Vaudeville Yawns for, Not at, Some Member of Braves Team

SO THE FANS MAY KNOW WHAT'S DOING

BEANTOWN'S MAYOR ENTERTAINS BRAVES

BANQUET IN HONOR OF PLAYERS IS HELD IN BOSTON, SPEECHES OF PRAISE ARE MADE

PLAYERS GET FAT CHECKS

Captain Johnny Evers Draws About $40,000 for Sixth Months' Work—Vaudeville Agents Try to Sign Men But None Succeed.

Boston, Oct. 14.—The Braves, world's baseball champions, as a result of the sensational series with the Philadelphia Athletics which closed here yesterday, were given a banquet and reception tonight by Mayor Curley. Praise for their achievement was sounded by various speakers and modest acknowledgment was made by Manager George T. Stallings and several of the players.

Braves Go Home.

After the banquet many of the Braves left immediately for their home cities. They were each given checks today for $2,708.36 by a representative of the national commission as their share in the world's series receipts. To most of them this meant about $5,000 for their season's work.

Evers' Income.

Captain Johnny Evers found the season a big one financially, his income the last six months having been more than $40,000, including a bonus of $25,000 for his signature to a contract, $10,000 in salary, a $3,000 bonus for finishing in first place, and his world's series receipts.

Quiet Winter.

The winter will be spent quietly by most of the men. Several vaudeville agents were at Fenway park today endeavoring to sign up some of the stars, but it is understood that none was successful.

"Rabbit" Maranville, who was on the stage last winter, may return this year.

Not to South America.

Manager Stallings said tonight that the statement by Minister Pezet of Peru, made at a dinner here yesterday, that the Braves would tour South America was a mistake. It was due, he thought, to the fact that some members of the Braves had asked to play with the New York Giants there on a proposed trip.

OUR OWN LESLIE TAKES THE W. K. STEP—FEW FANS MEET ATHLETICS BUT GET MONEY

BUSH PLUNGES.

Philadelphia, Oct. 14.—Joseph Leslie Bush, who pitched on Monday for the Mackmen, married shortly after his return Miss Sylvia E. McMahon of Bordentown, N. J. Bush and his bride will leave for Chicago tomorrow, where they will join other members of the Athletics' team who are to tour with the All-Stars.

Philadelphia, Oct. 14.—Only a handful of loyal fans were at the railway station to greet the former world's champions when the latter arrived today from Boston, where they had lost their title to the Braves. There was a long line of disappointed ticket holders, however, at the department store where the admissions for the third game, that would have been played had the Athletics succeeded in taking one game, were redeemed. More than $44,000 was refunded.

Three witnesses of alleged grafting on the part of policemen at the preliminary sale of tickets appeared today before the committee which is investigating the charges. They told of seeing un-uniformed police receiving money from persons anxious to secure preferred places in the line of ticket purchasers.

This 66-Year-Old Player Should Inspire Veterans

The oldest ball player has been discovered in a 66-year-old of Pittsburgh, who has displayed great form throughout the present season. George Artzberger is the graybeard's name, and he has taken part in some 87 games thus far this summer. This record at bat and on the field is one that his grandson, if he has one, might be proud of. He has fanned only once, and only once has he offered a wild heave. All who have heard of him or have seen him perform regard him as the wonder of the game.

HOW FRENCH PEOPLE CURE STOMACH TROUBLE

A household remedy of the French peasantry, consisting of pure vegetable oil, and said to possess wonderful merit in the treatment of stomach, liver and intestinal troubles, has been introduced in this country by George H. Mayr, who for twenty years has been one of the leading down town druggists of Chicago and who himself was cured by its use. So quick and effective is its action that a single dose is usually enough to bring pronounced relief in the most stubborn cases, and many people who have tried it declare they never heard of anything to produce such remarkable results in so short a time. It is known as Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy and can now be had at almost any drug store. It is now sold here by Missoula Drug Co.—Adv.

Bruins Have Good Chance To Be Muscovite Hopes

Coach Heilman Today Will Name Men to Make Trip to University of Idaho Camp and do Battle With Strong Team—Bostonian-fight Spirit and Rooters to Help.

TEAM NOT PICKED

Coach A. C. Heilman of the university football eleven, said last night that he was not prepared to give out the names of the men who will go as players on the Bruin eleven to Moscow this evening. This afternoon's practice will be a determining factor in the final choice of the men.

The coach also stated that because of injuries, which are just making themselves apparent, some of the men will be handicapped in the University of Idaho-Montana game. However, the coach admitted that Montana has a good chance to win, though the team will not be fully as strong as the eleven that defeated Pullman here.

The university students will hold a football rally and "Sing on the Steps" this evening and will go to the Milwaukee station to cheer the departing warriors.

Away with a better chance to make an impression on the teams in the Northwestern conference than any University of Montana football team has yet had, the Bruins will leave for the west, over the Milwaukee, at 11 o'clock this evening. The destination of the journey is Moscow, where the University of Idaho eleven will be met—ardent supporters say defeated—by the Montana collegians. The Bruins are in good shape for a hard battle and are going with a Bostonian-fight spirit that is certain to make them hard to down in the battle of Saturday.

Montana has played the Idaho men often, but has never gone into the fray with a large amount of zest. Defeat with a very large "D" has always been uppermost in the minds of the Montana players and they have gotten just what they expected.

Chance to Win.

This year the university is in a fair way to give Idaho the trimming of its athletic existence. While the Muscovites are backing a good team, composed of seasoned, experienced players, Montana has an organization that is made of good material that has been well trained by Coaches Heilman and Nissen. With Quarterback "Rib" Robertson at the helm of Montana's armored cruiser, which will sail over the enemies' lines, a good battle, well handled, is in prospect and the field general that out-Von Klucks the Bruin battle director will earn the highest honors in this section of the United States.

Montana will go into the Moscow game with practically its full battle strength. None of the men is out of the game with injuries of a serious nature and practically the lineup that took Pullman into camp here will be presented to the men of Moscow.

Royal Rooters.

It is expected that many "royal rooters" of the university will go to the battle front and cheer the Bruins on. The fans, from the university's standpoint, will be the most important one played this year and reports from Moscow are that the Idaho men are looking at their hole card now. The rooters who are going with the team believe they will witness the first victory of a Montana team against a Northwestern conference eleven.

The team will arrive in Moscow about noon and will take a light workout on the Moscow gridiron. The early start will give the members of the team an opportunity to rest well before the game and be in the best of shape for the big contest of Saturday.

WALLACE AND KETCHEL READY FOR GO TONIGHT

Butte, Oct. 14.—Tomorrow night at the Broadway theater Steve Ketchel and Young Wallace will meet in a 12-round Marquis of Queensberry contest for the lightweight championship of the state, and while Ketchel claims he will take the title back to Chicago with him, Wallace laughs at the idea and says the only thing Ketchel will take from Butte will be a hard beating. Be that as it may, both boys are in excellent shape and ready for a hard, fast contest. Ketchel, owing to his greater experience and weight, has been made a slight favorite, but there is little to choose between the boys and what bets have been recorded have been put up at even money. With the weight set at 135 at 5 o'clock neither contestant will have any trouble making weight; in fact, both were at the required poundage yesterday and only light work will be necessary today and tomorrow to keep at that notch. Butte patrons of the padded mitts are enthusiastic over this battle and one and all realize that it will be a fast, interesting scrap all the way, with plenty of action from gong to gong.

MAJORS WILL DRAFT ASSOCIATION PLAYERS

Not in the last five years has the American association stood in danger of losing so many men as it does at the end of this season. The reason is apparent—the A. A. is well stocked with sterling prospects.

Milwaukee has Felsch and Havlik, Cleveland has Knight, Billias, Brenton, Kahler, Southworth and Willie, Louisville has McLarry, Severoid and some of the veteran pitchers may go up.

Wade Killifer of the Millers has the big leaguers bidding for him. At Indianapolis Tom Griffith, an outfielder, is a good bet. Crandall and Galloway, infielders, are also prospects. Both of the Blues is almost sure to be wanted up there.

The Saints have McNally, Shea, and Glenn, catcher. The Senators have some young men who will make a dash for the graduation papers before the curtain is rung down.

SAFETY FIRST.

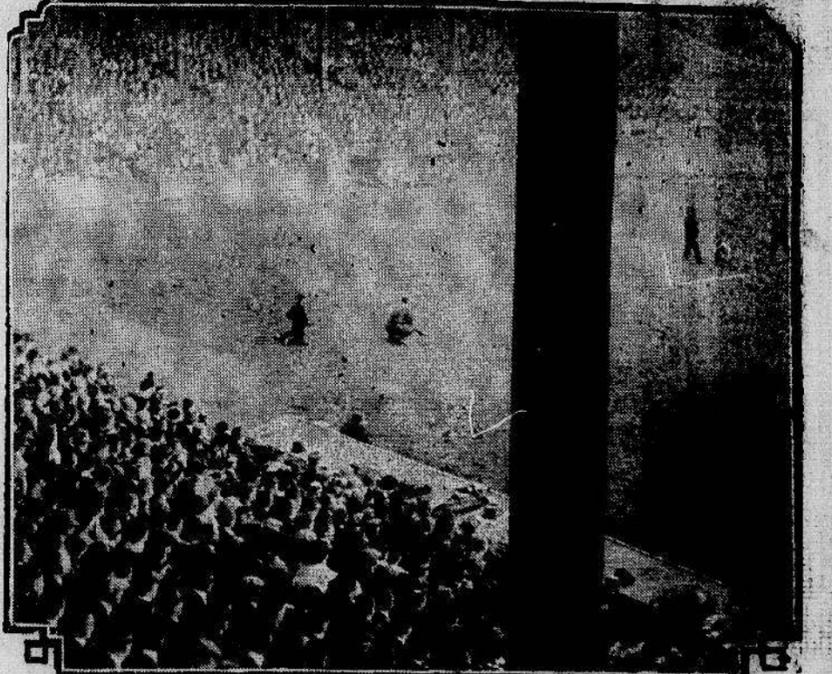

(Philadelphia Ledger.) "I'll call on your father first thing in the morning to ask his consent to our wedding, dearest."

"Love, I think you'd better call him on the phone."

"Just as you say, darling."

"And, honey, you might make it a long-distance call while you are at it."
