

SOCIETY

The measure of the week in Missoula society has been the measure of opportunity to form new acquaintances and to cement old friendships. The functions of the week have been unusually rich in such opportunity. Lieutenant and Mrs. von dem Busche made a charming occasion for Missoula society folk to welcome the officers and ladies recently come to Fort Missoula, and to set in motion the lively shuttle of army post social life.

The Women's league at the university began this week its gracious service in behalf of unity and harmony among the university women, with a tea Wednesday afternoon and the "Co-ed Prom" Friday evening. The Missoula Woman's club held a city federation session Saturday afternoon, calling together all the women's clubs of the city having similar aims.

The Parent-Teacher association has been promulgated and accepted in a number of school centers, adopted into the working creed of splendid organizations already established.

The list might be still further extended, of the functions of the week which have been big in numbers and big in unity, opening windows of promise for the months to come.

Y. W. C. A. Calendar

On Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, will be held the regular Vesper service at the association home on East Cedar street. Mrs. Nat Little will give the talk. Mrs. L. M. Pearce will sing and the social hour will be in charge of the girls in Mrs. Kellogg's class. A cordial invitation is extended to all young women in the city, especially to those who may be not well acquainted.

Tuesday evening, at 7 o'clock, the military class will meet.

Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock, the sewing class meets.

Saturday evening at 7 o'clock, the German conversation class will meet. The membership committee has set for its mark, 300 members of the association by December 1. The largest organization for women in the world invites every woman to become a part of it.

Women's League Tea

The Women's league, whose membership includes all women of the faculty and all women students of the university who may care to participate in its activities, entertained in charming fashion last Wednesday afternoon in the parlors of Craig hall. About 150 students and faculty women enjoyed the opportunity to develop acquaintance and cement friendship. Mesdames Kemp, Lennes, Reynolds and McLeod poured tea during the afternoon.

Young Ladies' Sodality.

Next Tuesday evening the Young Ladies' Sodality of the Catholic church will entertain at cards in the basement of the Catholic church. The party is given for the benefit of the poor fund for the winter, a charity that is cherished by the young ladies in generous fashion.

Sans Souci Club.

Mrs. Frank Borg was hostess for the Sans Souci club Wednesday afternoon at her home on Daly avenue. Mesdames J. U. Williams, Asa Willard, Alex Peterson, George Wilcox, Nat Little, Anna Simpson and the hostess visited informally over their needlework and over the tea trays served at the end of the afternoon.

Domestic Science Department.

The opening meeting of the year for the Domestic Science department of the Woman's club was a social session held last Monday afternoon at the home of the chairman, Mrs. George Briggs. The ladies talked over plans for the year and visited about the daintily served tea tables.

King's Daughters' Society.

At the last meeting of the King's Daughters' society, held at the home of Mrs. F. S. Lusk, officers were elected to serve the coming year. Mrs. Carl T. Seely was made president, Mrs. J. B. Henley, vice president; Mrs. H. A. Mceldon, secretary, and Mrs. F. A. Donald treasurer.

W. C. T. U.

The Women's Christian Temperance union will meet Wednesday afternoon, October 28, with Mrs. Emma Corbin at her home on South Fourth street, west. Mrs. J. H. Veeder, whose department is suffrage and parliamentary law, will be program leader for the day.

Music Department

The music department of the Woman's club will meet Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Alex Peterson on Hilda avenue.

Westminster Guild

Mrs. McTarnaghan will be hostess for the Westminster guild Tuesday evening at her home on Gerald avenue. Miss Palmer will be program leader for the evening.

Kensington Tea

Mrs. C. N. Baird gave a Kensington tea at her home on East Spruce street, last Monday afternoon in compliment to Mrs. T. G. Denton and Mrs. C. R. Asbury, who left the day after for their home at Phoenix, Ariz. Mesdames T. H. Dunstan, S. H. Draper, C. D. Miller, E. C. Anderson, A. E. Denton, E. H. Collar, A. J. King, C. R. White, E. F. Baird and the guests of honor, Mrs. Denton and Mrs. Asbury, enjoyed the delightful hospitality proffered by Mrs. Baird.

Episcopal Ladies

The ladies of the Episcopal church have planned to hold a fair next Thursday afternoon and evening in the lobby of the Florence hotel. They have ready for sale a large assortment of useful articles for household and personal needs, and they will also have for sale fancy articles suitable for holiday gifts. There will be a cafeteria lunch of coffee, sandwiches, cake, doughnuts and pie as part of the attractions offered.

Tea Postponed.

The afternoon tea which was announced to be given next Monday afternoon by the ladies of the university faculty in compliment to the Missoula Woman's club, has been postponed one week in deference to the bereavement that has come to Mrs. J. P. Rowe, one of the hostesses of the occasion.

At Dinner.

Messes Marguerite, Florence and Helen Coon entertained at dinner in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Berry of Butte Thursday evening at their home on South Second street. The dinner table was brilliantly adorned with yellow leaves and red berries. The candles were red-shaded and the autumn colors were repeated in place favors and menu. Seated at the table with Mr. and Mrs. Berry were Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Coen, Massey McCullough, Jack Power, Holly Wilkinson and the three hostesses.

At Fort Missoula.

"Very like old times," was the pleased report of 125 and more ladies and gentlemen, who called at the home of Lieutenant and Mrs. von dem Busche at Fort Missoula Wednesday evening to greet recently arrived officers and ladies. The guests of honor were Major Leonard, Captain Jordan, Lieutenant and Mrs. Kobes, Lieutenants Harding and Winton, Dr. LaVenture and Dr. and Mrs. Shea. Mrs. P. S. Lusk, Mrs. P. C. Scheuch, Mrs. Shea and Mrs. Kobes assisted Mrs. von dem Busche in assuring the comfort of arriving guests. Messes Dorothy Stirling, Frances Birdsall, Charline Johnson, Evaro Avery, Edmee, Laurette and Juliette Deschamps served punch in the library and more substantial refreshments in the dining room. A card room on the second floor was arranged for the convenience of guests who cared to play a game of bridge. Exquisitely beautiful were the decorations of pink chrysanthemums in the reception hall, red carnations in the library and yellow chrysanthemums in the dining room.

Pastor's Reception.

A reception was tendered by members of the Methodist church south, Monday evening, to their pastor, Rev. M. C. Hamilton. There were present about 100 guests, including Rev. and Mrs. C. B. Allen of the Baptist church, Rev. Charles D. Crouch of the Methodist church, and Rev. Elmer D. Gallagher of the Congregational church. An interesting program was rendered, W. H. Smith being master of ceremonies. J. R. Nottingham made an address of welcome; Dr. Allen spoke on "Social Service in the Churches"; Dr.

Crouch sketched the "History of Wesley's Children," and Dr. Gallagher discussed "The Outlook for the West Side." J. C. McDowell told of his aims for the Sunday school. Among the musical numbers were a piano solo by Miss Eltberg of Fort Missoula, and a duet by Mrs. Herbert Davis and Mrs. Sawyer. The evening was concluded with an elaborate repast.

A New Club.

Twenty-five young people, ranging in age from 14 years up, assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Wright Saturday evening, to organize a club of the young people in the Lincoln school ward. Officers were elected: Miss Cora Quast, president; Miss Ruth Cavin, vice president; Ralph Starr, secretary, and Ralph Stitch, treasurer. It was voted to meet the second and fourth Friday of each month for the purpose of mutual improvement and social recreation. Plans will be perfected soon for programs and entertainments.

Mrs. George Leslie.

Mrs. George Leslie was pleasantly surprised by a number of friends Friday evening at her attractive bungalow on Phillips street. There was a game of cards followed by musical numbers rendered by Mrs. Walter DeBorde and Mrs. William Crawford. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

China Shower.

Forty ladies gathered at the Lincoln school Friday afternoon, each one carrying her gift of a cup, a saucer and a plate for the school cupboard. After the dishes had been put away in readiness for community social gatherings and for school lunches, the ladies seated themselves to hear Miss Alma Binzel talk of the parent-teacher association that is being organized throughout the United States. Miss Binzel found appreciative friends for the movement in the audience upon this occasion, especially as she advised the development of the parent-teacher purposes through the medium of the splendidly organized Park Addition club. During the social hour that followed Miss Binzel's talk, Mrs. Veeder, Mrs. Dunn and Mrs. Tucker, assisted by Mrs. Day, Mrs. Spencer and Miss Marguerite Noeth, served acceptable refreshments.

Choir Entertained.

Mrs. C. O. Ostergren entertained the choir of the Baptist church at her home last evening. The musicians spent a delightful evening as Mrs. Ostergren's guests.

Park Addition Club.

Mrs. Otto Quast was hostess for the Park Addition club last Wednesday with Mrs. Roberts assisting her. Mrs. Lucas had the program in charge, the program topic being "A Travelogue." Mrs. Boles read a most interesting account of the Passion Play and Mrs. Veeder read one of her fine poems, "A Travelogue of Life." Mrs. Walpole sang "The Valley of Dreams" in charming fashion. A social hour with refreshments concluded the afternoon.

Co-Ed Prom.

One of the happiest and most original of social functions was the Co-Ed Prom given Friday evening at the gymnasium on the campus. The Women's league of the university, Miss Ruby Jacobson president, inaugurated the celebration. The committee in charge of arrangements this year included Messes Irene Murray, chairman, Eunice Dennis, Madge Beatty,

The Seemingly Uncorsetted Figure

Just now we are hearing much about the "Seemingly Uncorsetted Figure," which is truly seemingly only, since the corset requirements are more exacting than ever before.

This uncorsetted effect is acquired by certain women with the laced front corset, by others with the laced back. We can advise the type best suited to your figure and recommend for your inspection the new styles of by President E. B. Craighead on the subject, "What Can We Do?" President Craighead presented arguments in favor of consolidation of state institutions. Following his talk, there was a pleasing presentation of the parent-teacher association by Miss Alma Binzel, assistant superintendent of the city schools. The musical numbers for the afternoon were a vocal solo, "Goodbye" (Tostol), by Miss Lolah Fritchard with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Lombard; a vocal solo by Miss Lena Rickard; a piano solo, "The Last Smile" (Wollenhaupt), by Mrs. Hugh Sloane, who responded to encore with "The Butterfly" (Grieg). A delightful feature of the afternoon was an informal talk by Mrs. Tylar B. Thompson, who told of the national meetings she has recently attended as an honored participant. Mrs. Thompson brought the tonic influence of great gatherings of brilliant women in her homecoming talk yesterday.

number of her friends last Friday evening at whilst in honor of her friend, Miss Margaret Kraus of Helena, who was a guest at the Murray home. The lady's prize was won by Miss Alice O'Brien, while the gentleman's prize was captured by Henry Bishop. Following the card games singing was indulged in. Late in the evening refreshments were served by the hostess.

From Saskatchewan.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Welk and Mr. and Mrs. George Hebert arrived Saturday from Rosthern, Saskatchewan, Canada, to make their home in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Welk are the parents of L. A. Welk, who with Mr. Nickel recently purchased the Hamilton flour mill. Mrs. Hebert is Mr. Welk's sister.

Mrs. Daly Here.

Mrs. Margaret Daly arrived Thursday evening from Anaconda and went at once to her beautiful home on the Bitter Root Stock farm.

Visiting Son.

George D. Elderkin, a Chicago business man, is visiting with his son, Jesse Elderkin, at the latter's home near Como.

Birthday Party.

On Wednesday evening Ernestine May Buchanan celebrated her birthday with a party for a number of her juvenile friends. The children gathered at the Buchanan home on South Second street, from where they went to the moving picture show. The hostess received many beautiful gifts in honor of her birthday. Those invited to the gathering were: Marjorie Fisk, Dorothy Fisk, Elizabeth McKeown, Betty Torrence, Elizabeth Gage, Donald Gordon, George Gordon, Stanley Waddell, Norbitt Rossignol and Deloss Rossignol.

Hamilton Personal.

Miss Nadia Chambers entertained a number of her girl friends at her home on North Fourth street Tuesday evening. Following an evening of games appetizing refreshments were served by the hostess. The evening was a most enjoyable one.

Mrs. Margaret Gray, who formerly resided in Hamilton, arrived Saturday and is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hyde. Mrs. Gray now makes her home in Butte.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. White returned Thursday morning from a visit to the Atlantic coast, the former attending a meeting of the American Bankers' association at Richmond, Va. Mr. and Mrs. White witnessed the first game between the Boston Braves and the Philadelphia Athletics.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. DeLine left Tuesday for Great Falls, where Mr. DeLine recently purchased an interest in a barber shop.

President J. M. Hamilton of the Agricultural college at Doreman visited the local schools the first of the week. President Hamilton has many friends in Hamilton, all of whom were pleased to meet him again.

E. E. Smith, a Hamilton merchant, returned Sunday from a visit to his old home in Nebraska. Mr. Smith also visited in Kansas and Missouri. J. L. Parsley and family have moved to their former home in Dora in addition, following a summer spent near Stevensville, where Mr. Parsley was employed.

W. T. Hutchens, Nicholson, Ga., had a severe attack of rheumatism. His feet, ankles and joints were swollen, and moving about was very painful. He was certainly in a bad way when he started to take Foley Kidney Pills. He says, "Just a few doses made me feel better, and now my pains and rheumatism are all gone and I sleep all night long."—Missoula Drug Co.—Adv.

Literature Department.

Under the auspices of the literature department of the Woman's club, Mrs. George R. Coffman will give the second one of her lectures on German Life and Customs, Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the classroom of the Young Women's Christian association home. "The Feminist Movement in Germany" is the topic for tomorrow evening.

TRAVELOQUE OF LIFE.

(Written by Mrs. J. H. Veeder for the Park Addition club.)
Just a little while we've traveled,
Since 'twas springtime everywhere,
Since all life was free from care
And the dear spots in the willowood
Our delight.

When the hills were kissed with sunlight,
When the wild birds sang the sweetest,
And the joyous hours passed fleetest
Gathering blossoms, blossoms
'Till the night,

Just a little while we've traveled,
Since the summer breezes gay
Scattered rose leaves in our way
And 'twas gladness without sadness
Every day.

Then we paused to gather petals
Heard love's promises low-spoken,
Dreamed of happiness unbroken,
Thought a perfect life must be Always May.

New the springtime and the rose time
Both have fitted long ago,
Taken friends we used to know,
Left the wayside bleak and dreary
For awhile.

Look a long way back to childhood,
To the girls we all were then.
Would you live life o'er again
With its pleasure and its heartache
And its smile

Let's make autumn red and gold
Memories all sweet and rare
Of the home lands far and fair;
Make these near friends and those dear
Friends
More worth while.

HAMILTON SOCIETY

Hamilton, Oct. 24.—(Special).—A pretty home wedding was solemnized Wednesday noon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hauf near Woodside when their daughter, Theresa, became the bride of John P. Young of Chicago. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. C. Irwin, pastor of the Presbyterian church, and was witnessed by about 30 guests. Following the ceremony a sumptuous wedding dinner was served. Mr. and Mrs. Young took the afternoon train for Chicago where they will make their home. The bride is an estimable young woman, having many friends among her acquaintances.

For Miss Kraus.
Miss Flora Murray entertained a

Ruth Kennedy and Beatrice Tabor. There were present 200 young ladies, women students and faculty members from the university and a few guests from the city. Half the number were costumed as gentlemanly escorts, and many others wore clever character costumes. A monkey led by a group of Armenian gypsies made fun throughout the evening. Among the specialties between dances, there was a fancy dance by Miss Katherine Sutherland and Miss Agnes Sherburne and a take-off dance by Messes Antoinette Simons and Dorothy Hennessey, imitating Vernon Castle of New York. Punch was served early in the evening and ice cream and cake later. Dancing closed exactly on the stroke of midnight.

Fortnightly Club.

Nearly 150 guests of the Fortnightly Dancing club enjoyed the opening function of the season Friday evening at the Elks' ballroom. Every least detail of exquisite hospitality was remembered by the accomplished hosts of the evening and this initial dance promises well for the success of the series.

Fireside Club.

Mrs. Walter DeBorde will be hostess for the Fireside club next Thursday afternoon at her home, 433 Plymouth street.

Bridge Club.

Mrs. T. A. Fitzgerald will be hostess for the Bridge club Wednesday afternoon at her home on South Fifth street west.

South-Side Bridge Club.

Some of the young matrons who reside on the south side met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Campbell and perfected the organization of a club, whose name is the South Side Bridge club. The members are Mesdames John Campbell, William Murphy, C. V. Gougler, Leon West, R. F. Gaines, Thomas Stephenson, Henry Greenhood and Frank Pearson. Social recreation is the avowed purpose of the new club.

Mrs. C. V. Gougler will be hostess for the club next Wednesday afternoon.

Young Ladies Dine.

Miss Esther Jacobson asked a company of young ladies to dine with her last Thursday evening at her home on South First street. Her guests were Messes Mary Wright, Ruth Keith, Gertrude Farly, Beth Barrows, Bernice Perkins, Marguerite McGreevey, Doris Prescott, Myrtle Wanderer, Lucille Paul, Fay Fairchild, Alice Jordan, Irene O'Donnell and Ruby Jacobson. Halloween favors suggested the coming day of festivity and a great bowl of marigolds in the center of the table set the keynote of color harmony in decorations. An elaborate menu was charmingly served. Music and conversation occupied the hour after dinner.

Mrs. Peterson at Home.

Mrs. G. F. Peterson sent "At Home" cards to nearly 300 ladies for Saturday afternoon, and nearly that number of ladies had the pleasure of calling at the beautiful Peterson home on Gerald avenue to greet the hostess and the three honor guests, Mrs. E. A. Brooks, Mrs. Oscar Craig and Mrs. George F. Brooks. These three ladies are preparing to leave before very long for their winter flitting to the southland. Misses Marjorie Wilkinson and Dorothy Peterson opened the door to arriving guests. Mesdames J. B. Henley, Frank McHaffie, Frank Thomas, H. T. Wilkinson and Miss Mary Elrod assisted the hostesses in making the guests at home through the rooms. In the dining room, Mrs. A. L. Duncan and Mrs. Freeze, assisted by Messes Ruth McHaffie, Dorothy Wilkinson, Marjorie Simons and Gladys Peterson, served the delicious refreshments. An added pleasure for the occasion was the music rendered by talented guests. Piano solos were played by Mrs. C. H. Putney, Mrs. Fred Kennett, Mrs. J. T. McTarnaghan, Mrs. W. W. Wickes and Mrs. E. A. Cary. Vocal solos were rendered by Mrs. C. B. Simons and Miss Ethel Hughes, and violin numbers by Miss Edmee Deschamps. The rooms were made even more beautiful than they are every day by a profusion of flowers, and foliage. Red roses were massed in the parlor, yellow marigolds made a beautiful glow in the dining room, and autumn leaves with red berries were clustered in the other rooms.

Congregational Ladies.

Christmas sale plans were the theme of interest at the meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of the Congregational church held Thursday afternoon with Mrs. E. H. Edson at her home on University avenue. The ladies have arranged to hold a sale of cooked food and Christmas novelties on December 5, at the store of the O. W. Perry Coal company on Higgins avenue. From now until that date the energies of the society will be directed to the end of making the sale worth while.

Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Members of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority with a number of guests, making a company of 70 ladies and gentlemen, motored to the Bitter Root Inn yesterday for supper and an informal evening of music and dancing. President and Mrs. E. B. Craighead, Professor and Mrs. Scheuch, Attorney and Mrs. E. C. Mulroney and Mrs. Boehme are notable among the guests.

As You Like It Club.

Mrs. Galloway will be hostess for the As You Like It club Tuesday afternoon at her home, 823 Oak street.

At Sigma Chi House.

Nine members of Sigma Chi entertained at dinner last evening at the fraternity house, with a theater party later in the evening. The guests were Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Scott, Messes McCull, Buss, Willoughby, Kettiewell, Tabor, McCarthy, Webber and Berg. The hosts were Messes. Craighead, Owsley, Busha, Kelly, Jones, Herbert Molechior, Claude Molechior and Crawford.

Altar Society.

The Altar society of the church of St. Francis Xavier will hold a sale of fancy and useful articles Thursday afternoon and evening, October 29, in the hall of the church. The ladies will be pleased to welcome all friends who may find it convenient to be present.

Graduate Nurses.

The Missoula County Association of Graduate Nurses will hold a bazaar of Christmas novelties on December 10. The place of the sale will be announced later.

Women's Club.

A thoroughly good program was enjoyed by the Missoula Woman's club yesterday afternoon. It was city federation day with all the associated women's clubs of the city in attendance. In the business session plans were made for a public reception to be given at a later date in compliment to the artist, Edward S. Paxson. A reception committee was appointed including Mesdames George Briggs, F. S. Lusk, E. L. Donner, Tylar B. Thompson and Miss Eloise Knowles. The talk of the afternoon was given
