostesses for the afternoon will be Mesdames Buckley, C. A. Barnes, E. F. Boos and J. M. Price.

Jakways-Miller.
Miss Gladys Jakways and Eugene Miller, two young people of prominence in Montana, were married last Wednesday at noon in the Methodist church of this city. Rev. Edward Laird Miller, D. D., performed the ceremony and Rev. Charles D. Crouch, D. D., assisted in the service. C. A. Jakways, father of the bride, gave her in marriage; her sister, Miss Mabel Jakways, was bridesmaid, and William M. Tow was best man. Miss Lella McDonald played the wedding march from Lohengrin for the entrance of the bride and played "O Promise Me," during the service. Both the bride and the bridesmaid wore tailored suits and hats in harmony, and carried bouquets of red roses. There was a wedding breakfast served at the Palace hotel and later in the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Miller departed for Dubois, Idaho, where Mr. Miller is engaged in business and where he has a charming bungalow home ready for his bride. This wedding is the fulfillment of a school romance. Mr. and Mrs. Miller were classmates in the Montana Wesleyan university at Helena, graduating in 1908 from that institution. Mrs. Miller went later to Oberlin, Ohio, and graduated in 1912 from the Oberlin Conservatory of Music. She returned to Helena and for two years taught voice and piano at Wesleyan university. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Jakways, prominent pioneers of the Blackfoot valley and famous in many a state for the delightful hospitality of their country home near Ovando. The relatives who attended the ceremony Wednesday were Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Jakways, parents of the bride, from their home near Ovando; Mrs. David Miller and Mrs. Charles Watts, mother and aunt of the groom, from Dubois, Idaho; H. J. Faust of Ovando, an uncle of the bride, and Miss Mabel Jakways, sister of the bride.

Invitations Issued.
Mrs. Thomas Stephenson and Mrs. F. L. Birdsall have issued invitations for afternoons at bridge next Thursday and Friday at the home of Mrs. Stephenson on Woodford street.

Eighty-Seven Years.
Mrs. Anne B. Norris celebrated the completion of 87 years of beautiful living, last Sunday, at the home of her son, M. A. Norris, 1326 South Sixth street west. Seated about an abundantly served dinner table with the guest of honor were Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Warner, Frank and Florence Warner, L. W. Warner, who is 84 years old, and the host and hostess Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Norris. Mrs. Norris has made her home in Missoula for the last 12 years, winning to herself in that time a host of admiring friends.

Hollenbeck-Hayden.
A brilliant and beautiful social function was the wedding of Miss Frances Hollenbeck and Charles Frederick Hayden, solemnized at 7 o'clock Monday evening at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. M. E. Hollenbeck on South Third street, the date being the second anniversary of the wedding of the bride's sister, who was formerly Miss Bessie Hollenbeck, with Julian Bilas of St. Paul. Rev. H. S. Gately, rector of the Church of the Holy Spirit, performed the ceremony. Miss Bernice Berry played the wedding march from Lohengrin and little Miss Jean Hayden, five-year-old sister of the groom, was flower girl. Misses E. Crum of Helena and Charline Johnson were bridesmaids. Herbert Hayden of St. Paul was best man and James Conlon of this city was usher. Mrs. Hollenbeck gave her daughter to be married. The bride's gown was a beautiful and becoming creation of satin de la reine, made en traine with an overdress of duchesse lace. She wore a veil of tulle caught to her hair with lilies of the valley and carried a graceful shower bouquet of bride's roses. Her only ornament was a lavender, the gift of the groom. The flower girl, Miss Jean Hayden, wore a white embroidered frock with wide pink sash and carried a basket of flowers from which she scattered pink sweet peas in the path of the bride. The bride party stood for the service with a background of white lattice work twined with pink asters and roses, ferns and smilax. Members of the family only were present at the ceremony. Later in the evening more than 100 friends called to pay their respects to the happy pair and to meet the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hayden of St. Paul, who were in the receiving line with Mrs. M. E. Hollenbeck and the bride party. Assisting in receiving and serving the guests were Mesdames C. L. F. Kellogg, E. F. Dodds, Misses Laura Ellithorp, Leona Forbis, Cecile Johnson, Bernice Berry, Lola Pritchard, Ruth Woodford, Vivian McMonus and Corinne McDonald. Miss Bernice Berry played a number of selections during the evening.

The room given over to the wealth of handsome wedding gifts told its own story of the love and esteem in which the bride and groom are held. There were many carefully chosen personal gifts which found place with the more elaborate outlay of china, silver, cut glass and linen and the costly furniture and rugs, the gift of the groom's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Hayden went to the Pacific coast for their honeymoon journey. Upon their return they will be at home in the Curran flats, where their apartment is already furnished.

Miss Lida Hurlbut.

Miss Lida Hurlbut has returned to her home in this city after a summer of music study in Spokane under the direction of Enrico Tassetti, an artist of note in musical circles. Miss Hurlbut made an especial study of modern composers. She will resume her classes for a limited number of piano pupils.

A Kitchenware Shower.

Mrs. Arthur Bussard entertained a company of young ladies Wednesday evening in compliment to Miss Marjorie Mason, whose wedding with Attorney Ralph Arnold is set for the middle of October. A choice assortment of kitchenware, useful and ornamental, was showered upon the bride elect, in anticipation of her housekeeping. Those who had part in Mrs. Bussard's hospitality were Mesdames Arthur Taylor of Butte, Lawrence Grady, F. F. Brewer, Milton Henders, King Garlington; Misses Orpha Culmer, Mary Jane Evans, Mabel Garlington, Emma Johnson, Grace Sherman, Nan Lewis, Agnes Berry, Ruth Berry, the guest of honor, Miss Marjorie Mason.

Choir Social.

Miss Maytie Uley entertained the members of the Baptist church choir with their husbands, wives and sweet hearts, Thursday evening at her home on Plymouth street. Following the regular rehearsal, there was an hour of visiting with music and refreshments.

Former Pupils.

Miss Claribel Corbin was happy to greet three of her former pupils in the cast of "The Candy Shop" that played at the Missoula theater Thursday evening. Miss Daphne Pollard, who was born in Australia and who gave evidence of talent when a child, chanced to be in Butte when only 16 years old, playing with the Pollard Juvenile company. She remained in Butte three months and during two months of that time was a devoted pupil of Miss Corbin. Then only four years ago, Miss Pollard studied dancing with Miss Corbin in Los Angeles. Miss Blanche Savoy studied dancing and dramatic expression from the time she was seven years old until she was 11, a private pupil of Miss Corbin in Butte. It was at that time, that Miss Corbin obtained for her an engagement to dance in a production of "Midsummer Night's Dream," given by Ward and James in Butte.

Indoor Picnic.

A group of ladies and gentlemen who have enjoyed automobile picnics during the summer months, gathered at the home of Professor and Mrs. F. C. Scheuch Monday evening for an informal indoor picnic. A game of bridge, a picnic supper and an hour or two of dancing were the diversions of the happy occasion. The party included Attorney and Mrs. F. A. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. George Newton, Mrs. Percy Holter of Helena, Attorney and Mrs. E. C. Mulrone, Attorney William L. Murphy, E. A. Newlon and Dr. W. P. Mills, with the host and hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirkhart.

Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Kirkhart entertained at dinner Wednesday evening at their home on East Front street. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. John R. Dally, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gerber, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Collar and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Harrington. The dinner was trimmed cleverly with autumn leaves and a delicious menu was served. After dinner a game of bridge enlivened the evening.

Longley-Payant.

Miss Norma Longley and Velmar Theborge Payant were married

Wednesday morning at 5:30 o'clock in the church of St. Francis Xavier, Rev. P. I. Delon, S. J., performed the ceremony. A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Longley, for the bride and groom and a company of relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Payant left on the Northern Pacific train No. 41 for a honeymoon journey to Spokane and Coeur d'Alene City. Upon their return they will be at home to their friends in their attractive cottage on North Fifth street.

Music Department.

With the thought "Music, when soft voices die, vibrates in the memory" for keynote, the Music department of the Woman's club has outlined an attractive program for the season. Mrs. W. E. Moore is chairman of the department. Mrs. Hal Sloane and Miss Ethel Hughes are in charge of current topics; Mrs. J. E. Power and Mrs. C. E. Simons will direct the choral work and Mrs. De Loss Smith will serve as accompanist. Mrs. William MacGregor will arrange and direct discussions. The dates of meetings and the topics assigned to members are the following:

- October 12—"Music in the Public Schools," Miss Mildred Clark.
