

MINUTE PLAYS SECOND GAME OF WORLD SERIES BYINNINGS

FIRST INNING; FIRST HALF.

Plank's first serve was a ball, the curve breaking wide of the plate. The next one came over for a strike. Mann out, Collins to McInnis. Collins took the ball back on the grass and made a fast play on the runner. Evers scratched an infield hit which Plank could not get in time to make the throw. Cather fanned on three pitched balls. Whitted walked, Plank making a kick when Hildebrand called the last pitch a ball. Schmidt flied out to Strunk. No runs; one hit; no errors.

FIRST INNING; SECOND HALF.

James sent up an upshoot which was too low. His second one was a strike. Murphy walked. James got himself in a hole on the batter by trying to keep the ball on the outside. Murphy was out when James threw wildly to Schmidt, who quickly recovered the ball and threw to Maranville, who touched out Murphy. Oldring out, Deal to Schmidt. Deal also threw out Collins. No runs; no hits; no errors.

SECOND INNING; FIRST HALF.

Gowdy was given a big hand when he came to bat. Plank fooled him on the first one with a slow curve. Gowdy walked. Plank was unable to control his wide curve. The Bostonians had hit speed yesterday and Plank was now feeding them on curves. Maranville sacrificed, Baker to McInnis. Plank took Deal's smash and tossed to Baker, who threw to Collins, who touched Gowdy as he tried to slide to second. Deal stole second. He was almost caught between the bases but Schang's throw was a little wild so that McInnis was not in position to throw to second before Deal made the bag. Schang threw wild to catch Deal off second but Barry saved him an error with a jumping catch. James fanned. No runs; no hits; no errors.

SECOND INNING; SECOND HALF.

The Boston outfield played out against the fence for Baker, but he only fouled out to Schmidt. McInnis fanned. Strunk also struck out. James was given a cheer when he went to the bench. No runs; no hits; no errors.

THIRD INNING; FIRST HALF.

Barry threw out Mann. It was a slow roller and Barry got the ball only after a hard run. His snap throw had Mann by a few feet at the bag. Evers singled solidly to center after having two strikes called on him. It was his second hit. Evers was almost picked off base by Schang, but McInnis dropped the ball. Cather out on a fly to Baker. Evers tried to steal but Whitted fouled off the ball. Evers out stealing, Schang to Collins. It was a pitchout and Evers was caught ten feet off the bag. No runs; one hit; no errors.

THIRD INNING; SECOND HALF.

Barry flied out to Cather. Schang also flew out to Cather, who took the ball over near the line. The crowd gave the veteran Eddie Plank a big hand when he came to the plate. Plank went out on three straight strikes. No runs; no hits; no errors.

FOURTH INNING; FIRST HALF.

Whitted flied to Strunk. Schmidt smashed a single to right field after the count on him was three and two. Gowdy out on a fly to Murphy. Maranville also singled to right, Schmidt going to second. Barry made a wonderful stab of Deal's high bouncer and touched second, forcing Maranville. The blow was almost a sure hit on which Schmidt could easily have scored. No runs; two hits; no errors.

FOURTH INNING; SECOND HALF.

James took Murphy's weak smash and threw him out. Oldring could not fathom James' speed and struck out. Maranville threw out Collins at first. James' pitching was gilt-edged. He had not allowed a hit in the first four innings and had sent the Athletic batters back to the bench in one, two, three order. No runs; no hits; no errors.

FIFTH INNING; FIRST HALF.

James beat up the air and struck out. Mann shot a hot single over second. Evers flied out to Strunk. Mann ran down to second but got back to first before Strunk's throw reached the bag. Barry took Cather's grounder and tossed to Collins, forcing Mann. No runs; one hit; no errors.

FIFTH INNING; SECOND HALF.

Baker flied out to Whitted. McInnis fanned for the second time. Strunk struck out. It was his second strikeout also. No runs; no hits; no errors.

SIXTH INNING; FIRST HALF.

Whitted popped out to Collins. Schmidt threw his shoulder in the way of a slow ball and started to walk to first, but the umpire called him back. Schmidt flied out to Murphy, who had to go up near the fence to make the catch. Gowdy walked on four pitched balls. Maranville was hit with a pitched ball. Baker took Deal's roller and touched third, forcing Gowdy. No runs; no hits; no errors.

SIXTH INNING; SECOND HALF.

Maranville threw out Barry at first. Schang got a two-bagger to left. It was the Athletics' first hit. He was almost caught at second, but a good slide saved him. Schang was out when the ball got away from Gowdy, who quickly recovered it and threw the Athletic catcher out at third. Maranville threw out Plank. No runs; one hit; no errors.

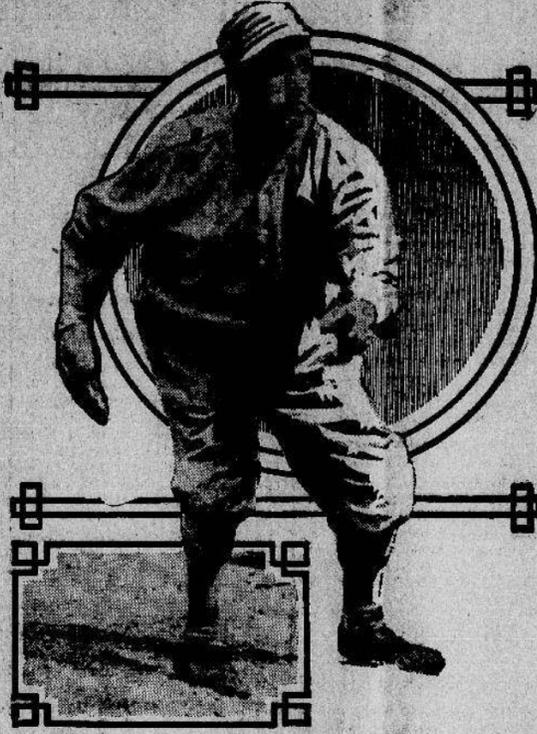

SEVENTH INNING; FIRST HALF.

James struck out for the third time. Mann struck out, Schang to McInnis. Baker threw out Evers. No runs; no hits; no errors.

EIGHTH INNING; SECOND HALF.

AFFAIRS AT MISSOULA BUSINESS COLLEGE

Kate Miller, who was a student at the college last year, until she secured a position in the Northern Pacific hospital, returned to school to finish her shorthand work and to take up bookkeeping. Miss Miller has the right idea. For a position of stenographer in most instances carries at least some bookkeeping with it, and there are many of our smaller positions which require office girls who are able to keep books, as well as write shorthand.

Joe McKay, of Stevensville, entered the school last week to take our English course. Joe is a young man of good parts, and is doing very good work. We like to see young men who are not afraid to get in and work like Joe has.

Eva Vanstone recently enrolled in our shorthand department for a complete stenographic course. She works well, and has a keen idea of what is required of the office girl. Her work is highly satisfactory.

Ole Peterson, who attended our night school last year and studied principally shorthand and typewriting, writes us a letter from Spokane, Wash., where he is now employed as a stenographer. Ole says he is very much pleased with the position he holds, and that he is getting along very nicely in every respect; however, he made the statement that he believes he will go to the coast and perhaps drift down to San Francisco next summer to take in the big show.

C. H. Phillips, who was a student in our commercial department last year, and who finished the bookkeeping course, called at the college on Friday. He was very much impressed with the size of our school and the character of work that the students are doing. Mr. Phillips took the civil service examinations last March and passed with very high grades. He has been employed in the western part of the state ever since he left school last April, but he said that he expects to quit his job and return to school to spend the winter in furthering his qualifications along commercial lines.

The fall classes are now in full swing and the students are becoming accustomed to the daily routine of the school. New enrollments are made almost daily and the attendance is greater than at any time last year.

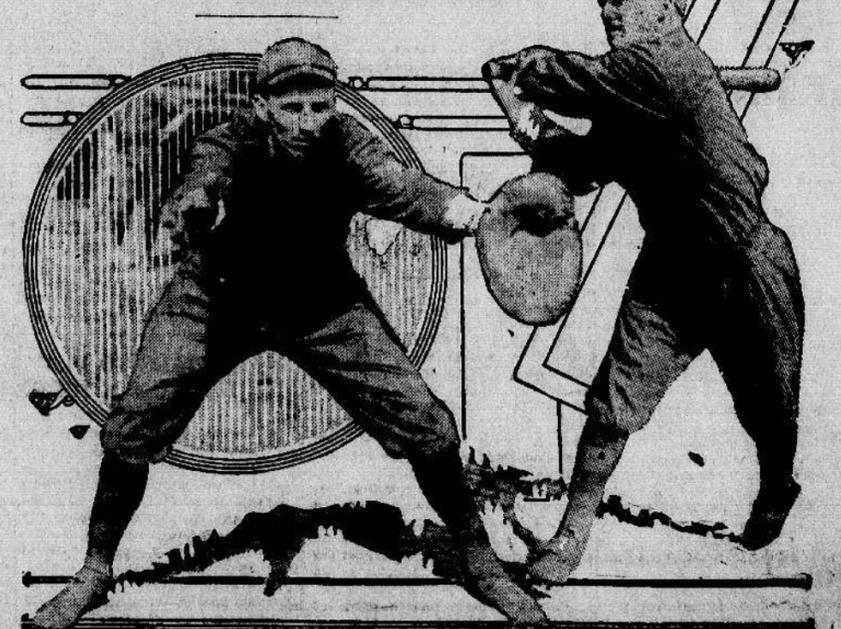

The actual business offices in the commercial department were opened the past week. New books and filing devices have been placed in each office.
