PENROSE HITS BACK AT T. R.

Colonel Roosevelt Enters Pennsylvania to Fight Senator in Own Lair

ADVOCATES ELECTION OF DEMOCRATIC CHIEF

Penrose Issues Statement in Which He Accuses T. R. of Treason

Philadelphia, Oct. 1.—Theodore Roosevelt addressed an audience which completely filled the First regiment armory here tonight, and urged the election of Gifford Pinchot, the Washington party candidate for United States senator, in opposition to Senator Boies Penrose, whom he attacked as "embodying the evils of machine politics." Mr. Roosevelt also asked support for Vance McCormick, the democratic candidate for governor, who was placed on the Washington party ticket after the withdrawal of William Draper Lewis.

"I ask first for the support of Mr. Pinchot for United States senator, in order that the defeat of Penrose may be insured, and then for the support of McCormick and the rest of the Washington party ticket to wipe out Penroseism," he said. "No man was closer to me throughout my terms as president than was Gifford Pinchot. His election would be an honor not only to Pennsylvania, but to the entire United States."

He said that during his recent tour in the west he had encountered enthusiasm and meetings such as one seldom sees except during a presidential year. He also predicted that Louisiana two years hence will cast her vote for the progressive party.

Penrose Replies.

United Senator Penrose issued a formal statement tonight in reply to Mr. Roosevelt's address tonight, in which Mr. Roosevelt condemned "political bosses," and said:

"The men who have surrendered their will and judgment into the keeping of Mr. Barres, or Mr. Penrose, or Mr. Murphy, or Mr. Sullivan, are not fit to be free citizens in a free republic."

In his statement Mr. Penrose said in part:

"I cannot think that Mr. Roosevelt means what he says when he uses the time-worn and now somewhat threadbare phrases regarding bossism. He really cannot believe that the people of Pennsylvania are so stupid as to be caught by these phrases under the present circumstances, in view of the fact that Mr. Roosevelt has been delivered bodily into the control of one of the most discredited and notorious municipal bosses who has ever appeared in American politics."

Once Friends.

"For 15 years I enjoyed Mr. Roosevelt's confidence to an unusual extent. I supported him in all his political efforts; and at a time when Mr. Hanna and many others were anxious to defeat him for the nomination for the presidency; I think, perhaps, I was among the foremost who were of substantial assistance to him in bringing about his nomination and election, as the facts and correspondence with him will show. After he had solemnly informed me that under no circumstances would he be a candidate for re-election to the presidency, I felt it my duty as a republican and a senator to support Mr. Taft, who was the president of the United States, his nomination having been forced upon the republicans of the country by Mr. Roosevelt in the most high-handed way ever witnessed in any national convention."

A Fall, Says Penrose.

"No patriotic American can fail to regret that Mr. Roosevelt has permitted himself to fall so far from his high estate. He had filled the greatest office in the world. He could have continued to receive the applause of the confidence and commendation of all Americans, regardless of faction or of party. Almost any kind of recognition could have been his in the years to come. He has seen fit to throw all this glorious and splendid opportunity away and to settle himself by tainted association with a crooked municipal contractor in Pittsburgh. His great political career was based upon the splendid national republican party. He now is in Pennsylvania promoting democratic candidates."

RELINQUISHMENT OF PHILIPPINES MEANS DEFEAT IN THE FIRST WAR WE FIGHT, THINKS REP. MANN

REPUBLICAN LEADER DECLARES THAT IF WE GIVE ISLANDS LIBERTY, SOME OTHER BIG POWER WILL PROBABLY GOBBLE THEM

Washington, Oct. 1.—Warning that Philippines independence meant surrender of American strategic command of the Pacific, "the fighting ground of the future," and that a conflict between the United States and the Orient, "commercial or otherwise," was inevitable, was given the public today by Republican Leader Mann in a vigorous speech opposing the pending administration Philippine bill. Representative Mann declared that if the Philippines become independent, they would in time either be acquired by Japan or some other nation, ultimately to be used against the United States.

"If there is to be independence of the Philippines," said Mr. Mann, "let it be absolute independence. If they are to go, let them go and let Japan or China, Germany or England take them, as is inevitable, and then we will know what we have to fight."

Sleeping China

"Close to Japan, like a sleeping child of the world, is China, with her vast territory, with her immense population. What was going on in Japan a few years ago is going on now in China. The awakening of China is more marvelous than Japan and as these great people in China rise to the civilization of our modern days and engage in manufactures and in production of all which we produce, we will enter into a series of competitive efforts with the far east which never have been equalled in this world of ours."

"The great population of China, we say, shall not be permitted to come to our shores. At the same time, we say that China shall not be permitted to shut out our people or our goods. Such a position as we take perhaps cannot be abandoned by our people, but it never can be enforced in the long run without the power to enforce it."

When China Wakes

"When China is awakened, going out into the world, we will have a conflict on our hands which will last many years, possibly for many centuries. We who are now legislating, if we do not bear in mind the possibilities of hundreds of years from now and the inevitable conflict, commercial or otherwise, which we will meet in the far east, have forgotten the principles which ought to guide us."

Conflict Certain

"It is as certain that the sun will rise tomorrow that a conflict will come between the far east and far west

HOW PRUSSIAN GRENADIERS DIED TO SAVE COLUMN HANDFUL OF WOUNDED SURVIVE OF ONE REGIMENT

DEFEAT OF 15,000 GERMAN GUARDS ON FRENCH CENTER DESCRIBED—TWO THOUSAND LAID LOW BY ONE BLAST OF ARTILLERY

Bordeaux, Oct. 1.—The defeat of 15,000 Prussian guards who attacked the French center on September 26 is described today in the Petit Gironde.

As soon as news of the German advance was received, French cavalry was sent to hold the enemy at Auberville, department of Marne, to give the artillery and infantry time to come up from Soaun, a place near Auberville. But while the French dragoons were preparing for the defense of Auberville, a brigade of Deathhead

Hussars, avoiding the village, came across the vineyards and fields, with the intention of surprising the French artillery on the march.

French in Tight Place.

It was a critical moment. The French dragoons were two miles ahead and the infantry two miles behind the gunners, who were in danger of being sabred across their guns. The Hussars were only three-quarters of a mile away, galloping furiously. In two minutes the guns were unlimbered and lined up along the road. The enemy then was only 500 yards away and the command could be heard to prepare to charge the guns.

In the charge the Prussian cavalry gathered speed with every yard. When they were 200 yards away the French gunners aimed and there was a flash of fire. Through the blue smoke the artillerymen could see the enemy's horses rearing and officers trying vainly to rally the broken lines.

A second time the battery hurled death into the doomed brigade. A great silence succeeded the thunder of hoofs and the shouting of men. Two thousand horsemen lay as if struck by lightning. Here and there a

A resolution approving the plan of Secretary Lane to secure an appropriation from congress of $100,000,000 to relieve the conditions with respect to irrigation projects, was considered.

THIRD WEEK OF GREAT FIGHT

Battle Along Aisne Line Rages Yet and There's No Result in Sight

INDIANS AND SCOTCH REINFORCE BRITISH

England's Line Stiffened by Fresh Troops—Siege of Antwerp Continues

London, Oct. 1, 9:50 p. m.—The battle of the Aisne, now nearing the end of its third week, will soon outstrip in respect to time the contest fought at Muden nearly 16 years ago, but still no decisive result has been achieved by either side.

The French official communication records that progress has been made by right and left wings of the allied armies, but gives no details.

Military experts, however, believe that the great claws as they have been described, continue to open to clutch at the outspread wings of the German army, particularly the right, which forms the upright portion of the L, and now has its back to the east, fighting with desperation to prevent the French left from encircling or smashing it along most of the front estimated at 150 miles in length.

The artillery has played by far the most important part in the struggle but on the German right the lighter guns, cavalry and infantry are doing most of the fighting with a stubbornness and disregard of life that people have so often said in recent years modern soldiers would never display.

German Account

The German official account says the Germans have defeated the French north and south of Albert.

The Indian troops should now be with the British army. They landed in France on Friday last. It is believed that the left wing will be stiffened by them. Some of the territorialists also have reached Field Marshal French's. These include the London Scottish, one of the best of England's volunteer regiments, recruited from Scotchmen in London. Their ranks include some of the best marksmen in the empire. Among them are a number of men who competed with the United States for the Palma trophy a few years ago.

Siege of Antwerp.

With the German attack on the outer fortifications on Antwerp, Belgium has again become the scene of serious operations. The invaders have confined their attack to the forts protecting the river crossings between Malines and Antwerp. A German report says that two forts have been silenced but the Belgians deny this.

GERMANS HAVE LOST HEAVILY IN EAST

Twenty Thousand Are Said to Have Fallen in Recent Fight with Russians

London, Oct. 1.—A Petrograd dispatch to the Reuter Telegram company says:

"In the Suwalki district from the left flank of the Germans, the Russians felled two determined attempts to force a passage of the Niemen river between Orta on the north and Drosnik on the south. Military critics point out that with the capture of Augustowo and Kopytowo, the Russians have broken the German center."

"The German line extended from Ossowetz to Simno, and the Russians with great bravery, have expelled the Germans from their entrenchments on the lakes, which are divided by only from two to five miles of dry land."

"According to the newspaper dispatch the German losses at Drosnik amounted to 20,000. The rains have ruined the roads so that many German guns have been embedded and lost."
