nolly's sacrifice fly. Again the score was tied.

Another inning and a half passed without result, but when Catcher Gowdy came to bat for the Boston club in the 12th session he opened with a double to left field his third hit of the game.

Bush Blows

From the midway bag he called for a relief runner and Mann was sent to his place. Bush purposely passed Gilbert, sent in as a pinch hitter for James. When Moran bunted half way between third and the pitcher's box Bush grabbed the ball and attempted to catch Mann at Baker's station. "Bullet Joe's" throw was wild. The ball went into left field, the relief runner rounding third and romped home with the winning run and the Braves' third victory in three games.

Gowdy Hero

Although Gowdy did not cross the plate with the run which his double started, he was the hero of the game. His two doubles and home run in four times at bat were the feature hits of the contest. Captain Johnny Evers was second with three singles and Schmidt, Deal and Maranville also contributed opportune hits. Murphy, with two doubles, and Baker with a double and single, were the leading Athletic batters.

Battery Work

The battery work was not so clean-cut or spectacular as in the preceding games. In addition to Bush's wild throw that closed the contest, Catcher Schang was charged with an error for the Athletics. Bush in 12 innings fanned four and walked an equal number of Boston batters. Tyler struck out four and passed three Mackmen in the ten innings he pitched, while James fanned one and walked three in his two periods on the mound.

Fielding honors were divided by Baker with two successive stops and throws in the ninth, and Schmidt, who in the eighth inning got Bush's whistling drive along the base line with a one-hand stab and while prone on the ground threw the runner out at first. Connelly contributed the Braves' only error when he dropped Collins' hoist in the opening inning.

The Crowd and Receipts

A record Boston world's series crowd witnessed the game, 35,520 persons paying $62,898 to pass through the turnstiles into the park.

Of this sum the national commission took $6,380.80; the players received $24,456.32 and the clubs, $11,483.44. Had the capacity of Fenway park been greater these figures would have been considerably increased. The bleacher gates were opened at 9 o'clock and the long rows of fans,

HAMILTON BEATEN BY MISSOULA ELEVEN

LOCAL SCHOLASTICS ARE VICTORS OVER VALLEY MEN BY SCORE OF 65 TO 0

Although the Missoula high school team is far below standard this year, the local scholastics were able to completely overwhelm the Hamilton eleven in a lurid football contest on Montana field yesterday afternoon. Score: Missoula, 65; Hamilton, 0.

The Missoula men advanced the ball at will, long runs featured throughout the battle. Because of the easy game they had, the Missoula high school players disappointed their supporters in that the team did not have to extend itself or show anything sensational to get all the scores necessary to trim the valley men.

Hamilton is to be commended for the good fight put up by the team from that school. The men fought valiantly all the way in the face of great odds and there was no complaining on the sary to trim the valley men.

In the first half of the contest, Missoula did not play well. The team worked slowly throughout this period and were fortunate to get 20 points against the valley men, 13 points being made in the first quarter. Coach McGough's men used "straight" football all the way, relying on end runs and line plunges to make the gains.

In the third quarter, Missoula made six touchdowns and kicked three goals. McQuarrie opened the long-run campaign with a run of nearly 100 yards, when he caught a kick off under his own goal posts and ran the entire length of the field for a touchdown. His broken-field running was good; he had speed and the five Hamilton men who caught hold of him were easily shaken off. The quarter ended with the score 59 to 0 in favor of Missoula.

A few plays in the fourth quarter Lansing got away and ran 50 yards for a touchdown. Hamilton then chose to receive and after losing seven yards in the first play, punted for 20 yards to Lansing who ran 75 yards for a touchdown. The Missoula men were then replaced by substitutes who battled Hamilton off its feet but did not make any scores.

The game was witnessed by a crowd of not more than 75 persons, who braved a cold, misty rain. The field was exceptionally slow, which probably accounts for the Missoula team's failure to run up a larger score.

The Hamilton men were somewhat at a disadvantage as the players were stiff and sore from the game played against Stevensville in Hamilton on Saturday.

The contest was refereed by "Rib" Robertson, quarterback for the university eleven. "Bill" Guerin, varsity's tackle was umpire.

The lineups of teams follow:

Missoula	Hamilton

Nelson	Roberts

BIG PROGRAM AT END OF KENTUCKY MEETING

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 12.—A big program of six races marked by the $20,000 Bluegrass stake for 2:10 pacers, won by Peter Stevens, and the Lexington, oldest 2-year-old stake in the United States, won by Henry Todd, was decided today at the opening here of the second week of the Grand circuit races at the track of the Kentucky Horse Breeders' association.

Except for the lowering of the 2-year-old world's record for geldings, to 2:11 3/4 by Henry Todd, the racing was featureless, all events being decided in straight heats.

SPORT SNAPSHOTS

Clark Griffith, the Senator's manager, is already planning his spring training for next season. He has decided to abandon his old idea of training at Charlottesville. Last spring Griff explained that all other managers made a mistake in going so far south and that he got much better results by working his men out in a climate comparatively cold at the early season of the year. Upon resulting north, he said, the players suffered no re-action from the change of temperature and were able to start the season without the usual colds and stiff joints. Next spring, however, Griff is going to take his men to Cuba, if he can make a satisfactory deal with the baseball people there.

Ira Thomas of the Athletics and one of the most respected and influential players in the American league, is anxious to start the right sort of a players' fraternity and one that all the Athletics would be glad to join. Thomas has suggested a fraternity for the American league alone or, better, a complete one that would depose Dave Fultz as president. The Athletics are all quite willing to join the present fraternity if Dave Fultz will please step out and be gone. Thomas suggests the election of a player to the presidency who is actively playing ball and he points out that Christy Mathewson would serve admirably in such a place.

Bill Carrigan, the Red Sox manager, doesn't hesitate to say that if Joe Wood had been able to work at his best clip all season the Braves would now be holding the American league pennant. More than quite a few agree with him. Carrigan admits that the Athletics have a somewhat better infield than he has, but he declares that he has them beaten in the outfield and in the box. The Red Sox came so near beating "out" the Athletics that the addition of Joe Wood at his best would just about have thrown the balance. And as it happened the Boston bunch had it on the Athletics in winning the majority of games from them through the season.
